

FOR PRESIDENT:

Edward I. Edwards, OF NEW JERSEY.

A Democrat Unafraid to Voice the Faith.

School Notes.

High School play will be given April 23rd. The public will be expected to cooperate in making it a success.

In the Inter-high-school debate between Bowling Green High School and Ironton at Bowling Green last Friday evening, Bowling Green was the winner. The debate was closely contested. All four debaters did their parts well.

FOR SALE.

Owing to my age and my son's illness I have for sale 1 I. H. C. 8-16 Mogul Tractor; 1 Oliver Engine Gang Plow; 1 I. H. C. Engine Disc and Case, all steel; Separator, 24x42 size. All in good running order.

Baptist News and Notes.

The attendance at the Bible School last Sunday was the largest we have had this year. The congregation at the morning worship was above the average.

Bellevue News.

Farmers are considerably delayed with spring work, the season, thus far, has been so damp and cold. L. G. Townsend and J. C. McCall attended the Athletic Meet in Ironton Saturday.

Spring Time Come Again.

And this promises to be a very profitable season for some lines of business. I will want to buy all marketable kinds of Medical Roots, for which I will pay the highest prices.

Annapolis News.

Some snow the past week. Raining to-day (Monday.) Several of the officials of the Annapolis Lead Company were here the past week. They fired two or three men while here and laid off about a dozen men for a short time.

which he recently purchased from John A. Probst.

Sherman Copeland of Colorado has returned from a visit to Charlie Warner, near Lesterville. After a few days' stay with W. S. Copeland, near Minimum, he will depart for Colorado.

Walter Pennington and Floyd Webb conducted a tent meeting Friday and Sunday and had good attendance.

Lucian Kelley has about finished his new home and will soon move into it. Geo. W. Slusher's eight months' old babe died Sunday and will be buried in the Annapolis cemetery to-day.

The bereaved parents have our sympathy.

Wm. Collins has returned home from near Canada, where they are having labor trouble.

Crato Jackson's house on Crane Pond burned down about two weeks ago—the second fire in about a year.

The homes of Mont and Rond Rumble, near Vulcan, and most of their contents, were destroyed by fire two weeks ago.

S. L. Dunn has been quite sick the past two weeks.

Robert Lewis' family are all said to be sick with stomach trouble. It seems to be a complaint going through the country.

Jakko Grandhomme Kitchell and Lillie Henson are both sick.

Dicie Kitchell lost a $75 cow the past week.

Carrol Bolch and Mrs. Minnie Giesing of St. Louis were visiting "Ma and Pa" Bolch the past week.

The two months' old babe of Lucian Kelley was found dead in bed one morning the past week.

Williams, Miller & Co. are running their handle factory every day. They are getting a good lot of hickory timber and paying good prices.

Most any team can make six dollars and not work all day, either.

GOING UP.

Watch the butter market in the daily Globe-Democrat. We will pay you three cents more per pound for your Butterfat than the quotations on "Extras." Ship us your cream. We need it. POPLAR BLUFF CREAMERY.

The Lutheran Church.

Divine services next Sunday, April 18, will be as follows: At Pilot Knob—Sunday School at 1:30 P. M., Sermon at 7:30 P. M. At Ironton—Sermon at 7:30 P. M. The pastor will deliver a memorial sermon to the memory of the late Pastor, C. C. E. Brandt.

H. C. HARTING, Pastor.
