

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce G. W. MARSHALL as a candidate for Constable of Arcadia Township, subject to the will of the voters at the general election, November 3, 1908.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Another drouth?
Any foot ball team this year?
Trains about all running on time.
Delightful weather the past week.
The election in less than a month.
The hunters are getting some squirrels.
The hub factory has closed down indefinitely.
Is the old-time circus gone from us forever?
Chas. Newman is painting St. Paul's church.
Very little business on the railroad these days.
Circuit court meets October 26th. The docket is a small one.
L. M. Fox is now domiciled in his new home at Pilot Knob.
The Arcadia Heights' drive is becoming exceedingly popular.
Bostonian Entertainers at the Academy of Music Friday night.
R. C. Knight has sold his pool room in Arcadia to Lige Masterson.
Some badly needed work is being done on College street in Arcadia.
Mr. Edgar made a Democratic speech at Piedmont last Saturday night.
It is predicted that potatoes will be scarce and high in price this winter.
Wonder if Old Ben still insists that there is no panic in the hub business.
Prof. Daugherty says that the Graniteville school is getting along very nicely.
Don't forget the Boston Entertainers at the Academy of Music, Friday night.
Wm. Gross is having a good business with the B. N. Brown bargain wagon.
The return of Rev. Aspley to Fort Hill for another year is pleasing to all his church folk.
The new chapel at Arcadia is nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy.
United States Senator Stone will deliver a speech in Ironton the latter part of the month.
Mr. Hart of Poplar Bluff has leased St. Paul's rectory for a year and will make his home here.
A number of valley people are in St. Louis this week seeing the Veiled Prophet and other sights.
While in St. Louis last week J. L. Baldwin bought a driving horse and buggy. Ollie Fox drove the horse here.
Dave Brown, a faithful old darkey, died at his home in north Ironton last night at the age of about ninety years.
To the Murdock-Crum Land Co. of Chicago we are indebted for a very interesting volume entitled, "Three Acres and Liberty."
Don't fail to inspect our big stock of hosiery and underwear. Every kind for everybody.
LOPEZ STORE CO.
County Clerk Reburn and Circuit Clerk Hawkins are attending the state fair at Sedalia and will be gone until the latter part of the week.
Mrs. Thos. Newman returned last week from a three months' absence in England. Mrs. Newman had a delightful trip and is in the best of health.
Congressman Smith made a tour of Iron county last week in the interest of his candidacy for re-election. Mr. Smith says that he believes Iron county is in fine shape this year.
The approaches to the Ironton station are still in a most horrible condition. The company is apparently wholly indifferent as to the safety and comfort of the traveling public.
Mrs. Wm. Gross attended the fair at Bismarck last week and captured two blue ribbons for fancy work. Dr. and Mrs. Trauernicht's little girl won a prize in the baby show.
Hon. John M. Atkinson, Speaker of the Missouri House of Representatives, will make a Democratic speech at Des Arc next Saturday night, October 10th. All are cordially invited.
Wm. Marion Reedy, the famous writer of the St. Louis Mirror, will be here some day this week for the purpose of taking notes on which to make a "write-up" of the valley as a summer resort.
Representative Polk and Prosecuting Attorney Damron will address the voters at the following times and places:
King's Schoolhouse, Thursday evening, 7:30, October 8th.
Collins' Schoolhouse, Monday evening, 7:30, October 12th.
Vulcan Schoolhouse, Tuesday evening, 7:30, October 13th.

The REGISTER's supplement this week gives some of the speeches made at the Democratic editors' banquet in St. Louis and other interesting matter.
An audience of over 250 persons greeted Mr. Revelle when he made his speech at Bellevue last Friday night. Mr. Revelle is a pleasing and entertaining talker and much enthusiasm greeted his remarks.
NOTICE.—You can order anything you want that is carried in stock at B. N. Brown's and have it delivered by Wm. Gross on his next trip with the bargain wagon. B. N. BROWN.
Ironton goes to sleep early these nights, and if you have occasion to traverse Main street after 8:30 o'clock in the evening you will find the quietude and darkness of a deserted village round about you.
The St. Francois county officials are after the violators of the local option law. C. C. Hand of Farmington was convicted of selling whiskey last week, and fined $500, and sentenced to six months in jail.
Mrs. Geo. Steel, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Crull, during the absence of her liege lord across the big pond, returned to the city last Friday to greet the wanderer on his return.—Hillsboro New Era.
Mr. D. Myers will leave soon for Warren, Arkansas, where he will spend the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Wells. This will be Mr. Myers' first prolonged vacation in over thirty years. We trust that he will enjoy it immensely.
R. M. Goff, who has charge of W. J. Lee's hub factory on West Fork in Reynolds county, was an Ironton visitor last week. Mr. Goff says there isn't much doing in the hub business these days, but that he certainly has had a good time catching fish this summer.
At a meeting of the Ironton school board Monday night an order was made authorizing the committee on supplies to purchase such books for the use of the pupils of the schools, as designated by the principal, said books to be the property of the district.
Mr. C. N. Jones was in to see us Monday. He tells that our friend, Herman Kretschmar, is very enthusiastic politically this year. He has a personal acquaintance with Mr. Bryan, while he and Mr. Kern, the nominee for vice-president, have been close friends for years.
Another lot of Baptist ministers were here last Friday and will probably locate the State Chautauqua on the same site selected by the St. Louis Chautauqua, east of Pilot Knob. Mr. York tells us that the Chautauqua will attract 15,000 visitors to the valley next summer.
Eli Hopkins, A. Bess, W. J. Alexander, E. K. Hopkins, John W. Karsch, Elijah Evans and Jacob Helber were among those from here who attended the reunion at Pilot Knob last Saturday, Sunday and Monday. They report a fine time despite the inclement weather on Sunday.—Farmington News.
Died—William Mayes, October 2d, 1908, aged 85 years, six months and three days. He is survived by four sons and two daughters. Deceased was a member of the Baptist church. The funeral was held from the home of his son in Pilot Knob Saturday afternoon. Interment in Pilot Knob cemetery. S.
Judge Seldon P. Spencer of St. Louis made a Republican speech at the courthouse last Thursday night. We did not hear the honorable gentleman but we are told that he offered no explanation of his attempt to loot the stockholders of Lewis' People's Bank to the extent of $12,000 for one week's services as receiver.
The REGISTER this week publishes the announcement of G. W. Marshall as a candidate for Constable of Arcadia Township, subject to the will of the voters at the general election in November. Mr. Marshall has filled this position for the past two years and more, and has proven himself competent, careful and faithful. The good people of Arcadia township will not forget his efficient services of the past when they go to the polls on election day.
Politte Elvins, Republican candidate for Congress, is pretty quick at "catching on" sometimes, and it didn't take him long to realize that if he wanted any votes in Iron county he couldn't afford to keep company with the "ring busters." He started from here with them last Tuesday afternoon, but the meeting that night at Cedar Grove school house was enough for Politte. Next morning he picked up his grip, and unattended and alone, wended his way into Washington county, leaving the "ring-busters" to pursue their journey to the west end of the county without him.
Married—At Newport, Arkansas, Sunday, October 4, 1908, Miss Laura Sue Whitworth, of this city, and Mr. Arnot L. Sheppard, of Doniphan, Mo. The bride is the charming and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Whitworth, of Ironton, and the bridegroom is the son of Circuit Judge Jesse C. Sheppard, of Doniphan, holding the position of official stenographer of his father's court. The REGISTER extends congratulations to Mr. Sheppard, and wishes for him and his fair and lovely bride every happiness! Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard will be at home in Doniphan after November 1st.
W. H. Smollinger was over from Iron Mountain Tuesday. He says Iron Mountain's vote will not be as large this year as it once was by a good deal, but that it will return a small majority for the g. o. p. Mr. Smollinger will shortly begin a suit in Iron county directed against the county court to compel that body to show by what authority it has collected taxes on property along the Bellevue road the last twenty years and had not expended any money on said road. He said he might not win his suit, but he certainly would make the court look cheap.—Farmington News.
Smollinger has lived at Iron Mountain less than four years. He knows as much about what took place there twenty years ago as does the Mikado of Japan, perhaps. But then he's not going to sue anybody. Just bluffing; talking, maybe, in the hope of seeing his name in print.
Last Wednesday Rev. H. A. Stowell and wife left for Batesville, Ark., whither he was called by the vestry of the Episcopal church of that town. For nearly four years had Mr. S. had charge of St. Paul's church of Ironton, serving faithfully, intelligently and efficiently. There is not a citizen of the Arcadia Valley but regrets his departure, although mingled with that regret is the hope and belief that he is transported to a wider field and therefore greater usefulness. Mr. S. is bound by heart and brain to his work, and being rarely gifted with talent natural and studiously acquired, is destined, I believe, to great accomplishment. He is broad-minded, an accomplished scholar, and of indefatigable industry; commands the respect and good-will of all who come in contact with him. Weaknesses, being human, he must have, but meanness has no place in his make-up. And Mrs. S. is fitting help-meet to such a man. Of this I have set down seem fulsome praise to any reader let him at once divest himself of such idea, for I assure him that my utterance by no means bounds my thought and feeling in the matter. Although no communicant, I have been pretty close to Mr. and Mrs. S. in the years they were with us, and their absence for me makes a void I can scarcely hope to fill. I can but recognize it as the surrendering of one more link in the chain that binds to the felicities of earth, and cry content, I suppose. But the sound is only from the lip. The tie that Friendship knits chafes not the heart.
I know both more than once been said: Nor breaks the chain esteem doth form a part.
"All truth and thought alike are dead: Cherishing, as I do, the memory of the days gone by, can blame attach to my deep regret and fervent "God-speed"?"
On Tuesday of last week when Judge Schmidt came into the court room, and before court was opened, County Clerk Reburn asked him if his signature to the "certificate" published in the Enterprise a couple of weeks previous was genuine. At first he said he had signed the document, but when it was read to him he denied that he had attached his name to it as printed. The "certificate," it will be remembered, alleged that Judges Buford and Moyer had ordered that the county pay Mr. Reburn a yearly salary of $600, in addition to the $1700 which is the limit set by the law to all his perquisites, for himself and assistants. All over the $1700 he must return to the county treasury, and every three months he is required to file a sworn statement of all fees and compensation he has received during that time. Yet the certificate averred that the two Democratic judges had voted him $600 in addition to the $1700 allowed by the law. Judge Schmidt denied that he had attached his name to it; that all he had ever said was that Judges Buford and Moyer had voted Reburn a salary of $600 for keeping the county's books and accounts, which he (Schmidt) had dissented from. Therupon Mr. Reburn proffered to accompany him to the Enterprise office and read the written document, and if the editor was guilty he would talk to him; but Schmidt said he would go alone and have the editor correct the erroneous statement in the next issue of his paper. But there was no correction in the next issue; that is not the way of that delectable sheet. The false statement—repudiated even by Judge Schmidt—made in the form of a certificate, charging Buford and Moyer and Reburn with deliberate violation of law, is permitted to stand. As to which particular member of the "Gang" is the liar of first instance, every one must determine for himself. Mr. Reburn used some very forcible language in his colloquy with Judge Schmidt. Affable and courteous as he is by nature, even his patience had been exhausted, and he made the fact known to "the noblest Judge" in no uncertain phrase.

Annapolis News.
Dry and cool, but nice weather to work in.
Several people were here to attend the trial between Daniel Lewis and John Crowley. P. W. Whitworth, E. L. Barnhouse and W. R. Edgar were here from Ironton. From Des Arc: Geo. Wallis, John Kelly, Wiley Roberts, Henry Ruble and several others. Vulcan had a good turn-out of ladies and gentlemen; about the whole city was here. The trial was continued because of the absence of a material witness, O. W. Roop, of Bellevue, public administrator, who failed to put in an appearance, and but for the good talk of his friend, Wm. R. Edgar, he would have been attached and fined. Case will come up for trial October 14th.
We had Democratic speaking here Friday afternoon. Wm. R. Edgar, Congressman Smith, C. P. Damron and Henry Polk made speeches. The attendance was small.
John T. Webb and family and Dr. Moffit are in St. Louis taking in the sights, and before it was dark last night some one had raised the window of Webb's store house and no one knows what the damage was inside. The guilty party is known. The window sash would not go down and the store was watched most of the night by the writer.
John Hodges of Redford is in town to-day on his way to St. Louis.
W. A. Shade, of Ellington, and Emma Keathley, of near Lesterville, were united in marriage by Squire Kitchell in his office, October 4th, 1908. Chas. H. Lefever and H. M. Loyd were witnesses.
S. Kitchell received a nice card from R. Hill. Good for you, Bob; that is the only way we can tell each other that we are still living, and a dead man is no good.
Dr. F. Farr has gone to Sedalia and other places looking for a location. He is a good physician and business man, and we hate to lose him. Dr. Ab. O'Bannon will locate here.
Charles H. Williams' wife, the deputy in the post-office, is sick with pneumonia fever, but is some better at this writing.
The Annapolis nine played the Vulcan team Sunday and the score was 7 to 4 in favor of Annapolis; Annapolis and Hogan first nines played in the afternoon; Annapolis, 15, Hogan, 3; second nines, Annapolis, 7, Hogan, 13. Come again, boys.

THE PLACE TO BUY SHOES IS AT B. N. BROWN'S.
From Bellevue.
From early morn until late at night last Sunday, the rain fell almost continuously out here. Deo gratias. Many of our farmers are now busily engaged breaking ground preparatory to sowing wheat, which has been deferred to this late date, owing to the drouth which has prevailed over this locality for nearly three months. Only a small acreage of wheat will be sowed in this valley as it is very late for breaking the ground.
Flour here is selling at $2.70 and $3 per hundred. Isn't that cheap? Corn, if you wish to buy, is only 90c per bushel, and meal is only $1.10 per bushel.
Dr. J. Q. Adams and family last week left for their new home in Nebraska.
Dr. Meadow and family are now residents of our town.
James Middleton, who purchased the vacant lots in South Bellevue, is having a dwelling house erected thereon. The house will be one story high, and consist of five rooms. Jack Middleton will superintend the building of the house.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to thank our friends and neighbors who kindly assisted us during the late illness and death of our husband and father. They will ever be held in grateful remembrance.
MRS. D. GUNTON AND FAMILY.
From Goodland.
Last Sunday was an ideal autumn day.
Marvis, the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Redmond Black, died September 28, and was buried in the Terry graveyard. Little Marvis was a victim of scarlet fever. The family have the sympathy of their neighbors in the loss of their little girl.
Irwin Adams has returned from his trip to Nebraska, and with his wife and daughter and F. M. Adams visited relatives at Belgrade last week.
The sale of household and farming goods at G. B. Goggin's was well attended last Saturday.

From Goodwater.
Excepting light showers, no rain fell here during the past four weeks until the afternoon of the 22d instant, when a good rain fell. Corn and late garden crops have been greatly damaged by the drouth.
Topping corn and molasses making have been the chief employments of the past month in this neighborhood. More patches of sorghum were raised here this year than usual and, as a result, home-made molasses will be enjoyed by many families.
Owing to the drouth very little plowing for wheat has yet been done.
There has been much sickness here lately. Most of the patients are now convalescent. Drs. Rainy Parker, of Dillard, Sherman Barr, of Czar, and Lafayette Stauffer, of Bixby, attended the sick folks.
The following named persons came here on business during September: Mr. McAtee, of Belgrade; Louis Turnbough and Frank Coffman, of Adam, Mo.; Thomas Crocker, of near Peoria, Mo.; Frank Adams, of Goodland; John Johnson, of near Tolu.
On business went: Geo. Thomas, to Bixby; Ranson Beers, to Viburnum; Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wisdom, Ray and Ira Carl, to Dillard; W. D. and J. H. Crocker, to St. Louis; R. Beers, to Howe's Mill; G. W. Boulch, to Czar; W. A. Abney, to Belgrade.
Visiting came during September: Richard Davis, of Greely; Mrs. J. N. Stuart and son, of Bixby; Harvey Willhite and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wood, J. R. Miller and wife, and Jesse Brakefield, of near Tolu; Israel Chandler, of near Davisville; Henry Mackey, and family, of Desloge.
Visiting went: J. H. Crocker and family, to Ironton; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. O. Scott and W. A. Abney and family to near Tolu.
Died: On Tuesday, September 14th, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin.
I was pleased to learn that Judge W. H. Shy has secured the nomination for representative of Reynolds County. If elected, he will be sure to fill the position with credit to himself and to the best interests of his constituents. R. E.
