Rev. McBride will commence a two weeks' meeting here June 20th.

E. W. Fitz has opened a cash produce store here. Pays the St. Louis price for eggs, chickens, etc., which will be a great help to our farmers.

We have had a few sunshiny days, which helped the farmers out.

Old man James Lovelace is still very sick.

Most of our soldier boys have left for different places to go to work. Some went to Kansas.

A. K. Wallis bought a car of flour and feed this week from the De Soto mills. Art is a hustler. He sold two cars hay last month.

I understand that W. W. Strother has taken charge of the Gardner & Lucy garage at Piedmont and will move his family there.

Graves & Stamp have a big contract for second cross ties, and have shipped more than twenty cars the past month.

Our handle factories are running on full time which gives several men work.

Mrs. Huff and daughter, Jessie, went to St. Louis to-day to visit their son and brother, who has just returned from overseas.

Bro. Bane, pastor of Piedmont Baptist church, will preach in the Baptist church here next Sunday.

Geo. O. Reed, one of our overseas boys who arrived in New York on April 21st as a casual on the U. S. transport, Siboney, and placed in a hospital, has been transferred to the army hospital at Fort Riley, Kansas. He was given a ten days' furlough and came home, but has returned to Fort Riley, where he will undergo an operation before being discharged. His brother, Lieut. Edwin A. Reed, is still in Germany.

Sergeant Carr Lovelace, who has been stationed at Newport News, Va., has been discharged and is now at home.

Mrs. John Reed and soldier son, George, visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. E. E. Taylor, at Caruthersville, Mo., a few days last week.

Annapolis News.

We are having plenty of rain. People who waited on account of dry weather to break their corn land are now waiting for it to get dry so they can plant corn.

Stevenson & Stevenson are piling in lots of ties and inch lumber from their mill in Lone Hollow, six miles west of Annapolis.

We have two saw mills in the west end of Annapolis that blow their whistles regularly, morning, noon and night. Reminds one of old times in this town when John W. Berryman and Carr, Towl & May used to whistle the boys out to work here.

The Annapolis corporation is going to put in the summer building granitoid walks. Mr. Rood, of Sabula, I understand, has the contract. He is now working on the walk from the northeast corner of block ten to Front street. Mr. Gus Funk has three or four teams hauling sand and gravel to-day.

Robert Miller spent most of the week at the school house on Funk Branch.

Mrs. A. Reese and family will move to Ironton soon. We hate to see them go. Mrs. Reese is a splendid woman, much liked by all.

John B. Harris has been arranging for the past eight months to move back to Ironton, but has not yet got away.

The prospecting drills are still running every day.

Wm. C. Harris, 138th regiment, Missouri Volunteers, has returned from France. He was among the first to go across and was in all the hard-fought battles, but escaped without a scratch. He can tell some tales that make your hair stand.

Mr. Nathan Sutton of Tank Spring Hollow is in bad health.

Sam Moss & Son will move their saw mill to Funk Branch, where there is plenty of timber, large and small.

Garden truck and potatoes are looking fine, but won't look so long if it doesn't quit raining so it can be worked out.

Mrs. Ed Rumberg will visit her husband and other relatives in St. Louis this week.

Moss & Co are hauling their lumber to the railroad to-day.

Chas. H. Hampton is going to resign as Marshal and Street Commissioner of Annapolis. Don't know who will be his successor.

H. Collins is doing a good business in merchandise and timber.

BULLETIN.

Marble Creek News.

Bro. Ake as I haven't seen any items from this vicinity for some time I thought I would write a few lines.

Our weather continues very rainy and cool.

The prospect for wheat is poor.

Bro. Lane failed to fill his regular appointment at Liberty Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Conley of Arcadia brought his daughter, Mrs. Jones, to her home Saturday.

Aunt Augusta Sellinger has returned from Arcadia to her daughter's, Mrs. M. Calvert.

Sorry to hear that Mr. Carter Blanton is still in poor health.

We will be glad to welcome our soldier boys from overseas. We are expecting Luther White and Alfred Smith soon.

Mr. John Thompson and children visited his father-in-law, Mr. N. Algier, Sunday.

Miss Bertha Knight, who has been ill for some time, is improving, we are glad to report.

Mr. Monroe Myracle called on Mr. Mezey's family Saturday night.

The Knight Bros. expect to ship a car of lumber this week. They shipped out quite a number of cars the past winter.

Quite a number of our young people intended taking a hay-ride Saturday night, but were disappointed.

Miss Ina Sellinger of Crane Pond has returned home after a visit to her aunt, Mrs. M. Calvert.

One of our Marble Creek girls, Miss Ruth Smith, was one of the graduates in the Ironton High School last week.

Misses Stella and Emma White, who are in St. Louis, are expected home soon.

Proctor Shular and Evert Knight were callers on Crane Pond Sunday.

Miss Annie Smith went to Arcadia Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Smith have been visiting his mother, Mrs. Callison.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vance visited his father on Arcadia Heights Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. Patterson and wife visited J. Thompson's family Sunday.

JUANITA.

Marvin College, Fredericktown, Approved Summer School will open Tuesday, June 3d. Grades will be accredited by State Superintendent.

From Goodland.

We are having a great deal of rain. Some of our farmers have not finished planting their corn and that which is planted is getting weedy. The old saying: "A dry June makes a good crop year," makes us hope for a dry June. There is no fruit in this part of the country. Garden sassa is growing.

Mrs. Martin is having a severe tussle with whooping cough.

A male kicked Green Goggin on his throat injuring him dangerously.

Mr. Ernest Stricklin and Miss Grace Shrum were married by Squire Vandill at Redmondville May 14. Our young folks are leaving us one by one.

Mrs. Amy Adams and son, Elmer, visited Lindsay Crocker at Goodwater. He arrived home from camp May 11. The ocean voyage was not pleasant, but the greeting from friends filled him so full he could neither eat nor sleep—though he had often thought of his mother's good cooking. Bless his heart, he looks well and grand in his uniform. God grant all the rest of our soldier boys a safe voyage and a happy home-coming.

Randolph Adams writes that he is well and attending school in Germany and that they have received notice their Division, the 2d, will sail for home in July.

Miss Florence Love, who taught in Texas, is now teaching a summer term which will delay her home coming till August. Her sister, Mrs. Salome Blackwell, will accompany her home for a visit. Mrs. B. has finished her second degree since living in Texas.

Dr. Adams has received word that his grandson, Frank Leslie Adams, has made the voyage from Italy and is now in California.

Johnny Farr has moved to Evanson between Redmondville and Edgohill.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Crocker made a trip to Ironton lately.

Rev. Farley filled his appointment at Redmondville last Sunday, and will probably organize a Missionary Baptist church at that place next second Sunday.

Miss Ora Smith has a new kodak with which she is taking some really cute pictures.

Overton Smith has purchased a fine graphophone.

A great many ties are being made this rainy weather.

When it comes to a bond sale Iron county is always there.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Adams lately made a business trip to Goodwater.

Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Pippin made a trip to Fredericktown and other points in their car. They were gone two weeks.

Mr. Stace Bell of Shepard attended church here last Sunday.

Redmond Black's father, who is blind, is visiting his son. The aged gentlemen lives at Logan Creek.

Goodwater Items.

We are having some fine rains.

Farmers are most through planting their crops.

A basket dinner was given at Viburnum yesterday in honor of the returned soldier boys. A large crowd was present. There was one present who had been in the air service, one from the navy, and thirteen from the army. They certainly made a fine showing.

Mrs. L. W. Scott and children visited relatives at Boss the last of the week.

Your correspondent with most of his Bible School class attended the basket dinner at Viburnum yesterday.

May 19, 1919. L. W. S.

Brule Items.

Farm progress is slow.

Clear days are welcome again.

Miss Kate Nelson has been having dental work done at Bismarck.

Wilmer Kessling and Miss Edna Standley were married Wednesday of last week. Best of wishes to the young couple. They will make their home with the groom's parents for the present time.

Arthur Black of the famous 35th Division returned last week to his old work as street car conductor, in St. Louis, after spending two weeks with his parents here.

Our school teachers had no difficulty in securing schools this time since there's such a shortage of teachers. Why do teachers get so small a wage? Because the majority are women? Minnie Wendel has the Otter school, Nettie Hatridge will teach the Cedar Grove School and Andrey Brooks will teach at Sabula.

Miss Esther Kammholtz visited her sister, Mrs. John Dahlke, last week. The people of Cedar Grove gave an ice cream supper and parcel sale last Saturday evening for the benefit of the Centenary Fund.

Our children's Day program will be the second Sunday in June
