Mr. Jones Explains. Editor Times: While no one can deny that in yesterday's game there was considerable dirty ball playing...

BASEBALL NOTES

The league games played yesterday resulted as follows: Baltimore, 6; Philadelphia, 2; Boston, 6; Brooklyn, 2; New York, 10; Brooklyn, 6; Chicago, 11; Cleveland, 9; Cincinnati, 10; St. Louis, 2.

The standing of the League clubs today is as follows: Cleveland, 55; New York, 48; Boston, 45; Philadelphia, 44; Baltimore, 43; St. Louis, 41; Chicago, 38; Cincinnati, 37; Pittsburgh, 36; Louisville, 35.

The Young Stars defeated the Walkways yesterday by the score of 18 to 12. The Young Stars claim to be the champions of the District for their age, 13, and would like to arrange games with clubs with members of that age.

The Senators must have lost their batting eye sure enough yesterday. Rustie kindly allowed them to chuck up three hits, but that was all.

Buckenberg has gone into the show business. He is to have charge of the advertising for the Pittsburgh theatres. He will play no more professional ball this year.

To-day the Senators take a shy at the Beaneaters. The Boston men struck a ball-playing gem yesterday that was pretty fast, and that bodes no good to any of the clubs that tackle them while they are in their present mood.

The League clubs have now played nearly two-thirds of the games scheduled for the season, and the Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Baltimore clubs stand about as they have been standing for weeks.

Esper pitched against the Quakers in the game of Tuesday, and they touched him up so briskly that he was taken out of the box to make room for Clarkson.

IN THE SPORTING WORLD

What Horsemen Think About the Downfall of Robert J.

From the moment he got the ball, the Quakers were at his mercy. They could hardly touch him. They got but five hits during the nine innings, and these netted them two runs.

It is big Bill Joyce goes away from the Senators the man who is doing as good if not better batting than any man on the team will go.

If Latham should join the Senators, and what is said about him is true, Bill Joyce will have to step aside as the boss of the scrappy players.

Lucid will join the Quakers at Brooklyn to-day.

Stivets picked the whole of the first and the first three innings of the second game for Boston team yesterday.

The Anson men were too much for Wallace in the game with Cleveland yesterday. They pounded him all over the field in the first two innings, marking up seven runs.

IT WAS SUICIDE. Coroner's Jury Investigates the Death of Mrs. West.

The inquest over the body of Mrs. Martha A. West, of Canal Road, Georgetown, who, as told in The Evening Times yesterday, committed suicide by walking overboard into the Potomac at Tenney's wharf, was held yesterday at 5 o'clock in the seventh precinct police station.

H. Linticum crowned Miss Virginia Wise, of Baltimore, second maid of honor; and Mr. John W. Owens crowned his wife third maid of honor.

The city council at its session this week ordered the fourth payment on the Washington avenue improvement work to be paid, amounting to $2,644.25.

The council also changed the date of payment of interest on bonds from April and September to January and July.

BOXING

Jack Daly will probably be matched to box Jack Everhart before the Europa Club.

The Walker and Baller Brown match, which was agreed to by the principals at the bout of Tuesday evening, has gone by the board. The Europa Club folks could see nothing in it.

Jack Daly will probably be matched to box Jack Everhart before the Europa Club. William E. Harding was telegraphed yesterday regarding the matter.

Everhart had engaged in a number of bouts before he met Bowen, and had shown himself to be a fairly good pugilist, but it was with Bowen that he proved just what sort of stuff he was made of.

Everhart, having shortly before this arrived in the East he offered to take Griffin's place. No one believed he would be in it with the great Michigan man, but there everybody made a mistake.

TRACK AND STABLE.

From the time the harness racing season opened until the present something like 500 trotting and pacing horses have reduced their records far below what they were last year.

There are many paces and trotters that last year had a mark as good as that of St. Julien, 2:11 3/4, and Maud S., 2:11 1/4. This should give a pretty good idea of the headway that is being made with the harness race horse.

Yes these 75 horses are not the sum total of the trotters and paces that have gone miles in 2:12 or better. This number does not take in one horse that last year had a record better than 2:08 1/4.

There are many paces and trotters that last year had a mark as good or better than 2:08 1/4. Among these trotters were: Pixley and Azote, 2:08 1/4; Martha Wilkes, 2:08; Fantasy, 2:08; Directum, 2:05 1/4; Nancy Hanks, 2:04, and Aliz, 2:03 3/4.

From the opening of the racing season this year up to the present time at least eight horses, all of them with a mark as good as 2:08 1/4 to start with, have shared their records. Among the trotters are: Azote, 2:08 1/4 to 2:06 1/2; William Penn, 2:12 1/4 to 2:07 1/4.

The announcement of Wallbaum, the head of the Saratoga racing association, that he will close his meeting on the 23d of this month, looks as though he wanted to rid himself of race tracks and race horses all in a heap.

What will probably be the lightest sulky of them all is being built for the pacing horse John E. Gentry. It is to weigh not more than eighteen pounds.

It is now given out that Fleischman's $25,000 horse, Halma, is as good as ever, and that there may be a match race between him and Lassak arranged to settle the question as to which is the better 3-year-old.

Nearly all of the runners that have been at the Oakley meeting will go to St. Louis. Betting goes in the Future City according to the taste of the bettor, and there the man who has a good thing can lay down his money to his heart's content.

Trotting, pacing and running in the Virginia, Maryland and Delaware circuit begins this month. The first meeting will be at Cape Charles City August 20-23, for which entries close August 13.

The great pacing race between Robert J. and Joe Patchen is over after the Hamilton gelding is again defeated. This is the second time Patchen has beaten Robert J. within the past two weeks.
