REPUBLICAN. We are authorized to announce W. L. EDMONDS, of Middlebrook, as a candidate for the nomination for Circuit Clerk and Recorder of Iron County, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the Primary Election on the 4th of August, 1914.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

The ice man, he's mighty busy. Big Bargains this week at Brown's. Read the Ozark Band's Fourth of July ad.

A basket picnic at Minimum next Saturday. A fall wedding of one of Arcadia's daughters, it is said.

The local option law becomes effective in Iron county, July 17th. An adjourned term of county court will be held to-day (Wednesday).

The beer depots are doing a rushing business in their last days in Iron county. Dr. Milford Riggs filled the pulpit in the Baptist church at Bloomfield last Sunday.

The blistering, blighting, drouth continues, and the heat is most oppressive. It has been over eight weeks since we had a good rain.

We will begin the publication of a great story, "The Land of Broken Promises," in our issue of July 23d. Do not miss the opening chapters.

Everybody is doing it. Why don't you? Paint up and brighten up. You can get a good point for a dollar a gallon at MADIGAN'S.

Children's Day services at Fort Hill Methodist Church at 11 A. M. next Sunday. Songs by the children and a short sermon for them by the pastor.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ake will have a sale of Household and Kitchen Furniture at her residence on Shepherd street, Thursday, June 25th, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M.

Dr. Marshall reports the arrival of a bouncing baby boy at the home of his honor, Mayor Robert A. Rasche, and wife, Saturday evening, June 20, 1914, at 9 o'clock. All are well and happy.

Mrs. F. M. Davis was Monday taken to the Deaconess' Hospital, St. Louis, where she will undergo a surgical operation. We hope to chronicle soon Mrs. Davis' return home in perfect health.

Prof. Loomis writes from Columbia, Mo., that they have had a fine rain there (that was last week) and that it is cool. He says he likes his work in the University very much—teaching four classes a week in Psychology.

Mrs. W. J. Smith is now ready for anyone wishing to take Penmanship Lessons. You can take lessons any hour in the day. She will begin a Special Term for children at a reduced price, July 15th. Further notice by circular.

Recorder Hawkins has issued the following marriage licenses the past week: Vincent Sutton and Laura Heaton of Chloride.

Toney E. Buxton and Dessie F. Brewer of Annapolis.

A very large audience witnessed the 37th Annual Commencement exercises at Arcadia College Tuesday afternoon. A most excellent musical and literary programme was happily rendered. Premiums awarded and other particulars given next week.

In all W. D. Fletcher has had ten sheep killed by the dogs in his pasture on the Methodist Assembly grounds. Some of the animals killed were registered stock and high priced. Mr. Fletcher contemplates instituting suit against the owners of the dogs.

Our young friend, Emil Roehry, who has been connected with the McKinley Electric Line at Decatur, Illinois, for several years past, visited his parents in Ironton a couple of days the past week. Emil is a mighty fine boy and we are always glad to see him.

A card from Miss Annie Shane O'Conner announces her safe arrival at Columbia, where she will pursue her studies during the summer months. She says she hopes the band boys will make $250 out of their picnic. We believe they could if she were here to help us.

Frank Parker, late of Centerville, is running the blacksmith and wagon-making shop at Bellevue lately in charge of R. E. Johnston. Mr. Parker guarantees his work and asks the patronage of the public. Will take such family produce in exchange as his needs may require.

The Budweiser beer agency in Ironton sold nearly a hundred cases of beer last Saturday. In view of the fact that at the recent local option election there were 202 dry votes and only 72 wet votes cast at the Ironton precinct, it is plain to see that with many people profession is one thing, and practice another.

I am in receipt of a letter from my old friend, Pat O'Brien, of Los Angeles, wherein he says he is about to take his summer vacation. He will come as far east as Denver, and maybe on back to his old stamping ground. His friends hereabouts will be glad to greet him if he does come, and we all wish him all possible enjoyment during his "lay-off."

Thousands and thousands of fish—mostly perch and bass—have been taken out of Rainbow Dam in the Shut-In the past few weeks. The water is rapidly running out of the dam and it was either capture the fish or let them perish for lack of water. What a pity! But the dam has magnificently, unquestionably, what a magnificent fish pond can be maintained in the Shut-In.

A telegram was received in Ironton last Friday afternoon announcing the birth that day, June 19, 1914, of a baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. DeBlieux, of Natchitoches, Louisiana. Mrs. DeBlieux was formerly May Wemp, an Ironton girl, born and reared. This visit of the stork makes Bill and Dora Wemp grandparents. What do you know about that? Our congratulations to all!

Taken Up—By the undersigned at his farm, one mile north of Graniteville, Mo., three horse mules described as follows: a dark bay and two black ones; all about the same size and two years old. If not called for in ten days will be posted according to law. Owner can have the mules by proving property and paying expenses. J. C. ROHNS, Bellevue, Mo.

City Marshal Walter Fisher says that complaint has been made to him that a number of young men have a habit of congregating in front of some buildings on Main street and expectorating tobacco juice on the grand old walks. This is strictly against the ordinance in such case made and provided; and Mr. Fisher says the ordinance will be strictly enforced in the future. Heed a friendly warning, boys.

FOR SALE OR LEASE—The finest and best located residence in Ironton, Mo.; suitable also for Hotel or Institution. Splendid brick dwelling and ample grounds, in prime condition; has an unfailing spring (known as Grant Spring); with ample water supply for all purposes. This property has not only a present investment value, but is also of historical interest. Address H. M. Blossom, Pierce Building, St. Louis, or Frank Mullin, Ironton, Mo.

What was known as the Franklin bank in Little Rock, Arkansas, as the State National, failed to open up for business last Saturday. It is said that an assessment of 25 per cent. will probably have to be made on the stockholders to pay the depositors. On the St. Louis Stock Exchange Monday Bankers' Trust stock made a new low record; a few shares sold at $40 and $50; at the close of the session a lot was offered at $45.50 with no takers.

These kind words are from last Friday's St. Louis Republic: "Eli D. Ake, the veteran editor of THE IRON COUNTY REGISTER, never uses the editorial 'we' in his paper. He always uses the editorial 'I.' His editorials are his own opinions, individually, not collectively, and he is ready to stand for them. Mr. Ake is an individualist all over. He has redhot opinions about Federal courts and sumptuary legislation, and he employs the biggest editorial I in his type font to express them. Everybody who visits Arcadia Valley knows and respects 'Uncle Eli.'"

Mrs. Jennie Pettit Morrison of Washington, D. C., died in a hospital in St. Louis Wednesday morning of last week. The deceased was the daughter of the late Dr. Lee M. Pettit, of Wayne county, and relict of the late Hon. J. N. Morrison, Judge Advocate General in the Philippine Islands. Her only son, Lieut. Don Morrison, of the U. S. Navy, lost his life in the explosion of a magazine on his vessel about two years ago. After that accident Mrs. Morrison never was the same; then her health gave way, and the end came. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. Dr. Gay of Ironton. Dr. and Mrs. Gay accompanied the remains to Washington, where they were laid to rest in Arlington cemetery, by the side of the husband and son. To the bereaved we extend our sympathy.

St. H. Amelung, an old Pilot Knob boy, is steadily climbing upward, in the insurance world. The following is taken from a late issue of the New Albany, (Indiana) Ledger: "This afternoon Mr. E. H. Amelung left for Indianapolis to assume the position of superintendent of the Third Indiana District of the Prudential Company, to succeed Mr. Theodore Deming, who has ably filled the place and has retired on a pension, going to Seattle to settle down on a ranch. Mr. Deming, like Mr. Amelung, was practically raised in the business in this city, and it is gratifying that another New Albany man is to take his place, a matter which speaks well for this city. Supt. Amelung began here 16 years ago and rapidly rose until he became superintendent of this district, which he brought to such perfection, that it stood at the head of the list. He was superintendent here for nine years and while attending strictly to his business, he found time and opportunity to make every one he met his friend. On Saturday, when the usual meeting of district agents was held, Mr. Amelung was given one of the warmest farewells and presented with a magnificent traveling case. All the agents have come in under his administration. His many friends here, wish him all kinds of success in his new position. Mrs. Amelung and family will follow him later."

From the Bismarck Correspondent to the Farmington Times: "The organization of the second bank here was practically completed last Wednesday, when the new stockholders met and paid in one-third of the stock subscribed and effected the organization by electing Hugh Steele, Dr. C. C. Kerlagon, J. C. Hunter, Wm. Schmetz, A. L. Denton, E. W. Hughes, and H. E. Evans, directors. These directors met and selected Hugh Steele for president; J. C. Hunt, vice-president, and Wm. Schmetz, secretary. President Steele appointed Messrs. Kerlagon and Hunt as committee to visit St. Louis Tuesday and purchase a safe and other necessary fixtures. The board hopes to have one-half the stock subscribed paid up by July 1st, and the other half will not be paid in for one year. Either Mr. Roberts of Flat River, brother-in-law to our fellow-townsmen, E. E. Eaves, or Harry E. Eaves, of De Soto, will likely be selected as cashier. The building known as the "O. W. L." restaurant will house the new institution. The name selected is "The Peoples Bank." The directors believe there is sufficient business here for a good bank and state they found no difficulty in finding subscribers to take the place of some that had backed out after having subscribed for stock. Adrian Steele of De Soto will be the Attorney, and the Peoples Bank of De Soto will be the correspondent of this new institution."

The Supreme Court Tuesday rendered a decision reversing the finding of the Iron County Circuit Court in the famous Annapolis rape cases. The following appears in to-day's (Wednesday) St. Louis Republic from Jefferson City: "Commissioner Roy, in an opinion adopted as the opinion of the court, reverses the judgment of the Circuit Court of Iron County in the Mullane attack case. This ruling resulting in the discharge from Penitentiary sentences of five of the young men who were convicted of complicity in the alleged crime. Commissioner Roy says there is no substantial evidence in the record to indicate that there was a crime committed. The alleged offense is said to have taken place at Annapolis, Iron County, October 19, 1912, the story being that Mrs. Lillie Mullane was set upon by a gang of young men. The men who were convicted and will be discharged under the opinion to-day are: Ora Robinson, sentence of two years; Charles Dunn, two years; William Brewer, five years; Charles Middleton, eight years, and Charles Parris, five years." Prosecuting Attorney Damron informs us that when the case was argued in the Supreme Court in April the Attorney-General whose duty it was to represent the State did not make any appearance, nor did he file any brief. Later, upon suggestion, a brief was filed asking that the case be affirmed because of some irregularity in the record. But, the merits of the cases were not gone into at all.

Des Arc Items. I went through seventy-five miles of the wheat belt around Charleston, Dexter, Bertrand and Oran last week. I saw, at least, twenty threshers running and hauling the wheat to the cars and elevators. They are shipping 8 to 10 cars of wheat every day. Most of it weighs 62 lbs. and averages 25 bushels to the acre. Some of the farmers are plowing the stubble fields and sowing cow peas. This is certainly a wheat country. I was at Lilbourn, 20 miles south of Sikeston. It is a thriving town. I had the pleasure of meeting the editor of the Lilbourn Herald. He is an up-to-date man and seems to be on to his job. The paper is much improved. Stevenson & Fitz, merchants, report business good. I attended a revival meeting there one night; heard a fine sermon by Rev. Manly, a Christian preacher from Fredericktown, Mo. His theme was "drifting away." While at Lutesville Tuesday night I attended the Farmington District M. E. Sunday School convention. There were twelve or fifteen preachers present from different towns; also a lot of delegates. Among them were Misses Edna McClurg, Rose Spence and Gertrude Thompson, Arthur Ricketts and Rev. Blease, all from Bellevue. I attended a Baptist lawn social at Farmington Friday night on the lawn of County Treasurer Halle. A large crowd of young people were in attendance, the receipts being $44 for Baptist missions. I wound up my week's work at Irondale with my friends, James and Wiley O'Neal. Got several orders and left for Des Arc on train No. 9 Saturday night. Arrived home at 11 o'clock safe and sound, after a hard week's work. Mrs. Geo. Phillips and son, Frank, are visiting her parents at Valley Park. Mrs. F. M. Semands and daughter, Arlene, from Poplar Bluff visited old friends here last week. Mrs. Wm. Sitze and child went to Mineral Point to visit her brother and family last week. Mrs. Joe Walton and daughter, Clara, from Lockwood, are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Maddock. Wm. Pate and family have gone to St. Louis to reside. Miss Elma Roberts is visiting friends in the lead belt. Mrs. Russell from Brunot is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. A. White, on College Hill. Grover Hinkle and family from Brunot spent Sunday here with John Kelly and family. Claude Morris was a visitor to Poplar Bluff last week. Mrs. Mahala Loyd, one of the oldest residents of our town, died at her home here last Wednesday evening at seven o'clock. She had been failing in health for the past six months, having suffered with stomach trouble and old age. She was 77 years, three months and five days old. She leaves four children, eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren, all living here and were at the bedside when she passed away. A husband and four children preceded her to the other shore. Grandma Loyd was a faithful member of the M. E. church, in which she had labored for years. Her funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Myers, assisted by Rev. W. W. Strother, after which she was laid to rest in the cemetery here. To the sorrowing and grief-stricken children and loved ones we would say: Weep not for thy mother and grandmother; she is not for dead, but sleepeth beyond the river of death, where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest, where God will wipe away all tears and we will never say "good-bye."

Annapolis News.

Sun is shining this morning. We had a fine rain last week. Corn and other truck is growing fine where it had been worked well during the dry weather. It takes early planting and close attention to make corn in this country. The Des Arc ball team came up Sunday and played Annapolis; the score was 15 to 25 in favor of Annapolis. Our boys would have done better but several of the best players were out of town. Toney E. Buxton and Dessie F. Brewer, both of Reynolds county, were united in marriage at the home of S. Kitchell, in Annapolis, June 21, 1914, S. Kitchell, J. P., officiating. Mrs. Francis, widow of the late Ben Francis, who was killed in Scoggins' mill several years ago, left here for Bunker last night, her son accompanying her, but before leaving she attempted to have a warrant issued against one of her brothers for disturbing the peace, but as the offense was committed in Reynolds county, Squire Kitchell advised her that she would have to make application to some official there for a warrant. Arthur Brewer is a very sick man, suffering from typhoid and pneumonia fever. His parents have moved him out to their home so they can take care of him. The beer business will soon be at an end here. A. J. Hurrell is growing very weak. H. Tucker has the best crop of corn on the old Buckner farm, south of Annapolis, that has grown on the old place since John Buckner farmed it years ago. BULLETIN.

Bellevue News.

Sam Middleton, the piano man, of Irondale, was in our town Wednesday. Joe McColl was a business visitor in St. Louis last Wednesday. Miss Myrtle VanNort returned last Tuesday from a visit to her mother in St. Louis. Huston McColl is in St. Louis on business this week. Misses Emma Hawkins and Catherine Whitworth were guests of Mrs. W. H. Russell last week. Willie Shelton and Orville Thompson, of Mann, visited in the home of Clarence Shelton, Saturday and Sunday. Tommie Brown of Graniteville spent Saturday and Sunday with his sister, Mrs. J. L. Logan. Mrs. John Berryman and children, of Poplar Bluff, are visiting in the home of Judge Townsend. Alfred Hale was in Ironton last Monday. "Aunt" Lucy Palmer, one of the oldest women in the valley, is very low—not expected to live. Mrs. H. L. Bell and daughter, Gladys, returned last Saturday from a month's visit with relatives near Aurora. Mrs. John McDowell was called to her home in Princeton, Ind., last week to be at the bedside of her mother who is dangerously ill. "Uncle" Henry Eldson, once a resident of Iron county, now of Bismarck, visited his old friends here last Saturday; he is 82 years old and very feeble. "Uncle" Jack Palmer, who resides in our village, claims the distinction of being the oldest living Iron county resident. He is past 84 years old, and though feeble, has as good health as could be expected of one of his age. Arthur Ricketts spent three days of last week at Lutesville, as delegate to the Sunday School Convention at that place. Rev. M. M. Blease also attended the Convention. Mrs. E. M. Logan and daughter, Mrs. J. O. Campbell, are visiting relatives near Braunau, Mo. J. A. Townsend and family, Ed. Townsend and family, and Chas. Bond and family spent Sunday at the Lake. Miss Estie Moore and Ruth Bryum visited in Bismarck Monday and Tuesday. ALPFA.
