On the occasion of the recent Republican pow-wow in Pilot Knob, one of the speakers laid his hand on the head of Judge Schmidt (he of the wet and dry) and said, "Here is the noblest judge in the United States!" Half of the crowd called for water and the other half rushed out doors for fresh air.

At a meeting of the city council Monday night of last week the tax rate for the current year was placed at thirty-five cents on the $100 valuation. This is the highest rate in the history of the municipality but it had to be done to meet expenses. Ironton is not old enough yet in its dryness to have reached that stage of low tax rate that the "dry" orator always insures you will follow the abolition of the saloon.

A little babe—its mother a foreigner—died on No. 8, the north-bound passenger train last Wednesday just about the time the train was pulling into this station. The poor mother was wild with grief and all the passengers sympathized with her in her sorrow. Being unable to talk English she could not make her wants known which rendered her all the more helpless. It was a sad circumstance.

Wm. M. Barry died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. B. Gale, in Farmington, Monday. Born in this county near Doe Run in 1836. He lived nearly all his life here. He leaves five children: Mrs. H. S. Whitener; Mrs. C. B. Gale, Farmington; Wilson Barry, St. Louis; Mrs. Wm. Huff Liberty, Mo.; and John Barry, Texas. The funeral services were conducted at Pentecost church, by Rev. R. C. Martin, Tuesday afternoon.—Lead Bell News.

Bathing is all the rage in Poplar Bluff these torrid days. If you don't believe it, just take a stroll to the banks of Black river any time between sunup and 11 o'clock at night. The water is alive with bathers—not only small boys, but grownups as well. The new bath house on the East Side will be ready in a few days and the sport threatens to become more popular than ever. The building is being put up by the city and persons who desire to use it can do so without charge.—Poplar Bluff Republican.

A wedding of interest to Arcadia Valley friends was that of Miss Mae Bethel and Mr. John Maurer which took place at St. Louis June 25th 1908, on West Belle Terrace. The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Bethel of Arcadia—a sweet and charming brunette, while the groom is a business man of St. Louis, possessing considerable wealth, owning several meat and grocery stores, and much real estate in St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Maurer are at home to friends, after July 25th, at 4157 West Belle place. The REGISTER wishes them every happiness.

DIED—Little Ruby A. Vance, daughter R. C. Vance, at her home near Roselle, Mo., Tuesday evening, July 14, aged 8 months and 11 days. She was a bright little child and words cannot tell how sadly she will be missed by her parents, brothers and sister, and other relatives. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Spiller at the Cove, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Cove cemetery at 2 o'clock P. M. Wednesday.

That givest and we yield to Thee, God of the human heart, For bitter though grief's cup may be, Thou givest but our part, Oh, thou couldst not our grief be stilled, Yet not rebuke our tears! A FRIEND.

The old man Scott who was shot in the leg and seriously wounded by his step-son, James Miner, at their home on Middle Fork, some ten weeks ago, died at the home of some of his relatives near Bellegrade, Washington county, Wednesday of this week. Scott was 75 years of age and very feeble in health at the time of the shooting and it is remarkable that he survived the wounds so long. Miner is held in the Ironton jail on an indictment returned by the grand jury of this county on charge of assault with intent to kill. This charge will undoubtedly be dismissed and one of murder preferred against him.—Centerville Outlook.

Again the wedding bells have rang out and this time they announce the marriage of Mr. J. W. Hulsey of this place and Miss Minerva Left, of Ironton, Mo. Miss Left was visiting in our city some time ago and became acquainted with Mr. Hulsey. Both young people have a host of friends in this place. Mrs. R. R. Robinson prepared the wedding breakfast. The happy couple will reside in the house formerly occupied by Mendices. A life of happiness and pleasure is all the bad luck the Observer wishes them.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulsey were the recipients of many beautiful as well as useful presents, presented to them at a linen shower last night, which was given by the ladies of this city.—Hoxie (Ark.) Observer.

News was received here Monday from Current View to the effect that one Everett Blackburn, a married man aged about 35 years, had his left arm blown off at the elbow while dynamiting fish in Current River a short distance below Current View last Sunday morning, by the premature explosion of a stick of dynamite which he held in his hand. Reports have it that Blackburn was out getting a mess of fish for his Sunday dinner, using the explosive, prohibited by law, instead of the rod and line. It was thought for awhile that death would result from his injuries but he will recover, but will be a cripple for life. His home is at Success, Ark. This should be a warning to all parties who are in the habit of using this unlawful and unsportsmanlike method of securing fish.—Doniphan Prospect-News.

After an absence of almost eighteen years, Joseph Callow of Butte City, Montana, returned to Ironton the past week and was re-married to the wife of his younger days. Something over twenty years ago Joe Callow, then a miner on Pilot Knob, and Mollie Dinger, daughter of the late Franz Dinger, were united in marriage. They lived together a few years and Callow went west. His wife did not go with him and a year or two later she sued for and obtained a divorce. The years rooked along. If there was any communication between the two the world knew it not. Last week Callow came back to Ironton, met his former wife, proposed, was accepted, and last Wednesday evening his honor, Squire Rasche, performed the ceremony that again made them man and wife. Some old friends treated them to a charivari that night and a general good time followed. Mr. and Mrs. Callow left today for Butte City, where they will make their home. The REGISTER wishes them every happiness!

Piedmont had a taste of labor litigation when two scabs sent here to take the places of striking car men, were proven guilty last Tuesday in the City Court of carrying concealed weapons and fined. J. Edgar who described himself as a "watchman" but who has been known in Piedmont as one of the dime novel sleuths, or Nick Carter heroes, sent here by the railroad company while the strike is in progress, was fined $25 and trimmings by Mayor Malcolm, upon testimony indicating that while climbing down off a box car a combination of gambling zephyrs and flying cat tails had revealed a pistol in his hip pocket. The chief witness against him was Wm. Cook, a railroad man. T. E. Davis, a "scab" of the actual workman kind demanded a jury trial. G. B. Galloway, night foreman of the switch engine swore he saw Davis remove his coat just before entering the car inspectors' shanty, thus revealing a gun in his hip pocket. Seeing how the testimony was going, Judge Raney, counsel for Davis fell back upon the statute which exempts a man for going armed when his life is endangered. The jury was unable to find anything in the evidence indicating that Davis was in danger, and therefore fined him $20 and costs. Judge Raney made one of the eloquent jury-jarring speeches for which he is famous, winding up with a flowery tribute to the jurors' good looks, that was redolent of jessamine odors, June roses and angel kisses, but all to no avail. The city was represented by City Attorney J. F. Lindsay and by M. N. Parrish. Parrish made a strong argument. Lindsay in the closing speech showed very clearly that the strikers here have acted within their constitutional rights as upheld by the supreme court. His argument was masterly and convincing and left no basis for the pistol-toter's claim for exemption. But the cases were appealed.—Piedmont Banner.

We are trying hard to keep from being classed as the Town of No Good, on the bank of the river Slow, where the some-time or-oth-er-son's the air and the soft go-asies grow! It lies in the valley of let-her-slide: It's the home of the reckless I don't care, where the give-it-ups abide. The town is as old as the human race, and it grows with the flight of years: it is wrapped in the fog of idlers' dreams: it's streets are paved with discarded schemes and sprinkled with useless tears. BILL.
