LOCAL BREVITIES.

Plity the poor candidate! Probate Docket for the August Term appears in this issue. J. W. Ezura is now building an addition to Kindell's shoe shop.

The song of the katy-did is abroad in the land. "Six weeks to frost."

Rev. Geo. Steel preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.

A new barn graces the premises of Thos. Beard. J. W. Exum performed the work.

It has been suggested that a street sprinkler would not be had a institution in Iron county these dry, dusty days.

Remember we have a full line of Justice Blanks, and blank deeds of all kinds on hand and for sale at this office.

Most of the contractors on the bill were at leisure Tuesday. Caused by one of the air compressors being out of order.

Rev. Ben. Deering will hold a camp-meeting at Goulding's Park sometime in September. Some 4,000 visitors are expected.

The Republicans will hold a county convention on the 14th of August, and then determine as to the nomination of a county ticket.

A band of surnaders discoursed some sweet music and rendered some excellent songs on Saturday night, or rather Sunday morning last.

The little folks had a picnic at Goulding's Park on Thursday of last week. Everything passed off nicely and the little ones enjoyed themselves hugely.

Almost every available boarding house and cottage in the Valley is filled with people from the city, who desire to pass this warm weather as comfortably as possible.

The road between this place and Graniteville was never in better condition than now, and roadways Begley deserves the thanks of the traveling public for the same.

Only seventeen more days and this horrible suspense will be over and the defeated candidates will unanimously agree that we are "a great people but not an intelligent people."

WANTED—A boarding place in a quiet family with no little children, for an elderly lady for two or three months. Apply to Mrs. E. R. Reynolds, at the C. R. Peck place, Iron county, Mo.

Will the party who visits our wood-house in the darkness of night be kind enough, in the future, to fasten the gate securely after him and thereby save us the disagreeable task of parting a cow and calf?

The Town authorities of Pilot Knob offer a reward of $50 for information that will lead to the conviction of the party who set fire to the Pilot Knob Hotel on the night of the 2d inst. See notice elsewhere.

An advertisement of the Normal School appears in this issue. The merits of this school are well known to our readers, and therefore commendation from us would be as to paint the lily or gild the refined gold.

About as fine a "group" picture as we have seen lately is one taken by Bluckman, opposite Bonanza. Six young ladies! A pretty bouquet as ever grown, all will admit. And the photo was worthy the subject.

This is the hottest and driest July—so far as we have progressed into the bowels thereof—known to the almanac. The middle of the month is at hand, and every one of its fifteen days has been as dry as a powder-horn.

The colored people of the Valley will give a grand picnic and barbecue at Russell's Grove on Wednesday, August 4th. Preparations are being made for a grand time. Posters, giving particulars, will be issued this week.

MARRIED.—At P. K., Wednesday, July 15, 1886, by Judge Hancock, Ed. Thompson to Miss Kate Welch—both parties from Boone Terre. The married couple are now spending part of their honeymoon at the New Hall House, Pilot Knob.

Mrs. Jas. Hart, living just below the Shubert, had an apoplectic stroke Monday evening, superinduced by hot weather and other causes. Yesterday morning she was still alive, but the doctor held that there was little or no hope of her recovery.

WILLIE T., son of Harry and Mrs. Holand, was buried in the Masonic cemetery on Sunday, July 11th. The little one was only three months old, and although never in very good health, his death was very unexpected. The family have the sympathies of the community in this their sad bereavement.

J. A. Markham has our thanks for two as fine heads of cabbage as the writer ever saw. They are of the frost-proof variety, over one foot in diameter, and weigh 12 1/2 and 13 pounds respectively. Mr. M. says, "if any one can beat them, I will try, and send you some larger ones soon." Who will compete?

The Ironton Choral Class will give an entertainment at the Academy of Music to-morrow (Thursday) evening, for the benefit of the M. E. Church. An excellent program has been provided, and a pleasant time is assured. Refreshments will be served on call. Admission, 15 cents; reserved seats, 25 cents, on sale at Crisp's Drug Store.

A party was given at Mr. John Clare's residence last Saturday evening, in honor of Miss Victoria Patton, of West Plains, now on a visit here. The young folks danced until eleven o'clock, when a splendid supper was served to which young and old alike did ample justice. The P. K. Cornet Band serenaded the party during the evening.

Trask's Selected Shore Mackerel comes to the front with a Souvenir for excellence in the shape of an elegant lithograph in color by a master and is a monument to the enterprise and refined taste of the Track Fish Company. It should be in the art album of every connoisseur.—St. Louis Republican.

The city council met last Monday afternoon. Among other business transacted, the street committee was instructed to examine into the probable cost and advisability of building another crossing over the railroad in the North Addition, and make their report next Monday, at which time there will be an adjourned meeting of the council.

OSCAR REEL, infant son of James and Mrs. Della Reel, died very suddenly, from inflammation on Saturday morning, from inflammation on Saturday morning, and was buried at the Masonic Cemetery, Ironton, Sunday last. The little fellow was two years old, lacking a few days, and was followed to the grave by a number of sorrowing friends and relatives.

Jas. F. Brooks with his assistants went down the railroad to Brownwood last Tuesday to make a survey of the route of the proposed branch of the Cape Girardeau Southwestern. This branch line is to run along the timber regions of Bollinger county, a distance of sixteen miles, and in all probability it will be extended to Pilot Knob.—Cape Girardeau Democrat.

From Grantville.

Give me room according to the size of my feet. The "lens" was exhausted last Fourth before the picnic broke up. Consequently the parting salutations were very dry. They resembled the crack, crack, of myriad torpedos, or legion whips, more closely than the usual delightful volubulous reverberating of the delicious exploding vacuum.

Boys, didn't we have a high old time in the blacksmith shop? Thanks for the courtesies, which I highly enjoyed.

The Schneider Granite company have a millinery branch; at least I saw the senior clerk trimming hats the other day.

Mr. Hines didn't drink until he joined the brass band, but now he "takes a horn" very often.

In the twilight's dusky gloaming, though I saw a luscious bunch of bananas half hidden from view at Mrs. Drury's fastidiously furnished refreshment stand. Anticipating a rare treat for "my girl," I approached and asked that excellent lady to serve me with a few, pointing to the supposed tropical fruit. But alas for my hopes! That bunch of bananas proved to be an humbug, saturated with ketchup.

It made the Quaker's palate feel very lonesome to pass Joe Kerchner's elegant saloon and think of the cool foaming ale therein dispensed, a draught of which would have brought tears of joy, 'e'en to the eyes of Bacchus, and super-excellent ambrosial cognac! But Joe's genial smile welcomed him as usual, and though he indulges no more, yet he would discuss one of those sublimating cigars with him.

John Fitzpatrick wishes me to inform the public that though he highly appreciates the compliment paid him by an unsought election to the K. of L., and bears the best of good will to that body, that he must, in justice to himself and to extricate him from the false position in which it places him, state that he has never authorized anyone to use his name as a candidate.

The Misses Holloran, by their united efforts, have built a neat cottage in Sleepy Hollow. Hurrah for girls! That is another evidence of what they can accomplish by energetic effort.

Dr. Sawyer led a very interesting prayer meeting last Wednesday night. We have a regularly instituted meeting here every Wednesday, to which the public are invited.

Mrs. Mason is having the graves of her cherished dead, at Middlebrook, enclosed with a elegant iron railing in black and they get "in the country" in the former instance, the wheel was all broke up, while in the latter it was the rider whose feelings were hurt. We wish the boys good luck and hope to see more of them.

Tunnel Driftings.

William Bennett, who has been blind from a cataract in one eye and a piece of steel in the other, has come back to his sight again. He is at present in the St. Luke hospital, in St. Louis. We will be only too glad to see Bill back. He is a man who is well liked among his fellow workmen.

Never mind, Pink, all those Dagoes you spent so much time on the other day at the mines have no vote here.

The 7th of September is drawing close. I think we might have a somewhat better time on that day than the old timers did 26 or 27 years ago. Try everybody try.

Mr. Masher, Special Agent for the travelers insurance company, of Hartford, is around shaking hands with the boys with as much grace as a candidate. Mr. Masher has written a good many policies here and the company is G. R. "the only fault I find is that a man must get mashed up or killed to beat the company.

The switch engine has come back to us with a new, bright coat of paint and golden letters—with the name "O. L. Garrison" upon the panels underneath the cab windows, and "St. L. O. & S. Co." on the sides of the water-tank. The engine has been for some months in the repair shops.

Two diamond drills ready to start; don't know which will get down first.

Water is getting scarce on the hill. They are pumping from the furnaces.

Perry says it was neither a breast nor a litter: he gave it two sticks and knocked the bottom out but left the collar stand.

Manager Simpson spent last Wednesday and part of Thursday inspecting the mines at this place. He says the largest shipment of ore that was ever made from this mine was made in the month of June just past.

We stated a couple of issues ago that the master machinist's name was Hughes, but we have found out since that we were a little off. His name is Joseph Hewett. Some of the old-timers probably remember Joe, as he was an engineer running to this place when this was the terminus of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern years ago.

It is rumored that they have spotted the fiend who set fire to the Pilot Knob Hotel.

Lewis McCormick, and old-timer of this place, has come back after an absence of some two years.

Mr. George Simpson, Superintendent of Grand Tower and Carbondale coal mines for the O. & S. company, visited the mines, in company with Manager Simpson and Superintendent Crane, last Wednesday.

We have a genuine gun club at the Knob, and some are fine shots; but our Jim says, give him a good smooth bore cannon, (he doesn't want any more of your rifled ones), and he will knock the socks off the whole capoulet.

Jim McDaniel has two genuine eagles, and they are very large and fine specimens of the National bird.

From Middlebrook.

Ed. Register—Robt. Burger, while intoxicated, last Tuesday evening, laid down on the track near here, and a freight train struck him, breaking his skull. He died next morning at one o'clock. Judge Dinger, of Ironton, held an inquest. The coroner's jury gave a verdict of "death by his own carelessness." It is a question with some whether it was accidental or suicide, as deceased had made remarks that day that he would put himself out of the way. He had no friends or relatives in the State.

Chas. Seitz, of the Seitz Merchandise Co., went to St. Louis Sunday, on business.

The harp band gave a picnic on Monday, the 5th, which passed off pleasantly, and was quite a success financially. They intend giving another one in the near future.

Mrs. W. A. Cottrell and Miss Katie Becking visited friends in Pevely, Mo., last week.

Mr. Chas. Pickerson, assistant agent at Ironton, spent Sunday afternoon with friends in town.

Ed. Doyle and Wm. Trauernecht went to Granite Bend to-day. They will try and sell clothing and boots and shoes. JOSEPH.

FOR SALE—A No. 1 Horse. Apply to E. C. Tual, Arcadia.

We Observe That.

The fruit-tree men are abroad in the land. The greater number of our Valley youths realize the fact that the time for buggy-riding is after twilight.

Sylvan Lake and the adjacent grounds are still the favorite resort on hot, Sunday afternoons.

Fred Kath drives a brand new surrey. The ice-man's smile is broader than it was wont to be in the earlier part of the summer.

In appearance and quality our livery rigs are improving year by year.

From Goodland.

Ed. Register—Since our last we can say nothing from the result of rain, but can say we have famishing crops for want of rain. We have had no rain since the 29th of June.

Our old friend, Mr. Cook, of Steelville, Mo., stopped in town for three hours yesterday. He reports crops in parts of Crawford, Dent, and Reynolds counties as being almost dead. He also reports one man killed in a row on the 3d of July at Silgo furnace; also, a child badly wounded.

We still see the candidates coming. The reports are still about that Crocker will get a ride to Jefferson this coming winter.

Mr. Bone is now in our midst. Look out, Pres.; it says the last impression is best.

We think it advisable for some of the candidates to sell out, for their claims are worth more now than after the 31st inst.

The farmers have done harvesting oats and are now in their hay. TOBIAS.

From Goodwater.

Ed. Register.—The fine rains that fell throughout this section within the last two weeks did much to aid the rapid growth of the corn, and the proper ripening of oats and the reviving of vegetation of all kinds.

The army of chinchbugs, which seriously damaged wheat and afterwards oats, has now taken possession of the corn-fields.

Nearly all in this locality are done harvesting their grain-crops and are busy in haying.

News is as scarce as greenbacks in this vicinity.

Last Saturday, 3d inst., Mr. Jas. Merritt returned home from California.

School in this district closed last Monday, 5th inst. Teacher: Miss Lucy Yount.

Miss Eleanor Thomas, of Washington county, is teaching in the Laramore School District.

Mr. Mrs. Jacob Malloy, of Belgrade, visited Mr. Jas. Bryan and family last week.

Since writing the first of this letter no rain has fallen on any portion of this end of the county and farmers generally fear that the drought and chinchbugs will materially injure corn-crops.

Mrs. Love is much worse.

Unexpectingly good haying weather has been the rule during the past ten days.

Mr. Jas. M. Lucas, who was severely stung by angry bees recently, has recovered from the effects of the stinging.

All the candidates who have canvassed this end of the county seem to consider their chances for election quite good. E. July 9th, 1886.

Proceedings of the Arcadia Township Republican Meeting.

IRONTON, MO., July 10, 1886.

Pursuant to the call of the Chairman of the Republican County Committee, the Republicans of Arcadia Township met at the court house, in Ironton, on above date, and the following proceedings were had:

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman of the county committee, who stated the object of the meeting to be the election of delegates to the Iron convention, which shall meet on the 14th of August, 1886, at the court house in Ironton, for the purpose of considering the nomination of a county ticket, the election of delegates to a state convention, and such other business as may come before it.

On motion, T. R. Goulding was elected chairman, and W. G. Dilts, secretary. The following persons were then duly elected to said county convention: T. R. Goulding, J. A. Hughes, W. B. Newman, A. Elliott, Jno. Schwab, Wm. Biehl, F. Ebrecht, Chas. Maschmeyer, G. W. Crane, W. M. Heywood, Wm. T. Gay, A. S. Prince, P. Martin, W. G. Dilts, P. H. Jaquith, F. Kath, Wm. Searle.

On motion, the secretary was instructed to notify the delegates of their appointment, and to furnish a copy of these proceedings to the Iron County Registrar for publication. The meeting then adjourned.

W. G. DILTS, T. R. GOULDING, Secretary, Chairman.

An Old Citizen Gone.

Mrs. Anna Thomas, wife of Rev. John Thomas and mother of Riley Thomas, deceased, of Holleville, also mother of Wm. M. Thomas, ex-county court justice of Washington county, after a long and lingering illness of terrible suffering with what the doctors pronounced cancer of the stomach, died at her home on Big River, near Belgrade, Washington county, July 8th, 1886, aged 83 years, 8 months and 6 days. She had been a resident of Washington county 81 years, her father, Joseph McMurtry, having moved from Tennessee to Missouri and settled on Big River, near where the village of Belgrade now stands, in 1805, when she was a little child but three years old, at which place she lived to be a grown woman. She was married to Rev. John Thomas in 1828 and has lived continuously on the same farm since. She was the mother of eleven children, ten of whom she raised to be grown men and women; one died in its infancy. She also had 42 grandchildren and 43 great-grandchildren, nearly all of whom are now living in Washington and Iron counties. Her husband, who is 85 years of age, and six children survive her. She had been a consistent member of the M. E. Church, south, for fifty years and was a good woman in all that that word implies. Rev. J. H. Headlee, of California, preached the funeral sermon to a very large and attentive audience. His text was 7th chapter, 14 verse of Revelations. It reads thus, "These are they which came out of great tribulation and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." After which sorrowing friends followed the remains to where they were laid to rest in the Thomas cemetery. W. L. C.

For Cockrell.

In compliance with the request in the last week's issue of this paper I have the honor to state that I am in favor of Mr. P. M. Cockrell for United States Senator.

WM. P. MCCARVER.

Hasn't Quit.

Ed. Register—Certain parties are circulating a report that I have withdrawn from the race for Probate Judge. This is not true, and my friends may rest assured that I will run clear through to the end.
