Lansburgh & Bro

IF YOU DON'T CARE MUCH FOR STYLE,

BUT DO CARE

FOR COMFORT,

You can get it here at as small a cost as was ever offered you.

year's Coats for Ladies in the most durable material, which will be offered you as follows:

Ladies' Coats, mostly black and navy, with fur trimming and plain finish, different sizes. Worth from $12 to $22. To close out the lot-

$3.98 Each.

Engagements Announced.

Columbian College is enjoying a boom. The new president, Dr. B. L. Whitman, has a most magnetic personality and delights all those with whom he comes in con-tact. He is a giant in build, as behooves a native of Nova Scotla to be, and has a whole souled, lusty way with him that is very attractive. Educated in the Pine Tree

State, it was there, as president of Colby, that his first laurels were won. He has impressed the alumui that they must help on the good work of giving their alma mater a permanent place among the universities, and they are working like beavers to that

The people connected with the Olinstead will case are so well known in Washington that it excites upusual interest. Mr. Hutchinson, the father of the sisters, Mrs. Olmstead, the testatrix, and Mrs. Webb; the plaintiff, was one of the most popular men about town, a bon vivant and a royal good

Mr. Olmstead, the defendant, was for rears Mr. Hutchinson's most intimate friend and his man of business. His marriage with Miss Hutchinson received the warmest approval of both parents, and until Mr. Hutch iuson's death they were a very united family.

Public opinion is widely divided on the subject of the will, both Mr. Olinstend and Mrs. Webb having large tollowings. Since the death of her father Mrs. Wenb, who was divorced from her first husband and married about two years ago, has resided with hermother, who isone or the wenithiest women in town. By the provisions of their father's will neither Mrs. Webb nor Mrs.

Olimstead were to inherit until the death or their mether, and should the will be sus-tained Mr. Olimstead would not come into possession of his property until that event.

One of the most familiar figures on the streets of Washington is that of Admiral

Stevens, wrapped in his naval cloak. He was noted during the war for his personal bravery, and it is told of him that he never longht his ship from the turret, but re-manned always ondeck, pacing up and down, seemingly fearless in the midst of greatest Commander Matan in his "Navy in the Civil War" says in his account of the bat-tic at Mobile, "As they passed, the ad-miration of the officers of the flagship and the Metaconet was aroused by the sight of Commander Stevens of the Winne-bago, waiking quietly, giving his orders, from turret to turret, of his unwieldy ves-sel, directly under the enemy's guns." Admiral Stevens inherited the love of his profession from his father, who was an officer of renown, and was only a lad when he determined to enter the Navy. Everything was done to dissuade him, but to no purpose. This perseverance has re-sulted well for his country, for which he

Miss Corinne Muson was tendered a sur-prise pantomime party last night at her home on East Capitol street by her friends of the G. B. D. Clab, which proved a pleas-of the G. B. D. Club, which proved a pleas-ant affair. Each guest came masked in a shapeless domino, and as unbroken silence was maintained until the signal for supper, many ladicrous errors were made. The la-dies who charged themselves with the duty of uspacking the substantial hamper and arranging its contents on the tables were Mrs. R. Anderson, Mrs. Madison, Miss M. Mason, and Mrs. E. Meloy.

Among the guests present were Misses Mamie and Estelle Cutter, Louise Hay, Johanna Meloy, Authurn Barnes, Katie Latra, Guerrei Ratter, Nella Loweder, Leile Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cornwall, of No.

58 I street northwest, have returned from a month's visit to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Davis, of New Jersey avenue, will return this evening from the Atlanta Exposition.

Edward Moreen and Fred Alston will leave tomorrow for a duck-shooting trip along the shores of 8t. Clement's Bay.

J. K. Jepson and his daughter. Miss Callie

Jepson, of Brooklyn, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carter, of New York ave-nue-northwest. After a brief visite-hey will leave for the Atlanta Exposition and

Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Morse have given up their home in East Washington and will spend the winter with Mrs. Margaret E. Benner, of Tenleytown.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Connor gave a party Monday evening to their little daugh-ter. Effic, in honor of her thirteenth birth-day, at their home on Capitol Hill. There were many pretty features introduced in dances by the young hostess and a sailor's reel by Master Datton Wade. Among those present were Misses Flossie and Elsie White, Nellie Baker, Ollie Con-nover, Flora Pattison, Julie McGrath, Dottie Davison, Mollie Miller, Gracie Stephens, and Masters John France, Jack Stephens, Ned Barker, Teddie Adams, Lewellen Barry, Johnnie Miller, and Harry and Julian Howe.

Miss Louise E. Miller of South Washingto gave an informal reception to her friends Monday evening to introduce her guest, Miss Ella Jonnings of Pittsburg, who will spend the season here.

spend the season here.

Among those present were Miss Mamie Hodges, Miss Estelle Posey, Miss Flora
Brown, Miss Marian Allen, Miss Agnes Harrison, Miss Iney Ferguson, Miss Estelle Ellis, and Messrs. S. E. Allen, B.
Markhan, Thomas Barber, H. E. Jackson, Herses, Wells, F. O. Christer, J. J.

Horace Wells, F. Q. Culinane, John F. Carson, P. B. Allen, and Harry E. Dale.

Mr. M. M. Connor, Mr. Le Roy Porter, Mr. Frank Emerson, and Mr. J. H. Allison are duck hunting in lower Maryland and will not return until the 22d instant.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Davis have gone to Frederick to attend the wedding of Miss Kate Houcke to Mr. N. E. Cramer.

Miss Minnie Lee Josephs of Philadelphia was a recent guest of Miss Romaine San-ders of Washington Heights. At the con-clusion of her visit Miss Josephs, accom-panied by her hostess, left for Richmond to attend the wedding of a mutual friend.

An enjoyable ten was given by Miss N. Marars, of No. 476 K street southwest, to her friends Thursday, November 7. Amethose present were Misses C. Greenwell the ribbon cotillion, besides seve at far other points of interest in the South has done most gallant service.

Ladies' Black Wool Jersey Coats, satin lined, different sizes. Worth from $8 to $12.50-

For 98c Each. In order that these shall not conflict with the sales of this year's garments we have placed them on our third floor. Basy-going elevator will take you there.

Think of a Hair 15c Brush for

SOLID WOOD

BACK,

25c Value for 15c.

Displayed on Separate Table, Notion Department.

jansbuigh orBro

420, 422; 424, 426 7th St.

S. Kann, Sons 8th and Market Space.

Ladies'

Extra Quality Hand-knit Sewing Silk Mitts, the greatest value ever offered in fine goods. Special good value at $1.00.

Tomorrow

S. Kann, Sons & Co

8th and Market Space.

UNDERTAKERS

J. WILLIAM LEE. UNDERTAKER, 332 Pa. Ave. N. W. First-class service. 'Phone, 1385. 194-6m

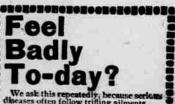

MARRIED. STODDERT—HEREFORD—At Union, W.Va., November 6, 1895, Katharine Smart Hereford, of West Virginia, to Robert Wil-lam Bowle Stoddert, of St. Mary's county, Md.

(8t. Mary's papers please copy.)

DARNEILLE—JACKSON—Hopewell H.
Darneille and Mary Cauby Jackson, at residence of Rev. Dr. Addison, of Trinity P. E.
Church, at 3 p. m., November 12, 1895. DIED.

INDERMAUER—On Tuesday, November 12, 1895, Mrs. Jane Indermauer, beloved wife of Jeremtah Indermauer. Notice of funeral hereafter.

Brown's iron Bitters appetite and can't work, begin at once taking the most re-liable strengthening medicine, which is Brown's Iron Bitters. Benefit comes from

IT CURES

KIDNEY AND LIVES
TROUBLES,
IMPUNE BLOOD,
NERVOUS AILMENTS
MEN'S COMPLAINTS. Get only the genuine—it has crossed red lines on the wrapper.

BROWN CHEMICAL CO. BALTIMORE, MP.

Greenwell, A. Ferris, L. Harrison, D. Katle, E. Katle, B. Taylor, B. Geahart, N. Katle, A. Ratcliff, K. Finor, C. Taylor and Messrs. J. Greenwell, J. Hammack, H. Pfileger, C. Little, H. Harrison and Mr.

5

Miss Florence Beardman will leave the city Wednesday for New York to visit the horse show. She will be the guest of her cousin, Miss Furniss, of Fifth avenue. Miss Josephine Boardman is in Cirveland, and will not return for two weeks.

Count Zichy, whose engagement to Mrs. Ferdinant Znaga, of New York, has been so frequently rumored, is in the city, and was the guest of friends at the Metropolitan Mer. John Foster entertained at a small dinner last evening at her handso on I street northwest.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Krogstad, with their children, were among those who occupied boxes today- to see "The Brownies."

Mrs. Elizabeth Horsfall, of Poughkeep-sie, N. Y., while making an extended tour of the South, will spend a few days as the guest of Miss Mabel H. Brown.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Cloyd Kept and Lieut, Gordon Graham Heiner, of the Fourth United States Artillery, which occurred yesterday at Emmanuel Church, Raltimore, was a brilliant affair. The groom were full dress uniform, as did his attendants, the gorgeous coloring adding much to the gay effects. The church was elab-orately decorated with pains and ferns and white chrysanthemums adorned the

The bride wore a gown of heavy white satin en traine, the bodice draped with point d'Alencon lace. Her tulle veil was caughr with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of Mermet roses, tied with broad satin ribbons. The bridesmaids, Miss Edith Heiner of this city, sister of the groom; Bessie Clark, Mary Coiston, Nancy Ellicott, Sallie Bala-win and Emily E. Wilkins, were costumed in white tulle over silk, trimmed with white satin ribbons and wore aigrettes in their hair. Their bouquets were of Meteor roses.

The bride was escorted by Mr. Clarence Jackson, her uncle, who gave her away.
Capt. Julian M. Cabell of Richmond, Va., acted as best man, and the usters were the following lieutenants in the army: Archibald Campbell, Third Artillery; Robertson Honey and Clarence Williams of the Fourth Artillery; D. M. King and J. C. Gilmor, Ir., of the Fourth Artillery, and B. F. Heyer of the Sixth Cavalry. George Small Franklin and Walter Franklin held the white ribbons between which the party passed. acted as best man, and the ushers we

After the ceremony, which was per-formed by Rev. J. Houston Eccleston, assisted by Rev. Dr. Addison of Washington, A reception was held at the bome of the aunt of the bride, Mrs. George Small, Mount Vernon Place.
Licut, and Mrs. Heiner left later for New York, and will presently take quarters at Washington Barracks, where Licut, Heiner is stationed. ner is stationed.

Mrs. Lorin M. Saunders will be at home

Johanna Meloy, Auburn Barnes, Katie Latia, Georgie Butler, Nellie Lowndes, Lulie Paul, Alma and Kate Davison, Letty Baker, Mary Gregory, Ella and Kathie Davis, Leutin Long, Pauline White, Aggie Barnet, and Nettle Sturgis, and Messrs, Frank Howard, Lloyd Barnes, Sam Butler, G. E. Paul, B. Harrison, Charles E. Johnson, Jack San-derson, J. Gregory, T. B. Miller, Edward K. White, and John B. Miles. The engagement is announced of Miss The engagement is announced of Miss Caroline Caldwell Jenkins, daughter of the late Rear Admiral Jenkins, to Rev. W. G. Andrews. D. D., of Connecticut. The wedding will take place at the Milton Flats on Wednesday, December 11, at noon, which is the home of the sister of the bride, Mrs. Parker. Only intimate friends and refa-

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sountag, of No. 352 I street southwest, gave a pleasant affair I street evening last. Music and dancing were enjoyed until a late hour, when the guests adjourned to the dining-room, wher bountiful collation was served.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Allman, Mr. and Mrs. McNulty, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. McInberg, Mr.

and Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Coursey, Mrs. Donohoe, Mrs. Downey and son, Mattames Roach, Van Valkenbarg, Sugrie, Misses A. Fitzgerald, K. Smith, A. Leonard, E. Kaiser, M. Katser, K. Sollers, S. Fahrmein, A. Fahrmein, A. Comsey, Messrs, C. Rison, C. Eartilmes, G. Smith, C. C. Berry, C. J. Mahoney, J. Sullivan, Cooley, H. Manders, Whalen, Zeligan, C. Marshall, Sondermann, Willis, Meyers, King, Young, G. Gallaham, E. Davis, Winckler, Josef, and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Almeric Paget went to Mr. and Mrs. Almeric Pager went to Hartford on the 4 o'clock train yesterday afternoon. There they took the train on the New England road and got off at Hop River, about twenty-six miles east of the city, where they were met by a carriage and driven to Henry F. Dimock's farm, in South Coventry, over five miles of the roughest road in Connecticut. They arrived at 10 o'clock. arrived at 10 o'clock.

The Dimock farm is one of the finest in the State. In response to a request for information as to his plans, Mr. Paget said that he begged to be excused.

On Thursday evening an oyster supper and hop will be given by the members of the lathest aid societies anxiliary to Phil Kear-ney and Cushing caups, Sons of Veterars, at Golden Cross Hall, No. 316 ePansylvania avenue southeast. Asmail admission fee will be charged. The proceeds will be used for charitable purposes.

Mrs. Mary A. C. Little and sister, Mrs. Chrissie Miller, are visiting Mrs. Joseph B. Walling of North A street.

Miss Elizabeth Tanner and Mr. Arthur Miss Elizabeta Tanner and Mr. Arthur Herbert Goldsmith, of New York, wene mar-ried last evening at St. Stephen's Episco-pai Church. Mr. Howard F. Goldsmith, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Mamie W. Dickey acted as maid of mor. The ushers were Messrs, Frederick

B. Pyle, Charles F. Lensner, John B. Sieman, jr., and William E. McLeod.
The bride was escorted by her father, Capt. Charles B. Tauner, and wore an exquisite gown of white satin and chiffon, with talle veil and penris. Her bouquet was of wellte roses, one was preceded up the alise by choristers and the maid of honor, the latter gowned in blue bronde and carrying cloth of gold roses.

The chancel was beautifully decorated with chrysanthenams, and musical numbers were sung throughout the ceremony. Hev. George Fiske Dudley officiated and Mr. McLeod was organist. Mr. and Mrs. Goldsmith left later for a wedding trip, and will make their home on Long Island, N. Y.

young people of Foundry M. E. Church had a very pleasant time at their monthly social held last evening. The host was Mr. Irving O. Ball, who was cieverly assisted by his estimable wife. The spacious pariers of the H-stel Hamilton were tastefully decorated. The "chest-nut" feature of the entertainment dispensed with all undue formality.

with all ondue formality.

The musical programme was most enjoyable. Miss Kryder rendered a plano solo; Mr. Ball, Miss Altschu and Miss Bush sang; Miss Burdette gave a selection on the banjo, and Mr. William Wahley made a good hit in a burlesque recifation. A collation was served, the private dining rooms of the hotel being specially decorated for the coccasion. Prominent among those present were Rev. Dr. Brown, the pastor, and wife; Mr. and Mrs. Mason, H. Richardson, Dr. Bates, Dr. Appler, and lady, Mr. Ward and wife, Mr. Bains and wife, Dr. Heinike and mother, Misses Miller, Heaton, Denham, Pitzhugh, the Misses Young, the Misses Chandlee, Mrs. Woolard, Misses Kennedy, Wahley, and Messrs. Anderson, Hodgkins, Mathews, Cahill, Net Tower, Charles Dunham, Barton Brown, Henry Altschu and many others.

The C. E. Society of Faith Chapel tendered a surprise party to Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Dewey of No. 328 K street south-west last evening, it being the seventeenth anniversary of their married life. The house was well filled by their friends and many remembrances of the occasion were in evidence.

Among those present were Rev. and Arrong (nose present were Rev. and Mrs. Werren, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Sulli-van, Mrs. Chrismond, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Duffy, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Ferry, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Sonneman, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Henning and Misses Ferry, Bowdler, Mayere, Harrison, Greenwell, Luckat, West and Little Luckett, West and Little; Messrs, Holms Little, J. Taylor, L. Taylor, Miller, Sulli-van, Duffy, Bonnett, Pfleiger, Murphy, Harrison, and little Winfred Warren and Master Albert S. Dewey.

Quite the most delightful subject for discussion and arrangement among the younger set of society just now is the series of dinner sector society just now is the series of dinner dances they are planning for the coming season. According to the present decision there will be six of these brilliant gatherings during the winter, beginning in December. Mrs. Howland, Mrs. Brice, Mrs. Hay, Mrs.

Townsend, Mrs. Barney and Mrs. Boardman will in turn be hostess for a dance. Each evening chosen five of these ladies will entertain at dinner a party of sixteen, all adjoirning to the house of the sixth lady later.

The cotillion favors which are imported are valuable and altogether novel and Comfort and Health for 59c.

cent wool, shirts silk faced, pearl buttons, finished seams-drawers, tape seams, sateen faced. Sold elsewhere for $1. Our price 59c.

BON MARCHE, 314 and 316 7th St. N.W.

add fresh interest to the old figures, and beauty to those that are new. About one hundred of the smartest maids and matrons, with their attendant cavaliers will make up the lucky number. The girls are talking of nothing else, and the mer are deeply interested. Mrs. George M. Sternberg, wife of Gen. Sternberg, U. S. A., entertained at a tea yesterday afternoon from 4 to 7 at her home, No. 1019 Sixteenth street north-

The handsome drawing-room, hall, and dining-room already artistically decorated with exquisite bric-a-brae and drap-ries and souvenirs of life at the Western posts and souvening of life at the Western posts in the form of bend work and buckskin curiosities of original American skill, were made fragrant and more beautiful with flowers.

Palms and ferns were arranged in every corner or niche, tall vases of American Beauty roses, and monster chrysanthemans of every bue, added to the picturesque rroundings.

Mrs. Sternberg received her friends in Miss. Sternberg received her friends in the drawing-room, surrounded by a bevy of attractive young women, Mrs. Leon Wood, Miss Miles, Miss Breckinridge, Miss Ennis, Miss Leiber, Miss Buntington and Miss Gockrell. In the dining-room fees were served and champagne punch added its sparkle to the occusion. Gen. Sternberg moved among the guests. Gen. Sternberg moved among the guests welcoming them with hospitable warmth.

Among those present were: Mrs. Leiber, wife of Gen. Norman Leiber; Dr. Francis Leiber, Gen. Barchelder, Gen. and Mrs. Wilson, Gen. Barchelder, Gen. and Mrs. Saxton, Gen. and Mrs. C. H. Smith, Col. and Mrs. Claussen, Mrs. Rosa Wright Smith, Col. and Mrs. Alden, Col. and Mrs. Forward, Mrs. and Mrs. Unl., Miss Uhl, Capt. and Mrs. Crosby Miller, Capt. and Mrs. E. And Mrs. Crosby Miller, Capt. and Mrs. E.
Z. Steever, Surgeon and Mrs. Adair.
Surgeon and Mrs. Walter Reid,
Major and Mrs. C. I. Wilson,
Miss Waller, Col. and Mrs. Vincent, Dr.
Vincent, Col. and Mrs. Eliot, Col. and Mrs. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Hemphill, Col. and Mrs. Weeks, Lieut, Commander and Mrs. Eaton, U. S. N.; Lieut, and Mrs.
Gallagher, Miss Tennils Mrs. I. O. Evans. Gallagher, Miss Temple, Mrs. J. O. Evans Mrs. O'Rielly, wife of Surg. R. M. O'Reilly; Major and Mrs. Poole, Miss Poole, Mrs. George W. Davis, wife of Major Davis; the Misses Davis, Lieut. and Mrs. Kennon. Lieut. and Mrs. J. R. Williams, Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. Cushing, Miss. Licateriant Colonel and Mrs. Cushing, Miss Cushing, Licatetant William C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Van Wyck, Capt. and Mrs. Walter Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Gallaudet, Dr. Charles Simart, U. S. A., Miss Smart, Gen and Mrs. O. B. Wilcox, Mrs. J. H. Gordon, Capt. and Mrs. J. M. Lancaster, Capt. and Mrs. Cettin, Miss Catin, Col. and Mrs. J. E. Shumpers, Miss Summers, Major and E. Summer*, Miss Summers, Major and Mrs. Charles Byrd, Mrs. Seth Shepherd. Mrs. Charles Byrd, Mrs. Seth Shepherd, Gen. and Mrs. George A Forsythe, Capt. and Mrs. McNally, Mrs. Condit-Smith, Miss Condit-Smith, Major and Mrs. J. B. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson, Lieutenant and Mrs. Thomas Cruse, and others. Mrs. Sternberg will give a second

Miss Margaret Belle Blaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Blaine, was mar-ried to Dr. Henry J. Crosson yesterday evening at 6:30 o'clock, at St. Peter's Church, by Rev. Father Sullivan, assistant passor of the church. During the seating of the vast number of guests who crowded the church to witness the ceremony, Miss Naunie Kearon, the organist, played geros from the different operas, changing the strains to the bridal march from Lobengrin as the bridal party entered the portals.

The bride and her father passed up the nisie, preceded by six ushers. Mr. Gillespie Blaine, brother of the bride; Dr. Charles Kooms, Mr. Barry Buckley, Mr. Cuthbert Trescott, Mr. Snowden Ashford, and Mr. Kemp. These were followed by six britdesmaids, Miss May Blaine, sister of the bride; Miss Blandine Blanford, Miss Irene Entwistle, Miss Daisy Watts, Miss Waggerset Ather of Builtoness and Miss Margaret Atlee of Baltimore, and Miss Margaret Atlee of Baltimore, and Miss Frances Hill of Virginia. The maid of honor was Miss Nina Blaine, a younger sister of the bride. Dr. Crosson, attended by his best man, Dr. Wolhaupter, met the bridal party at the gates of the sanctuary, where Father Sullivan stood also waiting receive them.

The bride was magnificently robed in ivory satin, trimmed with Irish point. Her yell, a gift of her cousin, Mrs. Truxton Beall, was caught over the forehead by a star burst of diamonds, one of the gifts of the groom. She carried Marechal Nich roses tied with satin bows. Miss Nina Blaine's dress was of pink stik veiled with silver tissue and her roses were La France. The bridesmaids were in gowns of white organdle over white silk, with sastes and slippers of white satin. Each of them wore a boar of smilax, attached by ribbons to bouquets of white queen chrysanthemums, and each wore white blossoms in

The bride's traveling dress was of tan mohair poplin, trimmed with golden brown velvet, with a small hat of the same color, and tan shoes and gloves to match.

The ceremony was followed by a supper for the bridal party and immediate family alone; Mr. and Mrs. Crosson leaving dur-ing the evening for Atlanta and other points of interest in the South.

The church was decorated artistically with paims and chrysauthenums, and the altar was brilliant with lights. The priests present in the sanctuary during the cere-mony were, Rev. Dr. Stafford of St. Pat-rick's, Rev. Father Larkin of St. Cecelia's. Rev. Father Hughes of St. Teresa's, Anacos-tia; Rev. Father Bart of St. Matthew's, Rev. Father Matthew of St. Cyprian's, Rev. P. H. McKenna of St. Charles College, Md.; and Rev. Father De Vines of St. John's, Baltimore,

To drive tandem correctly and gracefully is a gift, a talent. Many drive tandem wisely but few, well. Miss McLanahan, who may be met on the road ways any fine aftern in her natural wood cart, daintily gowned andguiding the course of two high stepping sorrel cobs, handles the ribbons in a style that elicits admiration from even the most cymical of those who know how the thing should be done.

The vis-a-vis seems to have taken firm holdin popular fancy. Onnot these friendly, cosy vehicles, dark green and drab trimmings, has just been added to the Brices collection of traps. The Argentine minister has a brand-new brougham, by the way, and Freddie Bugher's new stables are quite finished. Miss Gale, will bring back a pair of horses bought at the horse show in New York; and, altogether, Washington drives promise many new attractions. drives promise many new attractions. Everybody is talking horse just now.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Van Hora of New York, ave removed from the Richmond, where bey have been since their return from broad, to No. 920 Seventeenth street, there they will reside during the sea

WONDERFUL CLOAK SELLING

We have bunched the remainder of the $20,000 stock of M. Gilder & Co. of New

Every Coat and Cape for ladies and children that sold before for $11.50, $5.98 Every Coat and Cape for Indies and children that sold before for $10.50, $8.50

There are Kerseys, Beavers, Boucles, rough and smooth effects, all beautifully made, lined and finished.

Two Startling Millinery Items. 75c. and $1.00 Ladies', Misses and Children's Hats, 48c. Hats and Flats of all shapes and col-ors, best quality American and Ene-lish Felis—new and fascinating 486.

50c. and 35c. Tam o'Shanter Caps, 16c Misses' and Children's Caps and Tam o'Shanters—in shepherd's plaids—all colors, tashionable and pretty, 16c.

KING'S PALACE 812 and 814 7th St. N. W.

morning in the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. T. E. Williams, of the Boundary Avenue Presbyterian Church, Battimore, officiated. Mr. Pickering Dodge is a member of the University Club, and socially well known.

Admiral McNair, U. S. N., will leave November 22 for the Orient, where he will take charge of the Asiatic Squadron. Mrs. McNair will accompany him. Lieutenaut Reamey, who has received an appointment for the same station, will leave at the same time, accompanied by his wife and child. Lieutenaut Remacy has spent some time in the East and is most happy over the prospect of returning.

Mrs. W. H. Gaines and Miss Lizzie Gaines of Warrenton, Va., are at the

Mrs. and Miss Sickles of Alexandria county, Va., are at the Richmond for the season.

The president of Georgetown College has promised to give a turkey dinner to the winning football team. The event is looked forward to with much glee by the '98 team, which has not been scored against.

Mrs. McCorkie of No. 504 Fifth avenue New York, will arrive in the city to-day to winter at the Richmond, where she has taken apartments.

Prof. H. Carrington Bolton and Mrs. Bolton will winter at the Richmond. Mrs. Bolton was Miss Henrietta Irving of Staten Island. She is attractive and witty, and will be a delightful addition to Washington society. She is a great niece of the celebrated author, Washington Irving

A pleasant birthday party was given ast evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Louis Ferher, 504 Seventh street southcast, the occasion being the twenty-second birthday of Mr. Ferber. Music was en-joyed until a late hour, when the guests adjourned to the dining room, which was tastefully desorated with flowers, and a delicious supper served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Ferber, Mr. Mr. and Mrs. John Ferber, Mr. present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Ferber, sr., Mr. and Mrs. John Ferber, Jr., Mr. Walter Gordon, Mrs. Maggie Gordon, Mrs. Cockerille, Mr. and Mrs. Wassmann, Miss Mary Gordon, Miss Ida Jones, Mr. Henry Prediger, Master Fred Ferber, Mr. Leon-hard Ferber, Mr. Earl Cockerille.

The marriage of Miss Mary Capby Jack-The marriage of Miss Mary Carby Jackson and Mr. Hopewell H. Darnellle was solemnized at 3 p. m. yesterday afternoon, at the residence of Rev. Dr. Thomas Addison of Trinity P. E. Church, in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Rich, assistant rector of Trinity. Mr. and Mrs. Darnellle left later for a northern tour.

The Potomac Literary Club held a meeting last night at the residence of Mr. Chauncey Hickox, No. 459 G street northness affairs of the club a programme of music and recitation was given, preceded by an essay by Dr. W. A. Creffut, entitled "The Trials of a Tourist." Those who assisted Dr. Croffut to entertain the large audience were Miss Cora Ponn, Miss Flor ence Henry King, Mrs. Helen S. Rapley, Miss Blachoff, Miss Mabel Wilmarth, Miss Mary L. Lloyd, Miss Heiberger, Mr. Edwin F. Campbell, Mr. Walter Humphrey, and Mr. George Hensey.

Among the members and their friends

Among the memoers and their friends present were Mrs. M. A. Naylor, Mrs. L. A. Brudley, Mrs. M. J. Tulley, Mrs. M. A. Aus-lin, Miss Emma Austin, Mrs. T. H. Me-Kee, Mr. Charence A. Proctor, Mr. George A. Brown, and Mr. Frank I. Willis.

The members of U. S. Grant Circle, No. 1, an order of the ladies of the G. A. R., gave an entertainment and social for the benefit of the families of poor soldiers at Typographical Temple last night, which proved a successful affair. The programme included music, recitations and dancing, followed by refreshments inter on. Among the members present were Mrs. Royce, president of the circle; Mrs. Addie

Unlaundered

All the rage! Pearl Garnitures. They give a lady's dress the daimlest, prettiest effect possi-ble. We have them

$2.75 * $10.50.

all-pearl, pearl and gold, and pearl and

COHER'S TRIMMING STORE. 523 11th st. nw.

ANTON LERCH. Dyeing, Cleaning and Dry Cleaning, 826 12th Street Northwest. Works, 120-1288 I Street Northwest.

Perkins, vice-president; Mrs. Houghtaling, chaplain; Miss Carrie Shinn, treas-urer, and Mrs. Sneedon, Miss Mattie Lin-toln, Miss Engle, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. O'Con-neil, Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Lennon, Mrs. Meyers.

The ladies of the Southern Relief Society have good reasons to feel greatly en-couraged at the bright prospect of a large attendance at their grand musicale and dramatic entertainment at Metzerott's Music Hall on Friday evening next, for the laudable and praiseworthy object of raising funds for the needy Confederate veterans and their dependents in the District of Columbia.

were given a surprise party last night by several members of the Retlaw Club, which several members of the Rethaw Club, which proved a delightful affair. An attractive feature of the evening was the banjo trio by Mr. Florent M. Meline, Miss Katle McGirk and Mr. W. Scott Stetson. Among those present were Miss Mary Burch, Miss Effic Ricketts, Miss Ellen Knight, Miss Virgle Bonen, Miss Janie Bryan, Miss Ida Starr, Mr. William S. Miller, Mr. George Gaddas, Mr. Thomas Warters, Mr. Lee Chass, Mr. George Turner, Mr. Scott Nostets, Mr. George Turner, Mr. Scott Nostets, Mr. George Turner, Mr. Stott Nostets, Mr. George Unipson, A straw rider which bad been arranged by Misses Meilne and Stetson, was then taken to Burnt Mills and after returning at an early hour in the morning a light repast was taken at Harvey's, when the company went to their

The Methodist Episcopal Church South on Washington street, near King. Alexandris, was last night the scene of a brilliant wedding, when Miss Abbie Virginia Bettis, daughter of Mr. B. F. Bettis, became the wife of Mr. Edgar Warfield, ir. The were or Mr. Eagar warrient, ir. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock, bat long before that hour every seat in the church, to which admittance was to be had only by card, was filled, and a large throng crowded the sidewalk. As the guests arrived at the church they were seated by the ushers, Messes. Urban 8. Lambert, James C. Hudson, Charles Fisher and George E. Warfield, of Alex-audris; Mr. Harry H. Donnelly, of this city, and George F. Mankin, of Falls Church. Miss Alice Thomas presided at the organ and as the bridal party entered the church and came up the main alsie the wedding march from Lohegrin was rendered. Rev. Mr. Williams tied the nuptial knot. While the newly wedded couple were leav ing the church after the ceremony Mozart's ing the church after the ceremony Mozart's wesding march was played.

Mr. and Mrs. Warfield, after a short reception at the home of the bride's parents, left on a trip to Atlanta and New Orleans. The groom is one of the leading druggists of Alexandria and the bride is one of the prettiest of her daughters

Mr. W. D. Campbell's Denial.
Mr. William D. Campbell, of Anacostia, who conducts a large manufacturing business in Washington, denies the statement in yesterday's Star that he has applied for a license to open a saloon at No. 12 Harrrithe most perfect system of branches in the city. Perfect goods only at popular prices and a rapid transit delivery system. Meats, provisions, canned goods, groceries, etc., and vegetables and fruits in season.

Main Market, 1308-1812 32d st. nw. Telephone, 347.

The Prices of Butterine deserve to be as high as the prices of butter, for the reason that our Butterine is universally acknowled; ed to be better than butter. Well, we are not satisfied to have the Butterine alone better than butter. We must have the prices better. We are bound to have these matters so fixed that nobody can find the elightest possible excuse for buying butter. Every reason to be thought of -purity. Savor, houses, texture, health, sweetness, price, freedom from rancidity, speaks for

Alderney Cream

20c a pound

A musicale for the benefit of St. Mar-

The marriage of Mr. Pickering Dodge-obis city and Mrs. Harriet Elizabeth Mc. went of Battimore took place yesterda.

Markets

M ster n. W.; 2026 14th st. nw; 8th and M ster n. W.; 3057 M st. nw; 21st and K sts. nw; 21st indiana ave. nw; 5th and l sts. nw; 4th and l sts. nw; 20th st. and Pa ave. nw; 13th st. and N. Y. ave. nw.

At the SQUARE MARBLE AND GLASS STANDS In Con. . Market WILKING & COMPANY, Manufacturers' Wholesale Distributing Agents

-Ally Sloper.

Young Spoener: "What beautiful teeth you have, my pet." Awful Child: "Yes, and I don't take them out, like my big sister