Representatives Present From Thirty Organizations.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

Advocate Immediate Construction of Nicaragua Canal.

Author of Delegates From Various Commercial Organizations—Hugh Craig's Paper.

The National Board of Trade, composed of representatives from thirty commercial organizations, convened at noon today in the largest hall of the Shoreham hotel.

A meeting of the executive committee was held from 9 o'clock till 12. The delegates in attendance at this convention are practically the same as those who attended the twenty-eighth annual convention.

In the absence of President Friley, James Buchanan, president of the Trade Association, was chosen by the executive council to preside at this convention of the National Board of Trade.

In his opening address he said that they were business men met to transact business and he hoped they would transact it in a business like way.

The chair appointed Messrs. Gliddens, of New York; Taylor of Wilmington, Del.; and Rice, of Boston, a committee on credentials.

Secretary Tucker presented the annual report of the executive committee. This committee reports that Congress has passed no emergency legislation during the year.

The question which promises the brightest possibilities is the Nicaragua canal. The board is of the opinion that the financial construction of the Nicaragua canal.

The delegates from the Chamber of Commerce of Washington, the Chamber of Commerce of Annapolis, the Chamber of Commerce of Philadelphia, the Board of Trade of Philadelphia, the Board of Trade of New York, the Board of Trade of St. Louis, and the Board of Trade of St. Paul, are present.

Mr. Friley, president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, will present a paper on the subject of the Nicaragua canal.

Mr. Friley made his way to the Strand of Annapolis to the Pacific Coast, and in consequence of his young grandson was carried to the beach at Annapolis.

MAJOR ESTERHAZY WILLING TO EXPLAIN

DECLARES HE IS NOT A TRAITOR Will Appear Before the Court of Cassation if Granted Safe Conduct.

Paris, Dec. 12.—The Libre Parole publishes a letter addressed by Major Esterhazy to M. Mazeau, first president of the court of cassation, in which he says he is willing to appear in the criminal chamber, and will explain all of the points concerning himself, provided that safe conduct be granted to him.

Esterhazy protests that neither he nor Col. Henry were guilty of treason. The city is quiet so far today, the disorders growing out of the popular feeling for Col. Piquemart having temporarily ceased.

The police got a scare last night, it was reported that a riot had been projected in the vicinity of the military prison of Cherche-Midi and a large corps of police, journalists and others went post haste.

They waited until daybreak, but no serious disorder occurred. There were a few fights in the vicinity, but all efforts to create disturbances failed.

A CRISIS THREATENED IN HUNGARY'S CABINET

Differences Arising Out of a Conflict Between Premier Banffy and the Chamber of Deputies.

Vienna, Dec. 12.—The critical status of the Hungarian cabinet caused by the conflict between Premier Banffy and the Chamber of Deputies, is seriously occupying Emperor Franz Joseph.

He is quoted as saying in this connection: "If Baron Banffy will hold on he can rely on my support. I have already made an unavailing sacrifice in the case of Prince Eudeni, and I will not make any more."

Prince Radeti resigned the Austrian premiership last year as a means of conciliating opposing factions in the Reichsrath.

DEATH OF MRS. BRIGHT FROM BRAIN PARALYSIS

WIFE OF THE SERGEANT-AT-ARMS Stricken Monday, She Expired Early This Morning—Funeral Will Take Place Thursday.

Mrs. Letitia Merrick Bright, wife of Col. Richard J. Merrick, sergeant-at-arms of the United States Senate, whose sudden illness was announced yesterday, died at 8:10 o'clock this morning, at Col. Bright's home, No. 129 E Street northwest. Death was due to paralysis.

About five years ago Mrs. Bright had a severe attack of the grip, from which she never completely recovered. It left her with a heart affection and her health since has been far from robust. There was nothing in her condition to cause her family any special uneasiness, however, until about 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning when she was stricken with paralysis of the brain.

The seriousness of her illness was at once realized. Everything possible was done to restore her, but without success. She grew steadily worse until this morning when, as stated, she died at 8:10 o'clock.

Funeral arrangements for the funeral were made today. The services will be held Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, and the interment will be made in Rock Creek Cemetery.

Mrs. Bright was of an old Indiana family and was well known and much admired in social circles in Washington. Col. Bright is one of the most popular officials at the Capitol and he received many visits and messages of condolence today.

SUICIDE OF A LEADING CITIZEN OF NORFOLK

HENRY WALKER ENDS HIS LIFE Shoots Himself Through the Head in the Area of the Brooklyn Adelphi Academy.

New York, Dec. 12.—The body of Henry Walker, of Norfolk, Va., was found in the area of the Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn, this morning.

There was a bullet hole in the right temple, and the muzzle of a revolver trapped in his right hand was pressed against the wound. A large brass key having the imprint of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel was found in his pocket.

Walker had undoubtedly committed suicide. Norfolk, Va., Dec. 12.—Henry Walker, who committed suicide in New York last night, was one of the most prominent business men in Virginia. He was at the head of the largest hardware establishments in this section, and did a heavy business with the Government. His affairs were in a prosperous condition, and no cause whatever is known which would have made him commit suicide.

Mr. Walker was a director in the Norfolk National Bank and was connected with many other large enterprises. He was also president of the Virginia Club. He was unmarried and about forty-five years of age.

Printed Truths!

IF A MAN were justified in exaggerating at all it would be in speaking of his stock. Yet we do not do this! The simple truth about our clothing and our store-doging has alone been enough to double our last December's business! The treatment and values we give are just what we would hope to receive were our positions reversed. Here is what is going on just now:
