THE WORLD'S Greatest Magnetic Healer! PERMANENTLY LOCATED AT CLINTON, MO., AT THE Famous White Sulphur Springs! PROF. O. R. BENTLEY,

The Recognized Founder of Magnetic Healing Science, and the Instructor of most of the Successful Practitioners of to-day, HAS PERMANENTLY LOCATED AT CLINTON, at the Sulphur Springs, the BENTLEY MAGNETIC SANITARIUM. Where in a beautiful natural grove, adjacent to this great fountain of pure, health giving water, with its beautiful lake, bath houses and large, roomy and comfortable family hotel, he is prepared to treat the sick and afflicted, and where all who desire, can secure the benefits of his twenty years of study in the art of healing without medicine or knife, surrounded by all the conveniences and luxuries of home, yet at prices to suit the purse of all. Prof. Bentley can be found at his private apartments at the Artesian Hotel at all hours, where he will give CONSULTATION FREE To all who apply. Prof. Bentley has no superior in his profession. Persons with severe cases of chronic diseases have come to him for relief and have been permanently cured. Every sufferer is invited to call on the Professor and consult with him free of all charges. Magnetic Healing is to-day, beyond a doubt, the greatest of all sciences. So many cures have been made by this great hidden power, that medical men and scientists throughout all the world, are convinced that "Magnetic Power" is destined to be supreme over and all diseases of the human body is held to, and thereby revolutionize the art of cure. Professor Bentley teaches this system. He has pupils who after completing the course, have been able to build up a practice which pays them two to three hundred dollars per month. We shall be pleased to correspond with students and others who desire to study this branch of science. Below are given extracts from a few of the thousands of letters which have been and are received daily by Prof. Bentley and mention of a few of the cases which Prof. Bentley has treated with wonderful success. It gives me pleasure to say to anyone who may be interested, that Magnetic Treatment may be taken with perfect success any distance from the operator. Having been afflicted with indigestion and consumption, by this method, I confidently commend it to every one seeking relief from disease. Dr. O. R. Bentley has proved his method to be a genuine, conscientious, practical method of Magnetic Healing and my gratitude is unbounded for the new life I have been able to enter through his power. Mrs. Geo. Gregory, of Deepwater, Mo., has been a constant sufferer for several years with a terrible stomach trouble. She tried several of the best doctors in her town, and almost every kind of patent medicine, but nothing did her any good. Mr. North hearing of Prof. Bentley sent for him to come and treat the boy. The Professor cured him in a few treatments. Mr. and Mrs. North are overjoyed to have their boy cured, and they are now rejoicing to know and say she feels like a new woman, and that words cannot express her joy in knowing that her sufferings are cured by his treatment. SCHOOL AND CHURCH.

There are 118 schools of music alone in Berlin.

There are over 5,000 students of music in London.

Of every 100 school children in London 65 leave school between their 10th and 14th years.

At the annual meeting of the German Baptist Brethren (Dunkards) at Roanoke, Va., there were 6,000 delegates present.

Since the pope issued his letter to the English people four years ago 30,000 Anglicans have joined the Roman Catholic church.

For several years the Church Extension society of the Methodist Episcopal church has furnished aid for the erection of two churches a day.

The new chapel recently dedicated at Wellesley college is the gift of Clement S. Houghton and Elizabeth G. Houghton as a memorial for their father, William S. Houghton.

The old schoolhouse in East Haddam, Conn., in which Nathan Hale taught the year after his graduation at Yale, is to be preserved by a patriotic society.

The First Presbyterian church of Yonkers, Dr. George F. Postcoast, pastor, gave the first thousand dollars for the Presbyterian minister's salary at Manila. Now that church has come forward again and given another thousand for the second year's salary.

It is not proper for a colored clergyman to sell his church for $600 and apply the money to the payment of his own salary. The charge that he did this was made against Rev. W. E. G. Coster, of Binghamton, at the African M. E. conference, and he publicly acknowledged his sinfulness and asked to be forgiven. He was permitted to act as a substitute preacher.

A peculiar religious sect, small in numbers, but thrifty, lives in eastern North Carolina, and the leading doctrine they practice is neglect of external appearances and all care to inwaid cleanliness. They bathe daily from head to foot and put on clean underwear; their houses are ill-kept without, but neat as a pin inside; their barns the same, and their little church, which looks like an old corn crib on the outside, is really beautiful within. They have given themselves no name, but their motto is "Look Within," and they are locally known as "Insiders."

The Southeast Asylum. Rev. Rucker of Farmington recently addressed a letter to State Auditor Seibert asking him to use his influence with Governor Stephens to have Judge W. R. Taylor of St. Francois county appointed on the commission to locate the Southeast insane asylum. Following is Mr. Seibert's reply:

MY DEAR FRIEND:—Replying to your favor of the 24th ult. I beg to advise that it will afford me great pleasure to state to Governor Stephens what I know concerning the character and standing of Judge W. R. Taylor of your county. I know Judge Taylor to be a man of excellent judgment, splendid moral character, remarkable ability and unquestioned integrity. It is due to him that I should say that much to Governor Stephens.

So far as the make up of the commission to locate the Southeast asylum is concerned there are a number of applicants from our section of the State, all of whom are men of true merit, and I had a talk with the Governor some days ago upon this subject and while he did not say definitely what he would do he led me to believe that possibly he might appoint the commission from outside the territory prescribed in the bill in which the institution is to be located. He expressed himself as being anxious to make the location of the asylum such way as to appoint a man from Iron county, St. Francois or Madison county or other counties asking it might result in a deadlock. Whereas, if he were to go outside of the territory entirely and select five strong, able, honest men to visit the various localities and locate the institution purely and solely upon the merits of the case that it would be better for him to carry out his inclination.

I have been requested to urge the appointment of quite a number of our friends in Southeast Missouri upon this commission. I dislike exceedingly to discriminate between them and as much as I am not in a position to be compelled to make a choice I can only say to the Governor what I know of all of them and let him be the judge as to the making up of the commission in the event he looks to that country for material with which to comprise it. J. M. SEIBERT.

A Soldier's Letter. Edward W. Killalee of Battery L, 6th Artillery, writes his first letter, saying he arrived at Manila, Philippine Islands, all right, and is enjoying good health; also says that the transport "Warren" had good luck, no casualties on so long a trip with 1440 men aboard her. He also says it is a long trip from Fort Wadsworth, Rosebank, New York, to Manila; it took 42 days to make it. Some of the boys were a little seasick, but it did not amount to much.

The Philippines is a great country. There are over 1000 separate islands having an area of 100,000 to 115,000 square miles, nearly equal to that of Great Britain and Ireland; a population of eight million souls; an annual foreign trade of $60,000,000 or one-fifth that of the Japanese Empire, and controlling the approaches of $500,000,000 of foreign trade with Asiatics. The vital thing to do just now is to press the war to a successful and early conclusion. After that, other matters can have fair and careful consideration. Our boys are stationed in the city of Manila, a dirty city. We are doing policeman's duty and we have a great time trying to make the natives understand us, and make a lot of arrests. Every morning there is a crowd of natives in jail. Our quarters are at the jail and we see everybody that is sent there. Of course they get a trial every morning, and if they cannot pay their fine they are sent out of the city and put to work.

To each of us are four blocks for two to patrol. In the toughest part of the city five to the beat. We may get the natives to understand after awhile. Well, it is a sight to see their dress. They are half-naked—wear a kind of Highland skirt, as near as I can explain it, with nothing else whatsoever; they do not wear shoes. The Spanish go along though there are they dress the same as in the United States. All we have to do, if the natives stand on the corners, is to tell them to go, and you bet they go. The Spanish treat us nicely. At night no one is allowed on the street after 8:30 P. M. If caught they are arrested. We walk our beat four on and eight hours off.

The city has no sewerage. The sidewalks are about four feet wide, of stone, and the street cars are pulled by little ponies. A man can walk faster than they go. Can ride all over the city for two cents; we ride for nothing. The houses are built of stone to the height of fifteen feet; the rest of the way up of lumber; and everybody lives up stairs and their stables are down stairs or underneath the house. The walls are about eighteen inches thick. There are a lot of Catholic churches, and some of them the prettiest I ever laid my eyes upon. There are two cities—Old Manila and New Manila. Old Manila has got a rock wall fifteen feet high and fifteen feet thick around the city. It was built to keep other countries from taking it. There are arches for wagons to drive in and arches for the people to walk in, and it is fixed so as to close with iron gates, and all around the walls are small cannons. The Spanish make a pattern of old design of brass cannon. There are about 700 native soldiers in prison here. I do not know how many there are in other cities. The natives are a hard-looking set I assure you, and the American soldiers on the firing line cannot get close enough to them to fight right for they will shoot two or three shots and run. They are treacherous; when we get them hemmed up then they will have to fight.

Cigars are cheap—one cent each; goods ones two for five cents. 150 cigarettes for five cents that are manufactured here. Everything from the United States high priced. Star tobacco $1.50 per lb. Rice is a very cheap article. The weather is very warm; it rains about every other day, but in half an hour everything is dry. The water we have comes four miles from the water works; the pipes are laid on top of the ground and you can guess how hot the water is when we get it. I see in the Manila paper or sheet that the Government is going to build an ice plant; maybe we will then get a drink of ice water. I will write more when I get more settled.

With regards to all, I will close. I am enjoying good health. W. E. K. June 12th, 1899.

LOUISA A. YOUNG, L. ZIMMERMAN, A. T. LEWIS.

Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth, and all that we could do for him did not seem to give more than temporary relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, and that you need it to advertise your meritorious remedy.—G. M. LAW, Keokuk, Iowa. For sale by Geo. C. Jacobs, Druggist.
