

Iron County Democratic Ticket.

For Representative: J. C. HORN. For Sheriff: B. S. GREGORY. For Collector of the Revenue: WM. T. O'NEAL. For Treasurer: JAMES BUFORD. For Prosecuting Attorney: WM. R. EDGAR. For Assessor: JAMES LEWIS. For County Judge—Southern District: MARION LEWIS. For County Judge—Western District: A. G. MOYER.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Schools begin Monday next. County Court meets in regular session next Monday. Preaching at Fort Hill next Sunday night by Rev. W. R. Nays, Presiding Elder. Lost—A child's gold necklace and Locket. Finder return to this office and receive reward. Mrs. H. O'Brien has released the Arcadia House for a period of five years. The house is now well filled with guests. It is understood that the County Court will appoint a number of road commissioners at the meeting of the court next week. Married—On Marble Creek, Sunday, August 26, by W. R. Patterson, August 26, of the Peace, Mr. Walter W. Pratt and Miss Dora Hughes—all of Iron county, Mo. H. B. Jones, who has been spending several weeks here, leaves Sunday for his home in Arkansas. Harry wants to be home in time to vote. The Arkansas election occurs Monday. Squire Patterson of Marble Creek reports that they had a good rain there Saturday evening—the first for several weeks. Late corn was greatly benefited, and a good crop is now assured. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Benson of Annapolis left last Sunday on a trip to Sweden where they will remain a couple of months. The Register wishes them the pleasant trip and safe return. Miss Georgia Muffley has returned to Ironton after a year's absence in Texas. Miss Muffley has accepted the position of assistant in the post-office here. Chester Prince will attend school this winter. Deputy U. S. Marshall Strasser arrived here Thursday last having in custody Will Ketton and Wm. Wingfield, both Dent County liquor sellers. The former was released and the latter sent to St. Louis for trial. Ed. Bollinger has been elected principal of the Arcadia public school, vice J. H. Turner, resigned. Ed. is a worthy young man, and we have no doubt will satisfactorily discharge the duties of the position assigned him. The Democratic County Central Committee will meet at the office of Wm. R. Edgar in Ironton on Saturday, September 1st, at 2 o'clock P. M., in accordance with notice given at last meeting. A full attendance is desired. One of the horses from "Valley Home" ran away Tuesday evening. The animal took flight in the south end of town, went north on Shepherd street, and then on Main street. No one hurt, but the buggy damaged considerably. The REGISTER has it on good authority that the Iron Mountain Company will have two drills running on Cedar Creek within the next thirty days. The lead indications are good enough to warrant this expenditure on the part of the company. Alex. R. Fletcher last week purchased a dairy farm near Poplar Bluff, and will engage in the dairy business there. Tuesday he shipped a car-load of Jersey cows from the dairy here, to Poplar Bluff. We wish the young man every success. The REGISTER wishes that in every township in the United States there was a Democrat, as earnest, faithful and hard-working as Dr. J. J. Norwine of Bismarck. If there was there would be absolutely no question of the success of Bryan and Democracy. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Whitworth returned last week from their trip to Europe. P. W. says he had a great time and saw a whole lot but he was mighty glad to get back home again. The Paris exposition, he says, doesn't compare with the Chicago fair at all. To Mr. Wm. Hempelman who lives on the Follett farm west of town the REGISTER is indebted for a dozen most magnificent onions. Mr. Hempelman tells us he can grow five hundred bushels of these onions to the acre. They are as fine as can be produced anywhere. The cases against Wm. A. Fletcher came up for trial in the Circuit Court at Potosi this week. The defendant asked for continuance making affidavit that necessary witnesses were absent. On this showing the cases were continued until the next regular meeting of the Washington county Circuit Court in March. Loyd, little son of Milton Laughlin, was quite seriously injured Tuesday afternoon. The boy was riding down Main street on a bicycle, and in front of the Commercial Hotel ran into a team from Whitworth's stable. One of the horses kicked the little fellow in the head and for a number of hours he was unconscious. In fact it was feared he was fatally hurt. Toward evening, though, he grew better, and at this writing seems little the worse for his accident. It was a narrow and lucky escape.

Willie Schieuter and Ed. Arms (the latter colored) were arrested by the constable Tuesday for jumping on moving trains. They were each given twenty-five days in jail. There are too many boys in this town who make a practice of jumping on the trains. It must be stopped! List of letters remaining in the Post-Office at Ironton, Mo., for the week ending Aug. 18, 1900. If not called for within two weeks, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office: Pinkley Belle Miss Clay Bertha Eckert Nora Persons claiming the above will please say "advertised" and give date of this list. J. N. BISHOP, P. M. Several people in the Valley are suffering from what is popularly termed "ivy poisoning," but from what we can learn it is not resultant from coming in contact with poison ivy, but some other weed or plant lately introduced. The man who weeds his lawn or his garden should be careful where he puts his hands. The poison from the new weed is virulent and stubborn to treatment, the cure requiring the strongest embrocations. In one instance it not only affected the hands and arms, but spread until the whole body was inflamed, requiring a week's treatment for its cure. The following is reproduced from Wednesday's Globe-Democrat: "The wedding of Miss Rosa M. Keith and Mr. R. E. Hinchey took place on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride, 4009 Delmar street, St. Louis. Rev. Dr. Josephus Stephan, pastor of the Mount Auburn M. E. Church, officiating. The ceremony was performed according to the ritual of the Methodist Church, including the presentation of the ring, which was carried by a little maiden who is a friend of the bride, in a basket of flowers. The young couple left the same evening for a bridal tour South and West, which will include Denver, Indian Territory, Alabama and Texas. The bride formerly resided in Bowling Green, Ky., where her father was a prominent merchant. Mr. Hinchey is a member of the well-known family of that name in De Soto, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Hinchey will make their home in St. Louis. The bridegroom is well known in the Valley, and has many friends here who wish him every happiness. Our good friend Rev. L. C. Wernert, of Arcadia, is enjoying a vacation in the Rocky Mountains. The following is from the Denver News, August 22d: "There were two jovial Catholic priests at the Albany, from Missouri, yesterday. One is a Democrat and the other is a Republican, and as they said, they spend some of their time, now that they are on a vacation, arguing politics. They are Father John H. Way of St. Thomas Aquinas church, St. Louis, and Father L. C. Wernert of the Arcadia college, Arcadia, Mo. The former is the Democrat and the latter the Republican. 'Dockery,' the Democratic nominee for governor, will carry Missouri by a big majority,' said Father Way, 'and Bryan will carry the state too.' Father Wernert did not think so. He shook his head and said, 'I think 'Dockery' is stronger than Bryan in Missouri. He is, of course, better known, and is a very popular man. But there is no question about the election of the whole Democratic ticket. I believe that Bryan will be the next president.' The two priests have already been to the top of Pike's Peak, and have gone to other scenic points in Colorado. Father Wernert, who has never been in Colorado before, could not find adjectives sufficient to express his admiration." Last Saturday the A. V. C. Band went to Bismarck to furnish music for the base ball picnic held on that day. The boys started in their fine band-wagon about 6 o'clock A. M., but as they drove into Pilot Knob a steady rain set in and we about food and returned to Ironton. At the station a message was received directing us to remain until further notice. At ten the skies cleared and notice was received to "come up on 52," which we did. A tune or two at Bismarck station, and then we set off for the picnic grounds. The attendance was not large at the beginning, but increased to a big gathering in the afternoon. It was divided for a couple of hours by a well-contested game of ball in an adjacent field, but about four o'clock the grounds were well filled. A light shower a little later hoisted umbrellas and caused unprotected people to hunt for shelter; but it passed in a few minutes and from that time on everybody was in good humor for enjoyment. At five a balloon ascension was made, the ascension returning to earth by means of a parachute. He is well up in his hazardous profession. A more interesting and successful ascent and descent we have never witnessed. At 6:30 the picnic was officially declared at an end and everybody departed quietly and peaceably. No hint of disorder had disturbed the day, and we commend the management for the excellence of the arrangements at all points. We took supper at the City Hotel, and an elegant meal it was—good enough to tempt an epicure, to say nothing of a lot of people whose appetites were sharpened by enforced abstinence and unworked exertion. The "boys" ate, enjoyed their eating and blessed the land! After supper a heavy rain and wind storm kept everybody in doors, but the hours to train time passed quickly notwithstanding. Singing, music and conversation gave an extra impetus to feeling time. The members of the A. V. C. B. will not soon forget the kind words of Dr. Norwine, who lent the pleasure of his presence until his professional duties took him away. May he live long and prosper! At eleven-thirty the train came along, and twenty-five minutes later we trudged home in darkness and rain, when sleep put her seal upon the doings of another day gone forever. One of the camping-out party at Iron Mountain Lake sends the REGISTER the following addendum to last week's account of their doings and seeings: In last week's issue we saw a communication about the camping party at Iron Mountain. Now we doubt not that the lake and air were fine, and that the campers enjoyed themselves. But those who were not there might be given a glimpse of the merry making.

A snap-shot here and there would reveal three or four tents. One larger than the rest contains an improved table, cots and boards being much in evidence. Here meals are served. It matters not the contents of the other tents. Camp chairs and stools scattered themselves promiscuously. There were hammocks too, tricky ones! The unsophisticated man visitor was decoyed into a restful swing, his fair charmer would unintentionally move aside, when the young man would suddenly dive—head first, of course, as though a daily pastime—remain with head and toes touching earth, struggle and grow pale, then with mighty effort, a little splashing in the dust, and he is an upright animal. Nice young man he is, too—don't mind it a bit. Once again they locate; but brave Young America with too much knife, partly severs the tie that binds hammock and tree. A gentle motion, a heavy shock, again mother earth affords a resting place. Under star-wark trees the family hammock ways peacefully, ever full, always room for one more. Here the lords of creation did more thoroughly show their acrobatic skill. A small provocation of the size of two full grown men give the occupants a sensation of unrest. A chilly feeling creeps near by, the hair stands on end partly because two of the occupants of the family swing have put their heads where their words stay, and partly because it "had to." Ah, yes, every poetic motion is roused! Maybe that lake was smooth at times; but at other occurrences there were several knots on its bosom. 'Twas a knotty raft that held the best swimmers, 'twas a knotty bandanna that held stray locks in place, 'twas a naughty boy who pushed the timid waders into deep water, and was it not a coxster that the girl wore? But 'twas not a man who took the watermelon picture! Not until the mascot left were there unwelcome sounds. When his form disappeared down the road, in the opposite direction there came grunts of satisfaction. A long, lean, grizzly red porker wended his solitary way into camp. With elevated nose he waded by, then off. Words of commendation are passed upon the noble deed. But what those discordant notes? Where those crunching sounds? It is they of the bifurcated hoof sticking their noses into boxes and baskets. Not only had the one hungry looking hog returned, but he had told all his four-footed kind in the county; and it became necessary for many to play the part of a barking animal. We shouted and called for "Dingo, Yellow Dog Dingo," but he came not. For this reason and others, perhaps the queer scratching on a tent at night fall, the campers did take flight before the rain. P. S.—Don't think any body was afraid in that tent we mentioned at the last. You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The Arcadia Valley Drug Co. will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowels complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. Personal. E. C. Clark is in Wisconsin. To The Patrons of Ironton Public Schools. On September 3, the Ironton Public Schools will open for work at 9 A. M. We are very anxious for all pupils who intend coming the first term to be present at this time and enroll, that they may be properly classified, seated, secure the necessary books, and get an even start with their classmates. Many pupils will take up new studies, and to remain away a few weeks, may be the cause of their having to be put back into a grade lower. All pupils who did not attend our school the last term of last year will please report to the Principal for classification. Those who were not regularly promoted last year but were "conditioned" will please report the same to the Principal. No one will be permitted to graduate from the Ironton Public High School until all work outlined in the Course of Study has been completed. The thing which seems to be most urgently needed and which is most frequently lacking in Public School work, is regular and punctual attendance on the part of the pupils, and a well-defined Course of Study and the careful classification which it encourages and enforces. Without the support and encouragement of the parent, to secure regular and punctual attendance. Without such attendance, the child and the school will suffer. Regarding the Course of Study, it is but natural that one can work to better effect and take a greater interest in doing that work when the whole task is set before him. He understands it, and he realizes that each day and each month brings him that much nearer the accomplishment of the end he desires to gain. Should he look back, he sees that progress has been made, and the consciousness that past efforts have been fruitful spurs him on to greater efforts in mastering the portion that remains. Feeling the need of literary and rhetorical exercises, we will this year have in the afternoon on the last Friday of each month these exercises, to which all are cordially invited. Very respectfully, ROBT. E. WILKINSON. I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. —Your truly Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Lidelity R. I. For sale by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.
