The last song out—The mosquito's.

Hon. Marsh Arnold was the appropriate choice of the State convention for Presidential Elector for the Fourth District.

Delegates attending the Immigration Convention at Poplar Bluff on the 23d inst., will be charged only half-fare on the I. M. R. R.

The vote of the Northern States in 1876 was within three per cent. of being Democratic. What an awful National Peril—that is to say, on what a slippery edge do the 100,000 "loil" office-holders have their footing!

A few weeks since Bro. Rousin sold out his interest in the Reveille to H. W. Farris, and last week Mr. Farris removed the concern, "lock, stock and barrel," to Fredericktown, with the evident intention of Tanquerizing Bro. Collier. The new-comer has a tough job on his hands.

California has become one of the most doubtful States to the Republicans, and there is a good deal of alarm lest it is already hopelessly lost—Blaine is the only one of the Republican heavy guns that is at all serviceable for California, and the committee wanted to send him there, but Blaine's own State has become more doubtful than even California, and his services are imperatively demanded there.

There is very great enthusiasm for Hancock, and if Thurman be sent there to make a speaking tour, such is his popularity, owing to his record on the Chinese question, the Democratic majority will be materially increased. The Workingmen some time since declared in favor of Hancock.

Ex-Gov. McEary, of Louisiana, who has been visiting in the Northern States since attending the Cincinnati convention, returned to his home in New Orleans last week. When asked, in an interview with a Democrat reporter, how the feeling in the North was on the Presidential subject, the Governor replied: "Everying pointed North and West to the election of Hancock, but it will be no walk over and hard work must be done, as the Republicans are making a desperate fight. I have talked with Independent Republicans and, while believing in Republicanism, they freely say the election of Hancock would settle all sectional differences. Some very intelligent men, however, believe in the bugbear that if the Democracy gets into power, Southern slaveholders will be demanding the value of their freedmen. This is actually believed by many, and therefore the necessity for Southern speakers in the North and West."

The Whisky Ring.

General John McDonald has been in the city of St. Louis for some time past superintending the publication of his book on the Whisky Ring. It will make a volume of 350 pages, and will contain confidential letters and telegrams from Grant, Babcock and others. An idea of the startling character of the contents may be obtained from title page, which is here given:

Secrets of the Great Whisky Ring, containing A Complete Exposure of the Illicit Whisky Frauds Culminating in 1875, and the Connection of Grant, Babcock and Other Administration officers Established by Positive and Unequivocal Documentary Proofs, Comprising Confidential Letters and Telegrams Emanating from the White House, Directing the Management of the Ring to which is added

The Missing Links in the Chain of Evidence of James A. Garfield's Implication with the District of Columbia and De Golyer Bribery. By General John McDonald.

Their Only Reliance.

[St. Louis Times] The reliance of the Republican party in the present campaign is upon the alarm they hope to excite in the North at the thought of Southern supremacy in national affairs. It is true the facts are not favorable to this sort of campaign. But the necessity for it is so great as to outweigh all hesitation. The Southern States being in an ever-decreasing minority in both Houses of Congress, the hypothesis of danger from Southern rule rests on the assumption of absolute dishonesty and cowardice of the representatives of the North, Democrats and Republicans.

The people of the North are asked to believe that Rebel soldiers will be pensioned, the former slaves of the South paid for out of the national Treasury, the debt of the Confederate States assumed by the United States, and that the national debt will be repudiated by a House of Representatives composed of 233 members, of whom 106 are from the South and 127 from the Northern States, and a Senate composed of seventy-six members, of whom thirty-two are from the South. This if to be done, too, with a Federal General in the executive chair, holding the powers of veto, making a two-thirds vote necessary at every step, even if the Constitution of the United States is supposed to offer no effectual obstacle to the anarchical carnival of the Brigadiers.

This is taxing credulity beyond what even political demagogues are ordinarily willing to attempt.

But it is a fiction that the weight of the Democratic party is in the South. The Democratic vote in the South in 1876 was 1,713,570, while in the North—omitting Colorado, which elected by its Legislature—the Democratic vote was 2,670,595.

The figures in truth show that of the white men of the North the Republican party has a majority of little over 3 per cent. The following table shows the vote cast for Mr. Hayes and Governor Tilden, and also the negro population in the Northern States. The negro population is given to indicate the small majority of the Republican party even in the North, reckoning on a white basis. The negro population here given shows that 70,000 of the votes received by Mr. Hayes were cast by the negroes of the States enumerated:

Table with 4 columns: State, Hayes, Tilden, Negro Populn. Rows include California, Colorado, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Wisconsin, and Total.

The attempt to alarm a North, itself within 3 per cent. of being Democratic, upon grounds such as we have pointed out and discussed, must make the Republican campaign difficult and discouraging at every stage of the contest. It is repugnant to common sense, an offense to the understanding of all men capable of self-government.

Duelling in Butler County.

"On Saturday evening last," says the Poplar Bluff Southeast Missourian of the 29th ult., "a quarrel arose between two citizens of Ash Hill, which for a time appeared likely to terminate in bloodshed. James Stewart and Garret Baggott are two farmers, living near Ash Hill, whose sons have made things lively at that place for some time past by numerous fights and knock-downs which each time drew 'claret.' Stewart came to the Hill on Saturday, and having indulged pretty freely, sought Baggott and tried to raise a row. Stewart abused Baggott and after taking the abuse for some time, Baggott agreed to meet Stewart at eight o'clock the next morning at the farm of Wm. Bates to fight it out on that line if it took all summer. To this Stewart consented and chose for his second Ben F. Aaron, while Baggott chose Horace Bates. Stewart was allowed the choice of weapons and distance, and chose pistols at thirty yards.

"On the next morning, which was Sunday, a large crowd of citizens left Ash Hill, headed by Ben F. Aaron and J. P. Roberts, for the battlefield. Arriving there, they found Baggott, who was stripped, going through a sponging, administered at the hands of his friend, Horace Bates. The friends of the principles, fearing the fight would be cut off too soon, succeeded in doing away with pistols, and it was decided to go at it in regular pugilistic fashion. After getting the gallant Baggott in fighting trim, the eager crowd sat down to await the arrival of the more gallant Stewart, but no Stewart came, and a messenger was dispatched to his house to inform him that Baggott was waiting to devour him. It is evident that Stewart changed his mind, and concluded not to be devoured, as he did not make his appearance, and after throwing up the sponge, the fight was declared to be in favor of Baggott, for whom three cheers was given and the crowd dispersed.

"We have always upheld Ash Hill, and boasted of its record and pugilistic statesmen, but we are forced to admit that this is too much for us. When it comes to the allowing of such things to be carried on in the midst of civilization in the affair should be ashamed of themselves for allowing the quarrel of two little boys to create bad blood between them. And we trust that the authorities will see that Butler county does not have a repetition of such disgraceful proceedings."

For Hancock.

Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, has joined the Hancock crowd and is said to be doing his best for the gallant soldier.

Judge Long, of St. Louis, one of the most intimate of Gen. Grant's political and personal friends in this State, has come out in favor of Gen. Hancock.

Mr. W. A. Guthrie, a prominent lawyer of Fayetteville, and one of the most prominent young Republicans of North Carolina, is also out for Hancock.

Mr. George Wilkes, the former editor of the New York Spirit of the Times, is one of the last defections from the Republican and accessions to the Democratic cause.

General C. S. Hamilton, late United States Marshal for Wisconsin, has written a letter predicting the election of Hancock, and announcing his purpose to support him.

Col. James E. Marsh, of Kansas City, Mo., formerly a prominent Republican, writes that he will take the stump in Iowa for Hancock. He is an able lawyer and fine speaker.

David W. Magaw, who was Colonel of the One Hundred and Sixteenth Pennsylvania volunteers in the war of the rebellion, and who has been a life-long Republican, says he intends to support Gen. Hancock.

Col. Thomas Scott, of Pennsylvania, heretofore a staunch Republican, has now come out for Hancock and English, and will have to back him all the power, wealth and influence of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad.

Congressional Convention—Official Call.

A Democratic Congressional convention for the 4th district is hereby called to convene in the court house at Poplar Bluff, Butler county, on Wednesday, August 25th, 1880, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Representative in Congress for the 4th Congressional district, and electing a Congressional Central Committee to serve for two years succeeding said convention, or until their successors are elected. The basis of representation shall be one vote for each one hundred votes cast for Samuel J. Tilden in 1876, or fraction thereof over fifty. By order of the Committee.

W. A. FLETCHER, CHAIRMAN. Secretary.

What an Accident Did.

It has discovered an absolute cure for all diseases of the Kidneys, which can now be found in DAY'S KIDNEY PAD. Pain in the side, back and loins, high colored urine, with debility and emaciation, are symptoms of Kidney complaint. Now is the time to prevent suffering, and save money, by applying a DAY'S KIDNEY PAD.

ORDINANCE.

AN ORDINANCE TO PREVENT THE SLAUGHTERING OF ANIMALS WITHIN THE LIMITS OF THE TOWN OF PILOT Knob, Mo.

Be it ordained by the Board of Trustees of the Town of Pilot Knob, Mo.: That the killing or using of any animal, to wit, pig, sheep, house, or place, within the limits of said town, for the use and purpose of killing or slaughtering any cattle, horse, sheep, or goat, or other animal of such animals, is hereby declared a nuisance.

Second. No person or persons shall hereafter be permitted or allowed to use any ground, lot, pen, shed, or house, belonging to him, or them, within the limits of the Town of Pilot Knob, for the purpose of slaughtering or killing any cattle, horse, sheep, or goat, or other animal, or persons, or to allow any person or persons to occupy any ground, lot, pen, shed, or house, belonging to him, or them, within the limits of said town, or said premises, and every such person or persons violating this ordinance shall be liable to a fine of not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to prevent any citizen of said Town of Pilot Knob, from slaughtering any cattle, horse, sheep, or goat on his own premises for food for his own family use.

This ordinance to take effect and be in force from and after the second day of August, 1880. Adopted August 2d, 1880. Attest: CHAS. VON RODDEN, Chairman. P. H. JAQUITH, Clerk.

A discovery which cures by the natural process, ABSORPTION, all diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Urinary Organs and Nervous System, when nothing else can. It is comfortable to the patient, positive in its effects, and the first cure for those painful and much dreaded affections.

Diabetes and Bright's Disease, while its cures of Gravel, Dropsy, Catarrh of the Bladder, Brickshot, Deposit, Painful Urinating, High-colored Urine, Nervous Weakness and Pain in the Back seem more like miracles than cases of natural healing.

DELICATE FEMALES or victims of wasted or prostrated energy, caused by irregular habits, the abuse of nature and mental or physical over-exertion, find their greatest relief in the use of DAY'S KIDNEY PAD, which strengthens and invigorates the invalid and restores the vigor of health.

PAIN IN THE BACK. We say positively, and without fear of contradiction, that DAY'S KIDNEY PAD is the only certain and permanent cure for every form of this prevalent and distressing complaint.

YOUNG MEN suffering from nervous and physical debility, loss of memory, and inability to study, or to perform any of their duties, are cured by the use of DAY'S KIDNEY PAD, which restores and manhood regained.

Avoid all kidney medicines which are taken into the system by way of the stomach; it is an old treatment well tried and proven inefficient, though sometimes effecting apparent cures of one complaint they sow the seeds of more troublesome and permanent disorders. The price of our PAD brings it within the reach of all, and it will annually save many times its cost in doctors' bills, medicines and plasters, which at best give but temporary relief. It can be used without fear or harm, and with certainty of a permanent cure. For sale by druggists generally, or sent by mail (free of postage) on receipt of the price. Urinary Pad, $2.00. Child's Pad or incontinence of urine in children, $1.00. Special extra size, $3.00. Our book, "How a Life was Saved," giving a history of this new discovery and a large record of most remarkable cures, sent free. Write for it. Address, DAY KIDNEY PAD CO., Toledo, O.

CAUTION. Owing to the many worthless imitations of our DAY'S KIDNEY PAD, we deem it our duty to call attention to the fact that the name of the medicine is DAY'S KIDNEY PAD, and take no other.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

In the Circuit Court of Iron county, Missouri, in vacation—June 21st, 1880: The State of Missouri, at the relation and to the use of James Buford, collector of the revenue of Iron county, Missouri, against Edward Woodson, John McCann, and all unknown interested parties.

[Action to Enforce Payment of Taxes.]

Now at this day comes the plaintiff, James Buford, collector of the revenue of Iron county, Missouri, and files his petition and affidavit, setting forth, among other things, that the defendants are non-residents of the State of Missouri, and cannot be summoned in this action by the ordinary process of law; it is, therefore, ordered by the clerk of the circuit court of Iron county, Mo., in vacation, that publication be made, notifying said defendants aforesaid, that an action has been commenced against them in the circuit court of said county, the object and general nature of which is to enforce the lien of the State of Missouri for back taxes for the years 1874 to 1878, inclusive, on the following real estate, situated in Iron county, Mo., belonging to said defendants, to wit:

The west half of lot 1 of the northeast quarter; northwest quarter of the southwest quarter, lot 1 of the northwest quarter of section 4, in township 20, range 4 east;

(An itemized statement in the nature of a tax bill, showing the amount of taxes now due on said real estate, for the years aforesaid, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $134 is filed with said petition, as provided by law.)

And unless they be and appear at the next term of said court, to be holden for the county of Iron, and State of Missouri, at the courthouse in said county, on the fourth Monday in October next, 1880, and on or before the sixth day thereof, (if the term shall so long continue; and, if not, then before the end of the term), and plead, answer or demur to said plaintiff's petition, and said real estate, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment, interest and costs, be sold under a special fieri facias to be issued thereon.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be published according to law in the IRON COUNTY REGISTER, a weekly newspaper published in said county of Iron, and State of Missouri.

A true copy: Attest, with seal, this 21st day of June, 1880. [SEAL.] JOS. HUFF, Clerk Iron county circuit court.

School Fund Mortgage Sale.

WHEREAS, A. N. Hunt and Lizzie A. Hunt his wife, by a certain School Fund Mortgage deed, dated the 10th day of April, 1875, executed by said mortgagee, was duly recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds for Iron county, Missouri, on the 10th day of April, 1875, in Book "R," pages 122 and 123, conveyed to Iron county, Missouri, for the use and benefit of the Capital School Fund of said county (herein more particularly described and set forth), the following described real estate, lying and being in said Iron county, State of Missouri, described as follows, to wit:

The south half of lot one of the southwest quarter of section six, in township thirty-two, north, range four east; the east half of lots one and two of the northwest quarter of section seven, township thirty-three, north, range four east; the north half of the northwest quarter of section sixteen, in township thirty-three, north, range three east;

Which conveyance was made to secure the payment of five hundred dollars belonging to the Capital School Fund of said county, as follows, to wit:

To the Capital School Fund of township 33, range 3 east, $500.00, for which said amount the said A. N. Hunt, as principal, with Isaac G. Whitely and Eli D. Ake as securities, executed the above set forth mortgage, bearing ten per cent. interest per annum from date, bearing date the 10th day of April, 1875, and payable on the 10th day of April, 1876—which said bond has become due and remains unpaid.

And, whereas, among other things, it is provided in said deed of mortgage that, in default should be made in the payment of the principal or interest, or any part thereof, at the time when the same should severally become due and payable, according to the tenor and effect of said bond, that the then acting sheriff of Iron county, Missouri, should have power, without suit on said deed of mortgage, to proceed and sell said property conveyed and mortgaged in said deed;

And, whereas, default has been made in the payment of said bond in said deed of mortgage described, by both principal and sureties;

Now, therefore, in accordance with the provisions of said deed of mortgage and in obedience to an order of the Honorable County Court of Iron county, Missouri, made at its June term, 1880, I, James Buford, sheriff of said county of Iron, State of Missouri, will, on Saturday, August 7th, 1880, at the east front door of the courthouse in the city of Ironton, and county aforesaid, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 5 o'clock P. M. of that day, sell public vendue, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, the above described real estate, to satisfy said bond and mortgage and the cost hereon.
