

A Missouri Woman Who Was "Down and Out"

Kansas City, Mo.—"Several years ago I was almost 'down and out' with woman's weakness. I suffered so I would be bedfast an entire week at a time. I had known of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription all my life as a wonderful tonic for women, but I neglected trying it in my own case until I just had to resort to something for relief. Then I purchased a bottle and it certainly proved itself to be the right medicine. I then took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery along with the 'Favorite Prescription' until I was eventually cured of this ailment. I have taken the Golden Medical Discovery since for neuralgia and it gave me almost immediate relief."—MRS. BULA BIERMAN, 345 N. Hardesty Ave.

For Young Girls

St. Louis, Mo.—"Before I married I suffered severely at times with backaches at certain times until I took 'Favorite Prescription.' I never took any medicine in my life that proved so beneficial as the 'Favorite Prescription' did. It not only relieved me at the time, but I have had no periodical trouble since nor backaches so have no hesitancy in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to young girls who suffer, for I know it will benefit them just as it did me."—MRS. LOUISE OELLEMANN, 2907 Palm St.

A Word About the Kidneys

When the kidneys are diseased, the poisons are spread everywhere, and one of these poisons is uric acid. Sometimes the remaining trouble is called rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica and backache. Finally, come stone in the bladder, diabetes and Bright's disease.

One Box of Dodd's Kidney Pills Relieves Mrs. Frey's Rheumatism

Mrs. Ira Frey, of Le Mars, Ia., suffered for six long months with the agonies of rheumatism. Then she heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and bought a box. Here is what she writes:

"For six months I had rheumatism. I had swelling of the limbs, stiffness in the joints and cramps in the muscles. I suffered greatly from backache. My limbs felt heavy, and I had a dragging sensation across my loins. I had a great deal of pain in the top of my head, was often dizzy and had flashes of light and floating specks before my eyes. I had heart fluttering and could not sleep well. My appetite was dull and I felt heavy and sleepy after meals. I suffered from shortness of breath. After taking one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills I was much improved."

Mighty few people realize in time that kidney trouble is making its advances upon their health. They put off treatment—they say, "Oh, I'll be all right in a day or two." And the malady tightens its grip. Result: Bright's Disease, hospital treatment, doctor's bills—often death.

GIRL WILL WED HELPLESS HERO

Blind, Deaf and Armless as Result of Injuries Received in War.

LOVE SOFTENS "EXILE"

French Soldier Believed to Be Most Unfortunate Being in All History—Scientists Were Debating Painless Death.

Paris.—Blind, deaf and with both arms amputated as the result of injuries received in action during the war, the young French veteran, Emile Tilloloy, considered the most unfortunate being in all history, has found a refuge from his tribulations in the love of a little peasant girl, Jeanne Delavoine, his boyhood sweetheart.

Their engagement has been announced and the marriage is to take place early in the spring.

The announcement has set at rest the minds of leading French moralists and philosophers who had been debating if the ending of Tilloloy's trials by euthanasia would not be justified.

Debate Painless Death.

And society any right to demand for the sake of a moral precedent, the continued Calvary of this modern Job? Would it be an humane and enlightened act to put an end to his horrible sentence by quick and painless death?

These were the disturbing questions asked by French metaphysicians.

On July 24, 1916, Tilloloy was wounded in both arms and the face by a bursting shell. The detonation broke both ear drums.

Expert surgery and tender care saved his life, but he left the military hospital a year later deprived of the three senses of sight, touch and hearing, able only to taste and smell.

Taps Only Language.

He was taken to his own home, in the little hamlet of Canaples, Department of the Somme, and placed under care of his mother and two sisters.

A primitive system of taps on his body for "yes" and "no" constituted his only means of receiving messages.

Upon Tilloloy's return to his home Jeanne became a daily visitor, taking her turn at sitting beside him and tending his needs. She identified herself by three short taps.

She Identified Herself by Three Short Taps.

He concealed all affection, fearing that out of sympathy she would sacrifice herself to bring him a ray of happiness, and for three years she continued her tender ministrations.

Finally Tilloloy said to his mother: "Jeanne must care for me, or she could not be so faithful. Do you believe she loves me?"

The answering tap was in the affirmative. Upon his sweetheart's next visit Tilloloy put the question: "Jeanne, will you marry me?"

A resolute tap and the folding of a pair of arms about the blind man's mutilated body turned his fears of a lifetime of solitary suffering into dreams of quiet content.

LIVES TO TELL OF LONG FALL

Chicago Mason in Milwaukee Blown From Top of 125-Foot Smokestack.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Plunging from a smokestack 125 feet high and living to tell of the accident was the experience that overtook Edward Skaring of Chicago. Skaring, who is a mason, was at work on the top of the smokestack when a powerful gust of wind hurled him from his perch. A rope on the inside of the stack broke his fall. He landed at the bottom with his legs fractured in two places.

PNEUMONIA LEFT BOY WEAK AND SICKLY

Parents Were Almost Hopeless, But He is Now Well and Strong.

"Our little boy's health was so poor we were afraid we were going to lose him. He is ten years old, and has had weak lungs ever since he was eight months old, caused by pneumonia. We have been very careful with him and doctored him continually, but we had almost despaired of ever having a strong, well boy."

"But since giving him Milks Emulsion all his trouble is gone, and he is in perfect health."—Mrs. G. W. Smiley, 20 Maple St., Dayton, O.

For restoring appetite, health and strength in sickly children, mothers will find Milks Emulsion the thing they have always sought. Most children like to take it, because unlike many emulsions and tonics, it really tastes good.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physic. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results your money will be promptly refunded. Price 50c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

WANTED A PEEP; GOT AN EYEFUL

High School Girl Gives Youth Lesson He Will Never Forget.

Detroit, Mich.—Curious young men who lurked about the exterior of Southeastern high school on Fairview and Goethe avenues, to get a peek at the girls in their "tank" suits have discontinued this nightly practice with amazing abruptness.

For several weeks these young men enjoyed a blurry view through frosted windows of the Southeastern swimming pool on "ladies' nights." The classes meet on Monday and Wednesday evenings and are composed mostly of portly married women who are taking swimming to reduce.

Unable to restrain their eagerness of visage, the boys agreed to carefully remove one section of the frosted window pane which had the audacity to open on the dressing rooms. The broken window aroused the suspicions of Joseph H. Corns, principal of the school, and on the following "ladies' night" he lay in waiting for the culprits.

One young man was captured and turned over to the girls for punishment. The fair swimmers lined up in their "tank" suits and told the young man to take an "eyeful" but he only stood abashed and chagrined.

It was then decided by the jovial swimmers to give the young man a ducking and a splashing that he wouldn't forget. They rushed at him the way they would attack a pushball on the college campus, and the stranger went overboard with hat, overcoat, shoes and all. After giving him a thorough trouncing he was set free. The young man is reported to have run home like a streak of lightning, and the girls are enjoying their swimming nights unmolested.

STEALS, BUT RETURNS LOOT

Mysterious Stunts of Thief at Paris Ky., Baffles the Local Police.

Paris, Ky.—A thief who steals diamond rings only to return them to his baffling police here.

Several weeks ago two diamond rings, valued at $800, were stolen from the home of Mrs. Katie Wilson. Ten days ago they were returned to her mysteriously.

Miss Carolyn Roseberry, daughter of John Roseberry, wealthy citizen, lost a $6,000 platinum cluster ring. She offered a reward and agreed not to ask any questions. Later she found a tin box tied to the front doorknob. It contained the ring.

A week ago a $700 ring disappeared from the home of William Farris, restaurant man. Later it was found hanging by a string to a window at the Farris home.

Police believe the thefts to be the work of some one who has access to the homes.

Human Arsenal Is Chased by Police

New York.—Dropping thirteen blackjacks, ten revolvers, two pairs of handcuffs, eight deputy sheriff badges and six private detective shields, a man whose identity is unknown, ran away when approached at Broadway and Reade street by Patrolman Gactano Christiano of the Beach street station.

Patrolman Christiano fired one shot at the man, but slipped when he started to chase him.

Other policemen, called by the shot, found a fire-escape ladder at Reade and Church streets swung to the street, and following footprints in the snow on the roofs discovered at 99 Chambers street William Ranken, seventeen, of 384 Race street, Philadelphia.

BEAR CUBS PROBABLY UNIQUE

New Species the Result of Mating Canadian Black and Russian Brown, in London Zoo.

A "marriage was arranged" in London some time ago between Teddy, the black bear from Canada, and Daisy, the brown bear from Russia. The result is the first hybrid black-brown bear cubs ever born in the zoo—they may even be unique, for nature let alone produces no hybrids. They are a rich mahogany compromise between their parents' colorings, and are doing splendidly. Along with the news comes word that the ugliest beast in the world, the Matamata turtle, another emigrant from the new world, has been on a hunger strike ever since his arrival in London. At home he gets his food in a nasty, treacherous way. He has a shell which looks like a lump of rock on which weed grows freely. He keeps quiet and looks like a pleasant stone for fish to rest under. Round his jaws are a number of long lumps which look like desirable worms. These are his ground bait, and even if the Matamata be asleep a nibble rouses him to snap up a meal.

BOTH IN GRIP OF TYRANNY

Parallel in Case of the Farmer and the Unfortunate Lover of the Cornet.

O. E. Bradfot of Xenia, the farmer delegate at the industrial conference, said at a Xenia tea: "A farmer was talking to me the other day about the way the middle-man tyrannizes over the farmer, and he wound up with a story. "He said the farmer's position reminded him of a cop. This cop saw a fairly well-dressed customer playing a cornet on his beat, and after the man had played three or four tunes he walked up the front steps of a handsome house. "No, ye don't, friend," says the cop. "Play yer cornet as much as ye've a mind to, but I'll have no beggin' or solicittin' on this beat." "Quite right, officer," says the cornetist. "Glad to hear you're so strict. I guess you don't mind my entering my own house, though. You see, wife objects to my practicing indoors."

Exactitude.

"Hiram," said Mrs. Cornstossel, "it was going too far for you to say our boy Josh isn't worth his salt." "Mebbe 'twas. Salt ain't so dear. But I'll hang to it that the way he's workin' now, Josh ain't worth his sugar."

A Difference.
