LOCAL BREVITIES.

Some June, it was. Let the eagle scream. The wells are running low. The watermelon will soon be here. A bunch of visitors expected at Ozark Inn to-day.

Hay is being shipped in. The price is about $20 a ton. In the two months of May and June we had but 1.15 inches of rain.

June of this year was slightly warmer than the same month last year. Already—the summer hot half gone—we have the sere and yellow leaf.

The Flat River and Ironton base ball teams play ball in Ironton July 4th.

Miss Blanche M. Evans takes charge of the Arcadia post-office to-day (Wednesday).

Mr. R. D. Lewis and family of St. Louis have gone to Canada to spend a couple of months.

Don't miss the opening chapters of "The Land of Broken Promises," in the REGISTER of July 23d.

C. D. Alexander and family are now domiciled in their new home—the J. T. Keane residence—in Ironton.

FOR SALE—Feed Mill, complete, gasoline engine. Bargain. Write Box 136, Ironton, Mo., or 1311 N. Euclid Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

The first home-grown tomatoes we have seen this year came to our town Monday from the Lueddecke farm, Pilot Knob. They were fine.

Rev. Horatio N. Traggitt, of St. Paul's, will fill the pulpit of St. Paul's church, Sunday, July 5th, morning and evening. All are welcome.

While we were sweltering in the valley the hot nights of last week people on Arcadia Heights tell us that blankets were necessary to comfort.

The U. S. license of the Budweiser depot expired June 30 and it is now out of business. August Rieke says that he is glad he is down and out of the business.

Wanted—A girl to wait on table and do other work in the hotel. Experience not necessary, but willing worker desired. Phone Ozark Inn, Arcadia Heights.

Our Store will be open until 9 P. M., Friday, July 3d, and will be open Saturday, July 4th, until 10 A. M. No deliveries made on July 4th.

LOPEZ STORE CO. We are glad to announce that Mr. A. T. Sheahan, who went to Hot Springs about three weeks ago for rheumatism, has been greatly benefited by the baths and expects to return home soon.

G. M. London and family were here this week going from here to Hamburg, Ark., where he will be engaged in the saw mill business. He has recently sold his mercantile business at Elvins.—Fredericktown Democrat-News.

Teachers' Meeting and County School Board Convention, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. A most interesting programme has been arranged and Superintendent Burnham hopes for a large attendance.

Recorder Hawkins has issued the following marriage licenses the past week: Martin Frederick of Ilmo and Elsie Lueddecke of Pilot Knob. Arthur M. Gordon and Lucy Pogue of Roselle.

Andy Peterson will close out his saloon business here the first of the month and move to Poplar Bluff where he will engage in a like business. Andy has many friends here who will regret to see him leave De Soto.—De Soto Press.

Mr. H. W. Lueddecke, of Pilot Knob was a caller Monday. He told us that Mr. Wm. Biel, of Pilot Knob, had in his possession a lemon, in good state of preservation, which he has had for five years and a half. This is somewhat remarkable.

Miss Allen of Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., is spending six weeks at the Valley Inn and would be glad to organize a class in English Literature. Parties who wish to join the class will kindly confer with Miss Allen at the Inn at once.

The U. S. license of F. Buechenschuetz, the Middlebrook beer man, expired July 1st. He has renewed his license for another year at a cost of $70 for the privilege of selling beer at Middlebrook until July 17th when the local option law goes into effect.

We are informed that the petitions asking for an auditing of the books of the county officers by the State Auditor are being sent in with more than sufficient signers. It is estimated that 500 names will appear on the petition when submitted to the Auditor.—Potosi Journal.

A glorious rain is falling as we go to press this (Wednesday) morning. Let us hope that the terrible drought of 1914 is terminated. It was dreadfully, fearfully hot last week but there came a change Sunday and it has been most pleasant ever since.

Strayed—From our slaughter pen last Saturday, two hogs; one black barrow marked with smooth crop off the left ear and crop and a half off the right. One red sow, smooth crop off left ear and under-bit in the right. Reward will be paid for their recovery. BASLER & KUHN.

C. R. Wadlow has been appointed postmaster at this place and will resign as Prosecuting Attorney. The Governor of course will make an appointment to fill out the unexpired term. Either R. I. January or J. H. Keith will be appointed.—Reynolds Outlook.

Chas. Schleiter's residence on Second street, Pilot Knob, was destroyed by fire about noon on Wednesday of last week. The family had just finished dinner and were sitting on the porch. Some one looked in the house and the interior was all ablaze. Building and contents were a total loss.

Our Bellevue correspondent last week referred to Mr. A. J. Palmer, of Bellevue, aged 84, as the oldest man in the county. Our correspondent is mistaken in this. Wm. Biel, of Pilot Knob, will celebrate his 87th birthday January 8th, next. And there are probably others in the county, too.

Mr. S. T. Wilson, Superintendent of Mr. Kimber's Winwood farm at Pilot Knob, left some fine samples of wheat and oats at this office Monday. Considering the drought the oats are exceptionally fine. The wheat is of a bearded variety and Mr. Wilson has not yet found anyone who can tell him just what it is.

Mrs. Chas. Schaper and children, Mrs. Chas. Distel and children, Mrs. Ennis Hitzmann and daughter, Mrs. Mary Maxwell, Mrs. E. E. Hitzmann, Mrs. August Block, Mrs. Light and son, Miss Blanche Hitzmann and Edwin Hitzmann were in Arcadia attending the closing exercises Tuesday at Arcadia College.—Bismarck Gazette.

"Timothy Hay," our Goodland correspondent, writes under date of June 29th: "Fire last week burned more than one hundred cords of wood along the Sligo railroad, and Sunday, during a wind storm, the saw mill plant of F. M. Adams was destroyed by fire. The engine will be sent to a repair shop immediately and Mr. A. will again saw as soon as he can get ready."

Judge James F. Green, a native son of Jefferson county and former circuit judge of this district, has been appointed general attorney for the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain railroad in Missouri. Judge Green has been connected with the law department of the railroad for some time. He formerly made his home in De Soto and is well known here. His friends throughout this section will be glad to hear of his promotion. He takes charge of his office on July 1st.—De Soto Press.

Orphan boys above the age of 12 are to be the subjects of care in a new orphan's home at 1900 Louisiana avenue, which will be named the Griswold Home, in memory of the late Rev. Whiting Griswold. The boys, who so far number only six, are an overflow from the Episcopal Orphan's Home at Grand and Lafayette avenues. This property originally was part of the Shaw estate, and it came as a bequest from Henry Shaw, one of the provisions being that no boys could be kept in the home after they are 12 years of age. Private generosity, through Rev. Arthur Brittain, the Orphan's Home chaplain, has made possible this new home, which may in time may expand to a larger building. Rev. Whiting Griswold, for whom it is named, was the first rector of St. John's Episcopal Church and the founder of the Episcopal Orphan's Home.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Supreme Court says there was no evidence of rape in the Annapolis cases. Commissioner Roy, who wrote the opinion, in summing up said: "We haven't any doubt that there were many times during that day where a call or a gesture from Mrs. Mullane would have brought the whole community to her rescue. Having failed during a whole day to call for protection, which was right at hand, it is too late to ask the court to send the votaries of lust to the penitentiary."

On the evening of June 24th, there assembled at Graniteville, for the dance given by the Base Ball Club, one of the old time crowds—the kind that know how to have a sociable good time. The night was hot and sultry, but Robinson and Casey kept them going, which always adds to the success of a dance. The manager certainly deserves credit in the way order was kept, and for the financial success of the dance. Alex Moyer, the captain and manager of the team, has the boys well lined up.

Anderson Plunkett, who a few years ago resided in Piedmont, died in Los Angeles, Cal., Saturday, June 13, aged 83 years and 3 days. News of his death was received here by Mrs. Thomas Gilbreath, whose brother, Hayes Malgren, married a daughter of Mr. Plunkett. Mr. and Mrs. Malgren live in Los Angeles. Mr. Plunkett went west about three years ago. He was a good old citizen and was held in very kindly esteem by Piedmont people. He was a native of Shelby county, Ky.—Piedmont Banner.

The following death notice appeared in Sunday's St. Louis Post-Dispatch with a request that the Ironton papers copy: "REEL—Entered into rest, after a lingering illness, Saturday, June 27, 1914, at 7 A. M., Mrs. Della Reel, (nee Short), beloved wife of the late James Reel, dear mother of Mrs. John Schaefer, Mrs. David Reid and William and Harry Reel, dear mother-in-law and grandmother, aged 64 years, 7 months and 10 days. Funeral from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John Schaefer, 3365 Manhattan avenue, Monday, June 29, at 9 A. M., to St. John's Cemetery, Nameoki, Illinois."

Cleve Moyer, of Graniteville, is dead and Wm. Scott, who lives on Cedar Creek, beyond Bellevue, is in the Iron county jail charged with his murder, as a sequence to a beer-canning fest at Ghermanville last Friday afternoon. While the beer drinking was in progress Moyer and a young man by the name of Ralph Higley became involved in a friendly scuffle—no one seemed to think they were fighting. Then Scott remarked that he was "not afraid to fight him," or something like that, stepped forward and struck Moyer twice with his fist—first in the face and then in the back of the head. As the last blow was delivered Moyer fell heavily to the ground and lay there, apparently, lifeless. No one seemed to think he was seriously hurt, however, and attributed his condition to the fact that he had been drinking rather freely. This was about three o'clock in the afternoon. The crowd finished their beer and dispersed, leaving Moyer where he had fallen. As he did not return home that night his wife early Saturday morning instituted a search for him and found him where the crowd had left him the night before. Moyer was in a stupor and with some assistance she took him home. A physician was summoned, but he said there was no occasion for alarm; that Moyer was under the influence of alcohol and would be all right when he sobered up. His condition remained much the same throughout the day and night. Sunday morning another physician was summoned and he pronounced Moyer's condition serious. That night at 8 o'clock he died, having never fully regained consciousness after he was struck, more than 48 hours previous. Coroner Farrar held an inquest Monday morning and found the facts as here related. An autopsy revealed a clot of blood on his brain, which was, unquestionably, the cause of death. The physicians are of the opinion that a blood vessel was ruptured when Moyer's head struck the ground. Prosecuting Attorney Damron has a warrant issued against Scott, charging murder. He was arrested Tuesday at Bellevue by Sheriff Blue and placed in jail that afternoon. Moyer was 29 years old, born and reared in Graniteville and vicinity, and leaves a wife and two small children. Scott is scarcely 21 years of age and lives with his father, Morgan Scott.

Commencement Exercises at Arcadia

The St. Ursula's Alumnae Exercises and the 37th Annual Commencement took place on Wednesday, June 23d. Both passed off in a blaze of glory and added another to the long list of the Arcadia College's triumphs. Wednesday morning found the beautiful hew chapel filled with former students. A solemn high Mass of Thanksgiving was offered at 7:30 o'clock with the Rev. A. B. Gass, D. O., as celebrant, the Rev. J. M. Huber, of Perryville, Missouri, as deacon, and the Rev. Louis O. Adrain, of Jefferson City, Mo., as sub-deacon. Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and the singing of the Te Deum followed, after which Dr. A. B. Gass addressed the Students.

At ten o'clock all wended their way to the Assembly Hall which was beautifully decorated in purple and gold, the Alumnae Colors. The Alumnae Convention was opened by the Rev. Dr. Gass who spoke so earnestly of "Loyalty to Alma Mater" that all present felt glad to have the honor and privilege of being members of the Association. The Recording Secretary, Miss Hannah B. FitzGerald, read the minutes of the meeting. The President, Mrs. Nellie Brierton Townsend, read the annual report and stated that the members unanimously voted all the moneys and donations received by the Association be given their Alma Mater for the magnificent new addition, just completed.

The election of officers then took place with the following result: President, Mrs. Nellie Bigley Matthews, of St. Louis, Mo.; Vice-President, Miss Josephine Jarrot Bristow, of East St. Louis, Ill.; Treasurer, Mrs. Nellie Brierton Townsend, of Festus, Mo.; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Irene Marshall, of Ironton, Mo.; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Frankie Motz Lannigan, of Chicago, Ill.

The next meeting of the Association will take place in St. Louis, Mo., sometime in October. The meeting adjourned with the singing of the time-honored song, "Home of Our Happy Childhood."

At two o'clock the Commencement Exercises began. The program, an admirable one, both in selection and duration, was as follows: PIANO DUO—"Night Blooming Cereus." The Misses Marie Harde and Susie Marie FitzGerald. PIANO DUO—"Loyalty to Ideals." Miss Frances F. Mason. PICTURE SONG—"Dolly's Lullaby." The Misses Gladys Heiserer, Edith Abington, Ruth Harris, Fern Cline, Alena Heiserer, Agnes Beebe, Eileen Coffin, Martha Schmitz. PIANO DUO—"Berceuse."
