HEARD NEWS FROM MAINE

Republicans Joyful, and Democrats Explain the Result.

HOW SILVER MEN WORKED

Democratic Denials that the Republicans Were Not Opposed Rebutted by a Telegram From Manly—Senator Faulkner Says Change in Platform and Candidates Was Too Late.

That old political saw, "Have you heard the news from Maine?" was repeated many times among local politicians today. The query brought enthusiastic answers from Republicans, but the Democrats professed to be neither surprised nor interested by the returns from Tom Reed's State.

MR. BARCOCK'S VIEW.

Chairman Barcock, of the Congressional committee, said: "The result of the election in Maine will be of great value to all business and financial interests in this country. It will restore confidence in financial circles, not only in this country, but throughout the world. We looked for a large majority in Maine, but hardly expected the result which was given in 1894, when so many Democrats refused to vote; but it has exceeded that plurality by about 30 per cent, and no one can fail to be amazed at this result. It indicates the sentiment of the great Northwestern States.

"The States where there are large manufacturing and agricultural interests, the States whose people read, and have an intelligent voting population, will, in my opinion, join the procession and follow the lead set by the State of Maine."

"The key of the situation in a campaign is to determine which way the tide is setting. This it is often extremely difficult to do. Two years ago, after the election in Oregon, Vermont, and Maine elections, I recognized and claimed that they were indicative of the sentiment of the whole country, and that I believed that that practically settled the contest, and my opinion and predictions were fully borne out by the result in November. In Vermont and Maine are more pronounced and larger than they were two years ago, and from this I can draw only one conclusion, as I have never before believed that the great manufacturing and agricultural States will follow the example set by Vermont and Maine, and give their vote to the silver cause. I believe that silver and reputation that will settle the question for all time to come."

TELEGRAM TO REED.

Secretary Mercer of the same committee when asked his opinion of the result in Maine, exhibited a telegram blank on which he had written a message to Speaker Reed, as follows: "Hon. Thomas H. Reed, Portland, Me.: "Accept my heartfelt congratulations. Maine has done nobly. Her patriotic citizenship, irrespective of party affiliations, believes in sound money."

"D. H. MEEBEE," they say. They are congratulated cheerfully, as follows:

"It was surprising. I don't believe any Republican had predicted such a majority. I estimate at least 40,000. I did not expect this handsome. The significance of the result is in this: The silver vote which has been acknowledged fact in this campaign has come our way, and I believe generally. An interesting feature of the Democratic campaign in Maine, under the impression that the Republican committee was a member of the Democratic campaign committee."

He proceeded to give the Republican a description of Democratic plans in the Fine Tree State. He said the Democrats had arranged to meet in the State, and to make every effort to impregnate the minds of the rural population with the free silver idea. This plan, the Democrat said, had been carried out, and great results were expected.

The Republican committee, upon his arrival in Washington, he reported to Committee Chairman Manly, of Maine, what he had heard. The following reply was received from Mr. Manly:

"Much as I had been posted on the enemy's plans and we shall send good speakers, in place of third-class ones."

"It shows what the result in Vermont showed that the Republicans have made a tremendous effort to call out their reserve vote. It has been done in a State where they have not been educated up to the free silver belief."

"There is nothing in the result to discourage Democrats. On the contrary, there is good reason why the party should continue campaign work there. The silver sentiment is growing in the State."

The fact that the Republican majority was unusually large is attributable partly to the fact that the Democrats did not vote, knowing that the State would go Republican anyway. The size of the majority was thus augmented by the very fact that the Democrats knew that a result would be in favor of the Republicans."

"Another important cause of the overwhelming Republican majority was the fact that the platform and candidates were changed from silver to gold. Not only was the party organization injured by this proceeding, but less time was given for educating the people in the facts of free silver."

"Congressman Yoder of Ohio, who has just returned from a silver stump tour of Maine, said he had predicted a tremendous majority for the Republicans. The reason is, he said, that the gold platform and the gold candidates of the first Democratic convention were overturned, thus demoralizing the party organization."

"But I claim that the result of yesterday's election was a virtual victory for free silver. I base this claim on the fact that ninety days ago there were not a few silver believers in the State of Maine. Today there are 45,000. That shows that if we had had more time the result of the election would have been different."

POPULISTS NOT PLEASED.

The Populist politicians are not pleased with the figures in the Maine election, and confess that the Republican candidate received surprisingly large majorities. They say this is the first time that the Populist managers, led by Mr. Batesman himself, the candidate for governor, made a bitter fight against the silver money men. But the silver cause, they say, is not supposed to have helped them.

BORSEWHIPPED BY A WOMAN.

Mrs. Paynter Vigorously Objected to a Man's Attention to Her Daughter.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 15.—George Keating, a mechanic of Middletown, N. Y., who has been employed here for some time, was publicly horsewhipped on Friday morning by Mrs. Rosanna Paynter because of the fact that he was in her daughter's room. The facts only leaked out last evening, when it became known that a lawsuit was possible.

HARD WORK IN MIDDLE WEST

Bynum Says It Is Necessary to Achieve Success.

Hopeful Advice From Arizona, Kentucky and Florida—Texas Is Sure for Sound Money.

New York, Sept. 15.—Congressman William D. Bynum, of Indiana, chairman of the National Democratic committee, came to town last night. He was accompanied by John P. Frenzel, of Indianapolis, treasurer of the committee.

Shortly after his arrival he gave an audience to a large number of prominent Democrats who were awaiting him. Among them were Daniel G. Griffin, of Waterbury, who is chairman of the State delegation at the Indianapolis convention, ex-Congressman Tracy, Perry Belmont, John DeWitt Warner, Col. Robert Greer Monroe, E. Ellery Anderson, Edward M. Shepard, and Congressman Frank H. Bartlett.

He made an informal address, outlining the situation in the doubtful States of the middle West, the South and far West. He said while he did not think that Bryan would carry Illinois, Indiana, Michigan or Wisconsin, there was much further hard work needed to counteract the silver sentiment in those States. He further stated that assurances had been received from Louisiana, Kentucky and Florida that Bryan would capture the electoral votes of those States.

The defeat of Bryan in Texas, he said, is also promised, and Minnesota, Ohio and Washington were declared sure for sound money. Mr. Bynum outlined the plans of the campaign.

It was declared that Mr. Bynum should go back to the West at once and bring to New York as soon as possible the sound money candidates, Gen. Palmer and Gen. Buckner, to open the campaign here. They will arrive here next Sunday, and the first meeting will be held in Madison Square Garden on Monday night. Both Palmer and Buckner are to speak.

Mr. Bynum will speak in the Brooklyn Athenaeum tonight at the meeting of the Silverpatriots.

CHOCQUET GROUND IS HOT WET.

Heavy Rain Interfered Seriously With the Players.

The heavy rain at noon today interfered seriously with the third annual tournament of the Associated Croquet Clubs, which opened auspiciously here yesterday. It drove the players from the grounds and left them too wet to play for a time.

Players of distinction who arrived this morning were Dr. Greenway and Mr. Samuel Dudley, of New London, Conn., and Mr. John Buckley.

One of the most interesting contests of the series was decided this morning. This was between Mr. J. P. Chaffin, of Wilmington, Del., and Mr. E. E. Johns, of Washington. The play began at 3:22 p. m., yesterday and lasted till dusk. It was resumed at 9 o'clock this morning and continued by Mr. Johns winning after three hours and forty-one minutes' play.

The game that attracted most attention this morning was between Champion Strong, of New London, Conn., and Capt. John W. Adams, of this city, who were playing for three years, and young S. L. Dursey, of this city. Mr. Strong had the best of the game, but Mr. Dursey played with marked skill. The game was on the Hutchinson grounds, at Ninth street and Rhode Island avenue.

Mr. W. H. Wahly and Mr. C. M. Bryant are contestants in charge of these grounds, but Mr. Wahly is detained by business and Mr. Bryant is looking out for the comfort of players and spectators.

Another game at this ground was between Frank Sisson of New London and B. A. Head of this city, who were playing for three years, and young S. L. Dursey, of this city.

Civil Service School Incorporated.

Articles of incorporation were filed today by Court F. Wood, Charles McEwen, George O. Foster, P. W. Wood and Alexander Wolf, trustees of the National Civil Service School, of this city.

"I would like to ask," suggested Mr. Marbury, rising and addressing the court with much earnestness, "in case any of the parties are apprehended by the sheriff brought before the court, that they execute a form of real bond, and not merely an endorsement on the back of the warrant, as was done in the previous cases. I would also suggest that the amount of the bond in each case be made much larger, as they have succeeded in flogging us several times."

Justice Pelham said that this would be done.

The Citizens' League are determined that the matter shall now be fought out to the bitter end, and because of the repeated delays in some cases they have agreed to have the trials come off.

COURT WAS BOMBED AGAIN

Defendants in Jackson City Cases Didn't Show Up.

COUNSEL'S PLEDGE BROKEN

When Hearing Was to Be Begun This Morning Not One of the Gamblers Was Present—Attorney Brent Declared His Promise Related Only to Himself and Capt. Mushbach.

Defective warrants were the prima facie cause of the fifth postponement today in 'Square Lane' court of the trial of the cases of the Jackson City gamblers. The real reason for the further delay, however, was the fact that Attorney A. G. Brent, counsel for the defendants, succeeded in playing a very clever confidence game on the court and the prosecution.

When the cases were called last Thursday Mr. Brent pleaded for a postponement until today on the ground that Capt. Mushbach, who is chief counsel for the gamblers, was unable to be present. At that time the attorney gave positive promise that the defense would be ready for trial today and would seek no further delay.

When court convened this morning, with 'Square Lane' on the ground, there were present all of the prosecution's side, represented by Commonwealth's Attorney John O'Brien, his assistant, Leonard Marbury, John C. Nelson, who swore out the thirty-one warrants; Messrs. Domban, Lyons, Whalen and others, of the Citizens' League, and their witness, as follows:

NOT A GAMBLER PRESENT.

Capt. Mushbach and Attorney Brent were there, but of the twenty-six Jackson City gamblers against whom there is an aggregate of thirty-one warrants pending, not one was present. The gamblers, who were present all of the prosecution's side, were: John Carmody, an aged and infirm inmate of the Soldiers' Home, who was proceeding through the grounds to his quarters Friday night, when two colored men and two colored women sprang from behind a clump of bushes and surrounded him. The old soldier was thrown to the road and held while one of the women went through his pockets and stole his black leather wallet containing $6. The male and female footpads then fled and the veteran made his way to the home and reported the matter.

The thief's bicycle was reported today by Fred Bush, of No. 805 Florida avenue northwest. An unknown thief stole his wheel from in front of the Interior Department.

A sneak thief entered the residence of James O. Holmes, No. 333 Virginia avenue southwest, between 6 and 12 o'clock last night and stole $50 in money.

While E. B. Richmond of No. 130 Tennessee avenue southeast was working on the stage of the Academy of Music last night a thief relieved him of his silver watch.

A quantity of clothing, collars and cuffs, the property of Charles C. Smith, janitor at No. 904 E street northwest, was stolen from the building by an unknown sneak.

Washingtonian Debates Money Issue.

Cape Charles, Va., Sept. 15.—Mr. T. R. Boring, a prominent lawyer of Norfolk, Va., and Senator J. N. Stubbs, of Gloucester county, Va., and Maj. Carrington, of Washington, D. C., met at Eastville, Va., today to discuss in joint debate the money question. About 500 people turned out to hear the discussion, which was very warm one. Mr. Boring did not know who his opponent would be until after his arrival at Eastville.

Hamburg, Sept. 15.—Tom Mann, the English labor agitator, was arrested here today, as he was about to address a meeting of dock laborers.

Seeking to Extradite a Murderer.

Woodstock, Ont., Sept. 15.—George E. Underwood was before Judge Finkle today in extradition proceedings, instituted by United States Deputy Marshal Maloch, who recently arrived here for the purpose of taking the murderer, Underwood, back with him to Houston, Texas. Underwood is charged with the murder of a man named Rebeck in Houston. The case was adjourned until tomorrow.

Patriotic League of Politicians.

The Union Veterans' Patriotic League will meet tonight at the Raleigh Hotel. It is composed of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and sons of veterans. The object is stated to be to aid in the election of McKinley and condemn anarchy, repudiation, mob rule, and the attacks upon the executive and judicial departments of the government. The league now numbers several hundred. Gen. Daniel E. Sickles is the national president.

HELD UP AT HAY MARKET

Baring Highway Robbery Committed in Broad Daylight.

Two Thieves Thought Charles Matthews Carried a Large Sum of Money.

One of the boldest cases of highway robbery ever perpetrated in the District occurred in broad daylight and in the presence of at least six onlookers about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in the haymarket, on B street, between Tenth and Twelfth streets northwest.

The man held up was Charles Matthews, a colored cattle-drover, and the highwaymen, William Johnson and Henry Shays, notorious colored characters.

The crooks believed that Matthews had just sold a lot of cattle, and consequently had a large sum of money on his person. In this they were mistaken, for the drover had but $1.50, which was secured by the thieves.

Matthews was standing between the hay scales when Shays came up behind him and dealt the unsuspecting man a heavy blow over the head with a club. When the two footpads seized and choked him, Johnson went through the drover's pockets, and secured the $1.50.

The white man who was standing near by gave the alarm and Policeman Oriani responded. After a foot race he captured the two men and landed them in the Twelfth street police station.

The charge entered against them was larceny from the person. Policeman Oriani found the stolen money in Johnson's pocket, while Shays had a half brick concealed beneath his coat.

They are regarded by the police as desperate characters. Today Johnson and Shays were held for the action of a grand jury, and the outlook is that they will take a trip "over the road to the Albany pen."

The five cases of theft reported to Inspector Hollinger at police headquarters today, included the one of highway robbery, making a total of three "bold ups" in the District during the past twenty-four hours.

John Carmody, an aged and infirm inmate of the Soldiers' Home, was proceeding through the grounds to his quarters Friday night, when two colored men and two colored women sprang from behind a clump of bushes and surrounded him.

PRISONER IN A HIGH TOWER

New Yorker Locked in Weather Bureau Observatory.

CRIES AND SIGNS IN VAIN

Found Himself Nearly Four Hundred Feet Above the Great Metropolis' Busy Streets Just as Night Was Settling In—Fortunately a Telephone Was Near Him.

New York, Sept. 15.—A frantic cry of distress was wafted down from the top of the United States Signal Service tower, on the Manhattan Life Insurance building, at No. 66 Broadway, just as dusk was settling over the city last evening. It came from the lips of a visitor, who was a prisoner 384 feet above the street.

The light man repeated again and again, but the pedestrians hurrying along Broadway paid no attention to it. Seeing that his cries could not be heard below, the prisoner leaped against the railing and waved his arms wildly in the air. Then he took off his hat and swung it above his head. Still no attention was paid to him.

It was dark as pitch. He groped his way to a door and battered at it until he was tired. It was locked. No one came to his aid. He took about in his pocket and found a match, which he struck, and then lighted the gas.

The light made things look a little more cheerful to the prisoner. Signal service observers use the large room in which he found himself. It is fitted with desks and chairs. In one of the latter the prisoner found a telephone. He picked it up and he might have to stay there till morning.

As his eyes wandered about the room they suddenly lighted upon a telephone. He jumped out of his chair and reached the "phone" with a bound. He sent in a call to "central" that made the telephone bell buzz. He told his name, and the girl at the other end connected the wire with the operator's room at police headquarters.

"This is Mr. Beebe. I am locked up in the tower of the Weather Bureau, Manhattan Life Building. Will you please help me out?"

HOW HE GOT THERE.

Sergeant Kelleher, had the message dispatched to Sergeant Snyder, of the Old Slip station. He sent Roundman McLaughlin and Policeman Coakley to try and liberate the man. They went to the Manhattan Life Insurance building, and told Supt. Beebe that there was a prisoner in the tower.

They went by an elevator to the sixteenth floor, then they climbed a spiral stairway to the tower, four stories above. The superintendent opened the tower door, and they found Mr. Beebe, a well-dressed youth of eighteen years.

In answer to the superintendent's question he said he lived at No. 144 East Forty-fifth street, and that he went to the tower in the usual way about 5:30 o'clock. The man in the tower appeared to be busy, so he walked up the spiral stairway to the observatory. When he descended a few minutes later he found himself locked in.

The explanation was satisfactory, and he was allowed to confer an hour and a half imprisonment 384 feet above the sidewalk.

Stricken on the Street.

Bystanders near the corner of Twenty-second and G streets northwest, were startled about 7 o'clock last evening to see a colored woman throw up her hands and fall heavily to the sidewalk. The third precinct patrol wagon was summoned and the woman removed to the Emergency Hospital. It was found that she had been attacked by a severe fit. Upon being restored to consciousness she gave her name as Georgiana Bannister, twenty-nine years of age, and her home in the large towers of the government.

Confessed Having Forged a Check.

St. Louis, Sept. 15.—Edward C. Booth, confidential clerk and stenographer for the Farmers Investment Company, confessed to Chief of Police Harrigan as headquarters last night that he negotiated a fraudulent check at the Merchants' National Bank, getting the cash and absconding with it. Booth was arrested in Chicago yesterday.

Vital of the Maennerchor.

The festivities in connection with the visit to the 88-er returned here of the Beechwood Maennerchor were continued today in many social gatherings at the homes of members of the Washington organization.

RECKLESS DRIVER FLED.

Collision Between New York Journal and Senate Wagons.

Considerable excitement was caused this morning about 11:30 o'clock, at the corner of Fourteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue, by a collision between one of the New York Journal delivery wagons and the Senate van, but luckily no one was injured. The Journal wagon was going rapidly westward on the north side of the avenue, when the heavy van, coming down Fourteenth street, from F street, turned down toward the Capitol on the same side and crashed into it. The van being much the heavier wagon passed on unharmed, but the Journal wagon sustained several injuries, among others, a fractured shaft. This latter caused the horse to start to run away, but the driver, with presence of mind, jumped from his seat and catching hold of the horse, stopped the frightened animal. A policeman appearing at this juncture, he took to his heels in order to avoid arrest for fast driving. The driver's name could not be learned, but the horse and wagon were taken to No. 1 station, where they will be held until the reckless driver is found. The horse was uninjured.

MAINE MAJORITY STICKS

It Will Not Be Less Than Fifty Thousand.

Speaker Reed Gained 2,000 Votes. Republicans Elect All Senators and Nearly All Representatives.

Augusta, Me., Sept. 15.—Returns from nineteen of the twenty cities and 251 towns give Powers 63,286, and Frank 29,142. This is three-quarters of the total vote of the State. The same cities and towns in 1892 gave Cheever 52,296 and Johnson 41,341.

The Republican gain in the cities was 19 per cent and in the Democratic loss was 35 per cent. In the towns the Republican gain was 41 per cent. If the percentage holds in the towns to be had from the Republican total vote will be 82,500 and the Democratic vote 39,500, making the Republican plurality 43,000.

The Democratic vote in 1892 was 55,397 and in 1894, 30,621.

The vote for the Populist candidate and Mr. Clifford are included in about 5,200 scattering. Mr. Clifford received less than 1,000, the total vote figured up about 122,000.

In the Congressional districts Mr. Reed is re-elected by 10,359 plurality; a gain of 2,000, and Mr. Dingley by about the same plurality. Mr. Allen had about 10,000, and Mr. Boutelle had an increased plurality. The Democrats elected all of the senators, and 140 out of 151 representatives.

Belfast, Me., Sept. 15.—The returns from Waldo county, showing the total vote of the Free Voters Republican, 1,777 plurality. The missing town may carry it up to 1,800. Every Republican officer in the county is elected. The result is the only town that went Democratic.

Portland, Me., Sept. 15.—The Hon. Melville Frank, Democratic candidate for Governor, returned to Portland from the Democratic party of Maine, after the Chicago convention, was obliged to change his position and nomination. The Republican, being elected, the situation contemplated substantially all their voters to their currency policy before the Democrats were reorganized. Considering the condition of the parties, the result is fairly as good as could reasonably have been expected, and in view of the facts can have but little effect on the national contest.

Portland, Me., Sept. 15.—The Lewiston Journal has received returns from 312 cities, towns and plantations in Maine which voted Monday, as follows: Powers, 69,182; Frank, 30,621; Cheever, 52,296; Johnson, 41,341; Clifford, 5,200; Sound Money, 519.

The Republican plurality in these 312 towns is 41,823.

The remaining 188 towns and plantations will increase the plurality to be over 45,000, and 30,000. The Journal's returns show that the house of representatives will consist of 145 Republicans and 6 Democrats, while the senate is solidly Republican.

SUED FOR MALPRACTICE.

Nielsons Ask for $10,000 Damages From Dr. T. F. Mallan.

Dr. Thomas F. Mallan, a well-known Capitol Hill physician, living at No. 27 B street southeast, was made the defendant this morning in two suits for damages, the plaintiffs alleging improper medical treatment.

One suit is brought by the husband and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Nielson, in which they ask for $5,000 damages for alleged improper treatment. The husband enters separate suit for $5,000 for the loss of his wife's services because of such treatment.

The plaintiffs are represented by District Attorney A. A. Birney and Assistant District Attorney Tracy L. Jeffords. In their bills Mr. and Mrs. Nielson state that about September 10, 1893, Mrs. Nielson was taken ill and Dr. Mallan was employed to attend her. He treated her until September 15 of the same year. By reason of his treatment Mrs. Nielson, it is alleged, suffered great bodily agony and gave premature birth to a child, which has caused her to be greatly broken and seriously injured.

RYAN LEAVES LOUISVILLE.

A Few Hundred Cheered Him at Hotel and Station.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 15.—Hon. William J. Bryan arose from his bed at the Ward at 7 o'clock this morning. He said that he had a good night's rest. A crowd of 200 people cheered him as he left the hotel a few minutes later in a carriage with Senator Blackburn, Gen. W. E. Harris and National Committeeman Drey Woodson.

The party was driven to the First Street station of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. There were about 150 people to greet Mr. Bryan. After a round of handshaking, Mr. Bryan and his escort boarded his private car, which was attached to a special train for Frankfort that left the station at 7:45 o'clock.

Senator Lindsay Ready to Stump.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 15.—Senator Lindsay yesterday morning left New York City at the disposal of the executive committee of the Palmer and Buckner Democracy of this State. He was given a number of engagements in the large towns of the State. Col. Beckwith was also given a list of appointments.

KEARNEY MAKES NO REPLY

Alleged Dynamiter Refuses All Answer to Questions.

HAD $10,000 WHEN ARRESTED

Letter Supposed to Have Been Written by Tynan Found in His Possession—Bell Denies Being Connected With Any Conspiracy—Parisians Fear the Effect of the Disclosure.

Rotterdam, Sept. 15.—John F. Kearney, alias Wallace, the alleged dynamiter, who is under arrest here, was examined by the police officials this morning, but he declined to answer any questions whatever. A letter, dated at Boulogne, was found in his pockets, and is presumed to have been written by Tynan. In the latter the writer tells "Wallace" and "Hans," the other supposed dynamiter arrested here, "if you dare not go to Scotland now, come to Boulogne. Then we will talk our plan over. Cowards cannot be tolerated among our brethren."

London, Sept. 15.—A dispatch from Brussels to the Pall Mall Gazette says that the sum of $3,000 in notes was found in the possession of Wallace, who was alleged to have profited when he was arrested in Rotterdam.

Glasgow, Sept. 15.—Edward Bell, the alleged dynamiter, who was arrested here on Saturday, has made a statement through his lawyer, in which he says he is a native of Harlem, N. Y. He left New York city on August 19 for Antwerp, from which place he went to Berlin, later to London, and finally came to Glasgow. It was his intention, he says, to sail from Liverpool for New York today.

NOT A CONSPIRATOR.

Bell admits that he is a member of an Irish club in New York, but denies that he is associated with any conspiracy. He has no papers or documents found in his possession, he says, were not found in the lavatory of the hotel in which he was stopping, as was stated yesterday, but were found by somebody in a London music hall, where he picked them up.

Paris, Sept. 15.—There was considerable excitement on the boulevards and at the clubs last evening in consequence of the arrest of the alleged dynamiter at Rotterdam. Glasgow and Boulogne-sur-Mer. The matter was discussed from all points of view. The consensus of opinion was that although the conspirators were fortunately arrested, the disclosure of the plot was inopportune, as it might result in a change being made in the arrangements for the reception of the czar.

It was stated that his majesty should be driven through many of the principal streets of the city in order to give the populace a good view of him.
