

AT THE BUSY CORNER. Ranney Refrigerators Cut to Splinters

Only figuratively. You couldn't harm a Ranney in reality with anything less powerful than an ax. They're at the top—ahead of all the refrigerators ever made. They are handsome enough to adorn any dining room. They are solid enough to last for years. They are scientific enough to save their price in the ice they save. They are going to be sold here cheap enough to make the dollars in your purse jump with anxiety to work in such a worthy cause as buying a real Ranney at its cost.

Washington Wins the Third.

The smallest crowd of the season, about 500 persons, witnessed the third slaughter of Ewing's Reds yesterday at the hands of the heavy-hitting Washingtons. The Cincinnati found Swain for but four singles, while Hawley was hit hard and at the right time. A catch by Anderson was the only feature. The score: CINCINNATI—AB. R. H. O. A. E. Time's Trailers Throttled.

Baltimore took two games from the Trailers yesterday at St. Louis. Taylor was fired out of the first game for "sassing" Umpire O'Day, and Esper took his place. Taylor pitched part of the second game, however, and had beastly support. The score: First game—R.H.E. Baltimore.....4 3 4 3 0 2 0 0-4 9 8 St. Louis.....1 1 0 0 0 0 2 0-4 9 8

Another of Stoll's Daring Feats of Shoe-price Cutting!

There is a restless activity about this shoe house that makes brisk selling a positive necessity to its existence. Stagnation—the slow death of trade—has no place here, for its causes are absent. When trade is dull generally (as now, during the hot days) prices are made so low and opportunities are so taken advantage of that a vigorous buying on the people's part is compelled. Full well does Washington know that Stoll's shoe bargains are always genuine, always great. Take advantage of these prices before the 4th.
