VOLUME LI. NUMBER 35.

LINCOLN had the confidence of the people, despite the assaults—the bitter assaults—of cotemporary newspapers and public men.

MONDAY'S Globe-Democrat contained the startling information that for twenty-five years "Assessors of Missouri ignored laws in fixing properties' true value."

The raise of one-tenth of a cent a pound in the price of news paper in the United States would mean $30,000,000 added profit to the manufacturer.

If the form of government vouchsafed us by the Fathers is to be set aside and a centralized despotism substituted, let it be done boldly and above-board.

SAYS the Post-Dispatch, in concluding an editorial on the question of peace:

So the only course left to us and our associates is to whip the Kaiser and his cohorts. We'll get just peace terms when Prussian militarism is beaten or overthrown, not before.

Any other peace would be a deception and a snare, not worth the "scrap of paper" on which it was annotated—a camouflage with which to deceive short-sighted fools.

THE Associated Press gives us this interesting bit of news from Birmingham, Alabama, under date of January 21:

An advertisement of the United States Brewers' Association discussing temperance, published recently by the Montgomery Advertiser and the Montgomery Times, were held not in violation of the state anti-liquor advertising law by the State Supreme Court to-day in disposing of injunction proceedings brought by Attorney General Martin against the papers.

That the right to discuss any public matter should be questioned is incomprehensible, and the denial of that right would be fitted to the times when men and women were burned at the stake for daring to express their conscientious convictions.

WHILE mistakes have been made, no doubt, in the conduct of the tremendous task of fitting the army and navy for offense and defense in this world's war, it is plain to me this is no opportune time for captious and partisan criticism—for any debate except that designed to forward victory necessary to the salvation and freedom of mankind.

Our school is progressing finely. Mr. McCall is an efficient teacher. John T. Webb is sending out his grist mill report to the government to-day. A lot of red tape.

Robert Deborde is before the local board at Ironton to-day. Says he hopes to get in class one and be over in France soon.

Winter continues. There were no church services at Goodland on account of the cold and ice. Our thanks are due the REGISTER office, also the Iron County Bank for some really fine calendars.

enduring together, sacrificing together, to achieve our great common purpose. Nothing that we here in America may suffer or lose compares with the possibility of the suffering and loss of men in the trenches, on the ships and in the air, who are fighting for us.

Food Conservation.

Editor Register—Your editorial of last week regarding the quantity of food supplies a housewife may have on hand at one time conveys an erroneous impression.

It is not the intention of the Food Administration to deprive our good housekeepers of the fruits, vegetables, etc., they worked hard to preserve, but to limit purchases of such articles at this time by those who depend on the markets.

The hoarding of food in excess of current needs is to be condemned because such action depletes the supply on the market and thus inflates the price, but reasonable provision is universally approved.

With the above explanation it is hoped, and believed, that our very capable women will prepare for even a greater effort than was put forth last season and that "Production and Conservation" will prove to be mighty forces in winning the war.

Yours very truly, W. W. REESE, Iron County Food Administrator.

Farm Land for Rent.

As I have assumed the management of the estate of J. C. Boehrs I will have several tracts of good farm land to rent to reliable and up-to-date farmers.

Extracts from a Soldier Boy's Letter. Dear Parents and Sir—Your letters were received all right and I am now at the K. C. building answering them.

John S. Adams came home on Sunday from Columbia to engage in farm work. He made excellent grades in his work at school. Several of our boys went to Ironton last week to the war examination. Once again I record in one letter a wedding, a birth and a death.

For the boys in khaki

Bevo is a great favorite in the Army Canteens, where none but pure, soft drinks may be sold. After drill or march, you are sure to see a long line of hot and dusty-throated soldier boys making a bee line for Bevo.

At home or abroad—at work or play—between meals or with meals, you will appreciate what we have done for you in making this triumph in soft drinks. You will find Bevo at home, restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, picnic grounds, beach parties, soda fountains, dining cars, in the navy, at camps, at mobilization camps and other places where refreshing beverages are sold.

Bevo—the all-year-around soft drink

Guard against substitutes. Have the Bevo logo printed in front of you. First seeing that the seal is unbroken and that the crown top bears the Bevo logo in bottles only, bottled exclusively by

SHERIFF'S SALE UNDER DEED OF TRUST. Whereas, Wm. Brewer and Lizzie Brewer, his wife, by their certain deed of trust, dated the 20th day of August, 1915, and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds for the County of Iron, and State of Missouri, in Book 62, Page 425, conveyed to Chas. E. Bolch, trustee, the following described real estate, situated in the County of Iron and State of Missouri, to wit: The southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section four (4), and the west half of the northwest quarter of section nine (9)—all in township numbered thirty-one (31), north, range three (3) east—containing one hundred and twenty (120) acres and valued at Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1200.00), there being no previous liens against this land but what have been paid; Which conveyance was made in trust to the said Chas. E. Bolch to secure the payment of one certain promissory note, more particularly described therein; And, whereas, default has been made in the payment of said note, now past due and unpaid; And, whereas, it is provided in said deed of trust that in case of death, removal from the state or refusal of act of said Chas. E. Bolch, as trustee, the then acting Sheriff of Iron County, Missouri, shall act in his stead, and sell the foregoing described property in case of default; And, whereas, Chas. E. Bolch, trustee in said deed of trust, has refused to act as such trustee and foreclose the property conveyed by said deed of trust; Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that pursuant to the power in me vested by said deed of trust, and pursuant to the request of the legal owner and holder of said note, I, the undersigned, Sheriff of Iron County, Missouri, will sell the real estate above described at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, at the Court House Door in the City of Ironton, Iron County, Missouri, on Monday, the 11th day of February, 1918, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, for the purpose of satisfying said indebtedness and the cost of executing this trust. Very Much Benefited Many thousands of women who have become weak, run-down and nervous, or who suffered from womanly troubles, have been greatly benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic. We receive many letters from women, similar to the following from Mrs. Ollie Dellinger, of Jeffersonville, Ind.: "Sometime ago my health failed," she says. "I was in a very weakened, run-down condition, hardly able to go. I was nervous, and could not sleep. I didn't have any appetite, and knew I must have something to build me up." TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic She writes further: "I began the use of Cardui... and was very much benefited. I cannot say too much for it. I have recommended to others and am glad to do so." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui for their women patients, endorse it as being of great value in many female troubles. Give Cardui a trial. It should benefit you, too. At All Druggists JB 14
