ORRIN L. MUNGER.

Orrin L. Munger of Piedmont is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress and his formal announcement of that fact appears in The Times this week.

Mr. Munger is not unknown to our people, for he partially received his education in Farmington at Carleton College. That was a number of years ago, since which time he has gradually been climbing the ladder of success as a lawyer of recognized honesty and integrity as well as ability, and has won credit as a faithful servant of the people in the capacity of Prosecuting Attorney of his county (Wayne) and other responsible public positions. It is at the earnest solicitation and encouragement of many friends in different parts of the district, coupled with a commendable ambition to enter public life, that he has decided to ask the Democrats of the Thirteenth District to honor him with the nomination for their Representative in Congress. And it is not as an amateur in public affairs that he enters upon this course. He has been a close and observant student of public questions, and as an earnest adherent to the underlying principles of the Democratic party has often done good and effective campaign work for his party.

Mr. Munger is not a dilettante in any sense of the meaning. His life has been one of hard work with a definite purpose in view. As a boy and young man he has labored with his hands in the field and mills, with few of the advantages enjoyed by the youth of to-day; but he had a vision of higher and better things always before him. He had attained young manhood before he could reach out and take hold of the education advantages that were to help him on to a realization of his ideals. With mental industry, steadiness of purpose, and a conscientious and honest discharge of his obligations, he has won a sure position at the bar and the respect and confidence of his fellowmen.

His political convictions are fundamentally democratic, his sympathy and aims with the hardy, honest working people from which he sprang, and his convictions on public affairs in perfect harmony with the wholesome, progressive and constructive policies of President Wilson's administration. He avers he has no quarrel with either Mr. Hensley, the present incumbent, or Mr. Robb, his other opponent for the nomination; he does not seek the nomination on the weakness or shortcomings of another, but hopes to merit it by his own fitness for the responsible position to which he aspires and the belief that he can serve the interests of this district and his country, which lie along the lines of Democratic principles. And in this spirit he asks their support, pledging himself to the utmost of his ability and energy to faithful discharge the trust that may be placed in his keeping.—Farmington Times.

The New Arcadia Heights.

The improvements constructed during the last seven years have transformed our once rugged mountain top into a convenient Summer Assembly ground. Rugged it still is, wildly picturesque, with its rocks and forests. But buildings, waterworks, and athletic equipment have made it a pleasant home for people who are used to the ordinary conveniences of life. Ample provision has been made for a well-rounded social life on the Heights. The new B. Y. P. U. Pavilion provides an ideal place for class room work as well as for social gatherings. If there should be any rainy afternoons, come and join the social crowd about the open fire-places in the Pavilion for a cheery social time. You will learn to know the best souls in the Master's work in an intimate way, through associating with them here on the Heights.

There are wonderful sunsets at Arcadia Heights. Nature seemed to exert herself to throw in quick succession on the sky canvas behind old Pilot Knob and Shepherd Mountain her most gorgeous color pictures for the inspiration of appreciative souls. Perhaps the most vivid and most sacred memories of the life at Arcadia Heights are connected with Sunset Rock. The people gather at the rock at sunset, and with faces turned toward the setting sun, they sing and pray and tell each other what Christ means to them.

An onlooker might say, "Surely there is more light in the faces of the people than that reflected by the dying sun," and another who had been there and knew might answer, "Yes, there is also a radiation from within—the glow from the Sun of Righteousness." The glow is still in their faces as the people wend their way up the paths toward the Tabernacle for the evening service, and their minds and souls are wide open to receive the great messages there because they have been communing with God in one of his most wonderful nature temples.—H. G. Colwell.

The Sunset services this year will be conducted by the various organizations on the Heights, the B. Y. P. U. class taking charge of the majority of the services.

Burk & Hobbs at Farmington.

(Farmington News.)
The Burk-Hobbs revival is on in earnest and prior to last night, when the storm rained the meeting out, all services had been largely attended. It was decided yesterday that an addition to the tabernacle would be absolutely necessary, bringing the seating capacity up to 2,000. The addition will be completed by Sunday.

Rev. Burk is preaching some wonderful sermons. Those who are attending are almost with one accord praising the meeting. Sunday night a large audience heard Burk's great sermon on "Prayer," such an important factor in a revival effort.

Monday night his subject was "Love." He showed how the absence of God's love in a man's heart accounts for his meanness and inferiority of prestige. "You cannot be a good father, an ideal mother, a worthy citizen without the love of God in your heart," he asserted.

"Is Your Life Worth Living?" was the topic of Rev. Burk's discourse Tuesday night. The righteous man was pointed out as the one whose life is worth living.

Wednesday night his subject was "What Must I Do To Be Saved?" Prof. Harry Dixon Loes, of Chicago, has charge of the music. Under his able leadership a choir of 200 or more is being organized, and great things are expected from this department of the work. Mr. Loes has readily demonstrated his cleverness as a soloist and chorister. He is a graduate of Moody Institute, Chicago, and has studied music at other colleges. All who are willing to offer their help in the choir are urged to take a place with the singers.

Mr. Loes has an enviable reputation as a singer and composer. He has written about 600 gospel songs, words and music. Some of the songs he will use in the tabernacle are of his own composition.

An interesting feature of the meeting is the Sunshine Junior Choir of boys and girls, who occupy the front seats of the center section. Their happy participation in song is inspiring.

Five-Acre Corn Contest.

Four hundred and eight of the farmers who entered in the 1915 Indiana 5-acre corn contest completed the work. Their average yield was 66.1 bushels per acre, at an average of $14.81, or 21.1 cents per bushel. These contestants represented 23 counties. The agent in each county had immediate charge of the work, but the State college furnished a judge to assist in determining the yield and cost. One contestant produced 105.4 bushels per acre and 10 produced from 90 to 100 bushels. The 11 highest contestants averaged 93.4 bushels per acre, at an average cost of $15.23, or 16.2 cents per bushel. The yields were determined on a basis of air-dried corn, the weight being reduced to a moisture content of 15.5 per cent.

The Ozark Trail.

(The De Soto Republican.)

The Commercial Club of De Soto is taking up the Ozark Trail proposition and will send James G. Berkeley to Springfield next Monday to represent the Club in a meeting to be held in that city, looking to the establishing of the trail and building a road over it to Potosi and thence to De Soto.

It seems that the road has been established as far as Salem, in Dent county, and that an effort is now being made to have it built to Bismarck instead of Potosi, which is in direct line and exactly on the trail.

Ward Cunningham, president of the Commercial Club, is pushing the matter, with the hope that De Soto will eventually be an objective point and that we will benefit by the state aid to be given in the building of the Ozark road.

The history of the old trail is well known to the pioneers of the county, but the younger class know very little about it and the part it played in the early development of the country. It was traversed in the early days by the Indians crossing the country and was later used by the early settlers in passing from one point to another. Long before De Soto was ever thought of the pioneers traveled from Potosi, Herculaneum and Ste. Genevieve to St. Louis over the old King's Trace, which passed about where De Soto now stands.

It is the purpose of the Ozark Trail Association to re-establish some of these trails and have good, substantial rock roads built over them. The Legislature has appropriated money to be used in that way.

If the Ozark Trail is built to Potosi it will then be bought to De Soto, crossing Big River at a point near Eggers ford. From here to St. Louis the road is already complete.

Mr. Cunningham, in speaking of the matter, said that the Club thought it a good idea to investigate the building of the road and if possible have it pass thru our city, as it would open up some splendid territory south of us, besides bringing hundreds of visitors to De Soto.

That Knife-Like Pain.

Is Only One of Nature's Warnings of Weak or Disordered Kidneys.

Have you a lame back, aching day and night? Do you feel sharp pain after stooping? Are the kidneys sore? Is their action irregular? Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the medicine recommended by so many Ironton people. Read this case:

Mrs. Frank Mayes, Fourth St., Ironton, says: "Kidney and bladder complaint came on me some years ago. The kidney secretions were disordered and I could not lift or stoop without having pains in my loins. My back was pierced by sharp, quick pains. I doctored and used different medicines, and Doan's Kidney Pills gave me the first relief I had ever received."

Prepare Drive on Hessian Fly.

"The most gigantic drive that has ever been delivered against the Hessian fly is now being prepared by Missouri farmers in every wheat growing county of the State," says T. J. Talbert, assistant professor of Horticulture at the University of Missouri at Columbia. According to Mr. Talbert, the fly is now entrenched in the flaxseed and magot stage between the leaf sheath and stalk at the bottom of the wheat plant. The enemy will remain in this position until fall, thus providing the farmer an opportunity to deal him an effective blow at his weakest point.

During the months of July, August and September the trenches of the Hessian fly can easily be taken without artillery preparation. As soon as practical after harvest, the farmer will advance in the open to the first line trenches in the wheat stubble fields and by the use of the disc, narrow and drag he will bury the enemy deeply beneath the soil.

In order to make the destruction of the enemy complete, his food supply must be cut off. This can be done by discing and harrowing the plowed ground to keep down volunteer wheat.

The fly will make his general attack upon the fall wheat during September and October after which he will take his encampment for the winter at the base of the wheat plants. As the life of the fly is only four or five days in the adult stage during which time the eggs are deposited on the wheat leaves, it is advisable to sow the wheat late enough to escape the egg-laying of the main fall brood of flies.

The fly free dates for Missouri are about as follows: For northern third of State, October 1; central third, October 3; southern third, October 16. If the fly is allowed to entrench himself in early wheat and volunteer wheat in the summer and fall, he may emerge the following spring in number sufficient to do great harm to date. To make a successful fight against the enemy, co-operation is necessary and cannot be too strongly emphasized.

Mrs. W. J. Smith wishes to announce to the public that she is now prepared to give lessons in penmanship. Call and see her about Special Prices for the summer, or phone No. 86.
