

THE DAILY
St. Louis Globe-Democrat
For You at a Real "Bargain" Price

The GLOBE-DEMOCRAT solicits your patronage solely on its merits as a truly great newspaper. It prints all the news of all the world. It long since realized that the day of the party organ has passed; that the newspaper that claims to wield the largest and most salutary influence must consider public subjects upon the single basis of right; that the interests of the country and the general welfare of the people should not be subordinated to the interests of any organization, political or otherwise, and during the last few years it has shaped its course on this conviction. That course will be continued. Every reader of the GLOBE-DEMOCRAT, whatever his party, must admit, that while he may not always agree with its opinions, they are nevertheless founded upon sincere judgment of the right, and that, we assert, is the essential quality of the editorial policy of a newspaper. In its presentation of the news the GLOBE-DEMOCRAT endeavors to be accurate, fair and impartial, presenting facts without color or prejudice.

That Morning Grouch.

Morning "grouchiness" is frequently nothing more than a product of the late hour habit. So is a tendency to see the world at all times through smoked glasses. Prolong the hours of sleep and optimism may soon replace the pessimism deplorably in evidence in many short sleepers. And with the change in mood will come an increase in working power. For pessimists are notoriously inefficient workers, if only because of the mental and physical demoralization which pessimism always involves in some degree.
