See "Miners Wanted," in another column.
The Ironton public schools closed for the year on Monday.
Rev. L. Pulliam will preach at Graniteville on the 5th Sabbath at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The G. A. R. and I. O. O. F. have rented the room over McCarver's store, and will hold their meetings there hereafter.
FOR SALE—A Good Portable Saw-Mill; good as new. Capacity 8,000 feet per day. Cheap. Apply to W. J. COLEMAN, Sabula, Mo.

On the first page of this paper is an advertisement which the ladies will not overlook. That being the case, of course it is unnecessary to call particular attention to it.

BOHN—To Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Conley, of Hogan, Mo., on Friday, April 20, 1888, two daughters, Mother and children are doing finely, and "Pops" is slowly recovering.
Judge Emerson exactly reflects our sentiments on the flag question—only he does it in elegant rhythm and verse, while we have to content with simple and halting prose.

The Tenth District Convention of the W. C. T. U. went into session Tuesday afternoon, as per announcement, and will probably conclude its labors to-day. A summary of the proceedings will be published next week. About forty delegates were present.
It was Mr. Ratchford's remarks about "carkassin" on the streets that raised the bile of the St. Francis delegation. If he had used the proper word, "caucus," the boys would no doubt have taken it more kindly. The Hiezhly boys and their friends are not carcasses, but live people—and Democrats.

The meetings of the District W. C. T. U. are being held in the Presbyterian church, which is nicely decorated with evergreens and flowers in honor of the occasion. Mrs. Clara Hoffman's address yesterday evening drew a crowded house. She is an eloquent and forcible speaker, and does not hesitate to put in a word for Woman Suffrage as occasion presents itself.

Circuit Court began its labors last Monday afternoon, with a light docket to digest. Judge Thomas is suffering a little from rheumatism, but is pushing his work with his usual vim. Among the attorneys present from other counties, are: Sam. H. Beyerdorf, of Reynolds; Geo. H. Benton, of Butler; Henry Evans, of Washington; S. R. Durban and John Roney, of Wayne.

A Tip-Top correspondent sets the St. Louis Chronicle right about that "attempted train-wrecking" on Hogan Mountain. We take this occasion to inform him, and the public, generally, by authority, that Capt. W. H. Byers had nothing to do with the Chronicle's sensational story, although his name was mentioned in the article. An "embankment one hundred feet high," "systematic robbing of express trains while doubling over the mountain," etc., etc., is a little too rich for an Ironton story-teller's blood.

The county Democratic Executive Committee met at the courthouse Saturday, pursuant to call, and after determining to call mass meetings for the selection of delegates to the several State conventions, it was resolved to call a primary election for the nomination of county officers. A determined effort will be made by the committee to have the election a fair and square one, and as no additions to this end and officer qualified to administer oaths will be stationed at each poll in addition to the regular judges. So soon as the judges are chosen, and the rules formulated, all the proceedings will be published. The election will be held on the 30th of July.

As we pause to take a bite off our plug of natural-leaf, we are reminded that Mrs. Clara Hoffman comes down pretty hard on tobacco users. This again suggests that, to avoid things up-to-scratch a vice wherever seen—she ought also give some attention to the Tolu gum habit. We have an able and experienced stenographer now at work on the subject, and hope shortly to show the world just how many millions of dollars are spent every year in this expensive and pernicious habit, which is depleting the pockets of the fair users and making millions of dentists and gum dealers. The custom of niggling only poor, weak men, and ignoring the shortcomings of the stronger and brainier sort is not right. Let the rod of correction fall on the iron-bound corset as well as the fragile suspender.

The Ironton Public Schools closed Monday afternoon, after an eight months' session. The school year has given excellent results, and the teachers have given excellent results, and the pupils have advanced fully as rapidly as in any of the preceding years. One thing may certainly be said of Mr. Vance, the principal: he knows how to govern as well as to teach. The Ironton school at one time achieved a rather unenviable reputation as being insubordinate and unruly, but no one can say that of it now. Method and discipline have accomplished great good, and while they have come love and respect for the teacher. As a necessary result, the pupils have gained in their acquirements, the school has run along smoothly, and all are as nearly satisfied as is possible in a world where perfect harmony can never be known. The intermediate and primary departments, presided over by Misses Sloan and Markham, have contributed their full share toward this desirable result, and we are sure the directors will fully consider all these things in choosing teachers for the coming year.

Driftings.

Driftings are very scarce this week. All the water that accumulates from the tunnel part of the mine is now sent to the shaft by siphon and from there is pumped to the surface.

The work on the bill has been very steady this month; not a day has been lost, the force being reduced so as to give those employed work every day.
It is rumored that Wm. H. Harris has the offer of an agency for the Klausman Brewery Company somewhere in this State. Harry has not expressed himself whether he will accept or not, but I presume he will, as it is the wish of the miners that he would, and locate here in the Valley.
There are a few men at work assorting the ore in dump at No. 2.
Most of the ore that is brought out of No. 3 tunnel is marked "Star," which means extra No. 1.
Since the shaft incline is worked on company time Foreman Penhall can be found down there often than before. He says he would not miss the healthy exercise of climbing up and down the incline about twenty-five times each shift for a considerable sum of money.
Capt. W. P. Birney, of Carbondale, Ill., was here on a visit last Saturday and Sunday.

Callow—Dinger.
Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, in Ironton, Mo., on Thursday, April 19, 1888, by Squire Louis Schwab, Mr. JOSEPH CALLOW to Miss AMALIA DINGER—all of Iron county.
Many of Ironton's prominent citizens attended the wedding and gave their congratulations to the happy couple. The bride was attended by Misses Ida Dinger and Clara Grandhomme, while Messrs. Christian Stohl and Christian Dinger "braced up" the groom in his hour of trial and trepidation. After the ceremony the assembled company partook of refreshments, lavishly provided, and danced until a late hour.
The following is a partial list of the wedding presents:

Arcadia Items.
Will Hiney, of DeSoto, was in town last week.
James F. Hatten spent Sunday here with his family.
Mr. John A. Hogue was in St. Louis last week.
Chas. Allison is spending a few days in Arcadia.
Several of our young people attended the ball at Bismarck last Thursday night.
Ed. Baird was in town the other day.
A. D. Blomeyer, night agent at the depot, was temporarily transferred to Bismarck last week.
Miss Nettie Collins, of Des Arc, is visiting friends and relatives in Arcadia.
Miss Ella Pease, of St. Francois county, is spending several weeks here visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. F. Medley.
Geo. Tual, after spending two or three months visiting his parents, has returned to Denver.
Mr. Thomas Quick has returned to Missouri arrangements.
Our postmaster, Mr. Hogue, has made arrangements for us to have a night mail. Now the Arcadians can get mail from St. Louis at night as well as you people over in Ironton.
The Fort Hill Sunday school is improving but there is yet room for more. We need more grown people there every Sunday.
The Ursuline Sisters are having their lake enlarged. They are extending it into the yard of their cottage just west of the college building.
Mr. Editor, it is a long time till the 4th of July, but there is nothing like beginning a thing in time. How are the people of Arcadia Valley—yes, Iron county—going to celebrate this great day? Last year we Arcadians gave a big barbecue and invited everybody to come. Now, we have the grounds ready for another barbecue. Our park is in splendid condition, and we shall let you Irontonians have it this year. We are not going to celebrate the day all to ourselves, but we think it is fair for you to give a big barbecue and extend an invitation to us as we did to you last year. Time about is fast flying. The Ironton people should be at work stirring things up. Whoop 'em up, Mr. Editor. I know you would like another big barbecue.

We can't get anybody to say anything about the gubernatorial contest. Any how, Arcadia (though only a very gets there or not. D. R. Francis whether he gets there or not.
UNCLE JOHN.

From Sunlight.
Ed. Register—Permit me to thank one of your correspondents for his correction as to the spelling and origin of the word "Brook's Creeks"; but as to the spelling of the word "Horton" it was the fault of the printers that an X occurred instead of an H, and my mistake.
Farmers are hopeful—wheat looks well, oats are coming up and corn being planted. Sunlight people are unlike your Good-water folks: all stay at home and work; also, unlike the Arcadians: attend to their own business. "Uncle John" seems to be very much worried over the gossip of Arcadia. Never mind, "Uncle John," what they say about you getting married, for time will prove all things and show that the girls had no notion of having you. They say you are too changeable; too much like a butterfly. When you were a chrysalis ("Granny") they had no idea that you would be so soon a full-fledged "Uncle John."

Query—What is the attraction for Joseph Lashley down at Sunlight. He is a frequent visitor now.
Mr. P. T. Ramsey, our enterprising merchant, has brought on his new stock of spring goods, which he sells as cheap as your merchants can buy, and he is a frequent visitor now.
Mr. Thomas House is contracting for the lumber to re-build where his house was burned down last winter.
Ellis Horton, the Singer Sewing Machine Agent, can out talk a lawyer when he wants to suit him.
The United Baptist have their new church nearly completed and expect to have it dedicated the 3d Sunday in May. Rev. John Martin, of St. Francois county, is to preach the dedicatory sermon. More anon, April 29, 1888. SMART ALEX.

A Letter From Edge Hill.
All is quiet on the Potomac. The farmers are all busy plowing or planting and their wives are gardening.
Mr. Oesch has made another fish pond. In order to stock it with spawners a few sweeps with a net were made in the old pond. The proceeds were two snapping turtles, a man-of-war frog, about a dozen sunfish, a bushel of large tadpoles, scores of young carp from five to seven inches long, and seven or eight spawners. They are splendid fish, ranging from twenty-one to twenty-seven inches in length.
We have a nice garden but lifting about thirty square rods of ground on a foot deep in seven days made me tired.
I have heard that Robert Black died recently near Carbondale, but have not heard what was the cause of his death.
A son of Drusilla Gallaher was thrown by a mule and badly hurt, but at last account was improving in health.
The health of Mrs. David Latham is poor. The trouble seems to be cancerous.
Mrs. Robinette is severely afflicted with scrofula.
The war at Centerville has lulled somewhat. The Circuit Judge has taken the matter in hands and first-class counsel have been appointed to aid attorney Pickens in hunting up Mr. Cozine.

It appears that the saints at Camp Ground being short on preachers raised the Macedonia cry which was answered by Bro. Ballou, from Crawford county, who rushed frantically to their aid and preached two days. The preaching seems to have been about the average compound of gas, fog, moonshine, raw potatoes, saw dust, dry sheep dung and hell fire, but one of the brethren recognized the divine as the gentleman who during "his unpleasantness" had stolen a horse from him. On Sabbath afternoon Bro. Ballou took the Steebville road. At last account late in the afternoon Benjamin Brooks had sent him on his way but not rejoicing with ten miles of solid woods ahead of him. Let the brethren at Camp Ground ery again. They may get a hog this next time.

I see that B. M. Towell, county commissioner, has notified the learned presiding of Reynolds county that he will interview them at stated times. When Ben went to school to me he was a bright and pleasant boy, and will probably be a commissioner above the average.
Occasionally wolves come down on the points of the ridges at night and raise Bedlam. They are feeling the pickets but do not venture in. A few lambs have been lost most likely taken by the howling packs.
The improvements made by Mr. Oesch have compelled the wolves to change their beat. Formerly they crossed below the farm, now they go above it.
My pupil is doing finely. He shows remarkable aptness especially in penmanship and arithmetic. I have introduced some radical changes in teaching which promise well, but I wish to get them more completely before introducing them to the profane.
In respect to politics the friends of high protection must look out for a ground swell. In respect to foreign affairs there will be no war because God has work in hand with which a war would interfere.
Even in the raging of the sea He over it doth reign.
And when the waves thereof do swell He stilleth them again.
April 20th. THOMAS CALAHAN.

From Tip-Top.
Ed. Register—On the morning of the 17th about one mile south of this town, just south of what is known as the "Plover Cut," a single tie was discovered on the track by the vigilant engineer on train No. 753. The pilot of the engine knocked said tie "silly" without stopping the train. The tie was supposed to have been placed there (across track) by some poor tramp for safekeeping.
As Capt. B., according to the Chronicle reporter, proved so efficient in breaking up the "Hogan Mountain gang," it would be a good idea for the company to employ him to break up the tie. If there was $50,000 aboard that night it must have been in the shape of some loose change in the pockets of the conductor and sleeping car porter. This is all there is in the attempted train wrecking and robbery, the Evening Chronicle to the contrary.
Yours &c. TUCKERSON.

P. S.—The "villain" of the "Hogan Mountain gang" will kindly deliver this to you and answer all questions you may be pleased to ask him.

From Goodland.
Ed. Register—Since my last measles has subsided. Health in this vicinity is good.
I made a trip recently to Belgrade, Washington county, over the oldest road in this county and in the poorest condition for the traveling public. Old people tell me that it was called the Black River track sixty years ago. 'Tis better known now in this country by the name of Clayton creek road, and would be used extensively were it put in proper condition. Fallen trees, tumbling rocks, washouts, &c., almost all the way up Clayton creek, then down the hollow on the Big river side west of where the road intersects with Iron Mountain road; then the same old track runs down the Big river leaving the Iron Mountain road at the old Arisman farm, running down the river meeting a road at the George Stephens farm, which is kept in order by the authorities of Washington county. I am not able to say whether or not that part of the road between the Stephens farm and Iron Mountain road, being in Iron county, is under the supervision of any overseer, but one thing I do know the road is in very bad order and should be placed in charge of the roadmaster if it is not. Were the above named road put in good shape it would be of great utility for the traveling public from this vicinity to Bellevue, Caledonia, Belgrade, Sunlight, Montana, Kasolin or almost anywhere in the Bellevue Valley. Hoping the county court and present roadmasters may give said road more special attention, I leave the subject for their consideration.

The farmers are on a rush with their crops. Farmers alliance organizations in other vicinities are on the boom. None in the vicinity of Goodland.
Some old people say every thirty years comes about a change in public affairs. If so, the coming campaign may have five candidates in the field, as in 1869.
J. R. Adams purchased a new mowing machine from St. Louis.
Mr. Mathew Adams has completed his dwelling house.
C. O. Smith and family are all recovering from a long continued siege of sickness.
Mr. John Mayfield is keeping his dear little children together, and by the aid of a niece is keeping house.
The United Baptists at Sunlight will dedicate their church the 30th of May.
F. M. Adams, Belgrade, is enclosing a stock farm of 60 acres near Belgrade, which he will plant in blue and orchard grass.
Wishing the REGISTER all possible success, I abandon the field and wish to say to your correspondents in the county that I esteem them very much for their many interesting communications and the courtesies which they have from time to time shown toward me and my dry communications.
Go on, kind friends, in the work and may your paths through life be strewn with sweet flowers and your dreams many and pleasant.
TOBIAS.
