Pale-Faced Women

You ladies, who have pale faces, sallow complexions, dark circles under eyes, drawn features and tired, worn-out expressions, you need a tonic.

The tonic you need is Cardui, the woman's tonic.
It is the best tonic for women, because its ingredients are specifically adapted for women's needs. They act on the womanly organs and help to give needed strength and vitality to the worn-out womanly frame.

Cardui is a vegetable medicine. It contains no minerals, no iron, no potassium, no lime, no glycerin, no dangerous, or habit-forming drugs of any kind.
It is perfectly harmless and safe, for young and old to use.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"After my doctor had done all he said he could for me," writes Mrs. Wm. Hilliard, of Mountainburg, Ark., "I took Cardium, on the advice of a friend, and it helped me so much.
"Before taking Cardui, I had suffered from female troubles for five years, but since taking it, I am in good health.
"I think there is some of the best advice in your book that I ever saw." Your druggist sells Cardui. Try it.

Mr. Hilburn.

Ed. Register—I notice in your editorial columns of last week's issue a statement about a land purchase in Butler county, Mo., of 6,000, and you say you don't approve of these large holdings; that if you had your way you would limit them to 100 acres at the most, and that 50 would be better. For you say, "Not only is the present system destructive of soil-wealth, but of man-wealth—of nearly all that goes to make a citizen fit for liberty and self-government."

True, Bro. Ake, quite true; but what are we to do about it? Your liberties and mine are tied up with the liberties of these land tenants.
We can no more escape the thraldom that the system is winding about the very souls of these our brethren, than we can hope to avoid the consequences of the careless handling of dynamite. And what is true of land is also true of other great wealth. Read what John P.
Altgeld said in a speech at Omaha, January 7th, 1899:

"Look about you! Nearly all of the wealth of this land is passing into a few hands and not one of these hands are favorable to the freedom of the citizen. Every great industrial, commercial, mining or transportation enterprise is passing into the hands, first, of corporations, and then, by further consolidation, into the hands of trusts which thus have an absolute monopoly—a monopoly which can arbitrarily fix prices, fix wages, and regulate output; a monopoly which has no soul and whose chief purpose is to plunder the public. The monopolist and the speculator prosper but masses wither. Men of moderate fortunes and of fair incomes who were the bulwark of the republic are slowly but surely being wiped out. We are being reduced to two classes: In the first stage, these will be known as the very rich and the moderately poor, and in the second stage as the masters and the slaves.
We have established a monied aristocracy and are now fastening a yoke on posterity. A standing army is to be enthroned and bayonet argument is to govern. Republican institutions can not live amid such conditions." The italics are mine.

Here is a twelve-year-old prophecy fulfilled in every word and line. "Ill fares the land to hastening ill a prey where wealth accumulates and men decay," is just as true now as in Goldsmith's time.

But why call attention to such things, if there is no remedy?
Let the people sleep! They will know the house is on fire when the roof falls in and isn't that soon enough? Let us listen to another one of Altgeld's speeches, or a part of a speech delivered at the St. Andrew Society Banquet November 30th, 1895:

"These new conditions are not ephemeral, they are permanent in their character. First, because it will not be possible to dissolve the corporations and concentrations of this country and reduce matters to their former condition; and, second, because these great combinations and concentrations in themselves are beneficial. They can cheapen production and in many ways give to the world a degree of comfort and pleasure that would not be possible under former conditions. This is especially true as relates to transportation, telegraphing, etc. The question is how to give the public its share of this benefit or, if this cannot be done, then to protect the public against extortion. If it is true that the era of competition is drawing to a close, and that we have entered upon new conditions and that these are permanent, then it is the business of government to recognize these conditions and legalize them, seeing to it, at the same time, that the public is protected. A government that stands with its face toward the fact and cannot adjust itself to the new conditions that are constantly being evolved, is not suited to this age."

OSTEOPATHIC TREATMENT.

(From Osteopathic Health.)
(Published by direction of Dr. W. J.
SMITH, Osteopathic Sanitarium, Ironton, Mo., to whom application for further information may be made.)

OSTEOPATHY AND RHEUMATISM.
Q. What is the Osteopathic understanding of Rheumatism, Doctor? Has your school discovered any new facts in regard to it?

A. Nothing of importance except as to the way of curing it—which is, after all, the point of greatest moment. When you have real rheumatism your body is poisoned by toxic (poisonous) elements which have found their way into the blood stream and vitiated it. But these poisons that are causing rheumatism, and which are largely the result of the breaking down of the body tissues that is constantly taking place, would never have remained in the body long enough to do harm if the eliminative organs had not failed to do their work properly.
And the eliminative organs would have continued doing their work if there had been no interference with the blood flow through them or with their supply of nerve force.
Uninterrupted blood flow, uninterrupted nerve supply—these are the essentials to their welfare; and it should always be borne in mind that the blood flow is controlled by special nerves; known as vasomotors—so that the whole question is frequently one of nerves almost exclusively.

Now every Osteopath knows at just what parts of the spine the nerves come forth that control each of the different organs; and, similarly, he knows the source of vaso-motor control in every part of the body. It may be that the liver is wasting too rapidly through ill nourishment, it may be that the kidneys are lax and unequal to their tasks because of a defective nervous supply; but, whatever the condition, we are able to locate the interference and correct it by manual manipulation and the skillful application of leverages. The most important and most frequently found lesions are at the spine—displaced vertebrae interfering with the nerves as they pass out from the spinal cord. Ribs that are out of adjustment are also frequently found.

While attending carefully to improving the work of the digestive and eliminative organs, as outlined, the Osteopath also makes certain that innervation to the parts in which the disease chiefly manifests itself is all that it should be; and direct manipulation and stretching of the affected areas also aids in the work.

I have discussed rheumatism in a very general way, of course.
There are a number of varieties of the disease; and climatic changes, exposure, and other circumstances play a part in bringing about attacks or rendering the existing condition worse.

We cannot cure every kind of every case; and particularly we can do little more than stay the progress of the disease in cases which have reached such an advanced stage that deformities have resulted. But Osteopathy can nevertheless do more for rheumatic sufferers than can any other system of healing.

guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, and that if his bid should be accepted he will enter into a bond as the law provides.

No bid will be considered unless said certified check accompanies the same.

Counter Diplomacy.

"I think you will like this goods, madam," urged a salesman in a Eu-for a stout, middle aged lady."

"Sir!" squeaked the customer in rage. "The clerk saw his faux pas and recovered himself quickly." for her grandmother. Now that I look at you again, I see that this was an older person. Now, if you are buying

SCHOOL FUND MORTGAGE SALE.

Whereas, R. H. Abrams and Omay Abrams, his wife, by their certain School Fund Mortgage Deed, dated the 11th day of November, 1904, which said mortgage deed was duly recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds for Iron County, Missouri, in Book 38, at page 202 of said book, conveyed to Iron County, Missouri, for the use and benefit of the Capital School Fund of said county (these more particularly described and set forth) the following described real estate, lying and being in said Iron County, State of Missouri, described as follows, to wit:

The north half of lot one of the southwest quarter, the south half of lot one of the northwest quarter, and the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter, all in section thirty-one, of township thirty-one, north, of range four east, containing one hundred and twenty acres;

Which conveyance was made to secure the payment of three hundred and fifty dollars belonging to the Capital School Fund of said county as follows, to wit:
To the Public School Fund of Township 31, range 3 east, $350;

For which amount the said R. H.
Abrams, as principal, with J. S. Benson, Add Reese and F. C. Warncke as securities, executed their bond for the sum of $350, of even date with said mortgage, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from date, bearing date the 11th day of November, 1904, and payable on the 11th day of November, 1905, which said bond has become due and remains unpaid;

And, whereas, among other things, it is provided in said deed of mortgage that if default should be made in the payment of the principal or interest, or any part thereof, at the time when the same should severally become due and payable according to the tenor and effect of said bond, that the then acting Sheriff of Iron County, Missouri, should have power, without suit on said deed of mortgage, to proceed and sell said property conveyed and mortgaged in said deed;

And, whereas, default has been made in the payment of said bond in said deed of mortgage described, by both principal and sureties;

Now, therefore, in accordance with the provisions of said deed of mortgage, and in obedience to an order of the Honorable County Court of Iron County, Missouri, made at the February term, 1911, I, John I. Marshall, Sheriff of said County of Iron, State of Missouri, will, on Tuesday, April 25th, 1911, at the east front door of the courthouse, in the City of Ironton, Iron County, Missouri, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, sell, at public vendue, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, the above described real estate, to satisfy said bond and mortgage, and the costs hereon.

JOHN I. MARSHALL,
Sheriff Iron County, Mo.

Sale of School Lands.

shall, Sheriff of said County, was ordered to offer for sale all of the east half and the northwest quarter, and the north half of the southwest quarter of section 16, township 32, north, of range 4 east, all situate in the County of Iron, and State of Missouri, containing 560 acres, more or less; and in obedience to said order and the power thereby vested in me, I will, on

offer for sale at public vendue to the highest bidder at the east front door of the courthouse, in the City of Ironton, Iron County, Missouri, and during the session of the April Term of the Circuit Court, within and for Iron County, the above described real estate.

In tracts of forty acres each and not less than $1.25 per acre, on credit of twelve months with good and sufficient security, with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from date of sale; the purchaser or purchasers, however, have the right to pay the same in cash at time of sale, or any part thereof.
