LOCAL BREVITIES.

Never since they first began business in this town, did Lopez & Sons have a finer line of millinery and dress goods than now displayed in their establishment.

Capt. W. H. Byers this week announces himself a candidate for the continued favors of the public, and asks an inspection of the Cyclone Stock just received at Bonanza.

The railroad authorities ran a Cyclone Excursion from Poplar Bluff to St. Louis and return yesterday. Fare from the Bluff, $3; from Ironton, $1.50. About thirty Valley people were in it.

An Ice Cream Social will be given by the Society of Christian Endeavor in the basement of the Presbyterian church Thursday, June 11. The lawn will be lighted and seated, and a general good time is anticipated. Everybody is invited.

County Court is in session this week, but Judge Hart is still to fill to be present. Although suffering from "the chills" Tuesday and yesterday, Judge Hill remains at his post, and he and Judge Moyer are dispatching business as rapidly as may be.

All the members of Ironton Lodge, No. 244, Knights of Pythias, are requested specially to attend the next meeting of the Lodge on the evening of Friday, the 12th inst. Don't fail to attend, Brothers. Work in the Ranks, and other very important business.

Mr. Wm. H. Buford this week announces himself a candidate for Judge of the Western District. He is a life-long resident of Iron county, and although well advanced in years, has never heretofore asked for public recognition. His ability will fill the office he now announces for will not be questioned by those who know him.

The "popping-off" of an engine at the Ironton crossing last Saturday caused Rev. Dr. Morton's horse to run and overturn the buggy to which he was hitched. The Doctor was thrown to the ground, and his right arm badly bruised, but suffered no other injury to his person. The buggy was somewhat damaged, but the horse was not hurt.

H. M. Collins is better equipped this year than ever before, for heavy service. He has more and better horses, more and finer rigs. Every kind of vehicle—from a two-wheeled cart to cushioned surrey; from a dainty buggy to a twenty-foot furniture wagon—may be procured at his stable. And, without his charges are always moderate.

Last Thursday evening when the Accommodation came in, everybody was anxious to learn the news from the cyclone; but this did not justify the action of those parties who snatched papers from Oscar Hill, the newsboy, while he was engaged counting his package. He was not only defrauded, but his regular customers were disappointed, and in some instances blamed him for the shortage in his supply.

Mr. J. P. McCarver was tried before a jury in Squire Fairchild's court Tuesday morning, charged with carrying concealed weapons. He was ably defended by Gen. Wingate, Mr. Edgar prosecuting. The jury returned a verdict of "guilty." The fine and costs amounted to about $70, and in default thereof the defendant was committed to jail. He may appeal.

Mrs. James Hickman, living near Des Arc, yesterday fell down a staircase while visiting her son at Jordan Switch. Her leg was broken. Dr. Farrar in response to a telegram, went down and gave her the necessary surgical attention, and he thinks she will recover in due time. But the patient is well advanced in years, and this makes the mishap the more serious.

Mr. Gross last week removed his family into his new dwelling on Knob street. The building is situated in the finest residential part of the town; is cottage containing seven rooms and three halls. It is tastefully planned and very convenient in its interior arrangement. It is a credit as well to its owner as to the builder, Mr. Buckley. The lot is a beautiful lawn, well shaded, and of ample proportions. We congratulate the young couple who have taken up their quarters there, and wish them many years of prosperity and happiness in the homestead they have acquired.

Mr. W. Rife, the Missionary for the American Sunday School Union, working in Southeast Missouri, who has recently organized about twenty Sunday Schools in Ripley, Wayne, Madison and Iron counties, is at present located near Ironton; and for the convenience of the Sunday School work has placed in the hands of Mr. W. G. Fairchild (depository for Bible Society) an assortment of Sunday School supplies, such as record books, nice story books for children, reward cards, &c. Let every teacher who desires to help the American Sunday School Union call and purchase something nice for their scholars and thus put into the Treasury of a society which is giving its thousands every year to the destitute.

In the presence of a few invited guests, Mr. W. L. Scoggins and Miss Rosa BUEETT were united in marriage at the home of the bride, in Farmington, May 20th, 1896, at 8:30, p. m., Rev. J. W. Campbell officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Brunst of this place, and is deservedly popular. The groom is the son of Hon. G. W. Scoggins, of Iron county, and is a young man of great promise. Both were formerly students of Farmington Baptist College, where they have many warm friends, who will be only too glad to know of their making a success of life in the true sense. Immediately after the ceremony the groom and bride left for their future home in Iron county.—Farmington Times.

"The Aronida Valley Woolen Mills" was incorporated January 7th, 1896. The Articles of Association provided that the capital stock was $30,000, divided into 1200 shares of the par value of $25 each, the whole amount actually paid up in lawful money of the United States. Who swore to this? Another question: A short time before the collapse of the "Company," a part of the bonus subscribed by the citizens was collected (before the same was due) to be paid to the mechanics and others at work on the building, who were clamoring for their pay. How much was collected and turned over to the "Company," and did the "Company" apply it to the purpose mentioned? Or did the "Company" quietly file the sum so raised, leaving the creditors to seek relief through mechanics' liens? Who may be harsh, but in our judgment, "Company" could swear that it had "an capital stock of $30,000 actually paid up" under the conditions then obtaining, would stop at nothing where a chance to advantage itself appeared.

The strawberry crop this year has been one of the most bountiful we have ever known. The market has been crowded with large, clean, luscious berries. The unusual amount of moisture, or some other cause, has given them an unusual amount of acid. This, with some, is an objectionable feature. Messrs. Elgan, C. S. Russell, Washington, Sutton, and others, have kept the market well supplied at reasonable rates. We received several boxes of the finest berries we ever saw from Judge Russell, our "Old Times" correspondent. His Babachs and Gathys were good enough for any one, even an editor, and we enjoyed them. The Judge presented us with several bunches of the early scarlet variety, which, while not so large as others, made up in flavor what they lacked in size. These berries, we learn, were sent to his father in 1840 by Congressman Wells, and have been propagated by the Russell family ever since. The Judge has propagated them on his farm since he began house-keeping. It is nice to have generous friends with prolific patches of strawberries. The blackberry crop bids fair to be as abundant as any we have ever had. And the fragrant raspberry will be here anon.

The rate on the Missouri Pacific System to the Republican National Convention at St. Louis, June 16th, will be one first-class fare for the round trip. In Missouri tickets will be sold on June 13th, 14th and 15th—and also, from all points within 200 miles of St. Louis, on the 16th and 17th. Return limited to June 21st. For the National Democratic Convention which assemblies at Chicago on Tuesday, July 7th, one fare for the round trip. Tickets sold on July 4th, 5th and 6th, with final limit for return of July 12th.

Last week we gave a casual notice of the entertainment at the Academy of Music on the evening of May 26th, in behalf of the M. E. Church of this place. Owing to lack of space we were compelled to defer our comments until this issue. The entertainment was given for the purpose of raising funds to pay the interest on the debt with which the church property here is encumbered. When the audience assembled it anticipated the usual exercises common to such occasions, and was in a humor to be pleased with whatever was offered, without being too critical; but as the programme was proceeded with, it became evident that the entertainment was very much more meritorious than had been expected, and that the people in attendance were getting value received for their money. The programme was as follows: Song—"Arise, Go Forth and Conquer"—Graniteville Choir. Quartette—"The Harvest is Past"—Mr. and Mrs. Warrington, Mr. Waldram and Miss Annie Waldram. Recitation—"How Sockery Set the Hen"—Mr. Fred Osterle. Quartette—"The Lost Landmark"—Misses Ora Graham and Maud Ferguson, and Messrs. John Tollison and Arthur Crews. Recitation—"The Ride of Jenny McNeil"—Miss Lulu Osterle. Quartette—"Thou Shalt Keep Him in Perfect Peace"—Mrs. Mattie Walsh. Dialogue—"Meeting of the Gamut Woman's Association"—Misses Lizzie and Vida Fitzpatrick, Bertha Shifferly, Maud Ferguson, Hattie Crews, Minnie Trauerlich, and Messrs. Harry Baum and Ollie Tollison. Song—"God's Avenger"—Graniteville Choir. The singing of the Graniteville choir was excellent, and the quartette consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Warrington, Mr. Waldram and daughter (Miss Annie), furnished vocal music of the highest character. The recitation by Mr. Fred Osterle, "How Sockery Set the Hen," was well received. The dialogue entitled "Arabella's Poor Relations," rendered by Misses Ora Graham and Maud Ferguson, and Messrs. John Tollison and Arthur Crews, was above the average. Also, the recitation, entitled "The Ride of Jennie McNeil," by Miss Lulu Osterle was very fine. Mrs. Walsh's recitation, "The Raven," was given with fine effect. The audience was so taken with her elocution that she was encored, when she responded by rendering "The Outcast and the Judge," which was equally well received. Mrs. Walsh is a lady of fine literary attainments, as the columns of the REGISTER bear witness. The part taken by her in the entertainment contributed greatly to its success. A dialogue entitled, "The Gamut Woman's Association," participated in by some half-dozen parties, was not the least interesting part of the programme. One pleasant feature of the evening was the fact that members of several denominations were interested in helping our Methodist brethren. The fund raised amounted to $25. The strawberries and ice cream were up-to-date. The whole affair was a great success.

Valley Railroadets. Pat O'Brien, brakeman on Arcadia run, was called to East St. Louis last Saturday by reason of the death of his brother, who was killed by the cyclone. Mrs. Masson, daughter and son, and Miss Annie Burke and brother, of Graniteville, were visiting friends in the Valley last Sunday. Miss Myrtle Paule, who has been visiting Mrs. Burke of Graniteville, returned home last Sunday. A dance was to have been given at Graniteville last Friday evening, but on account of non-attendance of the ladies, it proved a failure, lights were put out, and all who were there departed for their respective homes, singing, "While the dance goes on." Mr. John Hasty's colt was shot in the legs by some unknown party. Why take your revenge out on a dumb brute? Harry Liddell, who has been running the pusher, has returned to De Soto to resume his run on the road. Mrs. Liddell, who has been visiting in the Valley, returned with her husband. Wonder if the party got wet coming home from their buggy-riding last Sunday night? There will soon be a new definition of the word, "tramp." Instead of "crumb" and "rag-bag" it will be changed to "a person who is unable to find employment on account of labor-saving machinery."

Bro. Bisch of Hogan is now day operator at Tip-Top. Mr. Gerling is at the key nights at Iron Mountain. Ed. Induse is now at Hog Mountain, holding the fort at nights. Fourteen freight trains passed through the Valley on Monday, God bless us for trains, as Monday is generally a light day. Conductor Andrews has returned and will take his run on pucker Tuesdays morning. "Fatty" Laughlin has returned to road duties. Mr. Pat O'Brien, who has been off a couple of days, resumed work again Tuesday morning on the Arcadia run. Passenger train No. 61 was some three or four hours late today morning. Also No. 52 was some four hours late reaching Arcadia—on account of a burning bridge reported south of Little Rock. Chas. Whelahan, wife and two children, came down Monday evening to visit relatives and friends in the Valley for a few weeks. Business very dull on the road. On Tuesday 26 freight trains passed through the Valley, and not a very good day either for trains, or for people.

Buford—Seal. Married, at the residence of the bride's parents on Crane Pond, Mo., May 22nd, 1896, PROF. GEO. W. BUFORD and Miss FLORA SEAL, Rev. E. Gunnelt officiating. Prof. Buford has taken a three years' course in William Jewell College at Liberty, Mo. He served as Principal of the Graniteville Public School for two successive terms, and Principal of Arcadia Public School last year, and has taught a number of other schools in Iron county. He is now teaching the Glover School, near Jordan Switch, Mo. Miss Flora was one of Crane Pond's fairest belles and possessed such qualities that no one knew her but to admire, nor spoke of her but to praise. They are both members of the Missionary Baptist Church, and we believe them to be true Christians in every sense of the word; and of course we wish them a long and happy life, and hope their pathway be crowded with peace and prosperity. A FRIEND.

From Des Arc. We are having more rain than we need, and unless it holds up wheat and corn will suffer. There has been several candidates around here for the past week. J. M. Morris attended court at Centreville last week. George W. Wallis has been quite sick with measles. Jas. Lovelis is putting up a mill on his farm south of Des Arc. Joe Reed is up from Arkansas. Also Mr. Simpson from Poplar Bluff. A farmer plowed up an Eichel muskeel west of the Fredericksburgh battle-field, Va., near the Sedgewick monument. It was branded in plain letters, "L. Langdon, Co. F, 167 New York Regt." Mr. Langdon had better call and get his gun. There were fifteen hundred pounds of bull-frogs shipped through here by express from Paragould last week. Somebody will eat frogs. Mrs. Jas. Lovelace made a visit to her sister at Jordan, last week. Mrs. C. Collins of Sabula was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Homan, last week. Mrs. R. F. West is visiting relatives of Sabula this week. Mr. Strother was down Sunday to see his best girl. James Morris made a flying trip to Annapolis Sunday. W. E. McKee went to Piedmont Friday. B. Brewington made a flying trip to the city last week. Mr. Will Semands and Miss Anna Jordan were married Sunday. We wish the young couple much joy. Rev. Renssion will begin a protracted meeting at the Methodist church next Sunday. C. Tindell of Sabula came down Sunday to visit his family. Mrs. Farr of Brunot was seen on our streets Sunday. ISAAC.

Annapolis Items. Ed. Register—Jas. Morris of Des Arc was in town to-day. Annapolis has another new doctor. Several of our people attended court at Centreville last week. Sam Hopkins of Centreville makes frequent trips to Annapolis now. Several parties went out to search for the body of Wm. Lee Sunday, but he was not found until Tuesday. He had fastened his clothes to his neck with a strip of bark, and the presumption is that the swift current twisted the clothes about and choked him. Josiah Reed was in town Saturday. Mr. Reed is at work in Arkansas at present. W. W. Strother of Sabula has been doing some work on the schoolhouse here lately. Mr. Polk, candidate for Collector, was down last week talking to the boys. Time is growing short now, and the boys will have to hustle to get around before the Primary. Mr. A. F. Abbott spoke to a small audience here Tuesday night. The time given to advertise the meeting was so short that but few knew of his presence until after he was gone. Judge Hart's condition is apparently unchanged. CRUX.

Graniteville News. Ed. Register—The Presbyterian Superintendent, with her corps of teachers and children, after two or three attempts (owing to so much rain), made a success in having their picnic last Wednesday at Dr. Goulding's park, Ironton. Thus did some 60 or 65 Sunday school scholars have their outing to the enjoyment of all. Visitors were in attendance from St. Louis, St. Joseph, Ironton and Arcadia. Mrs. Valentine Turner of St. Joseph, Mo., Miss Blanche and Master George Turner, of St. Louis, Miss Soudard, Rev. and Mrs. George Dyer of Ironton, were among those visiting the little folks' gala day. Several of our town people have friends and relatives in the city that were both killed and injured in the recent tornado that struck St. Louis and East St. Louis. Mr. T. F. Walsh is among those owning property that was damaged; but not so great as others here by. Jas. Hume spent Sunday and Monday in Sycote, Mo. Hon. A. F. Abbott of St. Francois county, and a candidate for congress from this 13th district, spoke to a goodly number at Workman's Hall last Wednesday evening, on the more important questions of the day. It's beginning to look as though the field will be pretty well filled with candidates by the time of holding our primary election, and we ought to be able to make a good choice from so large a number. We notice, by the way, that our neighbor county, St. Francois, has eight candidates for the office of Assessor. Truly, the office of one of our neighbor county must be a dandy. Horace Beeves of Knob Lick, Mo., spent a couple of days last week visiting his sister, Mrs. Jas. McLaren, in town. Master John Greason, Willie Shea and Elmer Collier are wrestling with the measles at present. Mr. E. M. Smith went to the city yesterday, to inspect some of their property that is reported damaged by the recent tornado. Miss May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Thomson of St. Louis, was the guest of Mrs. E. M. Smith last week. August Rieke of Ironton, was in town yesterday on business. Mrs. Henry Brehens of Bismarck Assessor in town; also, Mrs. August Bissmer of the same place. We see no reason why Dr. George Farrar, Jr., should not make an ideal representative, at any rate, that is our candid opinion frankly spoken. Mr. William Buford of Bellevue, a candidate for Judge of the Western district, was canvassing in town last week. As Mr. Buford is an honest, whole-souled staunch Democrat, and first and last all the time, free silver 16 to 1 man, it is hoped that all good Democrats will give him their earnest support. June 2, 1896. CAP.

Mr. James Perdue, an old soldier residing at Monroe, Mich., was severely afflicted with rheumatism but by using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "At times my back would ache so badly that I could hardly raise up. If I had not gotten relief I would not be here to write these few lines. Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done me a great deal of good and I feel very thankful for it." For sale by all dealers.

From Sabula. Ed. Register—J. B. Hodges of Arcadia is in town on business this week. H. Collins and Walter Strother attended the Birthday Social given at Glover Saturday night. A good time was reported. Mrs. C. Collins is visiting relatives at Crane Pond this week. Mrs. B. Collins was the guest of Mrs. C. Collins Sunday. Died, on the 18th of May, little MAUDE, an infant daughter of Wm. Rago and wife Mary, aged three years. Her illness was of short duration. She was taken sick on Sunday morning. A physician was summoned and all was done to relieve the little sufferer that could be, but it pleased God to beckon this little one to a brighter sphere; and while the fond father and mother mourn the loss of the little treasure which was consigned to their care for so short a time, they also have the consolation of knowing that they have added another jewel to the kingdom of Him who has said, "Suffer the little ones to come unto me, for such is the kingdom of heaven."

Little Maude, you have left us, But we will not weep for thee; For we know thy little body Is from harm and sorrow free. TORSY. Bismarck News. Ed. Register—News is not scarce, but your correspondent has not had time to pencil things down. However, a few locals will serve to show that we are not being deserted nor the Register forgotten. Rain every day has caused the farmers to be behind with their plowing; hence grass and weeds are in the push. But wheat and oats are fine, and at present this locality is favorably blessed with a bright prospect for the honest yeoman, so far. Newsies have developed in the families of John Kitchell and J. C. Fields. The children are doing nicely, however. Soap, soap! The soap fiends have posted the town full of soap bills and given away enough of samples if used to make this a clean town in the true sense of the word. Miss Allie Lucius of St. Louis is spending a few weeks at home. Rumor has it that an immense lot of sewing is on hand to complete, wardrobe such as is used on a bridal tour. Burglars have again made their round up on this place. Sunday night the residences of C. T. Tullock, Mrs. Rouse and Leonard Kidd were entered. At the first place mentioned they got possession of Edward Walters' trousers and extracted the pocket watches amounting to five or six dollars. At Mrs. Rouse's they secured only about one dollar and a half, and nothing at Mr. Kidd's. Most men imagine they know the guilty parties, but 'tis only guess-work, for they know nothing. If they do, why not execute their knowledge? Mrs. Carrie Norwine and two sons are visiting Bonne Terre and Fredericktown for the past week. The foundation for the Methodist church is complete, and very soon the building, which will be frame, will be erected. Wm. Russell has brought over from his farm in Bellevue his fine Forrest Time-driver, and is putting quite a dash every evening driving with the young ladies. If this leaks out, Will may have to explain his conduct. A Barth, the popular saloonist of Southeast Missouri, has painted a new and elegant front on his property on main street. A gentleman by the name of Beckwith of East St. Louis has controlling interest of the flouring mill, and has been running it regularly of late Mr. Beckwith says that he is quite sure of securing an electric plant and will furnish lights for all who want them. Charley Downey has returned to his home in Iron Mountain, leaving the position as clerk for Beard & Co. On Tuesday evening, May 25th, a quiet but interesting wedding took place in town, the contracting parties being Mrs. Mary Wood (nee Wallen) and Mr. Charles Knight. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Claude Devenport, at the residence of the bride. Both parties are well and favorably known. Mrs. Wood is from the best families of the State. Her mother was a Tullock—a sister of Mr.

T. T. Tullock. She married a Wallon; all of whom were pioneer settlers of this section and did much to further its interest, and year families who maintain their worth, of which Mrs. Wood is a brilliant success in every respect—a Christian, charitable, intelligent and worthy lady; and, with her little son Kenneth, has accepted unto her home one of the best men of our section. Mr. Knight for several years has been district telegraph line manager between Do Soto, Piedmont and Charleston. He is in every respect worthy the hand he has secured, and by this union happiness and prosperity can only be looked for. Charley is so well known to the public as "genial Charley," that little need be said of him to his credit. The bride wore a very neat, gray bedford cord suit, and never looked better or happier, while Charley's smile was continuous. The couple left on 7:15 train for St. Louis the same evening. The following special friends and relatives were present: Mr. E. M. Donnell, Misses Inez Eaton, Mary Wood and Julia Barger, Mr. and Mrs. Tid Wallen, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tullock, Mrs. C. K. Kindell, D. M. Horton, Mrs. Thomasson, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. George Matkin, Mr. and Mrs. Barger, Rev. Claude Devenport and wife, and Dr. J. J.
