LOCAL BREVITIES.

March came in like a lion; let it vanish as a lamb.

A pocket-book, evidently the property of one Frank Davis, is in this office awaiting its owner.

Mr. D. W. Oesterle has opened a store at Ghermanville. Attention is directed to his card elsewhere.

The G. A. R. attended Sherman memorial services in a body at the M. E. church last Sunday morning.

The Railway Conductors have issued invitations for a Grand Ball at De Soto on March 30th. A delightful time is anticipated.

The Lotz farm, southeast of Ironton, was sold at trustee's sale last Saturday, Mr. W. A. Fletcher being the purchaser at $3,500.

Sheriff Fisher Tuesday appointed Mr. W. T. O'Neal of Des Arc as his deputy. An excellent selection and one which will meet general endorsement.

Last Saturday evening, between the Arcadia College and Collins' Livery Stable, a Check-Line, Funder will please return to H. M. Collins, Ironton.

Last—Some weeks since on the road between Ironton and Arcadia, a pair of spectacles, gold frame, in tin case. Funder will confer favor by leaving same at this office.

Mrs. Chamberlin's granite quarry, located near Annapolis, was not sold last Saturday, as advertised. Mrs. C. having made arrangements the day before with some party in St. Louis who paid off the indebtedness.

Last Saturday's mail brought us the sorrowful announcement of the death of Mrs. Leona M. Perry, wife of Ed. Perry at De Soto on Friday, the 27th. We extend our sincerest sympathy to the afflicted family.

There will be a collection taken for Foreign Missions at the Baptist Church next Sunday morning. Brethren and sisters bring your fat pocket books. Text for morning sermon, Rom. 10:13.

The pile driver was at work several days of last week on the bridge between Ironton and Pilot Knob. The crew departed for Loughboro on the branch the last of the week, but will be back here again in a few days.

Mr. J. L. Carson, son of David Carson, Esq., a former resident of this county, spent several days of last week in the West End looking over some mineral lands belonging to his father. It is very likely that some prospecting will be done on an iron deposit.

A young sport from Grandin, a little the worse for liquor, fell off No. 32 at the Ironton station Monday night and somewhat disfigured his beauty. He was not seriously hurt, and after the loss of considerable blood, went on his way with a broken nose and lightened heart.

County Court convened Monday, Judges Lowe and Kemper present, Judge Holloman being detained at home on account of sickness. The Judge has been quite unwell during the past week, but is improving at this writing and it is hoped will soon be in his usual health once more.

We ask pardon of the reader for not furnishing a better paper this week, but the County Court did not pass on the Financial Statement until noon Monday, and it has kept our entire force busy since that time getting the document ready for publication. Correspondents will also understand why their letters are omitted or appear only in part.

Wm. Bowen, the individual whom we last week mentioned as being arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace of the Riley mansion, had his trial before Justice Schwan on Thursday last. The defendant put in the plea of mistaken identity, and offered evidence which secured a verdict of "not guilty." Mr. Edgar represented the defense and Mr. Jordan prosecuted.

The following items were inadvertently omitted from the body of the Financial Statement: There was received and distributed to School Districts of the County during the year from State, $125.75; from Railroad and Telegraph Tax, $204.70; from sale of Madison Acreon Property, $180.00; from Washington County, $1007.51; from St. Francois County, $65.36; from Crawford, $18.51.

The superiority of the electric over all other lights was never shown to better advantage than during the dark, murky fog of Monday night. On that evening Messrs. Baldwin had their electric plant in operation and, notwithstanding the intensity of the night, the rays of the single arc light from the top of the mill illumined the whole town and made the greater part of main street as light as day.

C. H. Collins was last Thursday removed as postmaster at Des Arc and S. West appointed in his stead. A few weeks ago we heard that some hungry Republicans were after the place and remarked at the time that a change would likely be made. Some of the "truthful" Republicans replied, "Oh, no, that is Democratic talk." Mr. Collins, it is true, is an obliging and competent official, but what does that count for under this administration, when a "patriot" has to have a job.

List of letters remaining in the Ironton post-office for the month ending February 28th, 1891:

Bishop Mrs Larrah	Myers Miss Jenie
Brien Leona	Moore W. M.
Bouie Miss Angeline	Mitzen Edna
Blouby B. A.	Ross Rev James M 2
Cowful Miss B.	Walker Mr George
Chapman Mr Henry	Washington George
Eric Mr Jeff	Wilson James
Fate Mr J. A.	Walker J. A.
Harty Miss Monie	Walsh Miss Bridger
Johnson Miss Addie	Williams Geo H

If not called for within thirty days, will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

POSTAL BEARD, P. M.

A. G. Jaquith, a postal clerk on the Iron Mountain railroad, was arrested at Little Rock on Friday last, charged with destroying the U. S. Court the following Monday where he pleaded guilty and was fined $300, which was paid by his father, Mr. P. H. Jaquith, postmaster at Pilot Knob. Young Jaquith, in explaining his misdeed, says that he was competing for a medal and finding he was unable to distribute all the mail assigned to him, he threw two sacks containing papers and circulars in a lake near Corning, Arkansas. The young man had made rapid progress in the service and his discretion is to be regretted.

In Carver Union, No. 1928, on February 28th, 1891, the following was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Carver Union, tender our thanks to Mr. W. J. Coleman, a merchant at Sabula, Mo., for his kindness in reducing the price on his goods to the members of the F. & L. U., and citizens of this community on the contract system; and, further,

Resolved, That a copy of this be sent to the IRON COUNTY REGISTER for publication, and a copy to Mr. Coleman.

A. LEWIS, President.
GEO. LEWIS, Secretary.

The citizens of this community had an opportunity to listen to a most excellent address by Mr. James Smith, State Lecturer of the F. and L. U., at the courthouse Monday afternoon. Mr. Smith dealt with the financial issues of the day in a clear, logical and forcible manner. He demonstrated the integrity of our national banking system by which a man may take fifty thousand dollars, buy bonds with it, deposit those bonds with the government, and while drawing interest upon them, get a re-issue of forty-five thousand dollars in national bank notes to loan. He dwelt at some length on the manner in which gold was artificially forced up to two dollars and eighty-five cents during the war by making greenbacks receivable for all debts except duties on imports and interest on the public debt, thus placing the importer at the mercy of the gold standard, while the people were enabled to rob the people. He showed how, after the war was over, six hundred million dollars were added to the interest bearing debt entirely for the benefit of that class which is now vociferating against the free coinage of silver. Mr. Smith believes in free trade, free coinage, and the total destruction of national banks. His description of the supreme effort of the Kansas Alliance to defeat Ingal, s, to a select circle of friends after the speaking, present- ing the acrimoniousness of that contest in a strong light. It seems that the Kansas Alliance appointed three Balliffs to each legislator, whose duty it was to stay with him day and night, until the conflict was settled. Every influence was brought to bear on the "cow-hides" by friends of the "iridescent" senator from filthy lucre to the solid dove, as history will show, to no purpose. Let the good work go on.

Plant Seed Co.'s Garden Seeds at D. W. O.'s.

Personal.

J. J. Cundiff and wife visited Farmington friends last week.

Miss Marie Gratiot has returned from De Soto.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Pruitt and Miss Ruth Gay left Saturday on a visit to Ironton friends.

Mrs. J. S. Hurlbut and daughter, Miss Maude, of Kimswick, were the guests of Mrs. D. F. Reese several days last week.

Miss May Tong is visiting in St. Louis.

Mrs. S. W. Andrews is visiting relatives in De Soto.

J. W. Clark is in Arkansas on business.

Mr. Geo. N. Brown, of St. Louis county, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. N. Bishop for some time past, left for her home last week.

Rev. Isaac Borts has returned from Hot Springs.

Miss Allie Hughes returns to St. Louis this week.

J. W. Noel is canvassing for a fruit tree house.

E. H. Lonsdale is in town.

J. W. Biemel is visiting in St. Louis.

Mrs. T. S. Hornbeck, of Arcadia, is making arrangements to join her husband, who has been located at Livingston, Montana, for the past year.

W. L. Beyersdorff, of Centreville, is in town.

Annapolis News.

Ed. Register—Dr. Copeland of Barnesville was in town Monday looking hearty and happy.

Carpenter J. M. Brown is building a fence around the property of Thos. Hearick, lately purchased from Towle & May.

Parson Cumber preached at Annapolis church Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Miss Fannie Towle returned from an extended visit to California Tuesday. She was well pleased with her visit and the climate of California.

Prosecuting Attorney Jordan was in town Wednesday.

A gentleman by the name of Shields is building a residence in the east end, on land purchased from Towle & May.

Geo. Castel of De Soto was in town this week. He purchased lumber of Towle & May to build a residence in De Soto.

The new bell for the church arrived Saturday.

The work train has left us, but in their place we have P. O.'Brien's fence gang, among whom is Fred Reynolds, the jolly Sergeant-at-Arms of the Annapolis T. R. Club.

The John Jamison spoken of in the Truth of last week is, I suppose, the John Jamison who used to live at Annapolis, and whose widow is now living at Brent with her father, Jarret Russell. Jamison left his wife and family at Annapolis about eight or nine months ago in almost destitute circumstances, and if he left any money, as the Truth says, it should be sent to his widow, Mrs. Nancy Jamison, of Brunot.

Mr. Cleveland is being much criticized on account of his opinion on the silver question. These critics should remember the great sacrifice that Mr. Cleveland made for the West and the poor of this country when he wrote his famous tariff reform message.

An entertainment will be given for the benefit of the Annapolis school at the church on Friday, March 6th. Admission, ten and fifteen cents.

MURPHY,
March 1st, 1891.

For ten cents, stamps will do, the publishers of the Arkansas Traveler, 182 Monroe street, Chicago, Ill., will send that paper to any address for four weeks. The regular subscription price of the paper is $2.00 per annum, including a neat premium to every yearly subscriber. The Traveler is edited by Ople P. Read, and in addition to his quaint and charming stories and sketches contains matter of interest to every member of a household; even the children will like it, for a department devoted to the little folks has been made one of the features of the paper. In short, the Traveler is now the best and cheapest family paper in America; and the object of the publishers in offering it four weeks for ten cents is to have that fact more widely known than it now is. Send ten cents to the address given, and you will receive the paper for one month, together with a copy of their new premium list, in which are included some of the most elegant and valuable articles ever offered by any paper. Do not delay but send at once.
