Opinions on New Law on Cer- tification.

The following is a gist of the opinions rendered by the Attorney General on the new law regarding teachers' certificates:

"County Certificates issued prior to January 1, 1912, are not subject to renewal after that date, but are valid only for the life of the certificate, since at that date section 10942 R. S. 1909 ceases to be a law, and there is thereafter no authority for the renewal of such certificates, except that section 10942, Session Acts 1911, provides 'that any teacher who has had five years' experience in teaching and is employed as a teacher at the time of the taking effect of this act shall have his or her county certificate renewed an unlimited number of times on condition that said teacher continues in the same position (in the employment of the same board) and is faithful in the performance of his or her professional duties.'"

"All county certificates issued prior to January 1, 1912, are valid only in the county in which issued and cannot be endorsed in other counties."

Under the Session Acts, 1911, County Superintendents have authority to endorse only second grade certificates, issued after January 1, 1912, section 10943.

All grades on a valid third grade certificate may be transferred to a second grade certificate. Section 10943.
 All scholastic grades for a first grade certificate must be certified from the office of the State Superintendent of Schools. Grades from a second or third grade certificate cannot be transferred to a first grade certificate, unless the papers for said certificates were graded by the State Superintendent or were made in an Approved Summer School.

According to section 10947 all grades made on papers graded by the State Superintendent are valid in any county in the State, when properly certified from the office of the State Superintendent of Schools.

In the Session Acts 1911, there is no provision for the transfer of grades from a certificate issued prior to January 1, 1912, to one issued after that date."

OSTEOPATHIC TREATMENT.

(From Osteopathic Health.) (Published by direction of Dr. W. J.
 SMITH, Osteopathic Sanitarium, Ironton, Mo., to whom application for further information may be made.)

LET THE OSTEOPATH DEFINE HIS OWN SYSTEM.

We also appreciate fully the prevailing amount of ill-health to be attributed rightfully to disturbed and disordered minds—the sickness due to mental strain and too much care, or to worry, grief, loneliness or homesickness; or to anger, jealousy, envy, spite and hate. Modern science has proven that all of these intensely selfish states of mind not only spoil the happiness of their victims, but actually poison their systems and help to make them sick—sometimes so sick that the best skill of physicians is unavailing unless and until this mental wrong is righted.

We Osteopaths know full well the part that is played in disease by defective sanitation and hygiene; by exposure to inclement weather and disease germs; and by weakness caused by heredity.
 We take all such things into account fully in diagnosing and treating a disease. We enforce good sanitation, regulate life habits, diet and nurse our patients with the same punctilious care and skill, when occasion requires, as the most up-to-date physicians of every other scientific school of healing.

Therefore Osteopathic patients receive not less, but more care than the patients under other systems. Our patients receive all the usual care and nursing of medical attention, except the drugging—which the best authorities of the regular school are now teaching is pretty generally a failure, anyhow, and often a great detriment—with osteopathy's original, exclusive and very helpful treatment added.

It ought not to be necessary to begin our explanation of what is wholly new in the Osteopathic way of accounting for disease and treating it, by thus reciting what is common to all progressive schools. It ought not to be necessary—but it is. The fact is that countless people assume and enter this new part of is explained—its funda-characteristic part—the all there is to it." Wh teopathy explains what has discovered concern disease, sing so ofte mechanical origin, arising through disturbed relations of tissues at the joints—and stops there, many people assume at once, "Oh, that is all there is to Osteopathy." They conclude that the Osteopath treats everything just one way and reaches his limitations when the case happens to be one not depending mainly upon some palpable defect in the anatomy.

I repeat this is not correct. It is unfair to a great profession to assume such a situation as true.
 The Osteopath is a broad physician. What I shall now recite about the discoveries Osteopathy has made—discoveries which explain the real origin of many cases of sickness hitherto not well understood—is only a small part of the new chapter that Osteopathy has contributed to the science of healing. I will allude briefly to a wide range of diseases due to defects which originate at the joints of the body—a diagnosis that is original to Osteopathy.

Obituary.

Death has visited another home and another of our oldest citizens has passed to her eternal home of rest. Malissia Lovelace was born November 22d, 1853, and died April 6th, 1911. She was the mother of fifteen children and the grandmother of twenty-seven.

She leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was of that character of love and kindness which won the love and friendship of all who knew her, a kind word and a pleasant smile for those she met. No mother could have done more for her family than sister Lovelace, and during her month of suffering everything was done for her that sons and daughters could do. She seemed to have anchored her soul in God's promises and was a mother of prayer and faith. Her life is a reality of 2d Corinthians, 9:8. The family has lost a good Christian mother but her life was an incentive for good to all. Her relatives and friends came for miles and it was the largest funeral ever witnessed at Des Arc.
 Services were held at the grave yard, the writer conducting them, and used for a text, Luke, 14:3.
 (She hath done what she could.) May the Christ that saved this mother come into the heart and life in saving grace to all those who mourn her death, and may the entire family be wafted to their eternal home and live with Jesus and their mother and the created angels and redeemed saints in glory forever and ever.

REV. W. W. STROTHER.

 Benjamin Russell, and devout Christian life of the deceased Mrs.

 Russell.

 Freshman class of Lincoln Institute, extend to Mr. Russell our heartfelt sympathy in the loss which he has sustained.

 the change that in the course of time must come to all of us, "but sustained and comforted by an unflinching trust in Him who doeth all things well," try to feel that your loss is an incomparable gain to the deceased beloved one.

LIKE CROSSING THE RED SEA

Seemingly Miraculous Occurrence Saves a Blind Lutter Day Israelite From a Bad Ducking.

The hosts of Israel crossing the Red Sea encountered no greater miracle than that which saved a representative of their race a ducking in Broadway the other day. The latter day Israelite was blind. With a stick he walked slowly past Grace church, Inside Huntington Close a large sized hose that was for the moment un-tended had wriggled itself around nozzle end toward the street and was playing a stream of water shoulder high clear across the sidewalk.

To avoid a shower bath in their good clothes pedestrians had taken to the middle of the street and when they finally noticed the blind man's approach to the waterspout they were too far away to stop him. Three steps away, two steps, one step, then the miraculous intercession occurred. For a moment the water ceased to flow, the blind man passed on, then the stream shot out with renewed force.
 The bystanders caught their breath.
 Huntington Close was still deserted, there was no visible agency responsible for the interruption.

"Must have got clogged up for a minute somehow," said on practical ground.

"Must have," the others murmured, but they went away looking very serious indeed.—New York Times.

NOTICE OF SALE.

Whereas, the Circuit Court of Iron County, Missouri, on the 5th of May, 1911, and during the April term of said Court, made and entered an order and decree, foreclosing a certain mortgage executed by Frank Morton and his wife, Sophie S. Morton, on the 6th day of July, 1906, whereby they conveyed to John B. Buss, certain real and personal property situate in Reynolds County, Missouri, and certain real property, hereinafter described, situate in Iron County, Missouri, to secure the payment of a certain and decree was appointed as a Special Commissioner to take charge of and to sell said property, in said order and decree described, in pursuance of the terms and conditions thereof;

 satisfying the debt represented by said note and to pay the cost of said suit foreclosing said mortgage.

TRUSTEE'S SALE

 at page 537, did convey to Anton Roehry, trustee, the following described real estate, situate, lying and being in the County of Iron and State of Missouri, to wit:

 Which conveyance was made in trust to
