LOCAL BREVITIES.

"Red Riding Hood" at the Academy of Music Friday night.

Regular meeting of Iron Post, No. 346, G. A. R., on Thursday evening this week.

A half-car-load of Ironton people went up to the city this morning to attend the Exposition.

The saddest thought attending to the falling leaves is that the end of the base-ball season draweth on apace.

It is a well-attested historical fact that "too much water drowned the miller."

The regular fall rains are not far off, if indeed they are not upon us.

It is rumored that a new time-card for the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern R'y will be issued next Sunday.

Fifteen dollars have been subscribed toward digging a well and equipping it on the public school lot.

Mrs. J. S. Ruple, of Grantville, who has been very ill for eight weeks.

The sale of jewelry and other effects of the late Rev. Donaldson was not concluded last Saturday.

A drug store is a place of popular resort. During the absence of Capt. Crisp on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

DIED—At his parents' residence in Arcadia, Mo., on Friday evening, October 7th.

The Vulcan Lumber Company, at Vulcan, Mo., is a new enterprise in Iron County.

The entertainment at the Academy of Music Friday evening promises one of the finest treats the people of Ironton have had for a long time.

Iron is now surrounded by "dry" counties—a sort of "wet" oasis in an arid desert.

There will be preaching in the Ironton M. E. Church every evening next week.

The wild grape harvest in this section has been a large one.

The famous Kennedy-Holladay lawsuit was again tried at Fredericktown last week.

Rev. I. Hicks prophesies the most dreadful atmospheric disturbances this week.

An old subscriber writes to inquire "What is succotash?"

To G. F. Schwab, Esq., an Iron county boy, now of Los Angeles, California.

It gives us pleasure to state that a new bridge has been put in the sidewalk fronting Winkler's jewelry store.

Last Thursday three men—all drunk and quarrelling—left Mine La Motte late in the afternoon, going north on the Libertyville road.

Judge Emerson left for Colorado last Saturday. He halted long enough in Kansas City to take a bird's-eye view of that thriving village and drop his few lines thereabout.

An "At Home," received last Thursday, advised us that William F. Wykes, Jr., was married to Miss Alice M. Simpson, at St. Louis, Mo., on Wednesday, October 5th, 1887.

And her son is a genius. He is likewise of that genus irreverently denominated "camp printer."

An article relative to the trial and acquittal of Charles Downs, for the killing of Peter Prough, was misplaced last week.

The evidence was all in and the speechifying concluded at about six o'clock Wednesday evening.

The defendant believed to be in imminent danger. It was a most unfortunate affair, now happily ended, so far, at least, as the public is concerned.

There was a scarcity of ore cars several days last week. There is now a shaft going to be sunk on the shaft in the mine, which means good air for the miners next summer.

Prof Stump commenced to make powder (dualine) on Thursday last. Prof. Rattle and wife are staying at Pilot Knob.

The Furnace Company has commenced to ship the pig iron that has been stacked on the yard since the furnace closed down.

G. W. Craine, our Superintendent, took in the Future Grain on Friday. Last Friday there was a Globe-Democrat reporter through here writing up the mineral resources of the Southwest.

Down in Dead Man's Gulch—as the diamond drill men call it—the company has set up Joe Hewett and Mike Zimmer's new (patent applied for) steam drill.

The new bell in the Lutheran Church at the Knob has a splendid tone. The Iron Mountain Cornet Band was down at Middlebrook last Sunday in full force.

The big Fair Week is over, and the Knob has settled down to business. Fair Week is something like election time.

I understand, from several that were up to the city during the Encampment and Fair Week, that St. Louis never expected the same people back there again, so they actually skinned them.

Emmet Hinchev was in town the first of this week. Make your visits often, Emmet; your old friends are glad to see you.

Gen. Turner came down and spent Sunday at his summer home. I understand that Mr. Hill is soon to open a butcher shop in our town.

Friday night and was buried at the Catholic cemetery near Pilot Knob.

Quite a number of our people went to St. Louis last week. I was unable to ascertain the names of all who went.

Gen. Turner is having the west end of his brick building torn down, as the wall seemed to be giving way.

Base ball is a thing of the past. Every body is becoming interested in fox-hunting. We have had several chases lately.

Ed. Register—Since my last the weather has been beautiful, and I think every farmer in this locality finished sowing wheat this week.

Mr. W. L. Matthes returned from Poplar Bluff last night, and reports that F. A. and a prosperous condition, but, we presume, it is not necessary for us to dwell on this, as we learn full particulars will be furnished by one of the delegates that was in attendance at the State organization.

Mr. H. Muse, teacher in District No. 3, Township 34 and 35, Range 2 east, desires us to send you his report for the first month: Number of pupils enrolled, 21; number of pupils attending each day, 15; number days attendance by each pupil, 14 1/2; number of days taught, 30; number of pupils not present for tardy, 8; number of visitors, 10.

Our valley was well represented at St. Louis this week. Some did not return until Saturday evening, when they were returned by the middle of the week.

A. C. Carty started for Portland, Oregon, the 9th inst. We imagine it will be a happy meeting when he meets his brother George, who has been there nearly three years.

Mr. Milton Goggin and family, of Edge Hill, returned to their home Friday. Their child was much better when they left than when they came.

Mr. Sherman Adams was in our town on Saturday, the 8th inst. The road was almost lined with movers' wagons last week.

Rumor says a lawsuit will be the next thing on docket in our burgh. So mote it be. The indications for rain are very good at present.

Several persons are talking of attending the funeral services at Black next Sunday, when the funeral of Mrs. California Buford will be preached by Rev. C. T. Fortune.

The "Base Ball Notes" will be rather "light" this week, as there were no match games played in the Valley.

Chapman will make a great umpire—if he studies the rules—as he's got a good voice. You ought to have seen the boys jump when the umpire calls strikes on them.

A couple of pick-up-nines played Sunday with Reese and Clarkson as captains. Reese's nine defeated Clarkson's by a score of 33 to 22.

The second nine Hayseeds say that Lorenz must have made that "brilliant catch of a liner" when they got home last night, and that Twitler don't claim to be a "professional batter," but he gets there just the same.

The Arcadia nine failed to send a challenge to play the second nine Hayseeds Sunday, as they said they would. Hustle up, boys, and get a nine and play them.
