

For President For Vice-President

WILSON NUGGETS

"There never was a time when impatience and suspicion were more keenly aroused by the private power selfishly employed."

"It requires self-restraint not to attempt too much, and yet it would be cowardly to attempt too little."

"No group of directors, economic or political, can speak for the people."

"We need no revolution; we need no excited change; we need only a new point of view and a new method and a spirit of counsel."

"There should be an immediate (tariff) revision, and it should be downward, unhesitatingly and steadily downward."

"Those who buy are not even represented by counsel. The cost of high living is arranged by private understanding."

"The so-called labor question is a question only because we have not yet found the rule of right in adjusting the interests of labor and capital."

MARSHALL NUGGETS

"Let us understand that it is possible for the man in broadcloth and the man in hoddens-gray to be brethren in America."

"The protest of every man who voted for President Taft and who is now dissatisfied with the President's management of public affairs proves that for four years a minority has been in the majority in America."

"The social condition which we call Democracy and which finds its avenue of expression at the polls through our party, is unalterably opposed to special privileges, whether granted by the law or seized by ruthless ambition."

"The individualism of Thomas Jefferson is not dead. It walks the earth this day, knocking at the door of rich and poor, of wise and ignorant, alike."

"If I did not believe that in so far as human agency can, this party of ours would promote the brotherhood of mankind, I would here and now repudiate it."

"Favors are never conceived in the general interests; they are always for the benefit of the few."—Woodrow Wilson
