MANY persons take medicine for their ailments and as soon as they feel better they disregard all directions and stop taking it. They try it again and again, and finally throw it aside as worthless, when, had it been persevered in from the start, permanent cure would have been effected. Now try FRICKLEY'S ACH BILIOUS for all complaints of the Stomach and Bowels, remember, give the medicine a chance and don't neglect one or two doses to cure you.

ARCADIA IN SMILES.

Closing Hours of the Ursuline Academy-Gold and Silver Medals and Beautiful Premiums Gladden the Hearts of Deserving Pupils.

The Fourth Annual Commencement of the Arcadia College took place on Wednesday, June 23d. For several weeks the public have been looking forward to the closing exercises, which in the past years contributed so much to the enjoyment of those who were fortunate enough to have been in attendance. The young ladies themselves have been more than usually attentive to their studies during the time, and the frequency and regularity of the call bells gave notice of the frequency and regularity of the hours for practice.

The long-wished-for day came at length, the atmosphere being clear, cool, and bracing. The Valley put on its holiday attire, and carriages, hacks, buggies, etc., sped along the broad avenue leading to the Convent gate. Every train from north and south brought its load of passengers to attend the long-expected exhibition. Happy fathers and mothers, joyful sisters and brothers, hurried to meet their darlings in the Convent home.

The beautiful gardens, well-kept and trimmed by the girls, were filled with well-selected flowers arranged in the most artistic manner. The fountain, directly in front of the Convent, played sportingly in the sunshine, its crystal spray bedewing the surrounding flowers. The grounds about showed care in the useful as well as the ornamental. The kitchen gardens are simply a picture of perfection, all the various vegetables growing in harmonious profusion; and the orchards—three in number—present awful temptations to the happy boarders, in the shape of rosy apples, etc.

The parlors on this occasion looked like a miniature exposition, filled as they were with the work of the pupils. Crochet, lace, wax-work, plain and ornamental sewing, French embroidery, hair-work, paintings in oil, water and crayon, etc., showed how the spare time of the young ladies had been occupied during the year. The library is well stocked with classical volumes, the philosophical instruments, globes, terrestrial and celestial, telephones, telegraphic and electrical machines—all and everything required for a thorough education are here found.

The large hall was beautifully decorated; the stage, with its appointments and scenery, being unsurpassed. Directly in front of the stage was a long table which was filled with an array of gold and silver medals and costly premiums. These medals the hearts of the fair pupils throb in joyful expectancy as they beheld them for the first time. A large and appreciative audience filled the exhibition hall. Among the clergy were noticed the Very Rev. H. Muhlestein, Vicar-General of St. Louis, who presided; also, Rev. J. J. Hennessey and Rev. W. Rensman, from St. Louis; R. v. O. J. McDonald, of St. Louis; Rev. F. Kinschoten, of St. Louis; Rev. F. Bettel, of St. Louis; Rev. L. Cooney, of Iron Mountain; Rev. B. J. Taurath, of Fredericktown; Rev. J. Trum, of Osage; and the respected pastor, Rev. L. C. Werner, of Arcadia.

The Mother Superior of the Order of Ursulines, with two assistants, from St. Louis, was also present. In the audience were noticed Mr. D. O. Buzg, of Patterson, whose talented daughter Lelia received graduating honors; the first conferred since the founding of the institution; Dr. Evans and family, from Point Pleasant; Dr. Parkhurst, of Farmington; Dr. Goulding and Capt. Zwart and family, of Ironton; Miss Nina McNair and Mr. Halloway, of St. Louis; Mr. E. J. O'Connor, of Milwaukee, Wis.; Mr. John McElroy, of Cotton Plant; Dr. A. T. Shepherd, of Blount; Mr. P. McDonald, of St. Louis, and Mr. W. J. Hinchey, of Arcadia.

The programme of exercises, which occupied about three hours, and was very interesting and thoroughly appreciated, was as follows:

PROGRAMME. Entrance March. Prologue-Composed by Miss Buzg. Miss Campbell. Twilight Musings-Three Pianos. Misses Rodgers, Ward and Buzg. My New Doll-Poem. Miss E. Harmon. Coral Schottische. Misses Evans and Barham. Shells of the Ocean. Misses Magann and Campbell.

Distribution of crowns and badges for exemplary conduct. Graduation honors, and distribution of premiums and gold medals.

Little Girls' Farewell Song.

The drama, "Filioia," was well rendered, and was full of excellent advice. The essay of Miss Buzg on the "Impassioned" exhibited a knowledge of intellectual philosophy that would do credit to an older head. The musical cantata, "Ruth, the Moabitess," took the prize. The magnificent costumes, the tuneful solos and choruses so correctly rendered, the beautiful scenery—all absorbed the beautiful attention of the delighted listeners. Every one of the fair actors played their parts to perfection. Miss Lelia Rodgers, of Texas-arkana, received frequent applause for the beautiful selections on the piano. The trio, "L'Esperance," by Misses Schilling, Magann and Hinchey, was a gem. The valedictory by Miss Buzg was delivered with force and much feeling. Her thoughts were expressed in poetry. Her farewell words were received with much sympathy by her classmates whom she was leaving. The interesting part of the program, viewed from the student's standpoint, began by the distribution of crowns and badges of honor and exemplary conduct. The gold medal for virtue and learning was awarded to Miss Lelia Buzg, of Patterson. This medal was presented by Rev. J. J. Hennessey, of St. Louis, the design and engraving being the work of the Jesuit Jewelry Company, of St. Louis. The gold medal for good conduct, the gift of the Very Rev. H. Muhlestein, of St. Louis, was awarded by vote of her schoolmates to Miss Mary Magann, of St. Louis. The gold medal for Christian doctrine, the gift of Rev. W. J. J. Rensman, of St. Louis, was awarded to Miss Clara Parkhurst, of Farmington. Gold medal for lady-like deportment, the gift of Rev. E. J. Dempsey, of Mexico, Mo., was awarded to Miss Katie Quigley, of Iron Mountain. Gold medal for sewing, the gift of Rev. F. Bettels, of Laffin, was awarded to Miss Mary Kearns, of Blount. Silver medal for floriculture, the gift of Rev. L. C. Werner, was drawn by Miss Nellie Brierion, of Iroquois. A complete French china tea set, for domestic economy and proficiency in the culinary department, the gift of Rev. J. J. Hennessey, was awarded to Miss Sophie Bettels. [A full list of the prizes awarded is given below.]

After a short address by Father Hennessey, the exercises for 1881 closed.

It is with pride we point to the Arcadia Academy, which is justly considered one of the best female educational establishments in the West. The pious ladies in charge, who have sacrificed happy homes, surrounded by every comfort, to consecrate themselves to the noble work of teaching, have endeavored themselves to everyone. The success which has so edily marked their institution will continue. Each succeeding year has fully demonstrated the unquestioned ability of the Sisters in each and every department of learning. Parents desirous of a conscientious training for their daughters, can rest assured of receiving such at the Ursuline Academy of Arcadia.

To Sufferers of that Terrible Disease Called RUPTURE.

The following are a few of the testimonials received by W. F. Wiesner, on account of having been relieved from the disease "Rupture":

Mr. Wiesner: Dear Sir: Allow me to express my heartfelt thanks for the Truss you applied nine (9) months ago. I have never slept better for ten years, nor been able to do so much work. Yours, truly, JOHN S.

Bondie York Black River, April 5, '81.

Mr. Wiesner: I can not thank you enough for the relief you gave me with one of your Trusses for 6 months. Yours, JAMES H.

Iron Mountain, May 1st, 1881.

Dear Sir: The reversible Truss I bought of you last September has nearly cured me. Hope I will be entirely cured by next fall. I never can be thankful enough for allowing you to put one on me. Respectfully, N. F. J.

These are only a few of the testimonials I am receiving continually by mail. Information cheerfully given at any time.

To persons suffering with rupture I will say I have had two years' experience with a Truss manufactured by B. Soreby, of Philadelphia, and am prepared to fit them in all cases. Prices ranging from $2.50 and upwards.

Respectfully, W. F. WIESNER, Ironton Drug Store, May 15th, 1881.

FINE FARM FOR SALE!
