POLITICAL.

The Ohio Democratic State Convention unanimously renominated Governor Hoadly together with John G. Warwick for Lieutenant-Governor. The Rest of the Ticket and Synopsis of the Platform.

COLUMBUS, O., August 20.—The Grand Opera House was packed this morning when the Democratic State Convention assembled. T. J. Coogan, Chairman of the State Central Committee, called the convention to order at ten o'clock. The report of the committee on permanent organization was presented, and adopted unanimously. Permanent Chairman John F. Follett was then conducted to the chair, amid tumultuous applause.

Mr. Follett, in taking the chair congratulated the convention upon its appearance, and referred with the Democracy of Ohio that he was able to meet in convention under a National Democratic administration, a pure and grand administration.

The report of the Committee on Credentials being adopted, it was voted to proceed with nominations. Judge Gettes, in a few well chosen words, placed in nomination the name of George Hoadly, which was received with long continued cheers and shouts. At the conclusion of his remarks, Geddes moved the suspension of the rules and the nomination of Hoadly for Governor by acclamation.

This motion was received with hearty cheers, and was seconded in a neat speech by General Mike Ryan, of Cincinnati.

The Chairman then put the question, and it was unanimously adopted.
