O. H. P. Catron Is Dead.

West Plains.—Col. O. H. P. Catron, banker, capitalist and prominent ex-Confederate veteran, died in this city last night after eight days' illness from pneumonia. He left only one child—Lee M. Catron, cashier of the First National bank of this city—with whom he made his home. His wife died several years ago of pneumonia also. He had four brothers all of whom served in the Confederate army. One brother and an only sister were at his bedside when he died.

St. James Opera House Burns.

St. James.—The St. James opera house was destroyed by fire. This removes one of the old landmarks of St. James, which was built by William James about sixty years ago. About fifteen years ago it was purchased by the Odd Fellows and was remodeled and the upper part was used as a lodge hall and the lower part as an opera house. D. J. White bought it three years ago. The loss is estimated at $2,000.

Urges River Navigation.

St. Joseph.—Speaking on the present agitation concerning navigation of the Missouri river, Walter S. Dickey, leader of the movement in Kansas City, and contributor of $50,000 to a fund for equipping a steamboat for the line, addressed more than 100 members of the St. Joseph A. D. club at the Hotel Robideaux. The speaker was given an ovation at the conclusion of his remarks.

Improved Roads in Missouri.

Columbia.—Missouri has 800 miles of macadam roads, and of this 120 miles were constructed in 1908," said Curtis Hill, state highway engineer. More than 300 miles of gravel roads were built last year, making about 4,600 miles in all.

Runaway Fatal to Woman.

Kansas City.—Mrs. Henry C. Timmonds, wife of the law partner of Senator Warner, was killed here in a runaway accident. Timmonds, who was with her in the carriage, also was seriously injured and is in a hospital suffering from a fractured leg. The team took fright at a speeding automobile and ran into a telephone pole.

William Jewell Is Winner.

Liberty.—William Jewell college won the debate here with Washington University of St. Louis, the judges voting 2 to 1. William Jewell had the negative of the question, "Resolved, That corporations engaged in interstate commerce should be compelled to incorporate under the federal laws."

Miners Strike at Leadwood.

Bonne Terre.—Three hundred miners employed by the St. Joseph Lead company of Leadwood, Mo., went on strike there for an increase in wages. The men, who are not affiliated with any national labor organization, ask $2 for eight hours work, an increase of 30 cents over the present rate. Thus far there has been no disorder.

Five Minutes to Get Divorce.

Springfield.—Five minutes after she had filed her petition for divorce, Mrs. Harriet Maddux was granted a decree separating her from her husband, John Maddux. She charged improper conduct.

Death of Old Resident.

Cape Girardeau.—Mrs. Martha Thilenius, 81 years old, died in this city. Her body was taken to St. Louis for cremation. She was born in Coburg, Germany, in 1828 and went to St. Louis in 1855. In 1857 she came to this city, where she had lived ever since. Her husband and four children survive her. All are residents of Cape Girardeau.

Missouri Philanthropist Dies.

St. Joseph.—Theodore Hoagland, wealthy citizen and philanthropist, died of heart disease, aged 64 years. Mr. Hoagland was a widower. He gave liberally to churches and other charities. He was born in Boonville, Mo.

Guard Kills Negro Convict.

Jefferson City.—Henry Richardson, a guard at the Missouri penitentiary, shot and killed Julius Prince a negro convict from Cape Girardeau county. The negro attacked the guard. A coroner's inquest exonerated the guard.

Ends Her Life With Strychnine.

Louisiana.—George Webster, aged 35 years, a prominent citizen of Ashburn, Mo., north of here, committed suicide by taking strychnine. He leaves a wife and two children. The cause was not learned.

Chillicothe Depot Burns.

Chillicothe.—The Burlington depot, a frame structure, was destroyed by fire. The flames started from a defective flue. The fire was fanned by a stiff breeze and for a time the entire south portion of the city was threatened.

Mayor Suspends Alderman.

St. Joseph.—Councilman H. J. Gebra was suspended by Mayor Clayton and will have a public hearing May 5 on the charge of having solicited a bribe. He denies the charge.

Girl's Marriage Angers Father.

Mexico.—F. C. Holland, aged 35, a wealthy horseman, and Katie Carlyle, aged 17, were married at Auxvasse by Rev. C. H. Swift of the Christian church. They came to Mexico and it is believed left in an automobile. The girl's father is irate, and the minister who married the couple and accompanied them here, is keeping the wires hot in an effort to effect a reconciliation.

OLD TAX RETAINED

ALDRICH BILL OFFERS NO RELIEF TO THE PEOPLE.

Republican Leaders Have Entered De-liberately Upon Their Old Scheme of Humbug—Outlook for Tar-iff Revision Is Poor.

It begins to look suspiciously as though congress were getting ready to line up on the basis of the old Dingley duties. We see what has happened in regard to the glove and stocking duties. They were greatly increased by the house of representatives, and it was said at the time that the demand for duties was in-tended solely to forestall and prevent a lowering of them. Now the finance committee of the senate has simply restored the Dingley rates. The man-ufacturers will get what they had be-fore, get probably all they expected to get, and the women will be content. And yet on all the important articles in these schedules there has been no revision. The situation has been so beautifully handled as to make the people quite satisfied if they are only asked to pay the Dingley duties.

Having made this remarkable "con-cession," a concession which carries with it not the slightest reduction of duties, Mr. Aldrich, as our correspond-ent said the other day, "has restored the heaviest of unwise taxes in the text-ile schedules." "The real question," as our correspondent said, "which the tariff bill faces, is whether the men and women who are delighted to get free cocoa, tea and coffee which they had before, will be satisfied with that, or whether before the bill finally passes they will wake up and discover that most duties have not been re-duced at all." Will the people be grateful at being exempted from pay-ing taxes which they are already ex-empted from paying, grateful at hav-ing taxes that had been increased by the house put back to the old level, a level which was so high as to have forced tariff revision on the Repub-lican party? For instance, bacon, ham, lard, fresh beef, veal, mutton, pork and game were all cheapened by the Payne bill. Under the Aldrich bill they will pay the old Dingley taxes. In some cases, as will be seen, duties have been lowered to the Dingley standard, and in others they have been raised to that standard. From all of which it seems fair to conclude that Dingleyism is still the model. Yet it was the generally recognized exorbitance of the old duties which roused in the people the determina-tion to have the tariff revised—and downward.

On the whole, therefore, taking the situation as it stands to-day, it can-not be said that the outlook for a helpful revision of the tariff is en-couraging. The Republican leaders do not seem to be impressed by the popular demand for lower taxes. There is small chance that the people will be deceived by any lowering to the old level of taxes previously in-creased in order that they might be lowered. It will be well for our Re-publican friends to remember that the fight was on the Dingley tariff that it was that tariff which created the dis-satisfaction which culminated in the movement against it in the Republic-an party. The eastern men may not realize it, but the people out this way do realize it. When they said that they wanted revision down-ward, revision in the interest of the ultimate consumer, they meant what they said. They meant, first of all, that they wanted no more of Dingley-ism.—Indianapolis News.

The Aldrich Policy.

Senator Aldrich, as dictator of the senate, has made his policy clear.

1. He is against any form of inheritance or income tax which may gain a foothold as a possible substitute for customs duties.
2. He is against reduced customs duties which would bring in higher revenues, preferring prohibitive duties to duties that give the country the in-come that it needs.
3. Rejecting both income and inheritance taxes on one side and increased customs revenues on the other, he is in favor rather of economizing public expenditures by cutting down the gov-ernment inspection and law-enforce-ment services which have been est-ablished as the result of the impor-tant reform movements of the last few years.
4. He would rather have the govern-ment raise the rate of interest it pays for borrowed money from two to three per cent. than have postal savings banks established on a two or 3 1/2 per cent basis.

Such a policy as this is a defiance of all the people of the United States except the few who find in Senator Aldrich their high priest and king.

Such a policy as this is a direct challenge to the voters of the United States to overthrow Aldrichism and Cannonism completely by giving the Democratic party a tremendous vic-tory at the congressional elections a year from next November.

Correct Diagnosis and a Just Inference

Just so far as the Payne bill is a measure to raise taxes, it belongs in the most complex and disputed field of politics or economics, and one man's guess is as good as another's. Just so far as it is a measure to pro-ject some industries, it raises a moral question. It affirms the justice of taking money from the pockets of one group of men to put it in the pockets of another. It confuses the vision of a whole nation as to the sharp lines between meum and tuum, accustoms people to the sight, under sanction of law and the acceptance of custom, of special privileges for some at the cost of others, and makes them tol-erant of all the allied forms of acqui-sition that go by the name of graft.—Collier's Weekly.

Tariff for Prohibition.

The tariff as it exists is not a tariff for revenue or a tariff for protection, but a tariff for prohibition in scores of lines it preserves more than 90 per cent of the domestic market to east-ern tariff barons. Republican grand duties would make it absolutely pro-hibitive, if they dared.

DEMOCRACY AND THE TARIFF

Party Leaders in Congress Have Splendid Opportunity to Win the People's Confidence.

From a Democratic point of view the only way to meet the issue is a revenue tariff pure and simple. The Dingley bill is a prohibition tariff, and Taft was elected on a promise that an equal revision downward would be and should be made, and he is fair enough to admit this.

All Democrats should stand to-gether and compile all the items in detail that have been advanced over the Dingley rates to show the insincerity and hypocrisy of the Repub-lican party.

Do not waste any time on any re-duced schedules or Dingley rates that have not been touched.

All the Democratic senators should take up every item of the senate bill that has been advanced over Dingley rates and let the country know all about it. Just have a list printed of every item that has been advanced stating the Dingley rate in one column and the senate rate in an opposite column and the percentage of advance in the last column. If you go into the details you will be surprised at the results.

Let every Democratic member of the senate have a copy of this list and let them make the best use of it on the floor so it will be spread all over the country and published in all the newspapers.

The Democrats in the senate have at last the chance of their lives to show what they are made of and pave the way for a Democratic victory in the near future.

The masses of the people are get-ting sick and tired of Republican hypocrisy, and with honest work and good leaders the Democrats have the finest opportunity for success since Cleveland carried the party to victory.

The Salaried Man's Tariff.

The Washington Post thinks that as long as it is necessary to lay a rea-sonable tax for industries the people will submit, but that when protection affords extravagant profits and com-pels self-denial and want among mil-lions of citizens it becomes a brutal abuse. It then says:

"The situation in this country to-day is causing anxiety to hundreds of thousands of hard-working and deserv-ing people and their dependents, who find their wages the same as many years ago and the cost of the neces-sities of life double and treble what they were. They see bursting pros-perity on every hand among those who have had the protective tariff as an ally, and are told at every election time of the manifold blessings which the protection system brings to the country. But their own incomes are gradually growing less in purchasing power, although the income in money remains the same. . . . They are getting less to eat, less to wear, and less in comfort for their labors than ever before. The salaried people of Washington, for example—many thou-sands of them—are working for pay predicated on the cost of living a quarter of a century ago, and paying three to four times the things they have to buy to-day. It is time to heed the call of the consumer."

Worthlessness of Payne Bill.

If the committee had reported a bill that would reduce in a substantial degree the burdens upon the consumer it would have responded to a demand so general that the last Republican national convention deemed it prudent to promise compliance. Even if such a bill did not increase the revenue it would at least have responded to a popular demand. On the other hand, if it had increased the revenues large-ly it might have been acceptable though it did not lighten individual burdens.

But the Payne bill has done nothing to reduce the burdens of taxation and very little to relieve the embarrass-ments of the treasury. It has raised the average ad valorem rate of duties on eight schedules out of fifteen and upon the imports as a whole. And yet it is not estimated to raise from cus-toms more than about $11,500,000 above the Dingley law. This is in-terly inadequate. If business con-tinues poor this would not help the treasury worth speaking of, and if business should improve greatly this increase would probably be superfluo-ous. The bill does not serve the peo-ple, its service to the government is inadequate, and about all it does is to provide for greater profits to a few favored industries.

In the Chicago platform the Re-publican party promised a genuine re-vision of the obnoxious Dingley act. The promise was made more definitely by Mr. Taft in the speeches he made in the course of the campaign. Yet all we have from the two houses up to the present time is a few patches in-tended to disguise rather than to change the old law.

The Tariff Joker.

Speaking to several "jokers" found in the tariff bill, such as the advance in duties on gloves and hosiery, which industries, the Providence Journal says, no more deserve protection than the leather or steel industries, there is still the joker par excellence to be found in the minimum and maximum tariff provision, the Journal thinks. It says:

"The fact that this provision means, not reciprocity, but tariff wars, need not be emphasized further. The only basis for reciprocity is a tariff in which the maximum rate is the normal rate and the minimum a special rate in re-turn for concessions by other nations. It would be well nigh inevitable, if the Payne bill should pass as it stands, that the minimum rates, already suf-ficiently high, would go up to the maximum. Even if they wished to do so, other nations could not rearrange their schedules, often complicated with spe-cial treaties, within the brief period allowed."

"Republicans will have to shoulder the tariff." Yes, but the question is how far do they propose to shove it?

PAINT EVERY YEAR.

No One Wants to Do It, But Some Paint Will Wear No Longer.

When you have a job of painting done you don't expect to have it done over again very soon. But to make a lasting job, several things must be taken into consideration—the proper time to paint—the condition of the sur-face—the kind of materials to use, etc. All these matters are fully covered in the specifications which can be had free by writing National Lead Company, 1902 Trinity Building, New York, and asking for Houseowner's Paint-ing Outfit No. 49. The outfit also in-cludes a book of color schemes for both interior and exterior painting, and a simple instrument for detecting adulteration in the paint materials. The outfit will solve many painting problems for every houseowner.

Meantime while buying paint see that every white lead keg bears the famous Dutch Boy Painter trademark, which is an absolute guarantee of purity and quality. If your paint dealer cannot supply you National Lead Company will see that some one else will.

Cure Achieved by Cuticura.

"My little boy had an awful rash all over his body and the doctor said it was eczema. It was terrible, and used to water awfully. Any place the water went it would form another sore and it would become crusted. A score or more physicians failed utterly and dis-mally in their efforts to remove the trouble. Then I was told to use the Cuticura Remedies. I got a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Oint-ment and a bottle of Cuticura Reso-lvent, and before we had used half the Resolvent I could see a change in him. I was really in a crit-ical condition when I began with Doan's Kidney Pills, and they cer-tainly did wonders for me. Though I am 81 years old, I am as well as the average woman of 50. # DOLLAR WHEAT HAS COME TO STAY

IN LESS THAN FIVE YEARS CENTRAL CANADA WILL BE CALLED UPON TO SUPPLY THE UNITED STATES.

A couple of years ago, when the an-nouncement was made in these col-umns that "dollar wheat" had come to stay, and that the time was not far distant when the central provinces of Canada—Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta—would be called upon to supply a large part of the wheat con-sumption in the United States, there were many who laughed at the predic-tions and ridiculed the idea of wheat reaching the dollar point and staying there. Both of these predictions have come to pass. Dollar wheat is here—and it is not only here, but is here to stay; and at the same time, whatever unpleasant sensations it may arouse in the super-sensitive American, Cen-tral Canada is already being called upon to help keep up the bread sup-ply, and within the next five years will, as James J. Hill says, literally "become the bread-basket of our in-creasing millions."

There are few men in the United States better acquainted with the wheat situation than Mr. Hill, and there are few men, if any, who are in-clined to be more conservative in their expressed views. Yet it was this greatest of the world's railroad men who said a few days ago that "the price of wheat will never be substan-tially lower than it is today"—and when it is taken into consideration that at that time wheat had soared to $1.20, well above the dollar mark, the statement is peculiarly significant. And doubly significant is the fact that in this country the population is in-creased at the rate of 85 per cent., while the yield of wheat and other products is increasing at the rate of only 25 per cent. For several years past the cost of living has been stand-ingly increasing in the United States, and this wide difference in production and consumption is the reason.

This difference must be supplied by the vast and fertile grain regions of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. There is no absolutely no doubt of this. Even the press of the country concedes the fact. Results have shown that no other country in the world can ever hope to equal those provinces as wheat producers, and that no other country can produce as hard or as good wheat. Said a great grain man recently, "If United States wheat main-tains the dollar mark, Canada wheat will be well above a dollar a bushel, for in every way it is superior to our home-grown grain."

With these facts steadily imping-ing their truth upon our rapidly growing population, it is interesting to note just what possibilities as a "wheat grower" our Northern neighbor pos-sesses. While the United States will never surrender her prestige in any manufacturing or commercial line, she must very soon acknowledge, and with as much grace as she can, that she is bound to be beaten as a grain pro-ducer. It must be conceded that a great deal of the actual truth about the richness of Canada's grain produc-ing area has been "kept out of sight," as Mr. Hill says, by the strenuous ef-forts of our newspapers and maga-zines to stem the exodus of our best American farmers into those regions.

It is a fact that up to the present time, although Canada has already achieved the front rank in the world's grain producers, the fertile prairies of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Al-bertha have not yet scarcely been scratched. Millions of acres, free for the taking, still await our American farmers; and when these millions are gone there are other millions in regions not yet opened up to immigra-tion. A few years ago the writer, who has been through those wheat pro-vinces several times, laughed with oth-ers of our people at the broad statement that Canada was bound to become "John Bull's Bread Basket." Now, after a last trip (and though he is a staunch American) he frankly be-lieves that not only will Canada be-come John Bull's bread-basket, but it will within the next decade at least BECOME THE BREAD-BASKET OF THE UNITED STATES. Perhaps this may be a hard truth for Americans to swallow, but it is a truth, neverthe-less. And it is at least a partial com-pensation to know that hundreds of thousands of our farmers are profit-ing by the fact by becoming producers in this new country.

The papers of this country have nat-urally made the most of the brief pe-riod of depression which swept over Canada, but now there is not a sign of it left from Winnipeg to the coast. Never have the three great wheat rais-ing provinces been more prosperous. Capital is coming into the country from all quarters, taking the form of cash for investment, industrial con-cerns seeking locations, and best of all, substantial and sturdy immigrants come to help populate the prairies. Towns are booming; scores of new elevators are springing up; railroads are sending out their branch lines in all directions; thousands of prosper-ous farmers are leaving their prairie shelters for new and modern homes—"built by wheat;" everywhere is a growing happiness and contentment—happiness and contentment built by wheat—the "dollar wheat," which has come to stay. Notwithstanding this, the Canadian Government is still giv-ing away its homesteads and selling pre-emptions at $3.00 an acre, and the Railway and Land Companies are dis-posing of their lands at what may be considered nominal figures.

Bad Breath

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass, my breath having a bad odor. Two weeks ago a friend recommended Cascarets and after using them I can willingly and cheerfully say that they have entirely cured me. I therefore let you know that I shall recommend them to any one suffering from such troubles."—Chas. H. Hale, Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good. Do Good.
