FRANCIS BROS, Ironton, Mo.

Roused to Indignant Protest.

It had been the custom to give the twins, Jane and John, presents almost alike. One day they got into a quarrel and John became quite angry, exclaiming: "I can't have anything by myself; I can't even have my own birthday in peace!"

Optimist and Conservative.

Although a conservative is not necessarily an optimist, I think an optimist is pretty likely to be a conservative.—Henry James.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which griped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."

Theford's

BLACK-DRAUGHT
