

Ironton, Missouri, THURSDAY, NOV. 6, 1919.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Frosty these mornings. Probate court meets next week. But little autumn foliage this year. Quite a number of ties coming to town. De Soto now has a picture show Sunday afternoon. W. D. Fletcher shipped two cars of hogs last week. Read about Budweiser on the last page of this paper. Everybody was more than tired of the continued rain. "The Tiger's Trail" is getting better with every episode.—Adv. The wells and cisterns are sure filled to overflowing once again. The new owners of the Commercial Hotel took charge last week. See "Little Women" at the Academy Thursday, November 6th. Manager Schafer gave us unusually good shows Thursday and Saturday nights. Wanted—A girl to do general housework. Apply to Mrs. D. E. FLETCHER, Arcadia, Mo. H. L. Bell Tuesday removed from the Manse to the Bishop residence on Russell Street. Clothes pressed and cleaned. Satisfaction guaranteed. Phone 192. GEO. TULLOCK, Ironton, Mo. For Sale—Two good mares. For cash or on time payments. A bargain. Apply to Elza Depew, Ironton, Mo. Coming! Wm. Farnum in "When a Man Sees Red," taken from the Saturday Evening's Post story, "The Painted Lady."—Adv. A Pie Social was given at the Cove school October 22d to secure funds to expend on a library. The net proceeds were about $50. Pic Supper and Dance at the Academy of Music, Tuesday night, November 11th. Admission to the dance, free. Iron county will vote on the proposition to bond the county for $200,000 for road improvements on Saturday, December 13th. Everybody come on, now. Superintendent Hanson says he motored to Cape Girardeau in seven hours in going to the Southeast Missouri Teachers' Association week before last. Vincent Sutton, cashier of the Bank of Annapolis, was in Ironton last Thursday. He says the bank is just about ready to move into its new building. A special meeting of the American Legion will be held at the Court House at Ironton, Friday evening, 7:45 P. M. November 7, and every member is requested to be present. We've printed more sale bills this fall than in any other one season of the fifty years and more the REGISTER has been in existence. There seems to be a disposition "to flit." Mr. G. A. Hartzell will have charge of the saw mill business of the E. E. Evans Land & Timber Company at Redmondville. Mr. Hartzell is an experienced and successful sawmill man. Judge S. A. Trask and Mrs. Trask of Brule were in town Tuesday. The Judge tells us that while the continued rains interfered with the his wheat sowing still, at that, he has about fifty acres in wheat. Louis Miller, Sr., was at home from Bertrand for a few hours Saturday. He says the long delay in material and uncertainty of labor found them with unroofed buildings during these deluges of unceasing rains. For Sale—S. C. Dark Brown Leghorn cockerels, April hatch. Forhmlen's famous Everlay strain direct. Superb in markings, coloring and build. $3.00 each. G. W. COLLINS, Minimum, Mo. Rev. H. E. Stone accompanied his brother-in-law to St. Louis Monday afternoon to place him under the care of Dr. Soper. Mr. Stone expects to spend the next two weeks at his old home, Portageville, Mo., conducting a meeting. Dr. Honston has about reached the conclusion that he will have to give up as "gone for good" the two tires and other paraphernalia that he lost in making the trip from Farmington in his Ford sedan three weeks since. The lost articles are valued at $64. The boys went too far with some of their Hallowe'n pranks. It is reported that lawn furniture on the Suma place was wantonly destroyed. If such is the case every effort should be made to apprehend the offenders and they should be given the law's limit. If the Electric Light Company can make the city pay just as much for a half night's service as it did when street lights were furnished from dark to dawn then can't the Company shut down the plant altogether and make the city pay for lights just the same?

OH, BOY!

On the first page of the Pictorial Review of Sunday's St. Louis Globe-Democrat were several scenes from the Arcadia Valley. Among them "Looking Southward towards Ironton from the top of Pilot Knob," "The Shunt In" and "The Road to Mulligan's Hole." They are fine.

Miss Ruby Calvert, formerly of Ironton, and Burk Holman, of De Soto, were married Thursday, Oct. 30th, 1919, at the Lutheran parsonage in Flat River, Mo., Rev. H. C. Harting officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Holman will make their home in DeSoto, Mr. Holman being employed in the R. R. shops there. Our best wishes.

M. Nichols has sold his butcher shop to Albert Doyle of Pilot Knob who will conduct the business in a store house in the old American Hotel building. Mr. Nichols retires because of poor health and because, he says, he can get no one to do the work satisfactorily for him.

Mr. Pabst, of St. Louis, who recently acquired what is known as the Conrad place, beyond Russellville, proposes engaging in dairy farming. He last week received a dozen of the Guernsey breed, purchased at Pevely, that cost $3600. He expects another shipment of about eighty cows in the near future.

Miss Lattia Austin died at the home of her brother, James G. Austin, on Marble Creek, Thursday, October 30, 1919, at 7:05 o'clock A. M., aged 74 years, 8 months and 5 days. The funeral occurred the following day and interment was made in the Masonic cemetery. The bereaved have the sympathy of the community.

The returned soldiers will give a dance at the Academy of Music Tuesday night of next week, November 11th—the day being the first anniversary of the signing of the armistice. Remember the date, next Tuesday evening, after the picture show. Everybody come. Admission to the dance, free. A pie supper in connection with the dance.

Mrs. Nettie O'Neal Bellis, who has been spending the summer with her parents at Franklay, has been with Ironton friends the past three or four days. Mrs. Bellis expects to return to her home in Los Angeles, California, about the last of the month. Mrs. Bellis is a most unusually interesting and entertaining personage and it is always more than a pleasure to have her about. Our best wishes attend her always.

To Mrs. Lydia Kamholz of Graniteville the editor is indebted for a half dozen of the finest-looking, largest apples we have seen in many a day. They are of the "Black Ben Davis" variety, and, truly, present a picture fair to behold. Some of the apples were twelve inches in circumference and all of them perfect specimens of fruit in every way. Mrs. Kamholz is certainly to be congratulated on producing such magnificent apples in her orchard.

When here a couple of weeks ago the railroad officials put it up "strong to us" that if Ironton and Arcadia could agree on a site for a central depot in the valley they would build us as fine a station as there is on the Missouri Division and give us a train service the like of which we never knew before. That sounds mighty good and ought to be taken advantage of by the people of the valley. It is an oft-repeated story or offer of the railroad officials and perhaps they really mean it. But some people think that in making this offer the railroad heads realize how very hard and difficult it is to get certain folk to agree on certain matters. But we ought to fool the railroad officials once and accept their proposition.

The editor was favored with a call Tuesday morning from his long-time and faithful friend, Rt. Rev. John J. Hennesey, Bishop of Wichita, Kansas. While age is beginning to tell on the venerable prelate, he is still the same entertaining, delightful and pleasing conversationalist of the years of yore and greatly we enjoyed the few minutes he was in the office. He came to Arcadia Monday to attend the Golden Jubilee of Mother Benedict, that day being the fiftieth anniversary of her uniting with the Ursulines. Mother (then Sister) Benedict was one of the first teachers at Arcadia College after the Catholics got control of that institution in 1877, and is well remembered by students in the school at that time.

We understand the strike declared two weeks ago at the Federal Lead Co., was declared off by the unions at meetings held at Flat River, Elvins and Esther Tuesday night. The strike seems never to have proven very popular with many of the Federal employees who went out when it was called. Many had voluntarily returned to work and the plant was getting well underway for resuming full operation when the union decided by an almost unanimous vote, it is reported, to call the strike off. We are glad to see the plant in operation again and we hope to see the Company and the other companies in the Lead Belt, if the price of lead continues to strengthen, soon give employees an increase in wages which they so badly need to cope successfully with old man H. C. L.—Farmington News.

The County Court Monday made an order for a special election to be held Saturday, December 13th, 1919, for the voters of Iron county to pass on the proposition to bond the county for $200,000 for road purposes. The petitions asking the court to call an election were filed Monday; on examination they were found to comply with the law and the court made the order. Many of the judges chosen to serve at the election have signified their willingness to serve without compensation and it is hoped that most all, if not all, of the judges and clerks named for the election will make no charge for the day's work. County Clerk Huff desires us to state that election officials who are not willing to serve without pay must file a claim with the county court for their services or no allowance will be made for them. The names of the six judges chosen to serve at each election precinct will be printed next week. The campaign for the bond election will open without delay and it is the intention to canvas the county thoroughly. For the proposition to carry a two-thirds majority of the vote is required.

The bunch that left here Sunday evening of last week for Indianapolis to drive five Ford cars to the valley reached Ironton Friday night at 9 o'clock—about three days behind their schedule. The party left Indianapolis with the cars Monday evening, getting about twenty miles out that day. It was rain, rain, and more rain everywhere. The roads through Illinois were almost impassable and it was pull, pull most all of the way. They reached Edwardsville, Illinois, Wednesday evening and got to St. Louis early Thursday morning. They arrived at the Merremac bridge, this side of St. Louis, about ten o'clock Thursday and had to wait until 1 o'clock Friday afternoon for the waters to subside sufficiently for mule teams to get them over the bridge. At De Soto considerable delay was experienced in crossing the creek there, teamsters asking as much as $5 to pull one car across. But they finally landed at home about 9 o'clock, everybody in the party pretty well worn out and not banking for a similar drive the real near future. About 160 cars left Indianapolis Monday for Southeast Missouri, being driven out by delegations from De Soto, Potosi, Farmington, Fredericktown and other points. The Ford Company could not secure a sufficient number of freight cars to make the shipment at one time and concluded to treat all the dealers alike by having them come to Indianapolis and drive the cars home. When another drive like that is to be made, it is safe to say, the drivers are to be sure of the weather before they start out.

OH, BOY!

PERSONAL.

R. E. Gunton was in Poplar Bluff last week. Miss Lena Pruitt was here from St. Louis Sunday. Mrs. B. S. Gregory arrived from St. Louis Sunday. Mrs. J. L. Baldwin went to St. Louis Sunday evening. Jos. Alcorn of Vulcan was a caller last Wednesday. Walter Hale of Graniteville was in Ironton Saturday. Miss Clara Giovanoni is spending a week in Cape Girardeau. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Edgar, Jr., went to St. Louis Sunday. Mrs. A. B. McKisson of St. Louis was an Ironton visitor Tuesday. Mrs. D. E. Fletcher of Arcadia has been quite sick with cold the past week. Miss Jessamine Woodside returned Sunday from a visit with relatives in Poplar Bluff. R. L. Carty and W. D. Fletcher are attending the Hereford sale in Farmington to-day. Mrs. Lockard of Jefferson City was the guest of Mrs. Dr. Barnhouse several days the past week. Paul Wheelon, wife and baby, of Clifton, Illinois, arrived Saturday night on a visit to relatives in the valley. Mrs. Elizabeth Hatten left Arcadia last Saturday for Akron, Ohio, where she goes to spend the winter with her son, Walter. Mrs. T. B. Pruitt returned Saturday from a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. H. Imboden, in Pacific Junction, Iowa. Stray—The undersigned will pay $5 for information leading to the recovery, or $20 for the return, of one mouse colored Horse Mule, 14 3/4 hands high and 3 years old past; strayed from my place about June 15, 1919. This mule has slight blemish in right ear, causing tip to turn down. ROY TURNER, Elvins, Missouri. Wanted—Young lady for housework, two in family. Mrs. BOLCH, Annapolis, Mo.

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel! R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. Winston-Salem, N. C.

CAMELS are the most refreshing, satisfying cigarette you ever smoked! The Red Cross Classes.

The classes in Nursing and Hygiene have started off in a splendid manner. The nurse, Miss Elizabeth M. Craft, is a native of Springfield, Mo., a graduate of the City Hospital Training School of St. Louis, and spent a year and a half taking care of our wounded boys in France during the late war. While the battle of Blanc Mont Ridge raged, she received our men into the Field Hospital there who were too badly wounded to be moved to larger hospitals, besides helping in many other places.

Fully fifty women have joined the classes in Ironton, 15 belong to the class in Belleview, and Des Arc to be heard from. The classes in Ironton are all held in a room in the High School building. There will be two classes in the afternoon, and those still desiring to enter may do so. If they will at once signify their intention. The classes will occur on the following days and hours: Ironton, Monday and Thursday, mornings from 9 to 10:30; Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, one class from 2 to 3:30, another class from 3:30 to 5; Wednesday and Saturday evenings a class from 6:15 to 7:45. At Belleview the classes will be on Monday and Thursday afternoons. At Des Arc the classes will come on Tuesday and Friday afternoons and evenings.

In this way it is hoped that a great number of women and girls will take the training, and that great good will come to Iron county as a consequence.
