APPEALS OF THE DISTRICT

Many Citizens Ask for the Cancellation of Tax Charges.

The Commissioners Hear Reports From the Assessor in Each Case. Firemen Defeat the Street Railway Men in a Game of Baseball.

Hilsh S. Smith, of 636 Massachusetts Avenue northeast, recently asked for the cancellation of tax for the year 1882 on part lot 3, square 865. H. H. Duggelle, the Assessor, submitted the following report in this case: "On November 16, 1882, two certificates were issued to the Washington Loan and Trust Company on two separate and distinct parts of lot 3, square 865, and the one on which the above recited tax was levied was chargeable to certificate No. 11,767, on part of lot 3, square 865, being the sixteen feet next to the west half of Massachusetts Avenue, then assessed to William Datcher. By deed recorded December 8, 1893, conveyance was made by William Datcher to Hilsh S. Smith.

Joseph Ewald has petitioned the Commissioners for the cancellation of tax for 1892 against lot 48, block 1, Trinidad. The Assessor's report upon the application was: "On August 9, 1892, certificate was issued to the Lawyers' Title and Guarantee Insurance Company on lot 48, block 1, Trinidad, whereon the above recited tax was levied. By deed recorded June 15, 1891, conveyance was made by August Schmidt to Josephine Ewald.

George Truesdell, of the Wyatt Building, has requested permission to pay without interest and penalties the taxes on several pieces of property, as follows: Tax for 1893, on lot 9, Washington Heights, assessed in the name of Dan Cossick, colored, and half tax of 1894 on sub-lot 20, block 9, Eckington; and tax for 1893, on sub-lot 12, block 8, Eckington.

On each of these applications the Assessor, after stating the facts relative to the assessments and the ledger accounts, informed the Commissioners that he could discover no reason for granting the relief requested, and submitted the case with adverse recommendation.

Clara Rassback presented a petition to the Commissioners, asking the cancellation of tax for 1890 against sub-lots 54 and 55, square 308, that she had purchased the property on the faith of tax certificates issued by the Tax Office. The Assessor in his report upon the application submits a statement of facts and asserts that in his opinion the purchaser should have known the situation in regard to her property, and therefore, was not an innocent purchaser. He submits the case with an adverse recommendation.

The local firemen are no less handy with the bat on the baseball field than with hose and ladder fighting fire in the District. A picked nine from the department went down to Chesapeake Beach yesterday and defeated a similar aggregation from the forces of the street railway companies. The railway pitcher was cherry pie for the fire laddies, and they batted the sphere all over the lot. The score was 7 to 3 in favor of the firemen. The Department team was composed of Hunt, third base; Watt, catcher; Markwood, leftfielder; Cook, shortstop; McConnell, centerfielder; Boyle, first baseman; Sullivan, pitcher; Conley, second baseman, and Sears, rightfielder.

Andrew R. Duval, the Attorney for the District, has submitted to the Commissioners his opinion upon the communication of L. B. Platt, trustee, requesting the return of the pound fee paid by him for the release of a certain dog. The Attorney gives the review of the case: "It appears that a young man, whose name is not given, came from Philadelphia to this city in April last, with the intention of making Washington his home, and bringing with him his dog, which he left temporarily in the care of the applicant. It appears further that on April 8 the dog strayed into the streets, and being found running at large in the vicinity of Connecticut Avenue and L Street northwest, without the required tax tag, was seized by the Poundmaster and impounded. It appears also that on April 10 Mr. Platt redeemed said dog by paying the Poundmaster the sum of $2, which he now asks the Commissioners to return to him."

Mr. Duval refers to section 3 of the act of Congress, approved June 19, 1878, which provides: "The Poundmaster of the District of Columbia shall, during the entire year, seize all dogs found running at large without the tax tag, issued by the Collector aforesaid, attached to their respective licenses; and if, within forty-eight hours, the same are not redeemed, by the owners thereof, by the payment of $2, they shall be sold or otherwise disposed of, and the Poundmaster may deem advisable, and as such sale by virtue hereof shall be deemed valid in all respects and purposes in the courts of the District of Columbia."

"This so-called 'tax,' says Mr. Duval, 'is in my judgment, an impertinent and intended in any sense as a substitute for the tax required to be collected by section 3 of said act of Congress, and the penalty prescribed by the act of Congress, and is intended as a punishment for the offence of allowing dogs to run at large in the District without the tax tag; it is, therefore, not within the purview of the act of Congress, and the payment of taxes erroneously paid, and I am unable to find any authority conferred on the Commissioners to refund this penalty, which is imposed, not by a law of the Legislative Assembly, nor by a police regulation, but by an act of Congress."

The Commissioners today authorized orders for public work through the Engineer department as follows: That A. B. Boettcher, roofer in the Engineer department at $3 per day, be transferred to the position of draftsman at $2 per day; and that B. S. Neillan, draftsman at $2 per day, be transferred to a roofer at $3 per day.

That Capt. Chester Harding, assistant to the Engineer Commissioner at $100 per month, be transferred to the position of roofer at $3 per day, and return on duty connected with the plans for the street tramway, and that the salary of $100 per month be suspended until the appropriation for current repairs to streets.

THE REVISION OF THE CODE.

Continuous Work Ahead for the Bar Association's Committee.

The special committee appointed by the Washington Bar Association last winter to revise the new code of laws adopted for the Government of the District is busily engaged in the work. The meetings are held daily in Justice Clough's consultation-room in the northwest corner of the City Hall.

One of the members of the committee advised yesterday that it was anticipated that the work will be completed in about a month. This, however, does not mean that the committee will be ready at that time to make a final report to the Bar Association, but that the code will have been drafted by the end of the month. The original draft of the code, however, it has been greatly changed, both by elimination and additions. Originally it contained over 1,000 pages, while the code, as enacted by Congress at its last session, contains only a little more than 200 pages.

So far, it is said the work of revising the code has gone on as rapidly as could be expected. No section has been considered which it is believed would warrant radical changes. The suggestions have been in the construction of several sections, without materially altering the meaning of the statutes. It is expected, however, that when the new code is submitted to Congress for consideration many changes will be offered. Under the law as passed at the last session of Congress, after January 1, 1902, the date when the new code becomes operative, the law will be in force in the District only on statutory grounds. It is claimed by attorneys who have a great experience in divorce matters that such a law will operate as a hardship in many instances. Parties who wish to be true to their jurisdiction. In such cases, it is claimed, the wife has no remedy and will be compelled to support her life in compulsory singleness and make a livelihood for herself and children, if she has any, while her husband is enjoying the full benefit of his earnings.

FOUND DEAD IN HER ROOM.

An Old Colored Woman Succumbs to Heart Disease. Martha Alexander, colored, sixty years of age, was found dead in a chair at her room at the Coswick Hotel, colored, an expressman, 1112 K Street northwest, last night about 9 o'clock. Heart disease caused death.

A little third-story room was used by Mrs. Alexander yesterday afternoon, and was found locked late in the afternoon. Nothing was then thought of the matter. Last night raps at the door brought no response, however, and Coswick and his wife called at the Coswick Hotel. On the response was so impressed that something was wrong that he telephoned to the police, who were summoned by papers and a policy among her effects. She was a member of the Asbury M. E. Church, and lived at 1112 K Street northwest, where Mrs. Alexander had been ill for some time.

CAPTAIN MYERS' REWARD.

It Was Accorded Him Before the Adjournment of Congress. Newspaper criticisms of the Board on Awards and the Secretary of the Navy for recommending a brevet of major for Capt. Newt H. Hall, of the Marine Corps, recently exacerbated of allegations that he had been guilty of cowardice at Pekin, have attracted the attention of members of the Navy Department. The criticisms were based on the supposition that because the name of Capt. John T. Myers, of the Marine Corps, Captain Hall's superior officer, did not appear in the list of the recommendations submitted by the Board, he had been overlooked while an officer under him, whose conduct had been the subject of an investigation was named for the Secretary of the Navy.

The evidence submitted to the Board on Awards showed that Captain Hall had rendered excellent service. The fact that he was exonerated of all the allegations affecting his courage after the fullest investigation by a staff of distinguished officers and his demand for a court of equity at the first opportunity required recognition of his services. Captain Hall is now on the Newark, now on her way to New York from the Asiatic station.

MORAL AND PHYSICAL FORCE.

Dr. Kent Contrasts Them in a Talk on Christian Socialism. Dr. Alexander Kent, pastor of the People's Church, delivered an address on "Christian Socialism" at a meeting of the Bellamy Society last night in the parlors of the East Washington Young Men's Christian Association, 219 East Capitol Street.

The lecturer reviewed the doctrines of Prof. George D. Herron, as expressed in an address made before the Single Tax Club of Chicago, and took exception to the idea of a social organization not dependent upon force for its maintenance. He contended that all government rests upon force, and that government contemplates and implies the enforcement of a law.

Freedom, he held, was the right to control one's own body, and the right of the individual to make himself a burden upon others. Force, he declared, meant the right of the individual to force government, and while force as a physical element was more or less eliminated, moral force as a consequence to a greater extent.

An extended series of subjects presented was indulged in after the lecture.

His Wife Afraid of Him.

Arthur Johnson, colored, was in the United States marshal's office today charged with threatening his wife. The woman said she was in great fear of the man, and in default of a bond of $500 to keep the peace he went to jail for ninety days.

She has been out of the workhouse a couple of weeks and declared that, after a day's hard work at washing, she was lying down to have needed rest when a policeman came along and locked her up. She admitted having taken a drink or two, but she declared it to be an intoxicating effect on her. She was returned to the workhouse to spend thirty days more.

Convicted of Vagrancy.

Taylor Gibson, colored, indignantly protested when a policeman told Judge Kindall in the Police Court today that he was constantly drunk around the fashionable Water Street. He admitted he was drunk yesterday, but said that for days before that he had put in his time at building seats for the people who patronized the Central Union Mission. He thought this good service should weigh with the court in his behalf. The charge against him was vagrancy, and he went to the workhouse for thirty days.

A Positive Woman.

A woman has a right to be positive on matters which are matters of personal knowledge and experience. Every woman who has used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for diseases of the womanly organs is positive as to its wonderful curative value, and confidently recommends it to similar sufferers.

Women who suffer from inflammation, ulceration, female weakness, or nervous diseases caused by disease of the womanly organs will find a complete cure by the use of "Favorite Prescription."

"Several years ago I suffered severely from female weakness, proflaps, and menorrhagia, and used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with splendid effect," writes Fannie Sheldon, of Washington, Iowa. "I am glad I have not needed it again, but I have never since had a return of the old trouble would surely try 'Favorite Prescription.' I have recommended it to a number of my friends, and always told them to try a bottle, and if they are not benefited by it will pay for the medicine. In every case they have spoken in praise of it."
