

Lansburgh & Bro

THESE ARE ALWAYS USEFUL.

These reduced prices ought to prove an incentive to buy now.

- Apron Checks, small, medium, and large size. 10c quality for... 7c yd 12 1/2c quality for... 9c yd 15c quality for... 12 1/2c yd

40-inch India Lawn, 15c quality, for... 12 1/2c yd

A large assortment of Curtain Swings in dots, figures, and stripes. Ranging in price from 10c Up

Apronette, 42 inches wide. Satin stripes borders and lace effect borders. Sold here for 15c and 20c yard, for... 12 1/2c yd

English Nainsook in 12 yard pieces, 36 and 40 inches wide, for... $1.50

English Long Cloth, 12 yards to the piece, 36 and 40 inches wide... $1.50

Plain English Nainsook by the yard in all qualities, ranging from... 12 1/2c Up

Lansburgh & Bro

420, 422, 424, 426 7th St.

We are having cool evenings now, and a wrap of some kind becomes necessary after dark. We've provided for the emergency.

One lot of Capes, in black, navy or tan, plain or embroidered, 98c. Jackets, without extra large sleeves, originally sold for $4, $5 and $6. 98c.

CLARK'S

734-736 7th St.

NOW IN FULL BLAST.

Big Crowds Nightly Attend St. Paul's Lawn Fete.

Over 1,200 people attended St. Paul's lawn fete last night. The booths did a land office business, and supplies ran short before the gates were closed.

One of the most attractive and amusing features of the evening's entertainment is the "Coon's Head," and it was often hit by the amateur ball players of the parish. A good natured rivalry exists among the ladies in charge of the different booths, and all are anxious to outdo their neighbors in selling wares.

Representative people of all the Catholic parishes of the city were in attendance each evening. The following were among those who attended last night: Rev. Brother Fabrician, Dr. Faust, Joseph Skinner, Mr. Barbee, Leonard Hart, Miss Annie Hart, Stephen Guista, Miss Parker, John Costello, Edward Ritty, Mrs. W. C. Walters, W. T. Walters, Miss Ida Walters, Mrs. John W. Hickey, the Misses Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roach, Miss Katie and Harry Roach, Miss Mary O'Ferrall, P. H. O'Ferrall, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Conroy, Mr. E. Noyes, the Misses Noyes, Miss Lou Irwin, Miss Nannie Wilson, Mrs. Henry Theodore, Mrs. James Welsh, Mrs. Cullen, James Cullen, Mr. and Mrs. Leveone, Mrs. Maggie Corcoran, Mrs. Thomas Phillips, Miss Joe Phillips, Mrs. W. L. Keizer, Mrs. Kate Walsh, Mrs. Oscar Schmidt, Mrs. Thomas Sheridan, Philip Sheridan, Mrs. R. I. Donaldson, Miss Helen Donaldson, Miss Mary Long, Mrs. William Goddard, and others.

The Threat Had No Terror.

A young minister settled over a small country parish was instructed by his parishioners to procure a piano for their parish. When the bill amounted to $25, the society being unable to pay it, as well as the salary of the pastor, the music dealer demanded the minister for the money, telling him that he assumed the responsibility. The latter replied that he never assumed the responsibility of another, having all he could do to pay his own bills, whereupon the dealer threatened to sue him.

A short time after our friend received a letter from a New York collection agency, to which, as well as several following, he paid no attention, until the following short but definite letter came: "Dear Sir: Unless you remit at once we shall publish you all over the country as a Delinquent Debtor."

To which he replied: "Gentlemen: Ever since I entered the ministry I have been struggling for the title of D. D. Go ahead."—Boston Budget.

A Costly Gift. Although she had a gift, as people said, A generous gift of song from Nature tree, Her dear papa with rage felt nearly dead, At finding each short lesson cost a V.

IN THEIR HUNTING DRESS

Society Women Pose as Living Pictures.

SOME VERY NEAT COSTUMES

Oilcloth and Tweed, Short Skirts and Leggins Are the Favorites.

Whoever has read Marie Corelli's "My Wonderful Wife" must confess to a longing to see the heroine of the story. The scent of the heather, the breeze of the moors, the atmosphere of the north winds hang around her, and, although she was not the right kind of a wife, she was unmistakably pleasant to read about.

Unless one is a huntswoman oneself, one never sees these Diana-like women as they appear upon their annual hunting excursions. Hunting costumes are worn no place under the sun except upon moors and hunting preserves; and those who have neither the strength nor courage to hunt must forever imagine how the real huntresses look.

Talented women were planned a few days ago at a great country house. "We will have Ophelia and all the heroines of Shakespeare," said the hostess, "and we will send to town to-day for costumes."

"Don't do it," cut in a duenna, "let us see you all in your hunting dresses; let us get a glimpse of how you handle your rifles; let us see you in a fatigue hunting now, after the change gloves and pointing pictures of yourselves as you look in these wild mountain excursions that we poor, weak old women, cannot follow."

The idea was seized upon by everybody, with the result that letters were dispatched to several hunting boxes in the Catskills, to a large log cabin in the Adirondacks, and to a very wonderful little mountain hotel in the Rockies, where every year there goes a party of very adventurous sportspeople.

Jack Howard—See that rock out there? It's "Kissing Rock" and half mile out. You wouldn't think it, Edith? Edith: Fiddle—Do you know, the life guard says I'm an awfully strong swimmer.

HOW HUNTRESSES LOOK. A great many people think that huntresses must discard all civilization when they go out "loaded for bear." And this fact deters more people from hunting than the fear of the "bear." Great was the surprise therefore when the curtain was rung up upon a very neat and becoming suit worn by a woman whose annual prowess shooting is famed. It looked as conventional as a modern bathing suit, and not so very much unlike it, except for the change gloves and pointing sticks. But the material was far different from the bathing gown. It was—oilcloth!

Yes, the common oilcloth used for kitchen tables and window ledges. It was all white, except for strips of black oilcloth running around it. Underneath there may have been knickerbockers, but these did not show. A cloth cap, capable of being pulled in any direction the sun slanted, and gloves so heavy that they protected the hands from briars, with leggings that kept insects at bay, made the dress the model serviceable hunting gown.

The huntswoman posed in model fashion before the footlights. She held her gun very gracefully, and as the curtain was rung down some one started the cry for "a speech."

"Loving figures ought to be able to talk," declared the master of ceremonies, and accordingly the curtain was called up again in front of the much admiring sportsman. "I have only opportunity to remark," said she, tilting her gun backward from the audience and flourishing the little light oilcloth skirt, "that hunting isn't as tiresome as shopping if you know what to wear, and that I'd rather tramp the moors for a week in this dress than drag around a ball train one night."

KEPT A SECRET. Many of the best sportswomen of this country will not disclose the secret of their hunting dresses. "If the people knew what we wear, how light we feel and how little the sport tires us, every woman would be for wanting to hunt and shoot, and where would go our prestige?" argued a woman whose notoriety as a huntress is as great as her fame for much wealth.

The most rapid hunter in the Long Island hunting colony is Mrs. "Jimmie" Kernochan, whose homes are shown every year at the horse show, and who looks like a child in the saddle. She can cover the distance on a horse quicker than the master of hounds himself.

The highest jumper is Mrs. Sydney Dillon

SOCIETY GOES WHEELING

Fashionable Folk Turn Out at the Bryn Mawr Meet.

Fair Riders Win Prizes in Quaint Races and Many Unique Costumes Are Shown.

(Special to The Times.) Bryn Mawr, Pa., Sept. 11.—Ideal weather and a brilliant array of fashion and beauty made the bicycle meet here one of the most notable events of its kind ever held in this section of the country.

No more charming place could have been selected for the meet, for the smooth, curving drive made an unequalled parade ground. The depression in the lawn, with its slanting rows of natural amphitheatres, and the level turf of the tennis ground, a delightful floor, on which the graceful maneuvers of the riders, in a quadrille on bicycle, showed to the very best advantage.

More than 1,000 people were present when the bugle sounded the start of the parade. The line was led by Mr. and Mrs. Milton Work. Following them was a long train of ladies and gentlemen and three pretty children on tricycles, gaily trimmed with ribbons and balloons.

The ladies' trial in the obstacle race came first. A dozen jolly married and unmarried ladies entered. Miss Lowry passed all but the fatal plank homestretch, and she carried off the first prize.

A slow race in which the point was to consume the longest possible time in covering a stated distance, was won by Miss Katharine Smith, with Mrs. Work second and Mrs. M. Lowry third. The entries by the ladies being those of the preceding race.

The next event was a paper chase, in which the "hare," Miss Milton Work and Mr. Work Andrews, on a tandem wheel, took a five-minute start, and, throwing a paper trail, made a very small margin. They started with Miss Stovell, who maintained that place throughout in the lead, and with her partner, Mr. Work, the whole race, and came in close on the heels of the "hare." Mr. Hunting and Miss Smith were second, while Mr. A. Jefferts and Miss Knight won third place.

The golden wedding ceremonies of Mr. and Mrs. Philip May began with a capital mass this morning at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's Catholic Church. The wedding procession, headed by the ushers, Mr. Philip Henlock, Mr. Henry Nau, Mr. Robert Berberich and Mr. Bernard Weiss.

Then followed the youngest grandchildren, dressed in white, with yellow satin ribbons; other relatives and the ushers and bridesmaids. The bride, Miss May, wearing a gown of white tulle, with a long train, and a crown of white flowers, was escorted by Mr. May, Messrs. Philip, George and Frank May and Mrs. Cammack and Mrs. Muller.

The altar was heavily draped in gold and brilliant with lights and flowers. Rev. Father Gahagan, assisted by Fathers Ryan and Fitzgerald, celebrated the grand high mass. The sacerdotal robes were also of gold brocade.

Prof. William Weldecker played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the wedding party entered. The choir, consisting of Miss Whitehead, Miss Eshom, Mr. Mosher and Mr. Rebeck, rendered Katharina's mass with Gibbels's Gaudeteus at the offertory.

Mr. May wore a handsome gown of black silk, trimmed with gold passementerie, and the ushers and members of the family wore golden rod buttonholes. After the mass the entire family accompanied by the officiating clergymen repaired to the residence of Mr. May, where they were entertained at breakfast. The church was crowded with friends. Mr. and Mrs. May will hold a reception from 6 to 9 this evening.

A very pretty wedding took place this morning at 11:30 at the Concordia Lutheran Church, at the corner of Twentieth and G streets, the contracting parties being Miss Anna Hines, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hines, and Mr. Hugh M. Cline. The ushers were Mr. William Matheson, Mr. J. W. Johnson, Mr. F. L. Stein and Mr. H. H. Darnelle.

Rev. Ernest Davids performed the ceremony. As the wedding party entered the church, Prof. Meyer played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." Immediately after the ceremony the young couple were driven to the depot and left for New York and Boston.

The bride wore a stylish gown of dark blue cloth with large hat covered with ostrich plumes, and carried a shower bunch of bride roses tied with long white ribbons. After returning, Mr. and Mrs. Cline will go to housekeeping at the corner of Massachusetts avenue and First street northeast.

Mr. James Brennan, of the Interior Department, has returned, after a month's vacation. Mr. Edwin P. Hall, assistant chief of the board of pensions, has returned, after a ten days' outing.

Mr. John J. Fitzgerald, of the Sixth Auditor's Office, has returned to the city, after a few days' outing at Arundel-on-the-Bay.

Miss Annie Fogel, of South Washington, has gone to Chantilly, Va., to spend a few days.

Miss Nannie Mayer, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. P. Rice, of Alexandria, Va., is now with her friends in York, Pa.

SOCIETY GOES WHEELING

Fashionable Folk Turn Out at the Bryn Mawr Meet.

Fair Riders Win Prizes in Quaint Races and Many Unique Costumes Are Shown.

(Special to The Times.) Bryn Mawr, Pa., Sept. 11.—Ideal weather and a brilliant array of fashion and beauty made the bicycle meet here one of the most notable events of its kind ever held in this section of the country.

No more charming place could have been selected for the meet, for the smooth, curving drive made an unequalled parade ground. The depression in the lawn, with its slanting rows of natural amphitheatres, and the level turf of the tennis ground, a delightful floor, on which the graceful maneuvers of the riders, in a quadrille on bicycle, showed to the very best advantage.

More than 1,000 people were present when the bugle sounded the start of the parade. The line was led by Mr. and Mrs. Milton Work. Following them was a long train of ladies and gentlemen and three pretty children on tricycles, gaily trimmed with ribbons and balloons.

The ladies' trial in the obstacle race came first. A dozen jolly married and unmarried ladies entered. Miss Lowry passed all but the fatal plank homestretch, and she carried off the first prize.

A slow race in which the point was to consume the longest possible time in covering a stated distance, was won by Miss Katharine Smith, with Mrs. Work second and Mrs. M. Lowry third. The entries by the ladies being those of the preceding race.

The next event was a paper chase, in which the "hare," Miss Milton Work and Mr. Work Andrews, on a tandem wheel, took a five-minute start, and, throwing a paper trail, made a very small margin. They started with Miss Stovell, who maintained that place throughout in the lead, and with her partner, Mr. Work, the whole race, and came in close on the heels of the "hare." Mr. Hunting and Miss Smith were second, while Mr. A. Jefferts and Miss Knight won third place.

The golden wedding ceremonies of Mr. and Mrs. Philip May began with a capital mass this morning at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's Catholic Church. The wedding procession, headed by the ushers, Mr. Philip Henlock, Mr. Henry Nau, Mr. Robert Berberich and Mr. Bernard Weiss.

Then followed the youngest grandchildren, dressed in white, with yellow satin ribbons; other relatives and the ushers and bridesmaids. The bride, Miss May, wearing a gown of white tulle, with a long train, and a crown of white flowers, was escorted by Mr. May, Messrs. Philip, George and Frank May and Mrs. Cammack and Mrs. Muller.

The altar was heavily draped in gold and brilliant with lights and flowers. Rev. Father Gahagan, assisted by Fathers Ryan and Fitzgerald, celebrated the grand high mass. The sacerdotal robes were also of gold brocade.

Prof. William Weldecker played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the wedding party entered. The choir, consisting of Miss Whitehead, Miss Eshom, Mr. Mosher and Mr. Rebeck, rendered Katharina's mass with Gibbels's Gaudeteus at the offertory.

Mr. May wore a handsome gown of black silk, trimmed with gold passementerie, and the ushers and members of the family wore golden rod buttonholes. After the mass the entire family accompanied by the officiating clergymen repaired to the residence of Mr. May, where they were entertained at breakfast. The church was crowded with friends. Mr. and Mrs. May will hold a reception from 6 to 9 this evening.

A very pretty wedding took place this morning at 11:30 at the Concordia Lutheran Church, at the corner of Twentieth and G streets, the contracting parties being Miss Anna Hines, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hines, and Mr. Hugh M. Cline. The ushers were Mr. William Matheson, Mr. J. W. Johnson, Mr. F. L. Stein and Mr. H. H. Darnelle.

Rev. Ernest Davids performed the ceremony. As the wedding party entered the church, Prof. Meyer played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." Immediately after the ceremony the young couple were driven to the depot and left for New York and Boston.

The bride wore a stylish gown of dark blue cloth with large hat covered with ostrich plumes, and carried a shower bunch of bride roses tied with long white ribbons. After returning, Mr. and Mrs. Cline will go to housekeeping at the corner of Massachusetts avenue and First street northeast.

Mr. James Brennan, of the Interior Department, has returned, after a month's vacation. Mr. Edwin P. Hall, assistant chief of the board of pensions, has returned, after a ten days' outing.

Mr. John J. Fitzgerald, of the Sixth Auditor's Office, has returned to the city, after a few days' outing at Arundel-on-the-Bay.

Miss Annie Fogel, of South Washington, has gone to Chantilly, Va., to spend a few days.

Miss Nannie Mayer, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. P. Rice, of Alexandria, Va., is now with her friends in York, Pa.

Miss Clara Truworthy, of Sixth and B streets southwest, has returned, after a two weeks' outing at Colonial Beach.

Mrs. Rosie Welch, of M street southwest, left Sunday for Baltimore, where she will reside permanently.

Mrs. William Boylen and her daughter, Irma May, are visiting Miss Pamela Webber, in Louisville, Ky., and will not return until October.

Miss M. K. Ellis, of the bureau of navigation, Treasury Department, and her nephew have returned from a month's vacation at Atlantic City.

SOCIETY GOES WHEELING

Fashionable Folk Turn Out at the Bryn Mawr Meet.

Fair Riders Win Prizes in Quaint Races and Many Unique Costumes Are Shown.

(Special to The Times.) Bryn Mawr, Pa., Sept. 11.—Ideal weather and a brilliant array of fashion and beauty made the bicycle meet here one of the most notable events of its kind ever held in this section of the country.

No more charming place could have been selected for the meet, for the smooth, curving drive made an unequalled parade ground. The depression in the lawn, with its slanting rows of natural amphitheatres, and the level turf of the tennis ground, a delightful floor, on which the graceful maneuvers of the riders, in a quadrille on bicycle, showed to the very best advantage.

More than 1,000 people were present when the bugle sounded the start of the parade. The line was led by Mr. and Mrs. Milton Work. Following them was a long train of ladies and gentlemen and three pretty children on tricycles, gaily trimmed with ribbons and balloons.

The ladies' trial in the obstacle race came first. A dozen jolly married and unmarried ladies entered. Miss Lowry passed all but the fatal plank homestretch, and she carried off the first prize.

A slow race in which the point was to consume the longest possible time in covering a stated distance, was won by Miss Katharine Smith, with Mrs. Work second and Mrs. M. Lowry third. The entries by the ladies being those of the preceding race.

The next event was a paper chase, in which the "hare," Miss Milton Work and Mr. Work Andrews, on a tandem wheel, took a five-minute start, and, throwing a paper trail, made a very small margin. They started with Miss Stovell, who maintained that place throughout in the lead, and with her partner, Mr. Work, the whole race, and came in close on the heels of the "hare." Mr. Hunting and Miss Smith were second, while Mr. A. Jefferts and Miss Knight won third place.

The golden wedding ceremonies of Mr. and Mrs. Philip May began with a capital mass this morning at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's Catholic Church. The wedding procession, headed by the ushers, Mr. Philip Henlock, Mr. Henry Nau, Mr. Robert Berberich and Mr. Bernard Weiss.

Then followed the youngest grandchildren, dressed in white, with yellow satin ribbons; other relatives and the ushers and bridesmaids. The bride, Miss May, wearing a gown of white tulle, with a long train, and a crown of white flowers, was escorted by Mr. May, Messrs. Philip, George and Frank May and Mrs. Cammack and Mrs. Muller.

The altar was heavily draped in gold and brilliant with lights and flowers. Rev. Father Gahagan, assisted by Fathers Ryan and Fitzgerald, celebrated the grand high mass. The sacerdotal robes were also of gold brocade.

Prof. William Weldecker played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the wedding party entered. The choir, consisting of Miss Whitehead, Miss Eshom, Mr. Mosher and Mr. Rebeck, rendered Katharina's mass with Gibbels's Gaudeteus at the offertory.

Mr. May wore a handsome gown of black silk, trimmed with gold passementerie, and the ushers and members of the family wore golden rod buttonholes. After the mass the entire family accompanied by the officiating clergymen repaired to the residence of Mr. May, where they were entertained at breakfast. The church was crowded with friends. Mr. and Mrs. May will hold a reception from 6 to 9 this evening.

A very pretty wedding took place this morning at 11:30 at the Concordia Lutheran Church, at the corner of Twentieth and G streets, the contracting parties being Miss Anna Hines, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hines, and Mr. Hugh M. Cline. The ushers were Mr. William Matheson, Mr. J. W. Johnson, Mr. F. L. Stein and Mr. H. H. Darnelle.

Rev. Ernest Davids performed the ceremony. As the wedding party entered the church, Prof. Meyer played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." Immediately after the ceremony the young couple were driven to the depot and left for New York and Boston.

The bride wore a stylish gown of dark blue cloth with large hat covered with ostrich plumes, and carried a shower bunch of bride roses tied with long white ribbons. After returning, Mr. and Mrs. Cline will go to housekeeping at the corner of Massachusetts avenue and First street northeast.

Mr. James Brennan, of the Interior Department, has returned, after a month's vacation. Mr. Edwin P. Hall, assistant chief of the board of pensions, has returned, after a ten days' outing.

Mr. John J. Fitzgerald, of the Sixth Auditor's Office, has returned to the city, after a few days' outing at Arundel-on-the-Bay.

Miss Annie Fogel, of South Washington, has gone to Chantilly, Va., to spend a few days.

Miss Nannie Mayer, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. P. Rice, of Alexandria, Va., is now with her friends in York, Pa.

Miss Clara Truworthy, of Sixth and B streets southwest, has returned, after a two weeks' outing at Colonial Beach.

Mrs. Rosie Welch, of M street southwest, left Sunday for Baltimore, where she will reside permanently.

Mrs. William Boylen and her daughter, Irma May, are visiting Miss Pamela Webber, in Louisville, Ky., and will not return until October.

Miss M. K. Ellis, of the bureau of navigation, Treasury Department, and her nephew have returned from a month's vacation at Atlantic City.

Let's talk about serge suits for early Fall—the best wearing—best looking all round material on earth—that's the verdict of women generally.

We have suits in Plain Serge and Cheviot Serge—Box Reeler Suits—colors, black and navy blue—full five-yard skirts—skirts lined throughout—velvet bound—properly large sleeves—at $9.95.

$5 Silk Waists, $2.69.

$2.69.

Bon Marche,

314 and 316 7th St.

WISH WOMEN TO LEARN

Professors Who Favor Their Admission to Catholic University.

Rev. Daniel Quinn and Others Will Advocate It When the Board of Trustees Meet.

Rev. Daniel Quinn, president of the Academy of Hellenic Arts, is one of the most enthusiastic members of the faculty in regard to the vital question now at issue—admitting women to the Catholic University.

The doctor said to-day to a Times reporter that any lady who wishes to enter a preparatory course must consult the president of the academy.

Personally Dr. Quinn favors admitting ladies to the academies, and he says great influence will be brought to bear on this point at the meeting of the directors on October 1. In regard to normal classes of nuns being educated at the university, such classes have been formed in different European cities.

Another member of the new faculty who favors higher education is Dr. Henry Hyman, professor of archaeology, and Prof. Egan and Stoddard also expect to have many ladies in the English literature classes.

Rev. Charles Graman has been appointed to the duty of faculty, to succeed Dr. Thomas O'Gorman.

The enrolling of the students in the boarding school for 1895-96 begins this evening at 6 p. m. The college will be formally opened at 9 o'clock on Monday when solemn high mass of the Holy Ghost will be celebrated in the Dahlgren Memorial Chapel.

Columbian University. A pleasant reunion of traveling Columbian professors took place recently in Springfield, Mass. Among them were Maj. J. W. Powell, Dr. Edgar Frisby, F. H. Knowlton, Cleveland Abbot, Charles E. Monroe and Francis R. Fava.

Mr. Elmer S. Farwell, C. E. and instructor in mechanical engineering, has been elected a member of the National Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, and will be a delegate to the next convention.

Class work will be resumed at the Columbian College on the 18th.

Georgetown University. There were busy scenes about the big gray buildings in Georgetown on this morning. The school year will be formally begun tomorrow, but to-day crowds of students were arriving, and the faculty was getting things in readiness. Solemn mass will be celebrated at 9 o'clock to-morrow in Dahlgren Chapel.

A formal address will be made to the assembled students by the president of the school, Rev. J. Havens Richards.

From the chapel the faculty and students will assemble in the Gaston Alumni Memorial Hall, where the class lists will be read and the promotions announced. The school brevia, or short class, will be given in all the branches. The regular classes will form in the afternoon and the work of the year commenced.

An old landmark has passed away from the college grounds in taking away the pump which stood in front of the refectory for nearly a hundred years. There is a legend that the Father of our country drank water from this pump on the occasion of his first visit to the institution.

A Give-Away Toward. Mr. William Fearing Gill, whose divorce proceedings against his wife are now claiming attention, is a man of considerable ability and has figured in a great many publications. He has been an editor, a publisher, a theatrical manager, an author, and a cab-driver. It was his paternal parent the famous Boston patriotic dinner-party story was told. "My father fought in the Revolution," he commenced, upon being called on for a speech. At this the company cheered boisterously and patriotically, rising to its feet and drinking a toast to the memory of the departed. "I was about to add when you interrupted me," continued the speaker, "that it was on the British side." Whereupon the company laughed as good-naturedly as it could. "Will Carleton's Everywhere."

Mr. William Fearing Gill, whose divorce proceedings against his wife are now claiming attention, is a man of considerable ability and has figured in a great many publications. He has been an editor, a publisher, a theatrical manager, an author, and a cab-driver. It was his paternal parent the famous Boston patriotic dinner-party story was told. "My father fought in the Revolution," he commenced, upon being called on for a speech. At this the company cheered boisterously and patriotically, rising to its feet and drinking a toast to the memory of the departed. "I was about to add when you interrupted me," continued the speaker, "that it was on the British side." Whereupon the company laughed as good-naturedly as it could. "Will Carleton's Everywhere."

EDUCATIONAL. 1864. EDUCATION FOR REAL LIFE FOR BOYS AND DAUGHTERS. The Spectator Business College, National Hall of the Republic Building, cor. 7th and D n.w. Day and night.

SPENCERIAN. In the National Capital and throughout the country, it is a household word, associated with thorough business training and a prosperous career.

The thirty-first scholastic year of this popular institution begins Monday, September 2, 1895. Five departments: viz., Practical business, including complete bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting, including English; Spencerian Rapid Writing, Mechanical and Agricultural Drawing. Full corps of thoroughly trained teachers. Location central.

Spacious, brilliantly lighted, handsome halls and classrooms. Service of graduates always in demand. Terms moderate, but no competition with cheap schools. The leading business men of Washington were trained by the Marine Band at the Capitol, their sons and daughters and candidates for employment here for training.

Full college course, a diploma from the World's Columbian commission, a diploma for "Excellence of Students' Work" in all of the above departments.

Office open every business day and night, on and after Monday, August 12. Write or call for new annual announcement. MR. J. A. A. SPENCER, Principal and Proprietor.

MARINE BAND CONCERT. The following programme will be rendered by the Marine Band at the Capitol this evening: 1. March—"The King of Kings." 2. Overture—"The Play's the Thing." 3. Waltz—"The Blue Bird." 4. Selection—"La Gioconda" (by request). 5. Song—"The Rose Tree." 6. Descriptive—"A Day with Troup A." 7. "Hail Columbia." Fyles

IT CURES DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, NERVOUSNESS, HEADACHE, MIGRAINE, BRUISES, SCALDS, BURNS, WOUNDS, SORES, AND ALL THE AFFECTIONS OF THE SKIN. It is the most reliable and most effective medicine ever discovered. It is the only medicine that can be taken at any time, in any place, and by any person. It is the only medicine that is guaranteed to cure all the above ailments. It is the only medicine that is sold in every part of the world. It is the only medicine that is so cheap and so effective. It is the only medicine that is so easy to take and so pleasant to the taste. It is the only medicine that is so safe and so reliable. It is the only medicine that is so well known and so highly recommended. It is the only medicine that is so effective and so reliable. It is the only medicine that is so cheap and so effective. It is the only medicine that is so easy to take and so pleasant to the taste. It is the only medicine that is so safe and so reliable. It is the only medicine that is so well known and so highly recommended. It is the only medicine that is so effective and so reliable. It is the only medicine that is so cheap and so effective. It is the only medicine that is so easy to take and so pleasant to the taste. It is the only medicine that is so safe and so reliable. It is the only medicine that is so well known