Political Pointers.

There is no mistaking the impetus of the good roads movement in Missouri. It is sweeping the State like a prairie fire. The wisdom of Democratic Legislation is bearing fruit. The laws under which good roads bonds are voted are all Democratic laws, and are a splendid tribute to the constructive and patriotic statesmanship of the Democratic party. At last the people of Missouri are coming to understand that good roads are not made at Jefferson City. Only the laws are made there. The roads must be made at home, by setting in motion the legal machinery which the State government has provided. No State in the Union has better road laws than Missouri. The Democratic party has seen to that. It is now up to the people to build the roads—and they are doing it too.

J. Silas Harris, president of the "Negro Republican League of Missouri"—some name, isn't it?—announces that nobody is authorized to receive donations for the league; nobody, we presume, but J. Silas. Of course, somebody must produce, or Swanger can't be nominated.

"A lusted treasury and a looted school fund!" The Republicans started the cry twenty years ago. But Missouri's public school system is still working and growing, and that State treasury is still open for business every day. When the Republicans were in the hey-day of their power and glory in this State, they never took the trouble to create a permanent school fund. They robbed the cradle before the baby was born. And as to the State treasury, that was merely a snap for a Republican politician. The State's money—whenever the State had any money—was loaned out by the Treasurer for his own benefit, and he put the interest in his pocket! By virtue of a Democratic law, passed by a Democratic Legislature and signed by a Democratic Governor, the State now realizes a very handsome income from what, to the Republicans, was only a source of private graft.

While swinging his municipal pleating brigade into line for Swanger for Governor, Mayor Henry Kiel of St. Louis is doubtless not unmindful of the fact that in the event of Swanger's election the police and election commissioners of that benighted city could be used to force the re-election of one Henry Kiel to the office of Mayor.

The St. Louis authorities assess the property of that city at seventy per cent of its actual value. They have to do this in order to get enough money to supply the extravagant demands of the Republican city administration. And the St. Louis Republican politicians, in order to hide their own burglarious foot-prints, rush out into the State, and scream and howl against the State Board of Equalization for not "equalizing" the assessments. The St. Louis Republican gang know very well that a reduction of the assessments in St. Louis city would bankrupt the city treasury. But they are not asking for that. Oh, no. What they want is a doubling of the assessments in the country. How in the name of high Heaven could that help St. Louis? It would not and could not help St. Louis at all. But there is one thing that does help. The roar that it kept up in the St. Louis newspapers helps to deceive the people of St. Louis city, and that is its only purpose. As long as those people can be made to believe that all their trouble comes from Jefferson City they will continue to vote the Republican ticket.

There is one thing about the State University that is known to every man who has been a member of the State Legislature, and that is simply this: If the University hasn't gotten all the money that was in the State treasury, it wasn't because the University never asked for it.

It may be remarked, in passing, that one very good way to injure the credit of the State is to join in the general Republican squawk that "the treasury is busted." That kind of talk does not help a State any more than it helps an individual. We can see why Republicans would try, if they could, to force a Democratic State into bankruptcy. Their policy is to ruin where they cannot rule. But Democratic newspapers which lend their columns to that sort of a propaganda are certainly getting off on the wrong foot.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials from Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. ### Jesse Pinkley Answers Call.

(Lewistown, Mo.) Democrat-News, May 20) Jesse E. Pinkley, deputy state stock inspector, died at 8:45 last night at his residence, 308 Second avenue, south, after a long illness, aged 43 years. He is survived by the widow and one daughter; one brother, James Pinkley of Missouri, who was at the bedside, and a brother and sister, in addition to other relatives, residing in Missouri.

The decedent first became ill about three months ago, and he submitted to an operation. He improved gradually and perhaps three weeks ago took up his duties again, his strength slowly returning as he went about. On April 25th he returned to the city from a trip to Butte, Helena, and White Sulphur Springs, but very soon after getting home began to lose ground again, although he was not confined to his bed until a few days ago. His ailment, a very serious liver trouble, with complications, brought him down rapidly and he was unconscious most of yesterday.

Mr. Pinkley came here from Missouri many years ago and was for some years employed by David Hilger and the Ferguson people in the Armelle country. Removing to Lewistown, he engaged in the livery business, conducting the Elkhorn stables for several years. In 1904-5 he served as alderman from the second ward and was then elected mayor. At the expiration of his first term he was re-elected, thus serving four years as mayor. Some time after his retirement from that office he became deputy state inspector, a position that he held at the time of his death. Mr. Pinkley was a first-class stock man and was widely known throughout the country. He was recognized by all as a man of strict personal integrity, loyal to his friends at all times, large hearted and charitable and fearless in the discharge of his duty. (Democrat-News, May 4th.)

The whole community yesterday paid its last tribute of respect to the memory of former Mayor Jesse E. Pinkley. The stores closed at two o'clock and while the services were in progress at the Methodist church business was suspended. The attendance at the funeral strikingly illustrated the esteem in which the former mayor was held. The large auditorium was far too small to accommodate the throngs, and while many stood in the rear of the church, many more remained on the sidewalks, unable to get into the building.

The Elks, who had charge of the services, the Odd Fellows and the Woodmen attended in bodies while Mayor Symmes and the members of the city council, with all the city officials, were present. The casket was completely covered with the numerous and beautiful floral tributes. At the opening Mrs. E. A. Long and her daughter, Miss Reatha Long, sang a beautiful duet, and later Mrs. Long gave a solo while the quartet, composed of Mrs. Long, Miss Long, Dick Baker, and Walter Lehman were heard in two selections. Rev. C. M. Donaldson delivered the address, which was a notable one. He paid high tribute to Mr. Pinkley's worth and his address was full of consoling thoughts.

Roselle Items.

Thomas Conway, who has been working at the Silver Mines, has returned home. H. R. Inman lost a fine mare last week, valued at $180.00. Thomas Sigman of Crane Pond is working for Thomas Keathley. J. B. Watson of Flat River is visiting T. P. Terreau. H. Lewis and wife and Mrs. Vance of Flat River are visiting relatives here. H. C. Johnson is arranging to build a larger store building. Rev. Patterson preached a very interesting sermon at Granite View Sunday. R.

Des Arc Items.

We are having summer at last. I note in my travels that wheat is looking very bad. Some is being plowed under and sown in millet. Our oldest daughter, Mrs. Geo. W. Morris, of Farmington, is with us also our youngest son, E. W. Fitz, of Arkansas. It is the first time they were for five years. We were more than glad to meet with them again. Our time here is nearing the end and we will not have the pleasure of meeting them many more times on earth. I was in R. H. Stevenson's store on Saturday. He has an up-to-date establishment. Mrs. Stevenson has charge of the ladies' department and has her goods displayed in the windows—something you do not often see in these little towns. She is certainly a splendid saleswoman, besides one of the best Christian ladies in this country. While at Ellington I called on Fred Geitz. He has the largest store in the town. Everything well arranged. Mrs. Geitz, his wife, is the manager, and it is to her credit the store is so well arranged. On the fourth Sunday in May, the 28th, there will be memorial services at the Des Arc cemetery. Rev. W. W. Strother will preach at 11 o'clock. Hon. O. L. Munger of Piedmont will deliver an oration at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. About thirty soldiers are buried there and a flag will be placed on each grave. So, come, especially those who have dear ones buried there. It will be a day to remember your friends who are gone. Mothers' Day was observed here Sunday. I often wonder why we have so many divorce suits in this country, for your mother never advised her boy to desert the girl he promised, before God and man, that he would honor and protect. When I go back to my old home in Virginia I there see the cradle my mother rocked me to sleep in, and there is the old pine table in the dining room that our mother fed us from; and the tall old clock stands in the corner, but it has been still for years. These are sad scenes. Dr. E. E. Whiteside has gone to Leadwood to practice his profession. G. W. Morris and wife were here from Farmington last week to visit relatives. James King and wife from Fredericktown are visiting the latter's parents, Luther Daniels and wife. Mrs. E. W. Graves was in St. Louis last week to visit her mother. G. C. Morris went to Farmington Sunday to visit his sister, Miss Bettie Morris from Virginia, who is spending the summer with J. M. Morris and family. Gilbert Wallis, Chas. Roberts, Courtney Shelton and Harve Medley have gone to Kansas, where they have employment. Will McAllister and Roy Pratt from Piedmont spent Sunday here. Mrs. Chas. Shumake and son from Fredericktown are visiting friends here. Mrs. Cicero Stevenson and children from Taakee are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Nellie Yelton and little son, Carl, from Clinton, Ill., are visiting her mother, Mrs. Chas. Williams. Miss Martha Kelley is visiting her

Annapolis News.

We had a fine rain on the 11th and good prospects for more today (Monday). Ed Johnson is putting in 200 feet of granite walk on Front street and is doing a good job. The town corporation has built a badly needed gravel walk to the school house. Ed Rable of Vulcan was in town the past week. Charley Reed, candidate for Sheriff, was in town lately. Some of the boys working with the bridge carpenters, near Hoxie, Arkansas, were home Sunday and got a little noisy, but the Marshal soon quieted them. Chas. E. Bolch made a trip Saturday morning to Illinois, where his son, Carl, is attending school, but is back home this morning. George Watson has moved over to a saw mill, near Centerville. Mrs. Dicey Kitchell had a fine sow killed on the railroad last week. D. A. Worley went to Redford today to haul a load of household goods for George Dodson. Chas. E. Bolch has his new store house nearly completed and is getting in a big stock of goods. Chas. W. Phillips will teach our school again next year and have an assistant to help him. Add Reese has a large stock of goods and is doing a big business. Webb & Loyd sold more than $100 worth of flour and meal Saturday. There promises to be a big crop of apples and peaches this summer. People should prepare to can their fruit and not let it go to waste as it usually does. Wm. Bounds of Black River is now running the saw mill on the Colyotte Branch and is getting out a good lot of lumber. He is making money where others have gone broke. Gus Bunk is proceeding with his new store house. When finished he will have a nice place to do business. Heavy thunder and much lightning last night. BULLETIN.

Shepard News.

Dear Editor and readers of the REGISTER—While we watch, and are interested in the movements of various friends in other parts of Iron county, we conclude others may be interested to hear from our district. Our people are now planting corn and we are glad to know that quite a good deal of sorghum is a prospective crop this year along this fork of Black River. King's mill, under the management of Henry Akers, is running every day on schedule time. Lewis Akers is about ready to follow some friends, and try his fortune with them in Colorado. Fred Cureton stopped for a short visit on his way home with his new Ford, with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Steams, of Cape Girardeau, and his little daughter, Mildred, accompanied him. Miss Elizabeth Cofer of James Creek visited at Shepard Sunday. John Bell and family, also Mrs. Mollie Bell, spent Sunday with George Grote and family.

Ironton, Mo. B. N. Brown.

Miss Lena Akers has returned home from the mines, where she made a long visit with her uncle, George Williamson.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Harbison, a baby boy.

John Huddard and his son, Ron, spent a day with Mrs. Anna Boyer, their daughter and sister.

George Grote was here a few days ago; he is endeavoring to find some middle-aged women to take care of his family of motherless children. It is certainly sad to have a mother taken from eight little ones.
