AWAKENED TO MEET DEATH

The Dread Messenger Claimed His Beloved Victim to the Shriek of the Siren Whistle in the Most Threatening Warning.

TWELVE PASSENGERS SHOWN.

Today, June 3, the sound of the siren was heard along the streets of the city as the train passed through, with the announcement that twelve passengers had been dragged from the cars in the fearful explosion that occurred at the station. The body of the conductor, who was killed on the spot, was also found. The accident occurred at the time when the train was leaving for the southbound, and the death was instantaneous. The body was found lying on the tracks, and there was no sign of挣扎 or struggle. The cause of the explosion is still unknown, and an investigation is being conducted by the police and railroad officials. The company has offered a reward for information leading to the arrest of the person or persons responsible for the accident. The public is warned to avoid the station and the tracks during the time of the investigation.

THE ROASTED SPARRING.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, of the town of Kingston, were visited by a friend from the city today. They were roasted in the open air, as the friend had brought along a large roast of beef. The roast was cooked on a spit, and the flames were glowing brightly. The friends enjoyed the meal, and the meat was cooked to perfection.

THE INCOME.

The income of the city for the month of May has been published. The total income for the month was $12,000. The largest source of income was from the sale of coal, which brought in $4,000. The next largest source was the sale of wood, which brought in $3,000. The income from the sale of other goods and services was $5,000. The city has a surplus of $1,000.

LIFE IN THE COUNTRY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, of the town of Kingston, have returned from a visit to the country. They reported that the weather was excellent, and the crops were growing well. They said that the people were happy and contented.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts and expenditures of the city for the month of May have been published. The total receipts were $12,000, and the total expenditures were $11,000. The city has a surplus of $1,000.

BAD BREATH.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, of the town of Kingston, have returned from a visit to the country. They reported that the weather was excellent, and the crops were growing well. They said that the people were happy and contented.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts and expenditures of the city for the month of May have been published. The total receipts were $12,000, and the total expenditures were $11,000. The city has a surplus of $1,000.

BAD BREATH.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, of the town of Kingston, have returned from a visit to the country. They reported that the weather was excellent, and the crops were growing well. They said that the people were happy and contented.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts and expenditures of the city for the month of May have been published. The total receipts were $12,000, and the total expenditures were $11,000. The city has a surplus of $1,000.

BAD BREATH.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, of the town of Kingston, have returned from a visit to the country. They reported that the weather was excellent, and the crops were growing well. They said that the people were happy and contented.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts and expenditures of the city for the month of May have been published. The total receipts were $12,000, and the total expenditures were $11,000. The city has a surplus of $1,000.

BAD BREATH.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, of the town of Kingston, have returned from a visit to the country. They reported that the weather was excellent, and the crops were growing well. They said that the people were happy and contented.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts and expenditures of the city for the month of May have been published. The total receipts were $12,000, and the total expenditures were $11,000. The city has a surplus of $1,000.

BAD BREATH.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, of the town of Kingston, have returned from a visit to the country. They reported that the weather was excellent, and the crops were growing well. They said that the people were happy and contented.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts and expenditures of the city for the month of May have been published. The total receipts were $12,000, and the total expenditures were $11,000. The city has a surplus of $1,000.

BAD BREATH.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, of the town of Kingston, have returned from a visit to the country. They reported that the weather was excellent, and the crops were growing well. They said that the people were happy and contented.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts and expenditures of the city for the month of May have been published. The total receipts were $12,000, and the total expenditures were $11,000. The city has a surplus of $1,000.