NO POSTPONEMENT NOW
Times Juvenile League Official's Secure New Grounds.

ARSENAL PARK OBTAINED

Commencing Tomorrow the Schedule Will Be Played There—Postponed Games Will Be Arranged for as Soon as Possible—Cheesepokes and Junior Senators to Meet—Line-up.

The Times Juvenile League of Baseball Clubs will have no further trouble in playing out the games scheduled after today. It has been a great disappointment to the teams who were to have played yesterday and today not to be able to get the games in, but as has been said before, the misunderstanding had arisen in regard to the park where the games were to have been played, and in order that no further trouble should be met with the board took steps to arrange for other grounds.

After the brilliant opening of the season at Capitol Park on Saturday it seems to have been decided that the schedule cannot be played out on those grounds, but now that the problem has been solved as to where the games shall be played it is fortunate that such grounds as have been secured were available.

WILL PLAY AT THE ARSENAL.

Through the kindness of the commanding officer at the Arsenal one of the baseball fields at that place has been placed at the disposal of the league, and commencing tomorrow the games scheduled will be played every afternoon until further notice. The grounds secured are known as the north grounds and are situated just inside the gate, to the left as you enter. It is an ideal place for baseball, the trees that line the walks affording generous shade late in the afternoon. As no admission will be charged—that being one of the conditions on which the use of the grounds is granted—the friends of the respective teams will have an opportunity to take a pleasant ride on the cable or electric cars, either of which will land you at the gate, and witness a good game of ball at the same time.

THE GAME TOMORROW.

The first game to be played at the Arsenal grounds will be the regular scheduled game for the 27th, between the Chesapeake and Senators, and these two teams will be expected to report at 10 o'clock for 4:30 all ready to play. The games scheduled for Monday and today will be played off just as soon as arrangements can be made for them. But they will all be played. It will avail nothing for the clubs to endeavor to use players over the age limit for the league, as proof will be brought to show them to be ineligible, and then, unless cause disputes to arise, involving almost endless discussion. Above all things the clubs will all be accorded fair play, so let the teams be careful who the players are.

LINE-UP OF THE TEAMS.

The teams who play tomorrow will line up as follows:
Chesapeake: Catcher, Seniors, Wood, First base, Catcher, Rock, Hamel, Pitcher, Eagan, Second base, First base, Plant, Gorman, Second base, Thayer, Inosce, Third base, Sullivan, Donaldson, Shortstop, Sullivan, Land, First base, Myers, Wilcox, Center field, Denney, Sims, Right field, Ashley.
The umpires for tomorrow's game will be Meyers and Kinslow.

AMONG THE AMATEURS.

The second team of the Eagles defeated the Ideals by a score of 14 to 9 and also 5 to 5. The winning team would like to hear from all teams in the District of Columbia, and address challenges to Frank Boots, manager, 430 Rhode Island avenue northwest.

The Rattles would like to meet any team in the District of the age of seventeen years and under. Address challenges to Herbert, 1217 Fowler, 29, and captain, Gates, s. s.; Licarrone, 3b., and Guelder, Murray, Cook, and Hoffman in the outfield. Address challenges to C. E. Fowler, 916 G street southeast.

The Young Nationals have defeated the Talbotts by the score of 18 to 17. The feature of the game was the batting of Blakney. The winners will play all teams under seventeen. Address challenges to J. Blakney, 1717 Sixth street northwest.

The Spiders have organized for the season with the following players: Everett, Sherwood, Wilson, Copenhaver, Leach, Davidson, Moran, Cliff, Woodward, Mc Gill, Rees. Will receive challenges from clubs sixteen or under. Address W. Sherwood, 2007 Fourteenth street northwest.

In a game of ball played Sunday between the Mils, Linds and Canterburies, the Mils team won by a score of 7 to 2. The feature of the game was the work of both pitchers and the fielding of J. Collins and R. Korb.

The Young Rovers defeated the Young Stars by a score of 5 to 6. The feature of the game was the pitching work of Ford, who struck out nineteen men. The line-up was as follows: J. Moheny, c.; J. Ford, p.; M. Breen, 1b.; B. Conors, 2b.; J. Gidens, 3b.; M. Jenney, 3b.; H. Braze, cf.; B. O'Bryan, rf.; J. Roney, lf.

The DeMontreville baseball team defeated the Junior Leaguers on Saturday by the score of 55 to 44. The feature of the game was the heavy batting of the DeMontrevilles. They also defeated the same team by the score of 26 to 14. The battery for the winners was Randall and Myers. The DeMontrevilles would like to arrange games with teams fourteen years and under. Address Harry W. Wallis, Box 44, Atlantic Building.

The Junior Leaguers defeated the Eckingtons Monday by a score of 14 to 9. The winners would like to arrange a game with the Woodleys. Teams under fourteen years old desired. Address all challenges to C. Heider, 1327 Sixth street northwest.

Before a crowd of 400 people the Canterbury Athletic Club defeated the Harleins last Sunday at Georgetown by a score of 9 to 6. It was a beautiful exhibition of ball playing and kept everybody guessing until the last inning was out. With the score 6 to 5 in favor of the Harleins, the Canterbury went in and batted out the earned runs in the last inning and clinched the game. The batteries were McCann and Loveless for the Canterbury and Nugent and Fowler for the Harleins.

BASEBALL NOTES.

Very little is heard of the "coming champions" just now in Philadelphia.

While the Cleveland management is not losing money, it is feeling the effects of the warfare, and the Cleveland club will most likely be playing Sunday games before long. Robinson is disputed with the people who advised him to quit playing Sunday games. Since he stopped these very people still absent themselves, and now he is thinking of returning to the old plan.

"I have seen poor Mike Kelly make many a funny break, but the funniest thing he ever did came off at the Arlington House bar, in Hot Springs," says Jack Beckley. "Kelly was painting in carnation tints one Christmas at the Springs. He and Ed Williamson were discussing a yarn about James, the address who took each in a tub half filled with champagne that cost a wealthy friend $500. 'Well, I guess I'll pay $25 for washing my hand and face,' said Kelly. And he walked deliberately to a large bowl of claret punch resting on the bar, and floated his face and hands in it. The bartender charged him $30 for a wash, and Kelly paid it like the dead game spot he was."

The Washingtons can be relied upon to hold nearly all of the visiting Westerners down, and it will be a good team that wins two out of three in the Capital City.—Sam Crane in New York Commercial Advertiser.

Cincinnati has become very proud lately and looks for great things in the offete. And yet the team has nothing on which to base any such bright anticipations, and will no doubt fall back where it belongs when the public bursts.

Louisville and St. Louis are not to be seriously considered, although under the leadership of the top managers, McCann and "Dear Old" Foster, one can't tell what might happen. The Louisville team prove an attraction, for they are the sensation just at present.

The magnates generally are in sympathy with Freedman in his trouble with Rusie. The principle of discipline is at stake. It is a fact that there is a very strong case against Rusie, of which the public knows but little.

Some baseball writers who have been bitterly assailing Freedman of the New York club, state that Pitcher Flynn has been justly dealt with by Freedman. Flynn is a fact that there is a very strong case against Rusie, of which the public knows but little.

It is so simple to be well that we wonder why there are so many sick people. Come to think about it, it must be because they don't know what's made them sick. If they knew that, they could prevent it, and when they were sick, in some cases cure themselves. But, so long as we don't take more care of our health, we shall always be more or less sick.

The simple rules of health are: Keep clean, take exercise, eat good food, secure your stomach.

This last means: Don't tolerate indigestion. Cure it with Shaker Digestive Cordial. A stomach full of undigested, fermented, putrid food is the unhealthy thing you can think of.

Half our diseases and troubles come from the poison of indigestible food. More than half of them could be cured with Shaker Digestive Cordial.

MORE than half, because, often when we think we are sick we are only weak, and a course of nourishing food, digested without effort by the stomach (with the aid of Shaker Digestive Cordial), would reinvigorate the whole system and make us well.

A ten-cent trial bottle will prove it. At druggists.

They came to mourn and stayed to rejoice. Such is baseball.

The efforts of some of the sluggers to sacrifice are painful.

For every day Amos Rusie lays off and enjoys a life of ease in Indianapolis costs him $13.33. Principle comes high.

The Western clubs will start off in the East today.

Pittsburg will probably take her customary slump when on the road. The Pirates play like blazes on their own grounds, but "lack stomach," as Jim Martin would remark, when they get away from their own "rooters."

The Cincinnati players come East this week with more confidence than they ever did. It will soon be seen whether or not they are quitters.

If any League club is transferred this year it will probably be the Cleveland club, as the patronage of the team there has been and is still very poor.

Boston will now have 30 straight games at home. Look out for them.

The Philadelphia players say they were not presented with cases of beer in St. Louis. A St. Louis firm wanted to present the men making home runs with a case of ale, but the offer was not accepted.

Louisville defeated Hagerstown yesterday by a score of 11 to 2.

Von der Ahe is not with the St. Louis team on its present Eastern trip. Roger Conner has entire charge of the men.

It is said that Rusie puts himself on the back every time New York loses a ball game. Lately he has put a pad on his back and taken to wearing a glove.

Joe Sommers, who played with the Cincinnati and Baltimore clubs of the American Association, has been appointed Western League umpire. Sommers has recently been in the hotel business at Covington, Ky.

It is unusual for a catcher to play at any other position in the infield save at first base. Farrell, during Stafford's absence, will play short for New York, and if he does it as well as he did yesterday there should be no kick coming.

Jaunita was third at St. Louis yesterday at 20 to 1, and E. Cochran up.

Dr. Hughes, 12 to 1, ran away from Ramiro, a 1 to 3 favorite at St. Louis yesterday. Garner had the mount.

Evans was a 4 to 5 favorite at Lakeside track, Chicago, yesterday, and made his backers feel jubilant. Pat Malloy, Jr., at 50 to 1, ran third.

Rampart was first in a big field at Oakley yesterday, at 15 to 1.

Sligo was at long odds at St. Louis yesterday, and he ran second. This horse is an in-and-outter, and needs watching.

When Cleophas defeated Sison in the memorable match race at Louisville, Mike Dwyer, owner of the good filly, won quite a sum of money. He declared before the race that if the filly should win he would give $1,000 of the money to her namesake, who is none other than Sister Cleophas, Mother Superior of St. Catherine's convent in this city, for whom the good filly was given her name by her breeder, Mr. Lancaster, of Bardonia, Ky. Mr. Dwyer did not know at the time of the race the address of the nun for whom the filly had been named, but he had formerly lived in the convent at Nazareth. Accordingly, he sent the $1,000 to Nazareth Academy, with instructions to send it to Mother Cleophas.

It is reported that Mike Dwyer is trying to buy Prince Lief, now owned by Byron McClelland, and one of the best colts in the West.

Irish Amateur Championships. Dublin, May 26.—The annual competition for the amateur athletic championship of Ireland took place at Ballsbridge yesterday. The hop, step and jump was won by Shanagan, with 47 feet 7 inches. In the putting of the 56-pound shot, Roche won with 22 feet. The winner of the high jump was Wood, who scored 5 foot 10 inches. Flanagan put the 28-pound shot 32 feet and won. In the jump with weights Chandler won with 12 feet 2 inches, beating the amateur record by an inch.

WHIRLS OF THE WHEEL
Philadelphia Woman Loses a Remarkable Injunction Suit.
THE PARADE AT LOUISVILLE

Only Well-Drilled and Well-Dressed Clubs of Not Less Than Ten Members Will Be Allowed to Line—A Wheelman Who Did Not Start on an Intended Trip—Cycling Gossip.

Mrs. Mary J. Logan, wife of Attorney Charles J. Logan, was worried in her effort to force the Philadelphia Cycle and Field Club to rescind the recently adopted resolution abolishing its lady membership. Judge Thayer said that any corporation could be a body, and that the plaintiff's own bill showed expressly that the women members could not vote, were not eligible to office and had no interest in the property. He thereupon dissolved the preliminary injunction which had been granted, and dismissed the bill.

Beginning today all Canadian railways, except the intercolonial, will charge for bicycles at the same rate as charged for fifty pounds of excess baggage.

A bicycle baggage bill has passed the Rhode Island house of representatives and will be submitted to the Senate this week. It is said that the railroads will not oppose its passage.

One of the around-the-world-without-a-cent wheelmen, who was to have left Rochester last week, didn't leave, because, says the Rochester press, he was arrested by an officer put in an appearance with a warrant for his arrest on the charge of stealing the wheel which he proposed riding.

In the team road race between Columbus and Cincinnati on Saturday the first man in was A. H. Hall of the Cincinnati Cycle Club, who made the distance, 150 miles, in 9 hours and 15 minutes. William Farig of Middletown was second, in 9 hours and 45 minutes, and J. L. Smith and Charles Higgins of the Cincinnati club, third and fourth, respectively. The latter club won the prize, which was a gold cup.

It has been estimated that the expenditure of power necessary to walk five miles would drive a bicycle on an ordinary road twenty-five miles. The average pedestrian moves about thirty inches at each step. The wheelman mounted on a bicycle of average gear covers about eight and one-half feet at each downward movement of the legs, which makes half a revolution of the pedals.

The Louisville meet committee has decided that "that bedraggled spectacle known as the annual parade, will be left off the program and instead there will be a parade of uniformed clubs, well drilled and well dressed, no club of less than ten uniformed members being allowed to participate. This is a step in the right direction, but why not omit the parade altogether? The day of "advertising the sport" by such displays has gone by, and they are neither interesting nor instructing. The bicycle trade parade, however, a good idea, and a display of that character given at Louisville is to be a prominent feature of the meet.

The Western passenger traffic associations have decided upon a single fare round-trip rate for the meet, which rate will probably also be made by the Trunk Line Association and by the other similar associations.

The craze for cycling, horseless carriages and mechanical methods of locomotion, which is so marked a feature of the present day, was burlesqued by Alfred Capus, the French writer, in a recent issue of the Paris Figaro. M. Capus, in a bit entitled "Cyclopolis" depicts the streets of a cycle city thronged with bicycles, tricycles, and cycles with more wheels than have yet been dreamed of, petroleum carriages, and auto-motors of the most fantastic description. He then goes on to describe the sensation of a man who was actually walking—yes, walking—on his own legs. The cyclist, as he first could not believe his eyes, but finally had to yield to the evidence of his senses, and the unknown walker soon became celebrated, and amassed a huge fortune by giving lessons in walking, which soon became the fashionable sport.

A striking demonstration of the utility of the bicycle as a means of transportation for long distance, and its advantages over the horse, was given in Berlin, Germany, yesterday, by the arrival there of seventy-six cyclists, among whom were five women, who had ridden all the way from Vienna, Austria, to witness the Berlin Industrial Exhibition. The distance covered was about 500 miles. Apart from the inconvenience and delay suffered through heavy rains, the cyclists had a most enjoyable tour. Not an accident occurred, and the party arrived in Berlin in time.

Last year a body of picked horsemen, officers in the Austrian and German armies, attempted the same journey with horses, the effort resulting in the breakdown of several of the riders, and the death of some of the horses, while other horses were so exhausted that they were rendered useless.

MARY SANDERS' NEW PLAY.
Auspicious Circumstances Attended the First Performance.

Mary Sanders made her stellar debut at the New National Theater last night under auspicious circumstances. She was confronted by an audience of critical friends who knew her, and that was a fourth of a conquest, the supporting company was capable, and that was another quarter, the play was acceptable, containing a few scenes of high dramatic interest, and a deficiency in any quarter, the wisest little star would have won in a satisfactory manner.

Charles Bradley was the new dramatist introduced, and the play was "Her Brother's Keeper." The plot in the case of the play, set herself in a boy's going out, and a pack of trouble, who needs to free herself from an ill-tempered and ill-tempered man never to marry.

The play is well built from a basic idea which is clever and original in many phases. His best scenes have not been in particular scenes, none of which were conspicuously impressive, though all were smoothly written and often scintillate with bright turns. It was a character built, susceptible old gentleman, a boy with all the crudities of his teens, a Boston baronet, a female doctor of letters and several college women.

The best work of the cast, aside from the star, was that of Charles Hubert Pitt, who gives promise of becoming a worthy successor to his paternalistic, He is a mere boy, not yet out of his teens, but he played a youth of fourteen with more awareness than inclination to the love-making which an adoring parent forced upon him, with a firm grasp upon the best phrases. It was a character built, susceptible old gentleman, a boy with all the crudities of his teens, a Boston baronet, a female doctor of letters and several college women.

Mary Sanders in the title role was shifted in and out from her role, but she was completely won her audience, and with her excellent support carried the play to the success it deserved. Her wonderful play, the female professor, and Misses Monroe and Redman were charming Wellesley College girls.

GENERAL SPORTING NOTES.

The club house of the American Yacht Club, Milton Point, Rye, N. Y., will be formally opened for the summer season on Decoration day, May 30, and the club will go in commission at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The yacht Zealand, owned by J. J. de Klerk, of the Philadelphia Yacht Club, left Barnegat Inlet on her maiden trip at 12:30 p. m. Saturday, and arrived at the Philadelphia Yacht Club's anchorage at Tinicum at 12:30 p. m. Sunday, thus making the distance in twenty-four hours exactly. This is the fastest time on record.

The regatta at Halifax, N. S., July 28-31 will bring together all the leading professional oarsmen of the world. Hanlan, Gaudaur, Rogers, Hackett, Duran, Phislett, Ten Eyck, Hosmer, Conley and McKay have given the committee assurances that they will participate, and from letters received it is very likely that Fitzhugh, champion of the world, now in England, Wag Hardin, Sullivan, Bubar and other English and Australian oarsmen will be on hand. In the four-oared international shell race there will be three crews—English, American and Canadian.

The Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen has decided to hold its regatta at Brockville, Ont., August 6-7.

Labor day has been selected by the Middle States Regatta Association for its annual regatta. Usually it is held in July.

Oarsmen Going to Toronto. Toronto, Ont., May 26.—Edward Hanlon has received a letter from Babear and Barry, who, with other English oarsmen, are coming here to take part in several Canadian regattas this summer, authorizing him to arrange a double scull match for them with Gaudaur and Rogers, to take place after July 14, for a stake of $1,000 a side and the largest purse offered. It is expected the race will take place either at Montreal or Boston.
