Clarence O'Neal of the Sykles-Mc-Bride-O'Neal Clothing Company, and a member of the local fire department, suffered a serious injury during a run to a fire Thursday afternoon. O'Neal was standing on the back of the hose cart, watching the hose after it had been attached to the fire plug and was being played out.
The hose cart gave a sudden lurch while going at full speed, and O'Neal losing his balance fell off. His left leg was broken just below the knee and his back was wrenched. He was taken to a physician who dressed the injury. Mr. O'Neal will be laid up for several weeks.—Poplar Bluff Citizen.

Burk and Hobbs.

(The Festus News.)
The great revival conducted by Evangelists Burk and Hobbs at Her-culeanum will come to a close Sunday night.

The wonderful interest that characterized these meetings will be maintained to the last. The people never tired of listening to Steve Burk's masterly sermons which reached all classes and conditions of men.

The preaching of Steve Burk reached people of Herculeanum who had never at any time shown the least interest in religious matters. Too much praise cannot be given them for the great good accomplished in Hercu-laneum and surrounding country, and they will long be remembered by the people for the splendid results of this meeting.

Evangelist Hobbs, whose leading of the singing was a revelation to most of our people, was also a strong supporter of Rev. Burk in his sermons.

There have been up to this time, over two hundred and twenty-five conversations. The meeting will close Sunday, March 26th. Evangelists Burk and Hobbs will go to their homes for a brief rest and then go to Jackson for a meeting. The prayers of the christian people will follow them and they will have the good wishes of our people generally.

LOPPED OFF
SEVENTEEN YEARS

Mrs. Jones, at 52, Looks 35, and Rides Horseback as Well as She Ever Could, Thanks to Cardui.

Onawa, Iowa.—Mrs. Anna Jones, of this place, says: "I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women.
For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides with my hands. I tried several different treatments, but was never even relieved. I told my husband I believed I was being experimented on.

Finally, our druggist advised Cardui, the woman's tonic, for my complaint.
I was so thin, my weight was 115.
Now I weigh 163, and I am never sick.
I ride horseback as well as I ever could. I am in fine health, at 52 years, thanks to Cardui. Some think I am about 35. It was Cardui, the woman's tonic, that built me up. If I ever need a medicine for womanly troubles, I shall use Cardui, for it is certainly all that is claimed for it."

Are you getting old before your time—moping around with hollow eyes, drooped shoulders, no life to do anything? Brace up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has brought the glow of health to many thousands of women's faces, and made them glad to be alive, as is proven by the numerous letters similar to the above, we receive every day.

Ask your druggist about Cardui.
He knows it's good. [JB-4]
