THE STOCK MARKET

Irregular at the Opening With Dealings Again in Volume.

Exceptional strength displayed by the Pacific Shares and Sugar—the Grangers Firm—a Tendency to Weakness in Traction Interests. The Americans Lower in London.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—The Stock Market opened irregular today, with the dealings again in heavy volume.

Exceptional strength was shown by the Pacific stocks and Sugar. Sugar opened at substantial gain and Missouri Pacific in the opening trading moved up sharply. The Grangers were firm.

Among the traction there was a tendency to weakness and this feeling extended to the Reading. The activity noted in the Northern Pacific was continued today.

The London market was fractionally lower, with the exception of Denver, preferred, Illinois Central, the Northern Pacific, and St. Paul, which exhibited small gains. The Northern Pacific readjustment rumors were unconfirmed. In the Street the view prevailed that a fine opportunity to run in the shorts here and at London was taken advantage of.
