KING WAS IN FINE FETTLE

Senators Gave Him Good Support and Defeated Louisville.

FAVORS FOR THE FAIR FANS

Today and Saturday Have Been Made Ladies' Days—No Game Scheduled in This City Tomorrow—McJames May Pitch for Washington and Hill for the Colonels Today.

Washington defeated Louisville yesterday at National Park in a well-played contest, which was due to the clock-like work of "Silver" King on the rubber and the excellent support given him by his fellow-players.

Cum gratias, who pitched for the Colonels, received fair support, although the work of President Hamilton today has been made ladies' day by Mr. Wagner, who is always ready to do the gallant for the fair ones.

The Wagners, led by Tucker and O'Brien, outbatted the Bourboisites, the locals making nine hits, few of which were scored. Brown made a circus catch of Butler's short fly, which was due to the star play of the game, while the other batsmen did all that was required of them—no error each, by Nelson and DeMontreville, doing no damage.

The second game of the present series between Washington and Louisville will be played this afternoon, and with the consent of President Hamilton today has been made ladies' day by Mr. Wagner, who is always ready to do the gallant for the fair ones.

No game is scheduled for this city tomorrow, the wind-up between the Senators and Colonels taking place Saturday, which will also be ladies' day.

McJames will probably go in the box for Washington, while Hill is down to pitch for Louisville this afternoon.

DIAMOND DUST.

Ladies' day today. Ritchey, the Kolb's shortstop, has dropped off wonderfully in his fielding of late.

There were six ex-Polites in the game for St. Louis against the Quakers yesterday.

It is said that Manager Stallings, of Philadelphia, is after Shugart to play short in place of Gillen.

If Boston keeps on slugging the ball at the present rate they will soon lead the League in batting.

Bowerman, of the Orioles, is doing great back-up work for a man in whom Hamilton had such little confidence.

Not a National League club played an errorless game yesterday, a total of forty-three misplays being made.

Jim Corbett played first base for Stanton yesterday and put up a fairly good game. He did not make a hit, however.

The Columbus team, with Helen, Mertes, Kewer and Buckley, four Philadelphia cast-offs, last Saturday gained the lead in the Western League.

One hundred and fourteen hits by the League teams yesterday does not look very much as if the players had fully mastered that five-foot handicap, as has been claimed on various and diverse occasions.

The Pirates' bicycle team has disbanded. Manager Donovan called for the resignation of the members, and the order, though a sensible one, caused some grumbling.

Patsy's move was not a whim, but a firm belief that long spring over hot roads and night-sounding explosions are not products of snappy playings.

There have been fewer changes in the Cleveland Club in the last five years than in any other club. Here is the batting order of the Cleveland team in one of the games of the post-season series with Boston to decide the championship of 1892.

Chills, 2b.; Parkett, 1. f.; Tolson, 3b.; McKeane, ss.; Virtue, lf.; McRae, c.; O'Connor, r. f.; Zinner, c.; Young, p. The only man in that batting list not now on the team is Virtue.

Peter Doherty, according to a New York dispatch, has not only been suspended for "insubordination" to President Freedman, but according to the latter's orders has been barred from the Polo Grounds.

The story goes that when he went to the Polo Grounds for practice he was ejected by a policeman under Freedman's direction. His locker was broken open and his effects therein sent to him. The story that Captain Manager Joyce is about to resign is again going the rounds.

Manager Donovan has been keeping the wires warm trying to get Jack Wells, manager of the Richmond team, to part with Third Baseman Eberfeld. The deal has not been closed. When the Pittsburg team was at Richmond in the spring, Patsy liked Eberfeld, and has been looking up his games ever since. The German is a little fellow, built on the McGraw frame, and is speedy. He has even been accused of being fresh.

Wells would have any use for a third baseman this year, but baseball is a strange game.

THE PEOPLES REGATTA.

The Quaker City Preparing for a Big Time on July 5.

The people's regatta, open to all amateurs, will be held at Philadelphia on Monday, July 5, under the auspices of the Schuylkill Navy.

The program includes junior single sculls, intermediate sculls, senior single sculls, junior double sculls, intermediate double sculls, senior double sculls, junior four-oared gigs, senior four-oared gigs, junior eight-oared shells and senior eight-oared shells.

Handsome prizes will be presented to each member of a winning club, and a silver loving cup to the clubs they represent. Special prizes, to be given for annually on the Schuylkill River, will be awarded in the following events: The Sharpless Cup, for senior eight-oared shells, and the Downing Cup, for senior four-oared shells.

Trials heats will be rowed on the morning of July 5, and the rules of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen will govern the regatta.

The events will be rowed over the famous Schuylkill River national course, one and one-half miles, all sweep races, one and one-half mile straightaway, all sculling races one and one-half mile a turn.

Probably no city in the Union furnishes a greater patriotic display on this national holiday than Philadelphia. Councils appropriate a large sum annually for this purpose, and the attractions of the day include military parades, sham battles, balloon ascensions, field sports, regattas, and concluding in the evening with an elaborate and beautiful display of fireworks in the park, which occurs just above the boat-houses.

Burley-Tyan Boat in Baltimore. The Eureka Athletic Club, of Baltimore, will put on its much talked-of twenty-round contest between Nick Burley, of California, and Jim Ryan, of Australia, tonight at its quarters on the shed road. The winner of the contest will be matched against Harry Peppers, of California. Kid Lavigne will be in Ryan's corner.

$4.00 to Philadelphia and Re-4.00 turn via Pennsylvania Railroad. On account of the National Saengerfest, tickets will be sold to Philadelphia June 19 to 23, good to return to June 26, at one fare for the round trip.

A SCHLATTER IN CLEVELAND.

Claims That He Is the Only Original "Divine Healer."

Cleveland, Ohio, June 17.—A man claiming to be "Healer" Francis Schlatter is in this city. Last evening he hired a hall and invited the public to come in. A small audience responded. The healer tried to cure a score of people, but without marked success. He says that he will demonstrate that he is not an impostor, and that he was ex-hunted by the continued strain of his work in the West. He does not know who sent him to Cleveland, but it was not that of Healer Schlatter.

He declares that he has been visiting his aged mother, near Nashville, Tenn. He looks like the published pictures of Schlatter, except that he has neither mustache nor beard. His hair is very long. He wears a long, black military coat, a plain black hat, and a pair of the "loisides" trousers ever seen in these parts. They are tan-colored, with two-inch checks and broad, black stripes down the outside seam.

B. & O. Earnings for May. The approximate earnings of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad for the month of May, 1897, were $2,020,514, an increase of $11,228. For the eleven months of the fiscal year ending May 31, 1897, the approximate earnings were $23,366,610, an increase of $1,599,030.

For three years we have never been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house," says A. E. Foster, with E. C. Atkins & Co., Indianapolis, Ind. We have used it with all three of our children, and it has never failed to cure—not simply stop pain, but cure absolutely. It is so right, and anyone who tries it will find it so."
