The vallegians who were in St. Louis last week are of one mind—that the convention was most harmonious and enthusiastic. And they all returned home with the opinion that William Jennings Bryan is far, far from being a "dead one" in Democratic gatherings.

The Thirty-Ninth Annual Commencement Arcadia College took place last Tuesday afternoon. A large audience attended the proceedings and enjoyed two hours' delightful entertainment. An extended account thereof will be given in the REGISTER next week.

Mr. Chas. L. Harris, after a sojourn of fifteen weeks in the Mullanphy Hospital, St. Louis, was in Ironton Monday morning on his way to his home on Crane Pond. Mr. Harris is looking fine, but says he is a little weak. We hope the pure air of the Ozarks will soon fix him up all right.

Wm. Trauernicht tells us that he encountered all kinds of rain on a motor trip from the valley to Bonne Terre and return last Sunday. Flat River was booming and several automobiles "went dead" while trying to go through the water. Ropes and teams had to be utilized to get several cars out of mid-stream. It was a terrific rain. Here there was only a slight sprinkle.

Mrs. J. L. Fisher, formerly of Pilot Knob, Mo., after spending a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Uncle Jim Paulius of Bellevue, arrived here this week for a visit with his son, Robert and family. Mr. Paulius was 85 years old the 8th of this month, but he is enjoying the best of health. During the strawberry season this spring the Iron Mountain railroad handled 700 cars of berries, a total of 280,000 crates, 719,200,000 berries. It would take one man 7,301 days to pick this amount of berries, and if made into a short-cake, it would be 786 miles long. Some cake, these berries were all raised in around Judsonia, McRea, Kensett, and Austin, Arkansas. This is some reputation for Arkansas.—Piedmont Banner.

Desloge correspondence in Farmington News: "A. P. Mackley returned the first of the week from a trip of three weeks in Illinois and Indiana. While in Indiana Mr. Mackley spent several days at West Baden Springs taking treatment for rheumatism and reports that he feels much better as the result of his stay there. Mrs. Mackley was with Mr. Mackley during his stay at the Springs and on the return trip they stopped off at St. Louis for a visit of a few days."

The Ironton school board has had a couple of meetings this week to consider plans presented by some architects from Sikeston for the High School building. One of the plans presented provided for four rooms, an auditorium and a large basement that could be utilized later for any purpose desired. But no action was taken. The question of a site for the proposed building is still "up in the air" so to speak. One plan proposed now is to build on the present school grounds. But the idea does not seem popular.

An old valley boy and long-time friend of the REGISTER writes from Clark, Louisiana: "We look for the Ironton paper regularly each week; could not do without it. I was over at Winfield a few weeks ago and met Harry Ake. He has an excellent opportunity and I hope he will make a go of it. I was also at Natchitoches week before last and stopped with Will Wemp and wife and met their interesting family. They are doing well and perfectly happy. With best wishes to yourself and inquiring friends."

Congressman Walter L. Hensley came home from Washington the last of the week and spent a few days in this district. He was compelled to make his stay brief, as his work in Congress is such that he would not consent to be away from it while important legislation is liable to come up any day. He attended the opening of the Democratic National Convention in St. Louis Wednesday and Thursday, leaving last night to resume his Congressional duties. Mr. Hensley expects to be able to spend a little time, at least, in his district before the August primaries. He says he is in better health at present than he has been for several years past, and feels confident that he will be again chosen to succeed himself.—Farmington Times.

Mr. B. M. Griffith and son, Lynton, of Magnet, Texas, arrived in Potosi one day last week and will be occupied here for the next two months in making a complete survey of the line and character of land of the Potosi Lead, Barytes and Merc. Co. tract for the Missouri-Lincoln Trust Co., of St. Louis, the present owners of the property. At the completion of the survey, it is the purpose of the owners to place the hold property, some 22,000 acres, on the market, selling same in parcels to suit the buyer. For the past thirty years this property has been held for speculative purposes only by different companies, which made little or no efforts to improve or develop it. The property includes a good deal of farming land, and by getting these farms into the hands of individual resident owners, the community will be much benefited.—Potosi Journal.

Mrs. Hugh Bonham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Willard, who now reside at Milwaukee, a suburb of Portland, Oregon, while going over their place which is partly timbered, came across a large dogwood stump with roots out of the ground and hollow. Thinking it would be fine for the front yard as a place for plants, Mrs. Bonham cleaned out the leaves from the hollow, and to her surprise came across a quantity of jewelry consisting of: A solid gold bracelet, a solid watch pin with opal setting, a solid watch pin with a good sized diamond set, a gold necklace set with amethyst beads, and a Lavalier with cameo and strings of pearls on each side. The jewelry had the appearance of having been there for years. Mrs. Bonham thinks it must have been hidden there by a burglar, before the country around it was settled up.

The Ozark Trails Association is endeavoring to locate a cross-state highway from Springfield to St. Louis. One of the routes under consideration is by way of Salem and Iron Mountain. That would bring it across the northern part of Iron County from west to east, and it would go a long way toward putting us on the map. The route, once located and backed up by an organization like the Ozark Trails Association, would be improved from year to year and become a popular and scenic thoroughfare for automobiles. The Salem Commercial Club is very active trying to get it located their way, and their way would be our way. With a road already established between Iron Mountain and St. Louis, and in excellent condition, it looks like this route is the most feasible. "Tis said that some of our children in the west end of the county, and in Bellevue, are taking considerable interest in the matter. Stay with it, boys, and let's cooperate with our neighbors on both sides of us and try to get it our way."

The following, taken from the Hutchinson, Kansas, News of June 13, makes reference to two Pilot Knob boys who are making good in the Sunflower State: "The Hutchinson Boxboard Paper company is shipping in waste paper at the rate of three cars a day to keep the chipboard machines in operation. This waste paper is cooked and worked up into pulp and used in making chip board or cardboard. "We are unable to get enough waste paper in Kansas for our purposes," said Manager F. W. Kath, of the boxboard mill. "We are forced to ship in paper from elsewhere. We get shipments of old newspapers from the Caroland from Denver, Kansas City, St. Joseph and even shipments from St. Louis." "The "Crystal White" gasoline and "Water White" kerosene made by the refinery are in much demand, and are of exceptional quality. Wm. H. Kath, who is a brother of Ferd C. Kath, cashier of the State Exchange bank, is manager of the refining company. Z. Claussen is superintendent of the plant. The company is employing quite a force of men now, and will gradually enlarge its payroll. It promises to be an important industry, and is a big acquisition to East Hutchinson."
