If the Last Days of Pompeii Were As Exciting As the Closing Days of Yuletide

It surely must have been a terrible state of affairs, and yet with all the excitement and tumult, the rushing helter-skelter crowds, we are able to master the situation. It's always the case; as the days pass, crowds become bigger. Three more shopping days before you. We are just as well prepared to fill your wants tomorrow as we were a fortnight ago. Shopping must be done. If you look upon it as an ordeal, you'll forget it when you come here and see how easily and quickly we can serve you. Make it your business that tomorrow is the day that you are going to shop, and you can easily do it with such a line of big specials as we have laid before you at random:

The Book Question.

Here's where the old, the young are very much interested. It's a haven of delight for the lover of literature of facts and fiction. It's a studio where knowledge can be developed in every form. Our Book Department as you see it today is a complete store, where one can select from a tiny little picture book to a Jumbo Webster Dictionary. Let us suggest the following different kinds as very suitable presents for those that love to read:

Have You Placed Your Orders for Your Candies?

Now is the time to do it—we can give you better attention and better service. We have enough pure candies in our establishment to supply all homes. Our three great specialties represent over 50,000 pounds of pure, delicious sweets, which are as fresh as toothsome.

Our 12c quality contains more than 25 different kinds.

The 15c grade offers a score or more of chocolates and bon tons and every make of creams.

Our 20c fine candies, which are equal to the best, are represented by all kinds of fine chocolates, pure cream bon tons, crystal fruits, etc.

Sunday and day schools, churches and entertainments, and even private families who can use 25c candies or more can have a special discount; and also, if so desired, they can have half-pound boxes without any extra cost.

Give us your orders and we will serve you promptly.
