More Hopeful.

Saturday the President took a favorable turn, and he has been slowly improving since that time. Though not yet out of danger, his chances of recovering are better than at any time since his first relapse.

"Tom Brown."

We are pleased to see that Thomas C. Brown, Esq., formerly Prosecuting Attorney for Carter County, Mo., has lately been nominated for Judge of the Seventh Judicial District of Colorado, in the southwest part of the State. The Gunnison News-Democrat says he will be elected.

His many friends in Missouri will be glad to hear of his elevation to the Bench. We know the stuff "Tom Brown" is made of—his unquestioned integrity; his great firmness and decision of character.

When a nest of Ku-Klux undertook to control matters a few years ago in his county, "Tom Brown" stood up like a wall of adamant, exposed himself to great personal danger, and brought down the majesty of the law upon the heads of the rascals, until the last Ku-Klux had gone to jail or fled the country.

If "Tom Brown" exhibits on the Bench—and he will—the strong traits shown while in other official positions, our Colorado neighbors will never be sorry for elevating him to the Bench.

It's About Time.

When Roscoe Conkling retired from the Senate, and it was supposed he was to be without power, and the President had been assassinated, many of the most unscrupulous Radical papers opened the vials of their wrath and in the most heartless and unscrupulous manner abused Conkling, and actually accused him of being guilty of the probable death of the President. It was not then expected that he would very soon be in power again. It was therefore quite in order to kick the fallen Senator. Since it seems probable that Arthur will become President, and therefore Conkling become Prime Minister and the power behind the throne, it is really amusing to see the change in the tone of those unscrupulous sheets. They are now "hedging," and edging around, and begin to think that, after all, Arthur is a man of some intelligence, and possibly a patriot; and that even Conkling is not so bad a fellow as "some of the more unscrupulous" had made him out to be.

The doctors at the White House have been complaining that Blaine has been sending dismal dispatches to Minister Lowell at London, while they were issuing rose-colored bulletins as to the President's condition. Now, as Blaine is quite sure to get out of power so soon as Arthur gets comfortably seated in the Presidential chair, is it not about time for the abuse of Blaine to begin? Is it not clear to those gentlemen of the quill and fawners at the shrine of power, to accuse Blaine of killing the President by his gloomy, but truthful, dispatches across the ocean? Of course the President would have been well long ago, if Blaine had lied as manfully as the doctors seem to have been doing. Now watch for a general bouncing of Jim Blaine, just so soon as he steps down from power.

Is It Possible

That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., makes so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do! It must be for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them. We must believe and doubt no longer. See other column.

Thomas B. Grigsby vs. Emma Grigsby.
[Action for Divorce.]
Now at this day comes the plaintiff, Thomas B. Grigsby, collector of the revenue of Iron county, Missouri, and files his petition and affidavit, setting forth among other things that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Missouri and cannot be summoned in this action by the ordinary process of law. It is, therefore, ordered by the clerk of the circuit court of Iron county, Missouri, in vacation, that publication be made, notifying said defendant that an action has been commenced against her in the circuit court of said county, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a divorce from the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between said parties, on the grounds of abandonment.

And that unless she be and appear at the next term of said court, to be held for the county of Iron, and State of Missouri, at the courthouse in said county, on the fourth Monday in October next, 1881, and on or before the sixth day thereof, (if the term shall so long continue; and, if not, then before the end of the term,) and plead, answer or demur to said plaintiff's petition, the same will be taken as confessed, judgment rendered in accordance with the prayer of said petition, and said real estate, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment, interest and costs, be sold under a special fieri facias to be issued thereon.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be published according to law in the Iron County Register, a weekly newspaper published in said county of Iron, and State of Missouri.
