Des Arc Items.

Well, Christmas and New Year have come and gone. It is a great pleasure for our children and friends to visit us, but when they go to leave and we have to say "good bye" that spoils it all, for it makes us feel bad, as we may never see them again.

We have had another fine week for business. Over one hundred teams in town Saturday and our merchants did a big business.

I was at the Lopez Store in Ironton last week. Mr. Ringo told me his sales ran over $900 cash and $200 on the books. I was in there a while and could not get waited on, as my time was short to get train 33.

Vulcan is also doing a fine business. Mr. Hardy shipped a car of Christmas trees and lost $7.55 on them. The market slumped about Christmas eve.

Our saw mill men had to stop the teams from hauling in so many logs as they could not cut them as fast as they were coming in, but will let them haul again soon.

Miss Allie Fitz has finished her course in the Ozark Business College at Farmington, and left to-day for St. Louis to accept a position as stenographer.

Miss Louise Schmidt left to-day for St. Louis.

Our Baptist Sunday School elected officers to-day for the ensuing year as follows: Mrs. R. H. Stevenson, superintendent; Mrs. J. Keathley, vice superintendent; Mrs. Bessie Johnson, secretary; Mrs. L. F. Maberry, superintendent Bible Class; Mrs. Thompson, teacher Intermediate Class; Prof. Reed, teacher Boys' Class; Jessie Huff, teacher of the primary Boys' and Girls' Class. We have the best boys and girls singers that I know of anywhere. Rev. Patterson deserves much credit for teaching the boys and girls to sing while he was pastor here.

James and Oil Stevenson were here Sunday to visit their parents.

Bud Stevenson has bought a big lot of timber, near Hendrickson, and has moved his family there.

Wm. Skingley sold his farm last week for $1500 and left Saturday for Florida. So, good bye, Bill! We must not grieve for one so good; would you believe he had a little short-tailed dog and not a single cow or hog?

Mr. Williams, a new-comer who bought the Ab Daniels farm, has sold it to Wm. Rhodes, who formerly lived down on Big Creek, for $4,000. He only paid $2700; he made $300 on the wheat crop, besides the hay and corn he made. Ab Daniels sold this farm when he left here for $2200.

Dr. C. H. Jones is a saw mill man now and is shipping some fine lumber from here. His mills are on Mill Creek, near the St. Francis river.

ISAAC.

Strayed—From the farm of the undersigned on Craue Pond, a two-year old steer; dark red, with white face and heavy tail. Spilt in right ear and underslope in left. Missed since last May. Will pay for information that will result in its return to me.

ELLA CAMPBELL.

From Goodland.

Dear Readers, may we each and everyone enjoy a prosperous New Year!

The weather has been ideal during the holidays.

Mrs. Terry and son, Bryan, spent the year-end in St. Louis.

Miss Ina Adams is home from St. Louis. Miss Mildred Eaton of the city accompanied her to spend the holidays with relatives at Goodland and Edgehill.

J. S. Adams is home from Columbia U.

E. R. Adams is home from De Soto.

Mr. and Mrs. Bodkin spent their holidays at Bunker.

Mr. Peyton Pippin is enjoying his first sick spell in more than twenty years.

Lewis Eaton of Crawford county was the week-end guest of his aunts, Mrs. F. M. Adams and Miss Ella Eaton.

A home coming of all the children of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. White on New Years day.

Mr. Ed. White and family spent Christmas with relatives some where.

Mrs. Pippin was called to far off Montana to see her only brother who was accidentally hurt. She found him recovering nicely and she returned home accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Velah Igleheart and daughter, Sammie, of Harrison, Montana.

Mrs. Rachel Graham is spending part of the winter with her niece, Mrs. Bollinger, in Wayne county.

Mrs. Whittaker's daughter, Bessie, who was lately married at Richwoods, is the guest of her mother.

Died—December 22, Mazie Mayfield. There was singing at J. L. Brooks' Christmas night.

Our pastor failed to fill his appointment but Dr. Adams preached for us. A very fine Christmas tree at F. M. Adams'.

The Adams brothers, Clifford and Randolph, were entertained one evening at the home of Mr. Walsh.

TIMOTHY HAY.

Roselle Items.

Holidays are gone and those who visited their parents have returned to school or work.

Marvin and Grover McCallum went to Detroit last week. Ad Austin is going as soon as his eyes improve.

Lots of the farmers are buying corn. The prospect for wheat is poor. A small acreage and most of it sowed late. The farmers have some old wheat yet.

Our public school is progressing nicely with Miss Mary Gunnert, principal, Miss Annie Smith, primary teacher.

Mrs. McWilliams, mother of Mrs. Sam Thompson, is very poorly. She is 93 years old.

Mrs. Robinson, 92, and Mrs. Singleton are in quite poor health.

They have finished surveying the county road, running north and south, and will commence soon at the Iron county line, and survey east and west.

Guy Lowry sold his part of the home place to his brother, Walter, and will remove to Iowa.

B.

West End Items.

Well, we have experienced one "dry" Christmas in this "neck o' the woods." Some of the boys seemed to think that they could not get along without something to quench their thirst, but they did.

Have you any resolutions for the New Year?

The Christmas tree and the entertainment at the Oak Grove school house was a success in every way. The building was not large enough to accommodate the crowd. We should build our school house larger.

M. C. Volner and family, James Lewis and family and Mrs. Wm. Volner spent Christmas at Oates.

Mr. Bert Smith and family spent Christmas at J. A. Francis'. Mr. Si is one of the best teachers in Reynolds county and has many friends in Iron county.

J. A. Francis, Claud Volner and Bert Smith motored to Ironton Wednesday, making the round trip in nine hours. When we get our new highway the trip can be made easily in a half day.

Henry Volner and wife and Leonard Volner and wife motored to Belgrade to-day to spend a few days with relatives.

J. A. Francis & Sons have broken down their stove mill and will be idle a month or six weeks until they can get repairs. They will have to send their barrel saw to Indianapolis, Indiana, to be repaired.

Mrs. Mattie Havens has been on the sick list the past three weeks, but I am glad to report she is better now.

C. A. Thompson had a turkey match Christmas eve.

Leslie Lowe and Noah Stricklin ran a horse race Christmas eve, Leslie winning a prize of $5 by having the fastest horse.

George Moses and wife are spending the holidays with Grover Volner and family.

Ray Volner and wife spent Christmas with S. L. Trollinger on Neal's Creek.

Miss Ida Day of Bixby attended the Christmas tree and spent the night with Miss Lola Sutterfield. Miss Ida is one of Iron county's best pedagogues.

Santa Claus visited Mr. and Mrs. Charley Shy a few days before Christmas and left them a new baby boy. Edgehill, Dec. 25. RUSTIC.

Doyle Items.

We are having some fine weather. Christmas was quiet. No booze and no trouble.

A number from here attended the Christmas tree at the Hawk school house. The programme was good and all report a fine time.

Mrs. W. R. Copeland and children of Bixby spent Christmas with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stricklin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White, Rebecca Stricklin and A. W. Hedgcoth were shopping in Bixby Friday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Everet Martin, December 12th, a son.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parke, December 14th, a fine baby girl.

Dr. Donahoe was called to see Mrs. Isaac Clements Thursday, but glad to report she is better.

Rev. Geo. Asher preached at the Burgundy School house Saturday night and Sunday. Services again the third Saturday and Sunday in January. LONELY ONE.

How Competition Helps You. The competition that exists among the hundreds of meat distributors, large and small, means Rivalry in Prices, Rivalry in Service, Rivalry in Economy, Rivalry in Quality. Swift & Company sells meat at the lowest possible price, consistent with quality and service. Our profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound on all products is evidence of keen competition. Swift & Company must provide the best service to your dealer or he will buy from our competitors. This means a supply of fine fresh meat always on hand for you at your dealer's. Swift & Company must keep down manufacturing and selling costs, and use all by-products to avoid waste, or else lose money meeting the prices of competitors who do. Swift & Company must make its products of the highest quality, or see you turn to others. This means better meat for you and a greater variety of appetizing, wholesome food. We are as glad for this competition as you should be. It helps to keep us on our mettle. Swift & Company, U.S.A.

M. E. Bell & Son allowed $10 for supplies for C. Lee, a poor person. Mrs. Henry Adolph allowed $10.50 office rent for County Highway Engineer for quarter ending October 31, 1919. Criminal cost, State vs. Ernest Jones $2.50. John Alber Allowed $12, casket for Marler, a poor person. St. Louis Bindery Co., $56.68 for land, personal assessment and tax books. Zion Institutions and Industries, $1.69, for supplies furnished Probate Judge. Geo. D. Barnard & Co., $182.86, for election supplies, $38.59, blank books stationery, and supplies, $144.28—aggregating $182.86. John Macey, $104.00, road money. J. Arthur Frances, $158.40, services as School Officer, and $2.49 for postage—aggregating $160.89. John Armstrong allowed 50 cents, cleaning windows at Court House. Annual settlement of J. M. Hawkins filed and approved. J. M. Hawkins $726.39, salary and deputy hire from August 7, to Dec. 7, 1919. Ordered that requisition for salary of Supt. of Schools be made to December, 31, 1919.
