Goodwater Items.

We are having plenty of rain. The baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Crocker died August 30th, after everything had been done to prolong her life. James Wood and family of St. Louis visited relatives here recently. Don Lucas spent several days in St. Louis and De Soto two weeks ago. He purchased a Ford runabout while he was gone. Several persons from here called before the Juvenile Court at Ironton September 2d. Elmer Edgar and L. A. Crocker went to Potosi last Sunday. A man from St. Louis was here last Sunday looking after his land and timber. Alex. Jennings shipped a car of cattle last week. Your correspondent and family motored to Ironton last Sunday to meet his son, Herbert, who has been working in Herculaneum. C. S. Lucas, of De Soto, visited his father, Mr. J. M. Lucas, here recently. Early last Saturday morning the following parties—G. H. Crocker, his two sons, Isaac Hedrich, J. M. Lucas, J. A. Wigger, Geo. Thomas, Matt Jarvis and L. W. Scott—loaded themselves and some picks and shovels into a F. W. D. Army truck and drove to one mile east of Shepard and put in a day's work on that piece of bad road. The good ladies had prepared us a good dinner, except the coffee, and Mr. Lucas, who is an expert at making good coffee, prepared this for us. If the people east of here would donate one day's work on this road it would be in very good shape. A. A. Dotson and H. F. Henning attended Masonic Lodge at Belleview Saturday night. L. W. S. Prepare for the Cold Weather.

You can't avoid the drouth in summer, but you can prepare for the cold weather in winter. If you don't know how I will assist you before it gets too cold. Therefore tell me your needs. I can give you Hot Air Master Furnace Heat. JOHN NAEP, The Furnace Man, Ironton Tin Shop, Ironton, Mo.

From Goodland.

The weather continues hot and dry. Farmers are cutting fodder. Loaded teams are seen every day, ties, staves and lumber. M. Williams and Charley Brooks are running their mills every day. Mrs. Essie Brooks is having chills. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith motored to Flat River and Desloge in their two-horse wagon to spend a week with friends. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Mayfield was buried last Thursday. Mrs. Amy Adams was called to Neil's Creek by the death of her nephew, Arnold Stricklin. We are sorry to learn of the death of Orville Crocker's year old daughter. Ernest Adams hurt a finger and blood poison developed causing him a great deal of pain till the swelling was reduced. At present it is getting along nicely. Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Adams spent Sunday with the Larce's. Mr. Imboden and family, Mr. Kerry White and family and Mrs. Pippin took dinner with Dr. Adams Sunday. The meeting at Edge Hill continues. A woman from Thayer is preaching and drawing great crowds. Most of our young folks attend. A letter from "The Philippines" says that "Ernest Oesch, who formerly lived at Edge Hill, in Reynolds county, later of Oregon county, Mo., and spent two years in the Agricultural College as teacher and advisor, has accepted an offer from the British government to go to the Fiji Islands and there take charge and establish a like school. We wish for the young man much success in his chosen work. Miss Verna Crocker is home from Kansas where she has been living during the past year. Deputy Sheriff Ray Stricklin lately went to the head of Neil's creek and arrested two bootleggers. Prayer meeting at Goodland every Saturday night is well attended and much interest manifested. Amsterdam Has Good Idea.

The people of Amsterdam are taught how to behave in public—that is, on which side of the pavement to walk, how to carry canes and umbrellas, etc., by means of official motion pictures.

A Reflection.

Fortune will hardly give us money when we spend so much time thinking of what we wouldn't do for people if we were rich.

"Well! Strong!"

Mrs. Anna Clover, of R. F. D. 5, Winfield, Kans., says: "I began to suffer some months ago with womanly troubles, and I was afraid I was going to get in bed. Each month I suffered with my head, back and sides—a weak, aching, nervous feeling. I began to try medicines as I knew I was getting worse. I did not seem to find the right remedy until someone told me of

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic I used two bottles before I could see any great change, but after that it was remarkable how much better I got. I am now well and strong. I can recommend Cardui, for it certainly benefited me. If you have been experimenting on yourself with all kinds of different remedies, better get back to good, old, reliable Cardui, the medicine for women, about which you have always heard, which has helped many thousands of others, and which should help you, too. Ask your neighbor about it; she has probably used it. For sale everywhere. E 93
