ST. LOUIS, IRON MT. & SOUTHERN RY. TIME-TABLE FOR IRONTON, MO.

Closing of Mails. St. Louis through Mail—daily, except Sunday, 10 A. M.

The railroad company is building a new depot at Ozark. Who was it that bought the box of cigars at the Pound Party?

A new section house has been built by the railroad company at Vulcan Switch, near Des Arc.

S. C. Wright says he has the prettiest baby in the county at his house, and invites all who don't believe it, to call and see for themselves.

The Town Hall, or Academy of Music, goes bravely on, and we are requested to report unexpected progress by the committee on donations.

Let us hope that if the springtime has not come, Gentle Annie, at least Winter's tough and rich old backbone has had the starch taken out of it.

Since the "Pound Party," J. N. Bishop, Esq., begs leave to inform the public that, in connection with his other business, he has crackers for sale.

Don't forget the B. I. Masque at the Ironton House next Monday night, those of you who have received invitations, for it will be a pleasant, enjoyable affair.

Probate court is in session this week, and Judge Edwards is dispatching the business of his office as rapidly as the appearance of administrators, guardians, and so forth, will permit.

Rev. J. J. Watts, pastor in charge of the First Hill Church, is holding a successful protracted meeting, or revival. It has been going on for about two weeks, and will probably continue as much longer.

Vaccination seems to be the order of the day. Quite a number of families have been vaccinated by Dr. Gooding the past few days.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.—Jacob Canmann, O. F. Little, R. S. Krorone, St. Louis; Joseph Weber, Farmington; E. Miller, St. Louis; J. B. Henderson, Chicago, Mo.; D. Hockett, Lewisburg, Va.; H. W. Keller and R. W. Carter, St. Louis.

The small-pox scare has ceased at Ironton, and the doctors are vaccinating people by the score. Though we trust to see never a case of the dread disease in our happy Valley, it is well enough to be on the safe side and cry, We must vaccinate, we must vaccinate!

The new tramway on Shepherd Mountain will be completed at an early date. It is built on the same principle, and will be operated in the same way, as that used on Pilot Knob.

The sidewalk between the livery stable and the depot needs repairing in several places. It ought to be kept up in extra repair, since it is often used at night by persons not acquainted with its bad places—we mean, by those coming hotelward from the night trains.

As Mr. Richeson was cutting wood about three miles east of town last Thursday, his ax glanced from the wood and struck his foot, inflicting a painful wound. He was alone in the wood apparently, for he shouted for help but received no answer. No one coming to his aid, Mr. Richeson started for his home in this city. He had to crawl the entire distance on his hands and knees.

DEAD.—At Pilot Knob, Mo., Jan. 30th, 1880, JOHN M. TADON, aged 59 years, 10 months and 11 days. He leaves nine children to mourn his loss, six daughters and three sons. A short time since their home was saddened by the death of their mother and a sister. To the bereaved ones we extend our heartfelt sympathies.

The "Pound Party," given last Monday night by several ladies in behalf of the M. E. Church, was a decided success. By eight o'clock the I. O. G. T. Hall was filled with quite a crowd of both young and old. First, we were entertained with a recitation by Miss Lou Gideon, "Carver Must Not Ring To-Night," which was very creditable.

DEAD.—At her residence, 817 Catalpa street, St. Louis, on Sunday, February 6, 1881, JESSIE, beloved wife of Louis Landau, aged about 25 years.

Mrs. Landau was the eldest daughter of Mr. Thomas Lopez, of Ironton. In April last she became the wife of Louis Landau, Esq., and since that time resided in St. Louis. A bride of less than a year! Stricken down in youth, and taken from the arms of a worshipping husband, yet her lot is happier than his, for the grave is often more merciful than life. To the sorrowing family we tender our heartfelt sympathies, and trust the knowledge that she is beyond all sorrow and misery, may in good time serve to somewhat heal the cruel wound.

ARCADIA, Mo., Feb. 6, 1881.

Mrs. Harvill has sold her stock of merchandise to Mr. Brewington, of Brunt, Wayne county.

As you will see, Arcadia is growing, and we propose to follow in the wake of Ironton in the way of improvements.

From Des Arc. Des Arc, Mo., Feb. 6, 1881.

Ed. Register.—As it is raining to-day and I have a few spare moments, I will give you all the news I have.

Des Arc is running away with herself, as far as business is concerned.

Our new firm, Wooley & Wardron, have nearly completed their store-house. Several carpenters from Arcadia and Ironton are working at it. They will put in a large stock of goods; and they are already receiving a good many railroad ties.

There is no use now in tramps saying they cannot get work, and there ought to be a dead line for every twenty miles and every trap found crossing it ought to be shot.

Thos. F. Fitz had a very bad break-down on Saturday night, the 25th ult., which will cost him $200 to repair, to say nothing of standing still ten days with expenses of $60 to $75 per day.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of J. W. Wadlow, who died at Annapolis last Saturday. He was a good man, consistent Christian, and was loved and respected by all who knew him.

Mr. Mark A. Doty, of Ironton, is visiting friends at Vulcan.

Mr. Jos. G. Clarkson, T. P. Fitz and S. J. Jordan visited St. Louis last week. "Spot" had his whiskers and ears blacked while in the city.

I understand that Barney Brewington has declined going to Arcadia merchandising. Glad to hear it. Don't you go, Barney; John Whitworth will get away with you, for you know he served under Uncle Isaac.

J. T. Omahundro left for St. Louis to-day on No. 4.

Judge John Raney is visiting his brother in this place.

Judge Kemper held court yesterday. The railroad company lost the case that was being tried, by default. As it does not cost them much to law, they will no doubt take an appeal.

What has become of "Mike Dodson," the Arcadia drummer? UNCLE ISAAC.

A Happy Man at Lockport, N. Y. E. C. Williamson, of this place, is rejoicing over the recovery of his wife, who has been an invalid for the past four years.

Proposals will be received for furnishing 20 cubic yards of gravel, to be used in repairing streets within the city limits.
