This Institution is designed and constructed for the comfort and accommodation of patients who seek relief and recuperation and the recovery of lost health. Its location is admirable for this purpose. It is on the Iron Mountain Railway, 39 miles south of St. Louis, and 640 feet above that city. Nestled at the foot of Shepherd Mountain, embowered among majestic trees, just off the main street, and free from its noise and dust, and alongside, and connected with, the famed Emerson Park, with its shady walks and drive-ways, Sylvan Lake and Grant Spring, and their attractive surroundings, no more beautiful or restful retreat for the invalid and convalescent, or the weary and careworn, can be found in all America.
