The screen factory building in north Ironton burned on the morning of June 16th. Fire is still smoldering in the sawdust.
The colored K. P. lodge will give a picnic and fish fry at Rodach's Park, north Ironton, Labor Day, Monday, September 7th.
The Continental Screen Company state that their property in north Ironton, the site of the old screen factory, is not for sale.
A "dry moon"—the fifth in succession—put in its appearance the past week. Let's hope this one will not be so dry as its looks.
O. L. Yount last week purchased what is known as the Pilcher place, near the rifle range, and is now making his home thereon.
Application was made in the circuit court in St. Louis last Friday for a receiver for the Bankers' Trust Company. A receiver will be named to-day.
Louis Miller has completed the foundation for a new hotel in Arcadia. The site is that of the old Arcadia hotel, which burned twelve or fifteen years ago.
The total cost in the Annapolis rape cases amount to about $5000. The amount is paid by the state and it is expected will here for disbursement in a few days.
Married—At the residence of John Mayes, Ironton, Mo., Saturday, August 22d, 1914, John Mayes, Jr., and Alma Christ, Probate Judge O. W. Roop officiating.
The family of Mr. Ed. Baird of Arcadia will leave Friday for Jackson, Mo., where they will remain for the winter. Mr. B. is conductor on the branch leading into that town.
A little bird whispers me that one of our Valley girls, Miss Lena Fletcher, and Mr. Henry Cheney, of Clinton, Ky., will enter into double-blessedness at 3 o'clock this afternoon.
Roscoe Parsons, with a party of eight, autoed from Bonne Terre to Arcadia Sunday. After viewing the Valley and taking supper at the Inn, they returned home in the evening.
Ed Summers has returned from a fishing and hunting expedition on the Middle Fork of Black River. He reports an abundance of squirrels and says he never saw fish so plentiful before.
Prof. and Mrs. Loomis left Monday morning for Columbia, Mo., in their automobile. They expect to stop at Bismarck and Flat River en route, expecting to go to Columbia about the first of the month.
I hear of some boys trespassing upon the premises of a family now absent from town. The names of the guilty ones are known, and if the offense is repeated they will be prosecuted. Boys, take warning!

H. D. Evans, cashier of the Lead Belt Bank, Bonne Terre, and family, were automobile visitors to the valley Sunday, spending most of the day with relatives in Arcadia. They also visited at the home of Mr. Mann Ringo in Ironton.
Recorder Hawkins issued the following marriage licenses the past week:
Paul Smith and Mary Reagan of St. Louis.
John Mayes, Jr., and Alma Christ of Ironton.
Prof. Shoop, who is to have charge of the Ironton schools the coming year, with his wife arrived from Richmond, Mo., last Saturday and are domiciled in the residence formerly occupied by Prof. and Mrs. Loomis, in east Ironton.
B. S. Gregory, wife and daughter, of St. Louis, after spending several weeks in Ironton left this morning on a trip overland to Crawford county to spend some time with relatives. We are glad to say Mr. Gregory's health is much improved and it is hoped a further outing will continue to benefit him.
Married—St. Louis, Mo., August 19, 1914, at 9 o'clock P. M., at the residence of the bride's sister, 4106a Castlemans Avenue, John W. Smith, of Fredericktown, and Emma E. Hawkins, of Ironton, Rev. Dr. J. P. Stubblefield officiating. Iron county friends of the bride wish her every happiness. She is a most excellent and worthy young lady.
On August 14th John Hedrick and Jim Tedder of the west end of the county were arraigned before Squire Rasche on the charge of crap shooting. Both pleaded guilty and were fined $25 and costs in each case. There were two cases against Hedrick and he paid out. There were six cases against Tedder and he is "laying out" the fine and costs in jail.
The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a Silver Offering Meeting at the home of Mrs. F. Kindell, Sr., Wednesday afternoon, September 9, at 3 o'clock. Visitors welcome. Program: Devotional, Mrs. Feary; Roll Call; Africa; Business; Music, Mrs. Mitchell; Talk on Mexico, Mrs. McKee; Hymn; Prayer for Peace, Mrs. Damron.
Sam Doss, of Flat River, the reformed sport and bad man, occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, and curiosity drew a large congregation to hear what he had to say. Since Sam's reformation a year or so ago he has undertaken the redemption of other sinners and his own past record in the sinner line seems to make him a drawing pulpit attraction. —Potosi Journal.
Mrs. Lulu Gillam Woodside is now in New York City where she will remain for several days studying the new styles in Fall and Winter Millinery. She asks the REGISTER to tell the ladies that she expects to have in stock this fall the very prettiest and most stylish millinery she has ever had. New York hats are no prettier than the St. Louis ones, but the ideas there are more advanced, and the visitor there sees the direct imported models. Further announcement later.
Coroner Schoen of Gordonville was called to Delta last Friday morning to hold an inquest over the body of an unknown man, who was found dead that morning on the public grounds at Delta. An examination disclosed some papers which bore the name of P. E. Joseph, Bloomfield, Mo. A telephonic enquiry at that place brought the answer that such a man was known there, and as he had a crippled hand, just like the dead stranger, the identification was complete. Joseph leaves a little daughter at Bloomfield. He seems to have been of a roving disposition and had been around Delta for several days. Death was due to natural causes.—Jackson Item.
It is more than likely that the foregoing refers to P. E. Joseph, the furniture repairer, who spent several months in Ironton about a year ago. The description fits him precisely.
I am no "kicker," taking things by-and-large, and prefer commending to fault-finding; but there is one grievance that has about reached the limit, and that is the lighting inequality in this town. The street lamps are not evenly distributed. The south end of the city is amply provided for, but Shepherd street north of Reynolds has not one lamp. It is not right and I beg the Council to rectify the injustice. We are all taxpayers and are entitled to consideration. One lamp placed on the rise fronting the Pruitt residence would light the street from Madison to St. Francois. Do us right, Messrs. Mayor and Aldermen, and give us light! If you don't think it is sorely needed, traverse the locality herein indicated. GIVE US LIGHT! With us it will take off the keen edge of the tax collector's demands to know that our full relation to the city is not expressed in the receipt he gives us on payment duly made.
Mr. Shuler, manager of the North American mines adjoining this city, received word this week to pull the pumps and shut the expense of the mines down to the minimum. He has begun the work and will in about ten days have all the pumps out and the material from underground. We understand, however, that he has orders to leave two of the steam pumps under ground, ready to start working from the top should the company ever decide to start the works again. We are sorry to hear this move, as the people of this city have had hopes that as long as the pumps were kept going there was some hope that the mines would be opened soon. But the pulling of the pumps indicates there will be nothing doing in the very near future. The owners, however, are not to be blamed for the pulling of the pumps, for they have been paying out about $25,000 a year since the mines closed down keeping the water pumped out, and this is only a matter of economy with them, if they do not intend to operate the plant.—Fredericktown Tribune.

I like boys and girls and want them to "have a good time" while they are boys and girls, for I know the time is not very far off when life will be serious and earnest for them. But there are various kinds of good times, and some of them are not conducive to the physical and mental welfare of boys and girls. The average boy of seven to fourteen thinks he is having a good time when running the streets at night, and maybe he is, but it is not the right sort of good time—not the kind that is devoid of danger to his well-being. In this town I see, too often, youngsters of seven and eight years, long after what should be their bed time, romping, shouting, and sometimes quarrelling on the street. This should not be, and would not be were the home government always equal to its requirements. It is a matter that ought to be looked after by the parent in time, lest he lose the respect which obedience instills in the child, and trouble and regret come of it.
News reached here Monday morning of the death of Charlotte, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Rev. C. M. Gray at their home at Palmyra, Mo., Sunday morning, from the accidental discharge of a shot gun. The particulars of the awful accident are about as follows: There had been considerable trouble from chicken thieves and Rev. Gray had been keeping a loaded gun in his room in anticipation of a visit from the marauders. Sunday morning Charlotte in doing the household chores, started to carry the gun downstairs. In some manner she slipped and fell in such a manner as to discharge the gun, the whole load taking effect producing death almost instantly. Charlotte was very popular among the younger students of the school and the news of her death will be a great shock to them, as also to the hundreds of friends of the family. Rev. Gray was president of Marvin College here for ten years and is well known all over this section of the state. Upon his retirement from the leadership of the school here some time over a year ago, he with his family moved to the suburbs of Palmyra for a complete rest. The family is prostrated over the accident.—Fredericktown Democrat-News.
Farmington News: "Another controversy between the mining companies of the St. Francois county lead district and their employees seems likely as the result of developments of the past week. A committee representing the various local unions of the Western Federation of Miners in this district have called on company officials in an effort to get a renewal of the wage scale agreement, or contract, which was adopted last year following a strike by the employees for higher wages. According to the chairman of the mining union's committee, the companies have thus far refused to meet the committee or discuss the wage agreement in any respect. A few weeks ago each of the companies of the district posted a notice that the present wage scale would continue in effect. The notice, however, contained no information as to the period of time the scale would continue. A member of the miners' committee stated to the News that their organization was seeking the renewal of the wage contract, as the men felt that they should have some definite assurance of how long the present scale would continue in effect. The wage contract was adopted last year after a stubbornly-fought strike. The State Board of Arbitration and Mediation figured prominently in the settlement of the controversy. We understand the organization has taken the matter up with the board again and that it is likely to be in the district in the near future."
A week or so ago Sheriff Blue learned that at a picnic given at Doyle in the west end of the county on August 8th bootleggers did a flourishing business and that whiskey was dispensed with a free hand at $1.50 a quart. Another picnic was advertised for the same place last Saturday. Mr. Blue thought he would go out and have some fun himself. So he hid to the west end and arrived at the picnic grounds early Saturday morning. But he kept himself in hiding until a young man by the name of Fred Woods was caught in the act of selling the booze —but the price was raised on this occasion to $2 a quart, and not a very good article, either. Mr. Woods was promptly taken in by the Sheriff as was also his agent, Otis Henley. This nearly broke up the picnic and the rest of the day was quiet enough. Mr. Blue had warrants for the following whom he also brought to town: Fred Chandler, charged with carrying concealed weapons and gaming; Herbert Barton, gaming. Ed. Canady, Ed. Enloe and Quincy Sumpter, each charged with gaming, were placed under arrest but gave bond for their appearance at circuit court in October. Chandler and Barton were arraigned before Squire Rasche Tuesday charged with crap shooting. Barton pleaded guilty to one offense and Chandler entered a similar plea in six cases. A fine of $25 and costs was imposed in each case. In default of payment both defendants were remanded to jail. The other defendants may not be tried until circuit court.
Try Cherry Chic. It's fine.—Adv.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of our old friend, Wm. H. Blaine, who passed away Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at his home in Piedmont. I have known Mr. Blaine since January, 1867. He was at that time shipping clerk for the Clarkson Milling Co. at Potosi. Later he became associated with the Clarksons at Annapolis, where he ran several saw mills and a general store. He moved to Piedmont about 1873, I think, and organized the firm of Blaine & Hatten, which was afterwards changed to Blaine & McSpadden. After the death of McSpadden Mr. Blaine ran a store in Piedmont until his death. The deceased was one of the best business men in Piedmont and had accumulated quite a fortune. He leaves a widow and four children to mourn him. Several from Des Arc would have attended the funeral were the train service more convenient.
I was down at Taskee and Elsinore last week. They have had some good rains out on the Missouri Southern. It is still very dry at Bunker. They are piping the water for several miles. The cross tie business is very dull. Not a tie being made in the W., G. & St. L. Railroad, and only one firm buying on the Iron Mountain between Bismarck and Poplar Bluff. Business is looking bad. Ruble Bros. seem to be doing a very good business at Reynolds. Mr. James Carryhan, their manager, says they have plenty of orders, so far. They have a deep well that furnishes plenty of water. I was at Garwood for a short stop. Everything was good there. Frank Hackworth and his manager, Chas. Matthews, were in St. Louis, so I failed to get an order there. Did not see my friend, Lat Matthews. I was at Paterson Saturday. That is the best country town I know of. The town was full of farmers.

Wm. Stevenson was in Ironton Thursday.
Wm. R. Edgar, Jr., from Ironton, was here electioneering last week.

Uncle Eli—Some of your good people in our old home in Missouri may want to hear from us. Mr. Chas. K. Polk and wife and our friend, Thos. B. Sharp, Sheriff of Madison county, are with us. We have rented a cottage on the east side of town, 103 Jefferson street. We have had six baths, but notice no great improvement yet. This is a nice little city with a population of 13,000 or 14,000. Over 1,000 people bathe here every day. The drought was bad in this country, but we are having plenty of rain now. The grass is green and fine, and quite a lot of vegetables coming to town, but they are not first-class and the price is very high. Buffalo fish are plentiful and cheap, so you can guess what we eat mostly. Mr. Sharp and I will stay two weeks yet. Mr. and Mrs. Polk will stay for some time.
