Hon. John H. Bradley of Kennet, Dunklin County, for Judge of the Springfield Court of Appeals.

In this issue of the REGISTER will be found the announcement of the Hon. John H. Bradley of Kennet, Missouri, for the Democratic nomination for the office of Judge of the Springfield Court of Appeals. Mr. Bradley was born January 25, 1875, in Dunklin County, where he yet resides, and was raised on a farm; as a youth he attended the public schools in that county. Later, he attended the Third District Normal School at Cape Girardeau, and the Missouri State University at Columbia, from which latter institution he graduated in the year 1902. He is in the prime of manhood, a ripe scholar, a high toned gentleman, and a lawyer of recognized ability. For years, Mr. Bradley has enjoyed a good practice in his county, and has frequently been in circuit court in a number of the Southeast Missouri counties. Mr. Bradley is endowed with a judicial mind and temperament which eminently fit and qualify him for Judge of our appellate court. The Springfield Court of Appeals was created by Act of the Legislature in 1898, and since that time the following counties have had a representative upon that bench: Laclede, Jasper, Polk, Green and Newton. So far, Southeast Missouri has not been represented, and in justice to a faithful democracy and a great and growing section, Southeast Missouri is entitled to a representative upon that bench. Mr. Bradley is rapidly developing a reputation, and owing to that fact, has always had and will have, a large volume of litigation involving drainage and reclamation problems in which the people are vitally interested. Furthermore, Southeast Missouri casts a heavy democratic vote, and upon this section must fall the burden of electing a Democrat to the office of Judge of the Springfield Court of Appeals. Dunklin County, Mr. Bradley's home, is the banner Democratic county in Southeast Missouri, and in the entire district. His Democratic majority being greater than any county in the district. Dunklin County and her immediate neighbors have been the saving grace to democratic candidates for congress, and other Democratic candidates for state and district offices for years, and she presents Mr. Bradley as her candidate this year. The Democratic Party of our county district return in a measure the favors heretofore received from the faithful Democracy of Southeast Missouri. No man is closer to the people than John H. Bradley, and no lawyer in the entire district is better equipped and qualified, and we have no hesitancy in presenting Mr. Bradley's name to the Democracy of the forty-four counties of this district, and bespeak for him careful consideration. Mr. Bradley's practice has been a general practice, and he is not aligned with this or that; he is just a plain, experienced, successful country lawyer, and liked by all. Undoubtedly Missouri is entitled to the recognition and a place on the bench of the Springfield Court of Appeals, and no man from Southeast Missouri would better grace that position than Hon. John H. Bradley of Kennet. He is entitled to consideration at the hands of the Democracy of this county, not only because of his ability and qualifications, but because of his geographical location and the political significance attached to his candidacy. If John Bradley, as he is known among his friends, is nominated for this position, it is predicted that it will greatly enable the Democracy of this county to carry in November. The district and the Democratic Party will not make any mistake by nominating John H. Bradley of Kennet, Dunklin County, for Judge of the Springfield Court of Appeals.

Annapolis News. We have had lots of rain the past week; now cold and cloudy. Our town has been very quiet the past week, all the men and boys being at work on the washouts on the railroad between here and Poplar Bluff. They leave here every morning at six o'clock and arrive at a special train and return about 9 o'clock.

Geo. L. Kemp, who lived just over the line in Reynolds county, on Bear Branch, died very suddenly of heart trouble last Friday afternoon. He had been at work and came in and laid down on the bed to play with his grandchild. He became quiet and it was thought he was asleep. But on investigation he was found to be dead. The deceased was 68 years of age and is survived by six sons and two daughters. He was laid to rest in Hyatt's creek cemetery and there laid to rest by the side of his wife who died five years ago.

Geo. W. Hampton, who has been suffering with the grip, went to Poplar Bluff for treatment last week. The diamond drills are making progress slowly this week.

Fred and Ed Kemp came from the Mitchell Mines last Friday to attend their father's funeral.

John W. Hampton has secured a job in the handle factory and will move his family here soon.

Wm. E. Jones, who lives east of Annapolis, is sick with the grip. The county court will be petitioned this week to reappoint David Paris as roadoverseer of this district. The court will also be petitioned to re-incorporate the town of Annapolis. I do not see any benefit to be derived therefrom. Besides I do not believe the petitioners have proceeded according to law.

February 14th is groundhog day, so the old quire says. So, Mr. Editor, see if any of your groundhogs are missing on that day.

Little Edna Henson has been suffering with stomach trouble the past week, but is better now.

Mrs. Mathina Bolch is visiting her mother in St. Louis.

Green Brooks is running his saw mill and planer most of the time, notwithstanding the cold weather.

Green Brooks is running his handle factory every day and sometimes at night. He is a useful man here.

Watersbury & Keathley are doing well with their handle factory. They run every day and employ fourteen men.

F. M. Corey, aged 88, of Black River was in town Saturday. He looks hale and hearty and makes cross and switch ties every day. BULLETIN.

Bellevue News. Dave Silvey was a business visitor in St. Louis a few days last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Townsend were shopping in Ironton last Friday.

Des Arc Items.

The high water has damaged the Iron Mountain track thousands of dollars. A work train picked up along the line, trying to get the track in shape, so they can resume train service. A large force of men from here are working with them. They work day and night. Both of our section foremen, with their crews, are at work there. They had the track temporarily rebuilt, the trains could go through Monday. There is much suffering in the flooded districts in Arkansas. Newport and other towns are under water. The cold weather has made the flooding much more than during the flood last August. Business is in a standstill as the tie and lumber haulers can not get to town, the creeks all being past fording.

Graves & Stamp have been running their factory the past week.

F. E. Farr went to St. Louis Sunday with a car of stock.

E. W. Fitz and Ed Maddock, who were tied up here by the washouts, went to St. Louis and took a train on the Frisco to Arkansas.

In our last week's items we failed to mention that Rev. W. W. Strother, of Fredericktown, while here on a business trip, presented to the church a special offering in the Methodist church. He has many friends here.

Mrs. Lee Strader and children are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Beatie Lovelace and little girl will return to Doniphan Monday.

Misses Eunice Morris and Lola Howard came from Piedmont Saturday, accompanied by the following young people from that town: Misses Nettie Carter, Bly Bunyard, Celeste Burton and Maude Sess, the Messrs. Paul Bunyard, Hiram and John Ost and Sam Holmes. They were entertained that night at the home of Miss Eunice Morris. Quite a number were present and spent a pleasant evening.

Mrs. Jno. Harris returned Saturday from Piedmont, where she was called by the illness of her mother. Jim King and wife from Rivermeins are visiting the latter's parents, Luther Daniels and wife.

Rev. Fugate and wife are moving to Piedmont this week. ISAAC.

Men's $1.00 and 75c Dress Shirts cut to 49c. Great bargains.

Goodland Items. This has certainly been a disagreeable winter so far. The whole face of nature is covered with a shield of ice. Tie, hub and stove hauling continues in spite of the absence of roads. Two little boys were playing along a creek bank when they were asked by a stranger who was passing: "Bud, where is the county road?" One of the boys politely said: "We cannot tell you, sir; we have not seen it since last August."

Mrs. M. G. Harrison and son, are spending some weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brooks. Mr. Harrison was manager of the Missouri building at the Panama Exposition and with his family has lately returned to Missouri.

A second little daughter was born February 6th, to Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Adams. Dr. and Mrs. Martin were in attendance.

The annual telephone meeting for our line was held at Redmondville last Saturday.

Mr. Will Nelson of Brule is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Cora Brooks.

The Redmondville school, Mr. McCall teacher, visited our school lately and spent a very enjoyable afternoon in spelling, ruzzing and jumping. It was nip and tuck which school made the best showing.
