KNOWS NOTHING ABOUT IT. Alleged Important Witness in the Durant Case Known as X.

Boston, Aug. 7.—Mr. Charles H. Clark, of San Francisco, a traveling salesman for the Italian-Swiss agricultural colony of that city, and for whom San Francisco newspapers and police have been seeking for two weeks, because it was thought he was a witness in the Durant murder case, was found at a lodging place in Columbus avenue last evening.

"My name has been dragged into this murder case," he said, "through a remark that I made to a lady in a saloon, who, to the effect that I had seen Blanche Lamont, one of the two girls found murdered in Emanuel Church, in company of a young fellow on a street car."

"I never had the pleasure of her acquaintance—never spoke to her, in fact—but a friend had pointed her out to me months before, and I had not forgotten her face. As I recall, she was accompanied by a young man, who gave his description with any accuracy, but an certain it was not Durant."

"I have tried my best to fix the date on which I saw her in this young man's company, and I have reached the conclusion that it was fully two weeks before the murder was committed."

Chicago, Aug. 7.—A special dispatch from Liberty, Ind., says: George Johnson was captured by a number of disguised women late last night, beaten with clubs and threatened with a coat of tar and feathers.

Mr. Burris recently fell heir to a fortune and left for Chicago, where he intended to invest in some business enterprise. He will see his wife by divorce.

Johnson is in the hands of a physician, and declares he will have the women indicted before the grand jury. He recognized several of his assailants, and they were all neighbors of the Burris family.

Sycamore street is a fashionable quarter of Liberty, and its residents are all prominent in church and social circles.

THEIR NEEDS SET FORTH

What the Y. M. C. A. Wants for Its House of the Future.

OUTLINED IN A STATEMENT

Two Hundred Thousand Dollars Necessary to Carry Out the Plan as Formulated—General Extension of Its Work Contemplated in the Fresh Start.

After a lengthy conference on the needs to be observed in the selection of new quarters, the officers of the Young Men's Christian Association have completed the task. In reaching their conclusions the gentlemen have kept in view all phases of the association's work, and the results are contained in a statement issued by Secretary Pugh this morning.

TEXT OF THE STATEMENT

"The Young Men's Christian Association of the city of Washington is without a home because of the destruction by fire of the building at 1405 New York avenue northwest on the 24th day of July last.

"When the population of this city is made a basis of comparison with other cities, and the numerous young men, resident and visiting, is considered, also the quality of work accomplished by the management in their former limited quarters, it is without doubt the will of the citizens of the Nation's Capital that a building be erected and equipped that will be equal to the assured demands of the immediate future, with a margin for growth.

"The history of the association demands that this building shall be such as will meet the requirements of the advanced work of the Young Men's Christian Association, and permanent quarters are secured except such as are destined for the purpose.

"This will require a building covering an area of not less than 10,000 square feet, in a location contiguous to the car lines, in which should be a public hall with a seating capacity of 1,000 people at the very least, and a mechanical draughting and typewriting were cared for in the year 1894-95.

"In arithmetic, stenography and bookkeeping the demand for accommodations for students was almost four times greater than the supply; an illustration given in an arithmetic class there were 147 students enrolled, the capacity of the room, 40.

"The association must add architectural and free-hand drawing, languages, electrical and mechanical engineering, manual training, and many other studies which young men need, requiring not less than 10,000 square feet of floor space. Then there is call for special library for students, technical and scientific. Amateur photographers will have to receive attention, amusement and recreation rooms, chess and checker rooms.

"The boys will need special attention, and must be kept separate from the men, using the gymnasium when the men are present, and their own rooms at other times. They will need reading room and library, recreation room, and lecture room.

"There are two plans suggested with regard to an income to help meet the expense of such a building and to great work. First, stores on the ground floor. Second, a home for the new city library.

"Either would require all of the first floor.

"It is hardly necessary to state that $200,000 could be raised in the preparation of such a building, in addition to the lot now in possession of the association, while the amount of money is not so much to be considered as the necessary equipment. If the plan can be secured for a smaller amount of money, the association members will be more than gratified. The public can be assured that the organization, which has carried on so magnificent a work at so small an expenditure can be relied upon to be faithful to the larger trust.

"In order that the amount required may be raised promptly and a lot secured, so that the work may suffer no further hindrance than is absolutely necessary, a meeting of the business men is called for Wednesday, September 19, at noon, in Masonic Hall, and the subscription list now open at the temporary headquarters in the Leanan Building, second floor of 1425 New York avenue north west.

"All interested may subscribe, such amounts to be paid quarterly, covering a term of four years.

"The subscriptions ought to be divided as follows: 10 subscriptions of $5,000 each, $50,000; 20 subscriptions of $2,500 each, $50,000; 25 subscriptions of $1,000 each, $25,000; 100 subscriptions of $250 each, $25,000; 250 subscriptions of $100 each, $25,000.

"This statement is prepared by the joint committee—finance and building—of the Young Men's Christian Association, and is designed to aid any friend of young men in coming to a decision as to the amount he or she may contribute, in order that the city of Washington may have a building for young men equal to the absolute needs, even more than to do what other cities have done for young men.

"The statement will be given general circulation, and it is hoped that it will be helpful in soon establishing the worthy institution in a new home, excelling the one which first deprived them of.

SUGAR BOUNTY FIGHT ON

Now we come to you, who in a way holds the purse strings of the Treasury, and say pay us what you owe us. If this be denied, said Mr. Manderson, misery beyond description would follow.

We are here to try, he continued, to combine your powers as Comptroller of the Treasury, not to limit them or to strain the statute relative to them. We do not believe that it is your intention to enlarge your powers beyond that given you by the law of 1894, the Docks act. We don't believe you are that make-up of a man.

Mr. Manderson then passed to a review of the law regulating the duties of the Comptroller, and cited a large number of judicial authorities, reading long extracts from the decisions of the Supreme Court, and persons in constructing the constitutionality of law.

NOT ORDINARY CLAIMS. These were not ordinary claims, for Congress had passed on the fundamental question, and said we will give these men the bounty earned before the repeal of the act.

He believed that the Congress of the United States, under the authority conferred upon it by the Constitution, could make a donation or gift of public money, and that the executive authorities would be compelled to pay it.

Mr. Manderson referred to the Louisiana purchase and the question of constitutionality of the appropriation for that, which had been decided unlawful; and he hoped that the United States would go on conquering and purchasing until Hawaii, Cuba, and other desirable possessions on which we have had our eyes for some time are obtained.

At this point a recess of one hour until 2 o'clock was taken. The indications then were that Mr. Manderson would occupy a large part of the afternoon before concluding his argument.

HE WAS KILLED WITH AN AX

Horrible Crime by a Hired Man on a New York Farm.

Brains His Employer and Threatens Others With a Like Fate, But Denies and Runs a Way.

Owego, N. Y., Aug. 7.—Henry Whitlock, a prosperous farmer living just east of North Victoria, in Cayuga, was murdered last night by his hired man, Charles Burgess.

Some time during the night Burgess got up and called Mr. Whitlock and told him the cows were in the corn. Both went out, and as Whitlock was getting down under the bars, Burgess struck him in the back of the head with an axe, killing him.

After committing the crime Burgess threw the body over a fence into a lane, and taking the lantern which Whitlock had brought from the shed, returned to the farm-house, where Mrs. Whitlock was sleeping.

THREATENS THE WIFE. He removed his shoes and entered quietly, but not so quietly that he did not awaken Mrs. Whitlock, who was sleeping lightly. He then blew out the lamp, and as he did so Mrs. Whitlock got out of bed and appeared in her night-dress. Burgess grabbed her and informed her that he had murdered her husband, and threatened that if she called the neighbors he would kill her also. Mrs. Whitlock attempted to scream, but Burgess stifled her cries by choking her into insensibility.

BEGGS FOR HER LIFE. Mrs. Whitlock begged that her life be spared, and Burgess agreed, providing she promised to say that Whitlock met his death by a fall from a ladder, and also agreed to remain in the house until Burgess should go to the house of his brother-in-law, a short distance away, and notify him of Whitlock's death.

When Burgess left Mrs. Whitlock threw on a dress and went across to the North Victoria cheese factory, where she waited, and gave the alarm. The neighborhood was aroused, and the sheriff and constables, with a posse of farmers, are after Burgess, whom they have traced to Iowa, where they think he is hiding in a piece of woods.

Whitlock was fifty-seven years old and his wife is about thirty-seven years old. Both were highly esteemed in the community. They were married five years ago in the village of Hamblin and have no children.

RELIES UPON DENY. State Department Sends No Instructions Regarding the Massacre. Inquiry at the Department of State today brought to light the fact that more than a month ago Minister Denby had secured from the Chinese government an assurance that in view of the confidence they would afford capital punishment, following a vigorous prosecution on his part that persons implicated in the riot at Chang-tai should be put to death.

Mr. Denby's action in this regard has received the approval of the State Department, and in view of the confidence expressed in him it was not considered necessary to send him more explicit instructions in the present trouble than to "do all that could be done" for the protection of American citizens.

It was stated at the Department today that no doubt was felt there that Mr. Denby would fail to secure protection of American interests in the present unsettled state of affairs.

"I said last fall that I would not accept the place, but if these people insist on abusing me, I must be vindicated somehow. I would like to see if I want to go, but I would like to see Dr. Purvis, John F. Cook, Peter B. Meredith or some others of the known candidates elected. I prefer them to anybody this McKinley league may name."

Suppose you could save a third of your house rent by some fortunate circumstance, would you not consider it a godsend?

How then about your clothing bill? Can't you clearly see the wisdom of taking advantage of our Rebuilding sale with its one-third saving to you.

You'd follow suit if you knew how many wise people are snapping up the bargains.

Large Shipments of Gold to Europe Blamed For the Temporary Slump of Today.

New York, Aug. 7.—Wall street, 11 a. m.—The engagement of another $1,000,000 gold for export to Europe by the steamship Augusta Victoria, exerted an unfavorable influence on the stock market, after the opening especially, as it is reported that Saturday's steamers will also take out round-amounts of the metal. Commodities were held rather liberally on the gold export movement and arbitrage firms parted with considerable St. Paul and Louisville & Nashville. The decline in prices ranged from 1-2 to 1-2 per cent.

Sugar fell 1-2 to 112-3-4, B. & Q. 5-8 to 89-7-8, Chicago Gas 3-8 to 87-1-2, Lake Erie & Western 1 to 25, preferred 3-4 to 82. Lake Erie & Western 1 to 148-7-8, L. & N. 7-8 to 89-3-4 and Rock Island 5-8 to 77-7-8. General Electric was strong for a time, and on covering of short contracts rose from 36-3-4 to 37-5-8. At 11 o'clock the market was a shade firmer in tone.

BACK TO ITS MOTHER. Mrs. Holmes Will Have Custody of Her Little Baby.

Little John C. Holmes, the little eleven-month-old baby, who was a prisoner at the First precinct station house last night, as exclusively told in to-day's Morning Times, has been returned to the custody of his mother, without further official inquiry.

The father complained that the mother was not a proper person to have the custody of the child, as she was without means to support herself and the little one, and he filed a petition to have the babe turned over to the board of children's guardians.

The mother remained at the station-house with the child last night. This morning, before the case came up in the police court, Assistant District Attorney Jeffords received a note from E. Newton Donaldson, counsel for Holmes, saying that a physician had been consulted in regard to the matter, and had stated that the child was too young to be separated from his mother. The letter asked that the case be dismissed, and Mr. Jeffords accordingly nolle prosequit it.

DEFECTIVE SEWER THE CAUSE. Heavy Suit for Damages Brought Against the District.

Emilie P. Selhausen has brought suit against the District of Columbia for $10,000 for injuries to her property caused by the overflow of alleged defective cleaned sewers.

In the declaration filed by the complainant this morning she states that she is the owner of four houses, Nos. 510 to 516 D street southeast. The sewerage system of these houses, she states, is connected with the draining sewer built by the defendant at Sixth street. On June 21, 1892, and June 21 and 25, 1895, the sewer was permitted to fill up, and caused the water to bank in the complainant's property to the depth of three feet on each occasion, to the damage to the complainant in the amount named above.

THE TIMES DAILY WEATHER MAP.

(Prepared at the United States Weather Bureau.)

(Prepared at the United States Weather Bureau.)

Exploratory Note: The above map shows the weather conditions prevailing over the country at 8 o'clock this morning, Eastern time. Solid lines are isobars or lines of equal air pressure, drawn for each tenth of an inch. Dotted lines are isotherms, or lines of equal temperature, drawn for each ten degrees. Shaded areas are regions where rain or snow has fallen during the preceding twelve hours. The words "high" and "low" show location of areas of high and low barometer. The symbols at the stations show the state of the weather and direction of the wind. Small arrows fly with the wind.

The above map shows a typical summer condition, the permanent Atlantic and Pacific high areas, banking up against each coast, with storm conditions in Ontario and Alberta. A good deal of rain has fallen in the southern part of the Ontario storm, except in New England. The only rain in the Western storm, for its usual cases, is to the west of the storm. The weather will continue fair for forty-eight hours, with slowly rising temperature, probably reaching above 90 degrees Thursday and continuing high till Saturday.

Forecast Till 8 p. m. Thursday. For the District of Columbia, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia, fair, preceded by showers to-day on the coast; westerly winds.
