RALLY OF FREE SILVER MEN. Rev. Alex. Kent Will Deliver an Address at Holman Memorial.

Mr. William Holman has tendered the use of the exclusive grounds attached to his home, Holman Hall, at the northern terminus of the Fourth Street car line, for a Democratic free silver rally, to occur tonight at 8 o'clock.

The meeting will be under the auspices of the Interstate Democratic Association, but everybody, regardless of party affiliation, is invited to attend.

Mr. Holman's beautiful home will be tastefully decorated with Chinese lanterns, and the committee in charge will do everything in their power to make the evening a pleasant one.

Rev. Alexander Kent, of the People's Church, who is to go on the stump for the Democrat at the approaching campaign, will deliver the address of welcome. Among those who will be present are Frank H. Hodford, president of the Interstate Democratic Association; Senator Faulkner, chairman of the Executive Committee; Senator Butler, chairman of the Populist campaign committee; Hon. I. W. Stevens, of the National Silver Committee; William Dickson, John Boyle, James L. Norris, R. E. Mattingly, and Deputy Commissioner Bell, of the Revenue Office; Arthur Baldwin, of the Treasury; H. E. Benedict, of the Government Printing Office, and many others prominent in Democratic ranks.

Some of these gentlemen will be requested to say a few words to the assembly, and no doubt will respond with appropriate remarks.

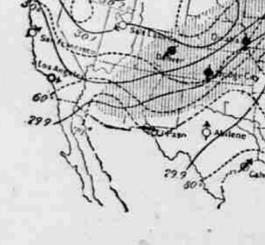

CHAIRMAN HINKLEY RETIRES. He and Hill May Control the Buffalo Convention.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 10.—The article which appeared in the New York Herald yesterday morning, announcing the retirement of James W. Hinkley, from the chairmanship of the Democratic State committee, was shown to Mr. Hinkley yesterday afternoon, and he acknowledged its correctness. Referring to the same the Herald today says editorially:

"There is countless more or less fiction among the Democratic managers in this State over the question what course shall be taken at Buffalo, and the indications are that both Senator Hill and Major Hinkley would turn the party to the support of Palmer and Buckner, instead of Bryan and Sewall. If they could, they would."

"At the rate the tide is running if the convention were two weeks later, it might not be impossible to accomplish this, but at this time Senator Murphy and Tammany Hall are in favor of the regular candidates, and the question is: Will they control?"

THE TIMES DAILY WEATHER MAP. (Prepared at the United States Weather Bureau.)

Forecast Till 8 p. m. Friday. For the District of Columbia, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia, fair, variable winds.

The storm off the Massachusetts coast has moved very slightly northward, and appears to be gradually losing its intensity. A trough of low pressure extends from Texas to the St. Lawrence valley. A storm of slight intensity has developed to the north of Montana.

Weather Conditions and General Forecast. The area of high pressure has remained nearly stationary in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, diminishing in magnitude. The secondary high area is remained nearly stationary in the South Atlantic States.

Forecast Till 8 p. m. Friday. For the District of Columbia, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia, fair, variable winds.

YE PUM CHIN HAS COME

Korean Minister and Family at the Capital.

HE IS FOND OF ICE CREAM

While in New York Chin Kept the Waiters at the Hotel Busy Serving Him With This Delicacy—Consumed All There Was on the Canadian Pacific Train.

The new Korean minister, Ye Pum Chin, is today getting acquainted with his official residence at the northwest corner of Thirteenth street and Iowa Circle. He has not yet been about the city, and probably will not go out much until he has learned more of American ways.

He will not be presented formally to President Cleveland till October. By that time, it is understood, he expects to have learned much of the customs here, especially in diplomatic circles. It is probable also that then he will be wearing the style of dress common to most countries.

The retiring minister, Pum Kwong Soh, will remain here until his successor has been properly installed and has learned the lines of his duties. He will then go to Seoul, the Korean capital, to assume the duties of the presidency of the king's privy council.

With the new minister are his wife and little son, Ye Ye Chung; his secretary of legation, Ye Eul-tam, and an attaché, Ye Koi Sok. One or two Korean servants also accompany the party. The boy, Ye Ye Chung, is rapidly learning to talk English, while the secretary already knows the language quite well.

It will be observed that all the newcomers have the same first name. This does not mean that they are all of the same immediate family, but that they are in the same relationship, similar to members of a Scottish clan. The first name most nearly corresponds to our family or surname.

TALK ABOUT KOREA. Secretary Ye Eul-tam was out early this morning for a stroll about the city and came in again after a Times reporter called at the legation. He was told by Cashier Jennings of the reporter's call, and was willing to talk of his country and his trip to America. He draws in the style of the ordinary citizen, and said he assumed that attire at the time of his departure from Seoul.

"Where is Prince Pak now?" asked the reporter. "Oh, he is in Japan."

"Is he not permitted to return to Korea?" "No, he ran away from Seoul."

"What is the condition of Korea now?" "There is peace throughout the land. The King is in control. There are only a few robbers at large and troops have been sent to suppress them."

"A concession has just been made to an American firm, Morse, Townsend & Co., for the building of the first railroad in our country from the open port to the Gulf of the Korean peninsula. The distance is thirty miles and the construction had just begun when you left for America."

"Dr. Philip Johnson, who was living in Washington a year ago, has returned to Seoul and is publishing a newspaper there. It is printed in English on one side and in Korean on the other."

"He uses metal type. Our other printing, like books, which are quite different from yours, is done from letters cut in blocks of wood—that you call wood engraving."

PASSION FOR ICE CREAM. The Korean minister made a record in New York as an ice cream eater. Chin and his party arrived at the Warwick Hotel Tuesday night. What happened is told by the papers of the metropolis as follows:

After the party had gone up in the elevator, and it was thought everything was quiet for the night, a commotion started in the cafe. It was caused by the frantic effort of the steward to scrape up sufficient ice cream to satisfy the Korean appetite.

Every few minutes a fresh order for ice cream of a different variety would come from the envoy's apartments. A Christian Endeavor picnic could not begin to equal the demand. The steward thought that perhaps there was some sort of Korean religious ceremony going on upstairs, in which ice cream cut a prominent figure, but it was not so. It was all used internally by the Koreans.

After looking at Pum's supper bill the clerk put the hotel doctor's card in an envelope and sent it up to the interpreter's room in case the minister's stomach should ache in the night.

Mr. Pum contracted the ice-cream habit while en voyage to Vancouver by the steamship Empire of China. On the dining car, coming East by the Canadian Pacific Railway, the waiters would assume a look of perished in the States east of the lower Mississippi valley and Ohio river, preceded by showers on the New England coast.

The temperature will fall in the Ohio and lower Mississippi valleys. The following heavy precipitation, in inches, was reported: During the past 24 hours—Jupiter, 1.22; Boston, 1.40; Omaha, 1.36; Halifax, 3.50.

High and low tides are officially recorded at the Navy Yard today as follows: High, 9:35 a. m.; Low, 3:50 p. m. 10:00 p. m.

Temperature and condition of the water: 8 a. m.; Great Falls—Temperature, 71; Hudson, 68; Receiving reservoir—Temperature, 68; condition at south connection, 36; distributing reservoir—Temperature, 73; condition at inlet gatehouse, 36; efficient gatehouse, 36.

DECEASED UP THE SUPPLY

"The potato, my son," the waiter would say, "but the Korean gentleman, Mister Pum, dum cat de las ice-cream, son, dat we had a lot."

Mr. Pum wanted to stay in New York and see the sights, and so announced as soon as he sampled an American cocktail yesterday evening. His country adopted to description. A luncheon was ordered at 10 a. m. to show Pum the sights. Mr. and Mrs. Pum, the eight-year-old boy, and Ye Eul-tam, attended in green bath robes, got inside.

Ye Koi Sok, in a white bath robe, took a seat by the driver. The crier winked at the driver, who drove them direct to the Desbrosses street ferry. There Pum was told that he was to see the city from a boat. On the other side she persuaded him ashore and into a Pennsylvania Railroad car upon the pretext of getting some ice cream.

HOPE TO CARRY NEW JERSEY

A Bryan club of considerable members, composed entirely of ex-Republicans, has been formed.

At Democratic headquarters today visitors commented upon the news received by the committee from various sources in Illinois, all claiming, with confidence, Democratic success there.

Chairman Hinrichsen, of the State committee, has made a poll of one-half of the counties of the State, and from those reports as well as from other information now at hand, he is rapidly learning to talk English, while the secretary already knows the language quite well.

The chairman of the Cook county committee reports that he has found the timber of the city press, in line for Bryan, and that the workingmen are as enthusiastic for the Democratic candidate as are the agriculturists of the State. From Franklin county, S. W. Swain, treasurer of the committee, writes:

The largest and most united, common people are with us this year, and from careful poll of this county, and from indications, all Southern Illinois will give great gains. We have got Illinois now. The questions are, we are going to permit, without great protest, the coercion of American voters' hands by the farmers, Hanna has given them it."

MR. McMILLIN ON JERSEY. Representative McMILLIN of Tennessee returned from Trenton, N. J., last night, where he addressed the Democratic State convention of New Jersey. Asked what his opinion was about the political situation there, he said:

"New Jersey is not a political field to me. I have campaigned there in three successive Presidential campaigns, and I think I know something about the State. The convention held at Trenton yesterday was very much more largely attended than in 1892, and the enthusiasm of the candidates was very high, while confidence was expressed on every hand that the electoral vote of the State would be cast for Bryan and Sewall. That was the decided opinion of prominent men from every section of the State whom I met and conversed with."

"New Jersey is today, as in the past, a Democratic State, and will continue to be so."

I have met many old friends there, including such men as ex-Congressman Samuel Fowler, Augustus W. L. Carter, Thomas Dun Eberly, and others. They are confident of victory, and the campaign will be vigorously conducted from now on. This is a phenomenal campaign in the matter of crowds and enthusiasm, and I have never spoken to more spirited audiences than this year, and never to one more attentive and appreciative than at Trenton yesterday."

Judge Thomas J. Stealey, of Parkersburg, W. Va., has returned from Philadelphia, where he presided over the trial of several of the defendants in the case of the adjutant general of Pennsylvania. He called at Democratic headquarters today. He said:

"The gold men in Pennsylvania made a strong effort to prevent the Democratic convention from assembling at Harrisburg, but they have failed. The case of the adjutant general of Pennsylvania, Pa., says a McKinley and Hobart Club, 400 strong, was formed there last night."

Telegrams have been received announcing the coming of a delegation of farmers from the counties of Harrison and Lincoln, Pa., on Monday next, and of the Lincoln Club, of Somerset, Pa., on Tuesday.

LUIGI PALMIERI DEAD.

He Was the Famous Meteorologist of Italy. Rome, Sept. 10.—Luigi Palmieri, the Italian meteorologist, is dead, aged eighty-nine years.

Luigi Palmieri was born at Facchio, Benevento, April 22, 1807. He was professor of physics in the Marine College at Naples and afterward in the university. In 1850 he took the direction of the Vesuvius observatory.

He devoted much attention to electricity and magnetism and for use in the Vesuvius observatory designed several new instruments, especially two: one for the study of the variations in the amount and kind of atmospheric electricity; another was an electrical sismograph, of which two duplicates have been purchased for use in Japan.

Full details of the observation upon the volcanic phenomena of Vesuvius were given in the various reports upon the observatory, published by Prof. Palmieri.

Robert Beatty Pardoned. Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 10.—Robert Beatty, of Pittsburg, who was serving seven years in the Western penitentiary for complicity with Hugh F. Dempsey, the Knights of Labor leader, in the alleged conspiracy to poison non-union workmen in the Carnegie Mills during a strike at Homestead in 1892, left the penitentiary this morning, having been pardoned by Gov. Hastings. Dempsey was pardoned last winter.

Lots of Disputes. Margaret B. Gordon this morning filed a bill for partition by sale against James J. Corridon, Emily V. Corridon, John Corridon, Phillip P. Corridon, Joseph N. Corridon, Louis Kurtz, A. R. Brown, Albert H. Floecker, Herbert P. Pillsbury and John W. Palmer. The suit involves the disposition of lot 6 and east half of lot 7, square 676, on First street north-west, between H and I streets.

Not His Pigs!

But Trumpet Notes Of Truth!

Mr. George Carter, a prominent citizen and well-known farmer, 319 V. st. n. w., suffered for four years from catarrh, accompanied by general debility, loss of sleep, and a distressing hacking cough. Mr. Carter says: "It was so bad that I expected to die. I obtained no benefit. I am happy to say that Dr. Walker cured me out of all these distressing symptoms, and I heartily recommend him to all sufferers."

A FEW QUESTIONS: YOUR STOMACH. Are there nausea? Is there vomiting? Do you belch up gas? Are you flat-headed? Is your tongue coated? Do you blight after eating? Are you nervous and weak? Do you have sick headaches? Is there indigestion? Is there disgust for breakfast? Have you distress after eating? Do you feel as if you had eaten too much? When you get up suddenly are you dizzy?

No Experiments or Failures! Dr. Walker's highest fee for full treatment and all medicines $5.00 A MONTH.

He can be consulted free at his well-known sanitarium daily from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday evenings, 7 to 8 p. m.; Sunday, 10 to 12 p. m. No names published without consent.

COTTON REPORT. Agricultural Department States Decline From August Conditions.

The cotton report of the Department of Agriculture for September shows a decline from the August condition of the crop, which was 80.1 to 64.2 per cent, a decline of 15.9 points. This is the lowest percentage reported in the past twenty-seven years.

The State averages are as follows: Virginia, 54; North Carolina, 70; South Carolina, 70; Georgia, 71; Florida, 72; Alabama, 66; Mississippi, 61; Louisiana, 60; Texas, 62; Arkansas, 60; Tennessee, 61; Missouri, 51; Indian Territory, 60; Oklahoma, 45.

There has been a general decline in the condition of the cotton crop throughout the cotton belt in the past month. A few counties and parishes in Mississippi and Louisiana report fairly good crops, but the complaint is strongly reported that the excessive heat and dry weather have caused the plant to shed leaves, blooms and bolls, and that where rains have fallen they have come too late to be of material benefit.

The plant has consequently matured prematurely, and bolls have opened so rapidly that the crop is being gathered earlier than for many years. Some counties report that the crop will be harvested by October 1, others by the middle of October. A few counties in Mississippi report damage to open cotton in the field. The shedding of bolls and the shedding of leaves and bolls will result in material damage to the field from the top crop.

TO CALL ON MCKINLEY. Vermont Delegation Will Be Headed by Senator Proctor.

Canton, Ohio, Sept. 10.—The delegation from Vermont, headed by Senator Proctor, which will call on Mr. McKinley at 10 o'clock tomorrow, will be received with a good deal of ceremony by the Canton people. Major McKinley has asked Gov. Bushnell of Ohio, who is in Cleveland at present, to come to Canton with his staff to meet the Vermont delegation.

Gov. Bushnell has arranged to call on Major McKinley some time Friday afternoon, but as there is a general desire to have him take part in the reception of the Vermonters he will doubtless be amongst those who will welcome them.

Mr. McKinley was pleased this morning with the cordial reception given Mr. Hobart's letter. He read the letter with care some three weeks ago, when Mr. Hobart was here, and expressed his satisfaction with it.

Telegrams announcing the organization of clubs and the coming of delegations, continue to pour in. A dispatch from Danville, Pa., says a McKinley and Hobart Club, 400 strong, was formed there last night.

FOURTH TIME GOES OVER

Jackson City Case Postponed Till Tuesday Next.

GAMBLERS' SHARP MOVE. Capt. Mushback's Inability to Be Present As Leading Counsel the Cause of Continuance—Nelson and His Witnesses Were Ready for Trial—The Comments of Citizens.

For the fourth time the trial of the Jackson City gamblers and policy players was postponed today in Senate Lane's court. It has been three weeks since John C. Nelson swore out warrants for the arrest of some two dozens of the gamblers. Four times have dates been set for the trials to come off, and each time the defendants have been successful in securing a postponement of the cases.

It was 10 o'clock sharp this morning when Squire Lane called court to order in his "down-town office," near Arlington Junction. The little room was crowded with those who had come to witness and assist in prosecuting the cases.

Nelson was on hand early with his witnesses, "Buck" Aufutt, Ed. Whalen, Michael Hayden, and several others.

An attempt was made last night in Alexandria to prevent Aufutt, who is one of the principal witnesses, from being present this morning in charge of the Aufutt, who lives at Waterloo, had gone to Alexandria yesterday, and as soon as he appeared on King street a number of the gamblers secured an officer, who arrested him as a suspicious character, and he was locked up.

His presence was pronounced him if he would leave the State. This he refused to do, maintaining that he has for years been a resident and voter of Alexandria county. When that game would not work he was finally released in time to be present at the trial in Jackson City, and to testify that the cases had been called.

THE CITIZENS' LEAGUE. The Citizens' League, which is assisting Nelson in prosecuting the cases, was represented by President H. A. Whalen, Secretary Frank Lyons and Mr. A. S. Doniphan. There were also fifty or more citizens of Alexandria city and county who had come to urge with their presence that the cases against the lawbreakers be pushed.

Squire Lane was attired in his Sunday best, with a long Prince Albert coat, a shining line collar, and fashionable Van Dyke. He looked more like a country parson than a dispenser of justice and equity. At his side sat Justice Feltus.

At one end of the table was Commonwealth Attorney Johnson and his assistant, Lemuel Marbury, who was appointed by Gov. O'Ferrall for the specific purpose of prosecuting the cases against the gamblers. Mr. Marbury has charge of the cases, and it is believed that he is earnestly working to secure conviction. The Citizens' League and Nelson have decided that the conduct of the matter shall rest in his hands.

At the other end of the table was Lawyer Brent, of Alexandria, representing the gamblers. As soon as court convened Mr. Brent rose and asked for just what had all along been anticipated—another postponement of the cases.

He presented a typewritten affidavit made by Capt. Mushback, who is chief constable for the gamblers, stating his inability to be present.

The affidavit purported that Mushback is a member of the board of visitors of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute, at Staunton, and as the board holds a special meeting today the attorney was unable to be present at the trial. For this reason Mr. Brent pleaded that the trials be postponed.

He was successful, of course. While the prosecution's side was in full attendance and ready to proceed, it was noticed at least one-half of the gamblers who had given an alleged bond to be present were conspicuous by their absence.

FAILED TO ATTEND. Mudd, who is supposed to be on bail, and whose case was down as the first to be called, was not in attendance, although there are two or three charges against him.

John Potter crossed over on the 10 o'clock train, but did not get near the "court-house." Two charges stand against him. The majority of the others were also missing.

Attorney Marbury consulted with Mr. Doniphan, of the Citizens' League, and for this he was called down by Squire Lane, who maintained he had no right to advise with the prosecutors.

Mr. Marbury remonstrated against the postponement to the best of his ability, but to no avail. A continuance was ordered until next Tuesday at 10 o'clock, when Lawyer Brent declared, the defense would certainly be prepared to answer the charges.

"I would like to have that affidavit as the cause of the continuance this time filed with the papers in the cases," said Mr. Marbury, and it was so ordered.

It was equally noisy among the gamblers when the cases had been set for today, knowing that Capt. Mushback would not be present, and another postponement could thus be secured.

Nelson declares their purpose is to secure a delay long enough to get him and some of his witnesses against them out of the State. Nelson's name is on the list of the way to prevent the taking of their testimony.

Industrial Enterprise in Vancouver. Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 10.—A cablegram from London says that a company formed there with a capital of $200,000 to build a marine railway and carry on a shipbuilding yard at Vancouver. The Canadian Mining Company, which owns Cinnabar mine, at Savada's Ferry, B. C., has ordered a complete firm plan from St. Francisco, and will manufacture quicksilver on a large scale.

There is a heavy demand for the article in the mines and also in China, where it is used to make vermilion.

Colored Odd Fellows Elect Officers. Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 10.—The colored Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania adjourned last night to meet in Carlisle next year. The following officers were elected: Grand master, J. C. Delphy; deputy grand master, John E. Morris; Philadelphia grand secretary, C. M. Stafford; Manitoba grand treasurer, James Arthur, Wilkesbarre.

DEATH OF JAMES LEWIS, ACTOR. Was a Great Favorite in New York and London.

New York, Sept. 10.—James Lewis, the well-known actor, died suddenly at West-hampton, L. I., this morning. The news of his death was telegraphed to his manager, Augustin Daly, shortly before 9 o'clock and in half an hour the news of the death of the favorite comedian was known all along the Atlantic.

Expressions of regret were heard on every side, for there are few members of the profession who were more generally beloved. Next to Mrs. Gilbert, who has just celebrated her seventy-sixth birthday, Mr. Lewis was the oldest member of the Daly company.

He was born in Troy, N. Y., and for many years was engaged in theatrical work. His adopting the stage as a profession was an accident. A friend of his who was acting in a small stock company fell ill, and Lewis at the last moment was persuaded to go on in his part. He made a hit and was so delighted with the stage that he took to it permanently.

In the annals of the American stage Lewis' name will also be indelibly associated, in an artistic sense, with Mrs. Gilbert. For nearly twenty years the two have been playing opposite parts in the Daly production.

The work in "Nancy & Co.," "A Night Off," "The Railroad of Love," "The Taming of the Shrew," and a thousand and one other productions which have seen the light at Daly's will never be forgotten. In their own line they have no equals anywhere.

In London Lewis was, if anything, even a greater favorite than in New York. Years ago when the Daly company was at the zenith of its success the London critics used to refer to them affectionately as the great four—Rehan, Drew, Gilbert and Lewis.

PRESERVATION OF FORESTS. Prof. Brewer Surprised at Their Wanton Destruction.

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—U. S. Sargent, of Brookline, Mass., chairman of the United States commission to examine and report on the timber regions of the West, the national parks and reservations, arrived here yesterday after a long tour through what is left of the American wilderness. He is accompanied by Prof. William Brewer, of Yale; Gen. W. H. Abbott, of the engineer corps of the United States army; Arnold Hague, of the United States Geological Survey and John Minor, of the commission.

Prof. Brewer said that the prime object of the commission was to devise means to preserve the forest from fires, theft and other depredations. He says there are about 19,000,000 acres of timber in the West.

"I have been constantly surprised during this trip," said he, "to notice the wanton destruction of the great forests. I also noticed the inroads among the red woods, those great forest giants that ought to be preserved as a heritage for future generations."

ATTACKED BY BOATMAN. Judge Gunby, of New Orleans, in a Fight With the Congressman.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 10.—Congressman C. J. Keener attacked Judge A. A. Gunby, editor of the Monroe Bulletin, on the streets of Monroe yesterday, with a heavy stick, and a fight resulted.

The fight was brought about by a letter written by the Hon. A. Benoit, the Populist candidate for Congress against Boatman, and a candidate for re-election. On returning to the city he published a communication in Gunby's paper about Boatman, under the caption "Who is the Lion?"

Several of Mr. Boatman's friends were with him at the time of the attack on Gunby. The latter endeavored to strike back at Boatman, but was held by the bystanders. Boatman is a large money man, but will support Bryan.

The difficulty grew largely out of the financial question. Gunby is one of the most stalwart silver men. He was a Democrat until six months ago, when he went over to the Populists.

ELDER AND SUPERINTENDENT. Nevertheless, Mr. Brigham's Actions Are Very Suspicious.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 10.—F. L. Brigham, managing partner of the F. L. Brigham & Co. of this city, left town two weeks ago ostensibly for a few days' rest.

On his failure to return his partner, S. E. Bowman, became suspicious and examined the books of the firm. The accounts are in bad shape, and Mr. Bowman found it necessary to give to the Third National Bank of this city a chattel mortgage for $20,500 on the company's stock to cover firm notes given by Brigham, of which his partner knew nothing. It is charged by Mr. Bowman that Brigham has forged his mother's name to notes on which money was secured.

Brigham is a member of the Elmwood Presbyterian Church and a Sunday school superintendent. His family profess to know nothing of his actions and decline to reveal his whereabouts.

Lord Chief Justice Russell Honored. Quebec, Sept. 10.—Lord Russell, of Kilmoran, returned from his trip up the Saguenay river today. This morning, with Sir L. A. Lacoste, he presided at the opening of the provincial courts. Lord Russell is devoting the afternoon to visiting the Ursuline convent and other institutions. At 4 o'clock the Laval University will confer upon him the degree of L. L. D.

More Gold from Europe. New York, Sept. 10.—The steamer Columbia, leaving Europe this week, will have $1,750,000 in gold on board, consigned to Grand Freres, which will make the total amount imported thus far by the firm $9,600,000.
